THE VERMILION STANDARD

Vol. L. No. 43. $2.50 a Year Vermilion, Alberta, Thursday, May 7th, 1959. 12 PAGES Single Copy 10c

Dave Stelfox, Assistant Supervisor of Crop Protection and Pest Control, Alberta Department of Agriculture, (left) is shown examining an exterminated rat colony on a farm near the Saskatchewan-Alberta border, and sad to relate, not many miles from Vermilion. If other provinces had combatted rats as consistently as Alberta, Canadians would be saved millions of dollars in damages and loss annually.

Salvation Army "Takes Light To Those Who Sit in Darkness"

Few organizations operate such wide-spreading facilities for the amelioration of want and suffering as The Salvation Army. In home, hostel or hospital, all its efforts are in the Name of Him who said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

By multiplied methods The Salvation Army takes "light to those who sit in darkness." Both by message and means, hope is inculcated and care is afforded those who are the victims of their own wrong-doing or of the misdeeds of others.

Those whom The Salvation Army help represent a variety of human needs. Some are forgotten. Some need material aid. Many are sick in spirit. It is the mission of The Salvation Army to help those who are at odds with themselves, their Maker, and the world. And its record during 85 years of activity is a successful one. The Salvation Army is good at its job!

The interest of The Army has meant the difference between health and sickness, between comfort and misery, even between life and death, to tens of thousands of people whose needs have been such as to bring them within the wide sweep of The Salvation Army's ministrations.

During the Red Shield appeal for funds currently in progress, the people of Vermilion and district will have an opportunity of helping The Salvation Army in its tremendous, self-imposed, need-demanding task. Let us all "give from the heart" to an organization which has abundantly demonstrated its willingness to "serve from the heart".

Large Patronage Dividend Being Paid

Alberta grain producers will benefit to the extent of $2,184,000 as a result of distribution currently being made by the Alberta Wheat Pool.

This represents the patronage dividend payment on grain delivered to Alberta Wheat Pool elevators during the 1957-58 crop season. The distribution includes a cash dividend of $548,000 and $1,636,000 credited to the members' accounts in the form of reserves.

Cheques covering the cash portion of the dividend and statements of the reserve credits have been mailed to Pool elevator agents for distribution to members.

The dividend amounts to 4.98 cents a bushel on wheat and flax deliveries and 2.49 cents on oats, barley and rye. The dividend, the second largest in the history of the organization, was authorized at the annual meeting of delegates last December.

Since its inception in 1923, the Alberta Wheat Pool has declared dividends amounting to nearly $23,100,000, of which $8,500,000 has been paid in cash and the balance in reserves. A substantial share of these reserves has since been redeemed in cash.

The reserves credited to member patrons, representing their ownership in the organization, are revolved according to a policy set by the delegates and thus always remain in the possession of men actively engaged in farming. This provides assurance that the Alberta Wheat Pool will always be entirely farmer-owned.

Catholic Church At Marwayne Blessed

MARWAYNE—The Marwayne Catholic Church was blessed on Sunday, April 26 and given the name Sacred Heart. In the absence of the parish priest, Father Nearing, who is away on holiday, Rev. Father Serette of Calgary, of the Franciscan Order, officiated. The altar was decorated with spring flowers sent by Leah Culford for the occasion and the congregation was joined by sisters from St. Joseph's, Clandonald. The official dedication will not be until a later date when the building is nearer completion.

The tea on Saturday, April 25, was most successful with visitors from Lloydminster, Streamstown, Clandonald, Dewberry and St. Andrew's. To them and to all friends and neighbors in Marwayne, the Sacred Heart Altar Society wish to express their sincere thanks and gratitude for making it such a happy occasion.

Thanks are also extended to St. George's W. A. for changing the date of their April tea to alow more time for working on the church building and also for the use of their chairs for the tea.

Whoopers Reported Flying North

WASHINGTON (AP) — All 32 whooping cranes which wintered at the Aransas Texas, national wildlife refuge apparently started their long northward flight by April 27th.

Reporting Friday, the U.S. fish and wildlife service said aerial surveys indicate the first 11 started the migration to the Northwest Territories before Apr. 3rd and the others left in small groups at irregular intervals.

The 32 whoopers totalled six more than began the northbound trip last year. They included the nine young — a record for any one recent year — that came south last fall.

In addition there are six whoopers in captivity, so the total count stood at 38 during the winter. The previous high since an annual census was started 20 years ago was 34 in the winter of 1949-50.

Fines Are In The Offing For Owners of Dogs At Large

Keep your dog at home Bill, don't take your dog to town, will have to be the theme song of all dog owners from now on if they want to stay inside the law. It is gardening time and dogs as always, are again proving a problem to the man who wants to keep his yard clean and neat, likes to see things grow, and his vegetables fit for consumption. A petition signed by 28 property owners in the east end of town, protesting the practise of allowing dogs to run at large, and generally creating a nuisance, was submitted to a recent meeting of the Vermilion town council.

Following discussion the town secretary was instructed to issue final warning to the effect that the owner of any dog, found running at large, or without a license, would be liable on summary conviction, to the penalties provided for a breach of the bylaw.

Superb Talk on "Vocational Service" Heard At Rotary

Ray Nelson, a past president of the Lloydminster Rotary Club, addressed the Vermilion Rotary Club at their last meeting. Mr. Nelson's subject was "vocational service." He explained that vocational service means to Rotary, to share the ideal of service with others who are not in Rotary.

In his very thoughtful address, Mr. Nelson stressed that the dominant impulse of vocational service is "helpfulness to others." He said that self-interest is easy to come by but this instinct should be subdued by an impulse to help our fellow man.

The speaker was introduced by Reg Mitchell and thanked on behalf of the club by Gordon Park for his very able talk. In adding his thanks, president Jim Robson said that it was a very well prepared and thought provoking discourse on a very important subject.

Three new members were introduced to the meeting. Claude Underdown was sponsored by Ernie Buckingham, Angus MacMillan by Reg Mitchell and Dan Lutzak by Ross Boake.

The chairman mentioned that one of the club's members, Bill McLaughlin and Mrs. McLaughlin, were closing their business and going on a year's vacation. The best wishes of the club for a well deserved holiday go out to this couple who have been in business in Vermilion for a good many years.

6in. Snowfall Brings Welcome Moisture

A six-inch snowfall on May 1 and 2 improved moisture conditions greatly in this area, meaning .59 inches of precipitation. A shower on Tuesday added .02 of an inch. Farmers claim this has provided moisture for the seed bed and germination, entirely lacking previously.

Precipitation by days was: May 1st, .08; May 2nd, .51; May 5th, .02.

Physical Education Program Held For Teachers at Kitscoty

First of Its Kind In Province; Director Dr. Maury Van Vliet

A very successful Physical Education Institute was carried out at the Kitscoty school gymnasium on Friday, May 1, with some 75 teachers of the Vermilion school division in attendance. The staff of University Physical Education Faculty was responsible for the organization of the program, working in co-operation with Mr. S. D. Simonson, Vermilion School Superintendent and the Kitscoty staff. Four classes of the Kitscoty school were used for class demonstrations when Miss Ruby Anderson, Instructor in elementary physical education and girls sport used the grade one and two class to demonstrate group games and exercises at the primary level. Miss Austin then chose grades five and six to demonstrate rhythmic exercises in the junior grades. Miss Austin also worked with a class of grade nine and ten girls to demonstrate the development of a lesson in badminton with particular attention to good form in learning this game. Mr. Afleck, the swimming, soccer, and volleyball instructor at the University put on the most extensive work-out of the day when he kept a class of twenty-eight grade nine and ten boys busy with warm-up exercises, and practise in dash starting and high jump.

Dr. Maury Van Vliet, the physical education director and well-known basketball coach co-ordinated these activities and in between sessions led discussions on the various problems involved in the teaching of physical education in our schools.

Also accompanying Dr. Van Vliet, and assisting in the discussions were five other members of the physical education staff, viz. Mr. McLachlin — Track and field coach. Steve Mendryk — Football and basketball coach of the Golden Bears. Murray Smith — Swimming coach. Clare Drake — Hockey coach. Art Ericcson — Physical education and health instructor.

This was the first institute of this kind to be held in the province, and the assembled teachers were enthusiastic in their praise of the way in which it had been organized and carried out.

The Kitscoty United Church W. A. catered to a luncheon in the Tracy Memorial Hall attended by over eighty guests.

New Anglican Rector Inducted At Impressive Service Here

Right Rev. H. H. Clark, Anglican Bishop of Edmonton Diocese, inducted Rev. W. A. Champness as rector of St. Saviour's church at an evening service on Tuesday of this week.

At the service were Arcdeacon T. W. Teape, a former rector of the parish, and Rev. Mr. Ingram of Edgerton who acted as the Bishop's chaplain. Other clergy attending were Rev. John Flagler of Wainwright, Rev. Andy Potter of Kitscoty, and Rev. Harry Shell of Mannville.

Rev. Flagier preached the sermon. The choir rendered an anthem and led the appropriate hymns at the very impressive service.

After the induction service, the congregation proceeded to the parish hall where everyone met the new rector and Mrs. Champness.

Addresses of welcome were made by the Bishop, by Archdeacon Teape, by all the Anglican clergy present and by Rev. Chauncey MacKay on behalf of the ministerial association of Vermilion.

Words of welcome were also given by the church wardens, L. H. Pockett and E. H. Buckingham and by Alex Palin. Mrs. Burdett and Mrs. Albert Hareuther brought greetings from the two W.A. groups. Jim Robson was chairman of the gathering.

Mr. Champness replied very suitably. He said that he had lived in Manitoba nearly all his life and for the past seven years he was rector of the Anglican church at Swan River, Manitoba. Mr. Champness said that he and his wife were greatly impressed with Vermilion and district and were looking forward to serving the parish of St. Saviour's and the three other congregations situated at Islay, Pleasant Valley and King Edward.

Final Services At Alliance Chapel

The Prophetic Conference at the Alliance Chapel with Dr. Myrrdin Lewis of Birmingham, England as special guest speaker will conclude this week end with five great services, Friday and Saturday at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday at 11:30 a.m., 3:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Please note changes in times of services. Dr. Lewis will also be heard over radio station CKSA Lloydminster on Sunday at 11:30 a.m. which service was taped earlier for broadcast.

Much interest has been shown in the messages of Dr. Lewis who presents his material in graphic form with the use of charts. The services are especially informative to those who are concerned about world events in the light of scriptural prophecy.

Many have been attending the services from outside points: — Killam, Elk Point, Wainwright, Lloydminster, Mannville and elsewhere.

Community Art Class Complete Successful '58-59 Season

The last meeting of the Vermilion Community Art Class was held April 23 in the Intermediate school, thus winding up a very successful 58-59 season. Though the art class did not turn out as many finished paintings as the previous year, it was felt that the instruction in the basic principles of creative drawing by Prof. Wohlfarth, were of great help to the pupils. The hints given by Mr. Lindsey Evens of Lloydminster in regard to materials, and small detail in technique were of great help and encouragement.

Prof. Wohlfarth gave seven lectures in all this past season, and we are assured that we shall have him regularly once a month for the coming 59-60 season, beginning either in September or October.

Mr. Lindsey Evens, due to poor transportation connections, was unable to attend more than a few of the classes scheduled for him.

The class would also like to extend their thanks to the two young ladies who acted as models for them. Their patient endurance in holding specified poses for indefinite periods of time was very much appreciated.

I might add that due to the climatic conditions of this country and of the classroom and the inexperience of the artists, our models did not pose as scantily clad as some of our critics would like to assume.

Many thanks go to Mr. Stewart, principal of the intermediate school for the use of a class room for the season.

The executive for the coming season was chosen and are as follows: — Mrs. Muriel Long, president; Mrs. Maxine King, secretary-treasurer; Directors — Mrs. Corley, Mrs. Ann Hareuther; Mr. G. C. Rampling, Ways and Means committee — Mrs. Clarke and Mrs. Anderson; Mr. M. Van Wageningen is press reporter.

Mrs. Muriel Long and Mrs. Clark were chosen to go to the University short course for community art class supervisors on May 16 and 18th at the U. of A.

We are planning to have the senior students act as part time instructors for the new members this coming season, on such subjects as basic drawing, art appreciation and basic art structure. The fee for the 59-60 season will be five dollars for beginners and eight dollars for the senior students.

Please feel free to get information on the art class from any of the above named executive, and if you have the creative urge to do something a little bit different, that has unlimited possibilities, do join us won't you? —Contributed.

Let's Keep In Front

As the town of Vermilion has its feet firmly on the ground both financially and physically, this would seem an opportune time to look for ways of keeping the town a jump ahead of its requirements. There are several projects which might well be considered: —

(1) Cement curbs and gutters would be desirable and would result in neater streets and greater beautification and care of boulevards by residents. Extra money for such purposes will be available from the Alberta government in 1960 for this purpose.

(2) Hard surfacing of a few more blocks. A street to be considered would be railway avenue which carries so much heavy truck traffic to elevators and the stockyards. Money for hard surfacing for towns and villages is on the agenda for the five year plan for 1960. There is no doubt but that there will be a rush for this help.

(3) Sewer and water services for a new residential subdivision. This is rapidly becoming necessary as choice of building lots is again limited. Money for this purpose is also available under the municipal finance plan.

When there is nothing pressing seems to be the logical time to prepare for the future — so let's look ahead a little.

Mother's Day Has Interesting History

Most of us will agree that isn't completely true, but it does seem to hold for many of the customs we observe. Take Mother's Day, Sunday, May 10, for instance. The name applied to the day itself may be relatively new — 45 years in Canada and the U. S. — but its meaning goes back into man's dim past.

According to a fact sheet compiled by Coutts Hallmark Cards, man has for centuries shown his esteem for mother in one way or another.

In 1959, he will send her greeting card or flowers — or both. But the Romans also had a way of showing the reverence in which they held mother. Each year they held a festival in honor of Hilaria, the Mother Goddess.

In Mexico, more than 1,000 years ago, the Nahuan Indians held flower festivals for Chicomecoatl, the Earth Mother Goddess. The people of Asia Minor also had a mother goddess — Rhea — and set aside a day for her.

Early in the 17th century, England developed the practice of "going a mothering." This custom saw boys and girls, working away from home, going home to spend "Mothering Sunday" — still celebrated in many parts of England — with their families.

Because many of the youngsters had to walk great distances to get home, churches often opened their doors to feed them. At home, the young travelers would present their mothers with gifts of violets and cakes.

In Canada and the U. S. Mother's Day was instituted as a result of the efforts of a Philadelphia Sunday School teacher, Miss Anna M. Jarvis. She urged that people somehow show their esteem for their mothers and held a memorial service for her own mother in a Methodist church.

It didn't take long for the idea to catch on. And in 1914, President Wilson made it official in the U. S. He signed a Congressional resolution designating the second Sunday of each May, "Mother's Day."

The practice soon spread into Canada. And in 1920, Canadian newspapers reported that the day was being widely observed in many sections of the country. Mother's Day is now celebrated coast to coast.

Tourist Season Shapes Up As Best Yet

Dan E. C. Campbell, director of the travel bureau, says the upcoming tourist season in Alberta shapes up as a good one on all counts.

18,605 INQUIRIES

Last week his office had received 18,605 inquiries from potential visitors, compared with 14,780 at the same time last year.

To meet the demand for information on Alberta, the bureau has stocked 100,000 copies of a new combination road map and tourist brochure, along with the same number of regular road maps.

Every person who writes for information receives the map-brochure along with an assortment of other pamphlets and booklets which paint a glowing picture of holiday attractions in Alberta.

In addition to the literature sent out by mail, the travel bureau supplies maps and pamphlets to some 1,100 outlets all over the continent. Mostly, they go to motor association offices, travel bureaus and chambers of commerce.

The tourist industry has become big business in Alberta. This year the travel bureau is spending more than $130,000 on advertising and promotion.

Alberta Strengthens Efforts To Stem Objectionable Literature

Magazine and periodical distributors in Alberta will strengthen their efforts to stem the influx of undesirable reading material on the province's news stands. The distributors made the offer at a meeting in the Legislative Buildings on Wednesday with the Alberta Board of Objectionable Publications.

News stand operators are not required to accept for sale any publication, the Board was told. Magazines they display are there by their own choice. Board members felt expressed public disapproval would encourage their withdrawal.

The meeting, chaired by the Board Chairman, Mrs. A. J. Moore, was attended by the Hon. A. R. Patrick, Minister of Economic Affairs, Ralph A. Moore, deputy minister, and H. G. Wilson, deputy attorney general of Alberta.

GREEN ACRES

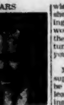
District Agriculturist.

SCRUB BOARS



M. D. No. 71 is a pure bred sire area for swine as well as cattle as of Nov., 1958. The field supervisor will be making checks during this spring and summer throughout the M. D. If you have not got rid of that scrub boar now's the time to do it.

TREES

Some excellent trees are being sent out by the Department of Agriculture this spring. The only way that advantage can be taken of these fine specimens is to plant them on arrival. The roots must not be allowed to dry out and if possible put some water in the hole before planting. Trees are a rugged crop only requiring moisture and a little space to survive. For a successful shelter belt: 1st, cultivate to keep out the grass and conserve the moisture; and 2nd, provide a fence to protect the trees from livestock.

RENOVATING GRASS INFESTED TREES

A shelter belt over-run with grass has always responded to a good man with a good shovel. However, we live in a land of miracles and the new miracle is "Dalapon". One ounce to a gallon of water applied in the spring when the grass is 8 inches high. Caution! Be careful! Bird Cherry and Caragana will die as well as the grass but native aspen and northwest poplars come through fine. Anyone wishing to experiment with that shelterbelt that seems to be going behind rather than ahead would be well advised to call at the office of the district agriculturist for further information. If you do try it, be careful!

SHEEP

Mr. A. J. Charnetski, livestock supervisor, says the sheep should be all dewormed before they leave winter quarters. This will insure a clean flock all summer on pasture. Phenothiazine is still the treatment. To be sure of the lambs and prevent reinfestation, mix one pound phenothiazine with nine pounds of salt and keep in boxes before sheep at all times.

WILD OATS

Despite all the articles about a chemical for wild oat control there isn't one without a bug in it. When the discussion is all finished it still is delayed seeding. Early tilling aerates the soil and with the recent snow a fair kill could be made this spring. Possibly, in this area the field to control wild oats is the one to grow green feed on.

4-H

Alberta's minister of agriculture has announced that Miss Marjorie Newman of Blackie will represent Alberta at the National 4-H conference in Washington, June 13 to 19. This is the highest award for 4-H members in the United States and is an exchange for American 4-H members who will attend the National Club week at Toronto in November. Miss Newman has been an outstanding 4-H member belonging to various clubs. It is to be hoped that the future holds this award for a 4-H member from this area.

The week of May 11th to 16th has been designated as Roasting Chicken Week. Why not serve chicken at least once that week?

Here are some of the rules to keep in mind when roasting a chicken:

1. Place bird, breast down, on rack in uncovered pan with no water or grease added. Baste occasionally with fat during the roasting. Turn bird on back to brown uniformly during last hour of roasting. The birds may be wrapped and roasted in parchment or aluminum foil. Remember that the shiny side reflects heat, the dull side absorbs.

2. There can be no set rules for time required to roast poultry. A chicken, 4 to 6 or 8 pounds, dressed weight, should roast approximately 30 minutes per pound at 300 to 325 degrees F.

To test for doneness run a metal skewer or long fork into the thickest part of the breast (also into thigh next to breast). If meat is tender and juice does not show a reddish tinge, the bird is done. If using a meat thermometer placed in the centre of the thigh it should read 190 degrees F or if placed in centre of stuffing, 180 degrees F.

A good bulletin, Poultry Guide, is available free of charge from Marketing Branch, Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

OUR LETTER FROM EDMONTON

Alberta To Benefit By U.S. Tourist Travel To Alaska

by KEN MASON

EDMONTON — Earlier this year when the U. S. government granted statehood to Alaska, the Alberta government saw an opportunity to cash in.

Officials of the province's travel bureau foresaw a major upsurge in commercial and tourist traffic to Alaska, quickly geared Alberta's tourist promotion campaign to take maximum advantage of it.

GOOD PROMOTION CAMPAIGN

Advertisements slated to appear in United States national magazines and major newspapers were headed up with the slogan: "The paved corridor to the Alaska Highway," and carried maps showing Alberta's main north-south highway system leading to the Alaska route.

Tourist brochures, booklets, pamphlets and maps carried the same message to an American public which was showing great interest in the country's 49th state.

MANY INQUIRIES

Requests for information on Alberta were coming into the travel bureau office in the Legislative building at an unprecedented rate. On one day alone the bureau received 680 inquiries. One stenographer is kept busy every day doing nothing but type addresses on packages of literature sent out to everyone who asks for information.

American visitors who make the trip to Alaska early in the season are going to wonder if they can believe everything they read, because the corridor to the Alaska highway is not yet paved all the way. There are a few miles of the Whitecourt Valleyview cutoff route still to be blacktopped, but the highways department promises it will be done this summer.

OTTAWA HOLDING BACK

Travel officials feel Alberta could really cash in if the road were paved all the way to Alaska. The Legislature passed a resolution this year urging Ottawa to take up an offer from the U. S. government to share the cost of paving the Canadian section of the Alaska highway, but Ottawa doesn't seem to be interested.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Your vacation trip will be easier and more fun if your children know how to be safe passengers. Here are some tips for teaching them:

Have them sit squarely back on the seat. Adult passengers should hold very young children on their laps. Use special car seats for infants.

For water or soft drinks en route use paper cups.

Break up long stretches of driving by frequent stops to keep the children from becoming too restless.

Do not permit any climbing from the back to the front seat while the car is in motion. Always pull off the road and stop before permitting such a change.

No leaning out of windows, no fooling with door handles, shift lever, or ignition key.

No candy wrappers (or other waste material) should be tossed out of the windows to clutter up the highways. No toy airplanes, for example, to be held out the window.

No roughhouse allowed. Guessing or word games should keep older children entertained. For the very small fry — toys of plastic or rubber.

The don't's are basic. But the games and toys are important. Keep the children interested, and it's easier to keep them happy and safe.

Alberta Girl To Attend National 4-H Conference

The Minister of Agriculture has announced the selection of Miss Marjorie Newman of Blackie to represent Alberta on the Canadian delegation to the 4-H conference in Washington. This is the first time Canada has been invited to participate in the conference which will be held June 13th to 19th. It is the highest award trip offered to 4-H members in the U.S. with only four members from each state allowed to attend.

Miss Newman who is 18, has just completed her first year at the Olds School of Agriculture. She has an impressive record in 4-H work which includes a total of projects completed in Foods, Clothing, Garden, Beef and Sheep clubs. While carrying these projects she has held all offices at various times and for two was junior leader. As an efficiency winner she attended Club Week where she won a scholarship to the Olds School of Agriculture. Last year she represented her district at provincial eliminations. Besides 4-H work Miss Newman has been active on the Students' Union and in various sports.

This fall a delegation of ten will be sent from the U.S. to take part in the National 4-H Club Week program which will be held in Toronto at the time of the Royal Winter Fair.

Many of such people are refugees, and the Bible Society assists in making them feel at home by making available the Word of God in their own tongue.

Guest Speakers Impress Audience

The annual Sportsman's dinner on Wednesday evening of last week came up to all advance notices, the guest speakers, all sportsmen of dominion and provincial wide fame, impressed the audience by remarks made. All were good speakers, with a humorous side as well as a serious one to their talks. One hundred and thirty-five sat down to the sumptuous meal served by the Ladies of the Royal Purple. Of this number some twelve were guests, while the Tiger hockey players just paid the actual cost of the meal as charged by the caterers.

Jack Brown was chairman and outlined the purposes of the banquet which were two - fold, firstly to bring athletes of note to Vermilion so that local people can meet them, and secondly to raise funds to see that hockey continues to flourish in Vermilion. Jack then turned the chores of the evening over to Don Chevrier, possibly better known by his voice than any other man in Alberta, as far as this district is concerned, because Don is the sports director of CJCA.

Don started off by setting everybody's mind at rest regarding the personnel seated at the head table, namely Ed Kassian, a former member of the world champion Penticton Vs; our own Brent Macnab, of the Vancouver Canucks; Hal Pawson, sports editor of the Edmonton Journal; Mayor M. Hill; Herbie Olson, Alberta curling champion and runner-up to the Macdonald Brier winner; Bill Warwick of the famous Warwick brothers of Penticton V fame; Jack Brown, president of the Tigers' hockey club; Vic Chapman, who has recently come from Vancouver Lions to join the Edmonton Eskimo football club; Metro Prystai of National hockey league; another one of the famous Warwick's, Dick; A. M. West who presented the most valuable player award, the Craig trophy, to Hedley Dennill of the Tigers, and Ashley H. Cooper, who does his best to cover the local picture for sportsmen.

The evening was completed by a movie of the 1955 Penticton Vs winning the world hockey championship against the Russian team. The two Warwick brothers who were in attendance at the gathering, were very much in the centre of the hockey action throughout.

From here on read what Hal Pawson, sports editor of the Edmonton Journal, had to say about the Vermilion Sportsmen's dinner, in his column "The Sporting Periscope".

TIGER EXECUTIVE AND PLAYERS INTRODUCED

Members of the Tigers' executive were introduced including Irvin Gordon, Russell Carroll, Reg Ireland, Hal Joa, Murray Millar, and of course the chairman himself Jack Brown, as well as quite a number of the Tiger players, Jim Reid, Stew Barr, Bob Waldenberger, Bruce Anderson, the Kassian brothers, Ferguson, Doc Bronson, Stewart Cooper, Hedley Dennill, Bill Romanchuk, Sandy Ewen.

TIGER BY THE TAIL

To hear the Vermilion Tigers tell it, the Eastern Alberta Hockey League could be in danger of pricing itself out of existence. The trouble is imports, claim the importless Tigers who finished last in 1959 as the penalty for bucking the trend toward players brought in at so much per game.

The league troubles in general, and the Tigers' sad tale in particular, were subject of much conversation — little of it light — at a hockey dinner last night in Vermilion on behalf of the club. The Tigers ended up something like $700 in the red but more than 100 supporters turned out at $5 per head to help reduce the national debt.

The fear is that imports — mainly chaps from Edmonton who play for $15 or so a game — first will sign the death warrants for "town hockey teams" in the area, and then will bring about the collapse of the league because the towns involved have no chance of meeting their budgets. They claimed title-winning Lashburn, Sask., despite eight playoff gates, still lost money.

"The Tigers," said the dinner chairman Jack Brown, "were organized so that our juveniles would have a team to play for when they graduated from juvenile. Because of imports elsewhere in the loop, our graduating juveniles no longer are good enough. We can't stand the large budget for imports and we don't think the others can. Unless we return to town teams, the league could shortly go under. I think we'll be back next season, but let us hope the towns in the league see the danger and return to the kind of a loop which has the boys of one town playing the boys of another."

HOCKEY SUICIDE

So who cares if the Eastern Alberta league folds? Few do, outside of the area in question, it would seem, but hockey at large should. Price town hockey out of existence because of imports and all hockey has added to its own problems. The youngsters will give up the game before they start. Town teams don't have to be Allan Cup contenders. If the level of competition in their own league is level, the communities, their youth and hockey is served. That is a healthy situation, but the import policy for places like Vegreville, Vermilion and such centres is certain hockey suicide.

BRENT HANGS UP SKATES

A guest at last night's Vermilion dinner, Brent Macnab, said that when Vancouver Canucks were knocked out of the playoffs by the President's Cup winners, Seattle Totems, it was his last WHL hockey game. "I'm quitting to stay home, in one place. My girl is ready to start school and while hockey was a great life, I won't lug her around the continent the way a minor league career demands . . ."

Don Chevrier did a bang-up emcee job on the dinner, which saw two of the three Warwicks, Bill and Dick, in fine fettle on the subject of the 1955 Penticton Vs world hockey triumph over Russian . . . Ex-V (1955) Ed Kassian, now a Vegreville haberdasher, also was a speaker and broke the news that Vegreville is losing its rink, which will be converted into a "cow palace," and probably is out of hockey next winter.

BAD YEAR — SECOND PLACE?

New Eskimo Vic Chapman stopped things when he told the gathering: "Everybody says the Eskimos had a bad year. Second place is bad? You should have been following football where I came from, Vancouver. Second place would be heaven for Lion fans. I asked to be traded as the Lions wouldn't meet my salary demands. They want to know where I'd like to go, so I told them I always liked the way football operated in Edmonton. Here I am. It's odd that the fellow they traded the Esks for me was a close friend, Ted Tully. We played junior together in Vancouver.

DENNILL WINS AWARD

Brier bridesmaid Herb Olson, Mayor Hill, the Flyers, Metro Prystai, whose after-dinner footwork is surprisingly fast for a man in a 15-pound leg cast, and Albert West, also added to the Vermilion program. Albert presented the Craig trophy, for the most valuable Tiger, to Hedley Dennill. Olson, loser in a Brier play-off to Regina's Ernie Richardson, indicated all is not lost. "There is a suggestion," he said, "that the Dominion Curling Association may consider sending our rink to the Olympics at Squaw Valley, Calif., along with the Richardsons."

Ellsworth District Pioneer Passes

A pioneer of the Ellsworth district north of Dewberry, Mrs. Herbert Parker passed away at the nursing home in Athabasca on April 13th. She was 78 years of age and had lived in Alberta since 1882.

Mrs. Parker was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Price and was born on June 25th, 1880 at the Indian camp where the city of Saskatoon now stands, being the first white child born there. Her parents migrated from the United States late in the 1870s, stopping at the site of Saskatoon where they lived right beside the camp of Big Bear, Chief of the Cree Indians. The Price family moved to Edmonton by prairie schooner in 1882 and settled on a farm on the Fort Trail, this is now known as the Belmont farm.

Following the Riel rebellion of 1885 they moved to Gwynne east of Wetaskiwin. During the rebellion Mrs. Parker's father served as a teamster for the R.C.M.P.

In 1904 she was married to Herbert Parker, the local school teacher who boarded with her parents. Their son Wilbur was born in 1907. Mr. and Mrs. Parker moved up to their homestead in the Ellsworth district in June, 1908, where Mr. Parker taught the Ellsworth school from 1909 to 1922. Continuing their farming operations Mr. and Mrs. Parker took an active part in community affairs. Mr Parker being secretary-treasurer of the Ethelwyn M.D. No. 512 for a number of years. Their only child Wilbur was accidentally killed in 1925 and Mrs. Parker was predeceased by her husband in 1947. Shortly after his death Mrs. Parker had a sale, rented her farm and moved to Camrose and lived with her brother Tom. From there she went to Edmonton to take care of her sister. Whilst there she had the misfortune to break her leg and after a long convalescence Mrs. Parker visited at several nieces' and friends' homes. In October, 1954, Mr. and Mrs Eby Walker drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Shermack at Camrose and brought Mrs. Parker back with them to assist in nursing Mrs. R. E. Walker. In June 1955, Mrs. Parker bought a little house in Dewberry, residing there for a short time, but suffered ill health and spent a good deal of time in the Islay hospital. From there she was taken to the Jubilee home in Lloydminster where she remained a guest until taken ill and hospitalized. About the first of March she was removed to the Nursing home at Athabasca.

Mrs. Parker is survived by two brothers, Tom of Camrose, and Dick of Athabasca, and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral service was held at Dewberry United church on April 18th, the Rev. Shortt of Kitscoty officiating, with interment in the family plot in Dewberry cemetery. Mrs Parker's favorite hymns, "Nearer My God To Thee", and "What A Friend We Have In Jesus" were sung. Mrs. Donald Maddex rendered the solo "In The Garden". During the recessional the choir sang "Jesus Is Tenderly Calling Me Home".

The pallbearers were Mr. Fred Maddex, Mr. Arthur Moorcroft, Stewart Wood, Norman Mathison, O'dell Curtis and Eby Walker. There was a good attendance at the church, testifying to the esteem in which the deceased was held. Both brothers and other relatives were present, coming quite a distance.

Floral tributes were received from:

Wheat Worries

Seldom, since commercial wheat growing began at the turn of the century, have our prairie farmers faced such a combination of uncertainties, says Gordon L. Smith in The Financial Post.

The ground is so dry in some areas that they don't know whether the seed now being sown will germinate or grow. If it does will the grasshoppers get it?

And finally, supposing there is another good growing season and a fair crop produced, where and when with world markets buried under record carryover, can they hope to market it.

But farming has always been a gamble, and wheat growing perhaps the biggest gamble of all.

If farmers at seeding time stopped to think of all the hazards they face, Western Canada would still be virgin buffalo pasture.

Our Apologies!

It smells on Riverside Drive! Last Monday night at 2 a.m., our dog (that big ferocious looking police dog) barked and barked and would not be quiet. Just to make her be quiet, she was let out of her kennel, but what happened? She was not chasing a dog, a prowler, or a cat — no, much worse, just a skunk, and one very much able to take care of itself. The skunk did not like the dog, refused to run from it and in time honored fashion defended itself as well and devastatingly as it knows how.

"Skunk" will probably be satisfied to learn that the whole neighborhood (reports came in from 4 blocks away) will have smelled what has taken place. As for the dog, she still looks like a police dog, but smells very much like the well known little black and white animal

We wish to extend our sincere apologies to the people of the neighborhood for having unwittingly been the cause of the big smell. It is to be hoped that the skunk and the smell will in time disappear.

Georg Conrad.

Bride-Elect Feted At Showers

Preceding her marriage to Mr. Ken Holgate on May 9th, Miss Velma Milligan has been entertained at two pre-nuptial showers in the past few weeks.

Miss Jean Burdett and Mrs. Burdett entertained at their home on Thursday, April 23, when the telephone staff and former school friends gathered to honour Velma.

Upon her arrival, Velma was seated in a gaily decorated chair and a corsage of pink carnations was pinned at her shoulder. The twenty guests then enjoyed several hilarious games and contests after which the bride-elect was presented with many beautiful and useful gifts, enclosed in a replica of a telephone booth, complete with telephone. After opening each of the gifts, Velma sincerely thanked each one present. A delicious lunch was served, bringing the enjoyable evening to a close.

Mrs. B. Risdale, Mrs. J. Fooks and Mrs. W. Novak were hostesses at the Novak home on Thursday, April 28 for a miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Velma Milligan.

Two amusing contests entertained the guests after which Pam and Pat Novak presented the gifts in a decorated basket topped with a doll dressed as a bride.

The hostess closed the evening with a delicious lunch.

Wildmere Winks

Congratulations to Sue and Ed Frissell for a long and happy married life. The writer was unable to attend the wedding but heard that it was lovely.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Wm. Smith and Mrs. C. Cruthers were callers at the Wallington home for a short visit.

Last Wednesday, a bee was held at our little church and the chimney was re-built, the ground around the church was worked and seeded to grass, and the ladies cleaned the windows and the inside of the church. It's wonderful what a number of hands can accomplish in a short time.

It was just grand to see the fall of wet snow this past week. The moisture was very badly needed.

Sunday saw our first church service by our student, Mr. Nicholls. He had caught a bad cold coming west and it was hard for him to speak but he gave a very interesting sermon on "why are we here?" Next Sunday they are going to have Sunday School just before church as teachers are very scarce this year. Sunday School will be at 7:30 with church immediately following.

A good crowd attended Mr. Fortune's sale last Tuesday and everything sold very well. This fine couple are moving to Lloydminster to make their home. Johnny Watson has bought their farm.

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to Mrs. John Wyley and son on the passing of a loving husband and father. Mr. Wyley has been in failing health for sometime and at the time of his death was a patient in Islay hospital.

Last Sunday Mrs. Cruthers and Mrs. Gibson had their annual birthday supper together with their families at the Gibson home in Basswood. May you be able to enjoy these yearly affairs a good long while folks!

We were pleased to hear that Johnny Martin was a little better after his long seige of the 'flu. He is at present in an Edmonton hospital.

Guides & Brownies

Our last regular meeting of the Mothers' Association was held on April 14 with a very small turnout of mothers. The four leaders and two representatives were on hand with a wealth of useful information they had received at the annual meeting held at the MacDonald hotel the previous week. We feel that the reports were so helpful that we are urgently requesting each and every mother of a Guide or Brownie to be present at the next meeting when we will be calling on our six delegates to summarize their reports again. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, May 12 at 2:30 sharp, in the Scout Hall.

As a result of the tea and bake sale, the Mothers' Association will purchase subflooring and tile for the kitchen at the Scout Hall.

Arrangements are nearly complete for a Guide and Brownie rally to be held at Camp Wainwright on May 30.

Also, we have received confirmation that the Guides and Brownies will have a front row view of the Royal Tour as it passes through Wainwright. All of these things are taking a lot of extra planning and work on the part of the leaders and executive so that your daughter may enjoy these occasions so mothers, please give us your support and be at the next regular meeting.

News from Dewberry

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Tom West, Mr. and Mrs. S. Trach and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson on the birth of a baby daughter to each home.

Another of our old timers, Mrs. Margaret Parker, has passed away at the age of seventy-eight years. Our sympathy is extended to all who mourn her loss.

A grass fire on Saturday, Apl. 18 brought the fire brigade out in quick style. It was thought at first that the school was on fire but fortunately it was only the grass behind the Kruger home which had started from burning trash blowing out of the garbage can.

A horticulture club has been started in Dewberry. The first meeting was held on April 21st. The officers are Mrs. Marie Brett, president; Mrs H. Craige, vice-president; and Mrs. M. Philbin, secretary. It is hoped that there will be a good attendance at the meeting on the 28th. Anyone interested in gardening should join the club. The date of the next meeting will be announced and we hope to see many new members. Everyone is welcome.

A surprise farewell party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hardstaff on the evening of April 16. Around 45 friends and neighbors gathered to wish them well prior to their moving to their new home ten miles south of Vermilion. On behalf of all who were there and the well wishers who were unable to attend, Mrs. Proud presented Mrs. Hardstaff with a bedspread and Mr. George Fluney presented Mr. Hardstaff with a tool chest. This well known couple and family will be missed in the district. They have resided in the Irwinville district since shortly after they were married. On thanking the company for the gifts and the party, both said it had been a complete surprise to them. The boys were aware of the surprise party but they kept the secret very well. The ladies brought lunch and the servituers were Mrs. Proud and Mrs. Fluney. Good luck, Jack and Elsie.

The junior and senior C. G. I. T. were hostesses at a tea and bazaar in the hall on Saturday, April 25. It was well attended and enjoyed. Everyone had high praise for the young folks and their leaders.

A number of ladies from Dewberry and Clandonald attended the tea and bake sale sponsored by the ladies of the Altar Society in Marwayne on April 25 in the new Catholic church there. The ladies and their helpers are to be congratulated on the success of their efforts. Rev. Father Hensel also enjoyed his tea there.

We are pleased to see Mrs. Vic Dennill home again after her operation and hope she is feeling better now. Also, it was nice to see Mrs. Kiss and June Craige around after being in hospital. Mr. Munro is also feeling better after his operation but the flu bug had him feeling poorly for a while. Mrs. Munro ably carried on the work in the Post Office, assisted by Bill Wilkinson during Mr. Munro's absence.

Flu has been and still is making the rounds in Dewberry.

We hope Mrs. F. Parr is home from hospital and feeling better.

Councillor John Anderson was one of the sixty councillors from northern Alberta who were guests of the caterpillar tractor company for northern Alberta. They flew from Edmonton by P. W. airlines in a D.C. 4 to Peoria, Illinois and then went by but to Decator where all rubber-tired caterpillar equipment is assembled. A most interesting time was had viewing the company works and all enjoyed the plane rides and the sight-seeing. They left on Tuesday morning and returned on Friday at midnight. It was an unforgettable experience.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Harvey had the misfortune to lose their barn and a grain bin by fire on Wednesday night. Also lost in the fire was a saddle horse, four pigs, little chickens and a few turkeys, harness, a saddle and a cream separator. The Harveys were unaware of the fire until Gene Chester, Canadian Utility workman, came to check on the power failure and wakened them. Already neighbors and friends have joined forces and a new barn is under construction.

The Explorers were busy on May 1st delivering May baskets containing goodies and flowers for the older people in town.

HOW KITCHENER BECAME CANADA'S SAFEST CITY

Your traffic patrol leaders like John Mueller, above, 13, have played a large role in drastically reducing traffic fatalities in Kitchener, Ont. Trained by Kitchener's police, the youngsters have helped the city establish a traffic record for Canadian cities over 40,000. In 1948, the city had 10 fatalities. But in 1957, only two persons died and in 1958 the fatalities were lowered to one. Police, who have spent long hours patrolling traffic and giving safety lectures, are proud that Kitchener has gone 411 straight days without a fatality.

NEWS from ISLAY

Two old time settlers have passed on in the Islay hospital, Mr. Jack Wylie, who farmed 14 miles south of Islay for many years, and Mr. Jim Gray of Dewberry. Sympathy is extended to the families of these two fine men.

As we write we learn that Bill McFadyen underwent an operation for appendicitis on Sunday in the Islay hospital. Speedy recovery is wished you Bill.

Rev. Mr. Smith of "The Mission to Lepers", visited Islay Sunday school in the morning after visiting Kitscoty Sunday school. He was also present at the Islay church service at 3 p.m. showing pictures of the work being carried on.

Islay 4-H Food club met Apr. 27th at the home of the leader, Mrs. Moncrieff. Lynne was in the chair. Roll call was answered by a hint for good meal planning. The demonstrations were a plain butter cake by Sharon and Lynne. All took a turn at creaming the butter and sugar to see if it would turn out like whipped cream. Grace Simmons prepared a cooked cereal; Sandra Bell made scrambled eggs. The 'three little sisters' made icing for the cake. Perhaps it was a good night to bake a cake as two of our members had birthdays. One was the same day and the other the day before. Lunch was scrambled eggs, delicious cake and koolade. Next meeting is May 11th and roll call is "my good breakfast".

Achievement day of the Islay 4-H Food club will be May 13th at 8 p.m. in the church hall. All mothers and fathers too, and young girls are especially invited to this important event. Come and boost for your 4-H girls and their leader! Remember please, that much time has been donated in the leadership of all such clubs.

Tuesday, 12 noon sharp — Boom! 12:10 — Boom! And we feel a bit lifted as if the earth pushed up a bit. Folks run out to the street, a neighbor rushes in and says "What is that noise, is it gas explosions?" So we call up Ev Inman to see if the gas line is O.K. Yes, it is, but the noise was genuine. Dave Martin blasting rock. Should warn the public Dave when such events are going to happen. Remember after the safe blowing recently nerves are still shaky.

We, in Islay, welcome our neighbor Mrs. Steinhauer to our little town. All hope she enjoys her new home here.

Mrs. Gabrielson who spent the winter at the Martin's, returned to her home last week.

On Monday, May 4th Mrs. Ollie Midgley spent the day with her mother Mrs. Hancock while the Martins were in Vermilion.

Last Sunday evening some of the W. M. S. members attended the C. G. I. T. affiliation service at the Dewberry church as the group were affiliating with the Islay United church W. M. S. Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Kruger are leaders of the group of 23 girls. The girls had made a wool afghan and hand-worked bedside towels which were presented to the Islay W. M. S. along with a cash gift. After the affiliation service, Mrs. Shortt gave the address to the girls — and a very thought-provoking one it was. Following this, a very tasty lunch was served.

That is the most perfect government under which a wrong to the humblest is an affront to all.

— Solon.

News from Tulliby Lake

Miss Margaret Nelson will be leaving the Nursing station at the end of April. Her intentions are to make a one month stay in Edmonton and then proceed on to Hawaii for a holiday. She eventually plans on returning to her native homeland of Scotland. No replacement for Miss Nelson at the Nursing station has been decided upon as yet.

Real estate has been changing hands at Tulliby Lake. Roy Wagner has purchased the southwest quarter of the former Margaret Hall holdings from Percy Heelan. Bill Roberton has sold his quarter to Percy Heelan.

Wesley Hayes has once again been appointed by the authorities as fire ranger for this area. Wesley had his hands full last week supervising control efforts of the fire on the Indian reserve.

Concerning those rats, the authorities have posted up signs which read: "The Only Good Rat is a Dead Rat". This should serve to remind us that we all should be doing our part in exterminating them.

Mrs. Louise Huntly arrived home on Sunday from the University hospital in Edmonton and appears to be in very good spirits.

Bill Roberton has received word from Edmonton to the effect that he will be operating the Fortseville ferry again this season.

In a recent news report the name of Wesley Hayes was inadvertently missed from the list of muskrat trappers.

Mrs. Neil Larson spent three weeks visiting her relations in the community.

The Minburn-Vermilion Health unit held an immunization and well baby clinic at the Nursing station on April 15th.

The L. Nolins have again commenced work on their new house.

The muskrat trappers have wound up the season with a catch of approximately 600 pelts. The money received from these pelts will come in very handy, but the trappers will no doubt remember and talk about for a long time over the sore, cracked hands which were produced by the murky alkali waters in the lakes and sloughs. The writer has been informed by the muskrat hunters that many a rat has been spared to insure a good crop for next season.

Now, from pedestrians to the school bus operators they all appreciate the appearance of Johnnie Forbes out with the municipal maintainer keeping the roads of the community in A-1 condition.

Last Sunday quite a smoke was seen up south-west of the Roy Morris plantation. Investigation by Wes Hayes revealed quite a blaze east north-east of Hans Barthell's in the vicinity of the Mortenson-Lider Lake. Luckily no great damage was caused by the fire. In connection with this fire however it was later learned that Wesley Hayes had a close shave. When investigating, a tree which apparently had burnt nearly through at the bottom, fell over, missing Wes' truck by only a few inches.

The executive of the Heinsburg F.U.A. Local No. 428 was held in the Central school on Monday evening, April 7th with ten members in attendance. The four members who had attended the sub-district workshop at Elk Point presented their reports. Plans were then drawn up for the next four monthly meetings according to these reports.

Explorers Complete Happy Months With W.M.S. Affiliation Service

As a happy ending to eight months of activity, the Explorers of First United Church, Vermilion, held their affiliation service with the Women's Missionary Society on Tuesday, May 5 in the church hall to which the mothers were invited.

The ceremony opened with the Explorer Purpose and hymn, "This Is My Father's World."

Lois introduced the theme "sharing our gifts with God's other children." This service was taken by the girls, featuring Lois Cooper, Ellen Waldenberger and Jane Heckbert. The hymn "In Christ There Is No East or West" was then sung.

Anne Duncan, the keeper of the treasure then presented Mrs. Clarke, representative of younger groups, with the treasure chest so that the Explorer group might share in the work of the W. M. S. Mrs. Clarke thanked the girls for their money gift.

She then presented to Lois, Chief Explorer, the Certificate of Affiliation, saying "It belongs to you all, for you have all worked together in your exploration."

Ellen Waldenberger, Keeper of the Log, and Jane Heckbert, vice-president, on behalf of the girls, gave two health kits to the W. M. S. to be used in some worthy cause. Mrs. Clarke gave a list of the contents of these kits before handing them over to Mrs. Melvin Hill who thanked the group for their help.

Mrs. Clarke presented each girls with a little booklet entitled "My Explorer Diary."

The Explorers gave a short demonstration of what the group had learned during the term. They sang two songs and played a game. Their handicraft was displayed on a card table. Mrs. Heckbert presented the red, blue and gold stars earned by the girls throughout the year. The gold stars were awarded to Ellen Waldenberger, Elaine Edwards, and Lois Cooper, who graduate from Explorers to C. G. I. T.

The Woman's Missionary Society then served a delicious lunch, ending with a beautiful birthday cake made by Mrs. S. Carroll in honor of Mrs. Melvin Hill. Everyone joined in the singing of "Happy Birthday."

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR

September and early October: Thanksgiving exploration in which the girls made place cards for the Thanksgiving trays at the hospital. They also decorated the church for the Thanksgiving service.

October: The girls saved part of their Hallowe'en treats to send to the Cold Lake hospital to share with the children there.

November: Exploration was "Being an Explorer", and members made booklets.

December: The Christmas Exploration, during which the girls made gifts for their mothers. These were presented at a little party in which the Explorers conducted a candle-lighting service.

January: The Explorers made wash cloths and donated articles for health kits.

February: Mrs. Clarke gave the group an interesting talk on her trip to the United Kingdom and Europe. They also held a most enjoyable party at the home of Mrs. Ashley Cooper. Posters were made for the W. M. S. Valentine Tea.

March was Community Exploration month. Stacks of bedside bags were made for the local hospital. Easter place cards were made for the hospital trays.

On St. Patricks Day, Mrs. Clark gave the group an entertaining talk on her visit to Ireland with a display of Irish momentos: Irish linen, ornaments and a shillelagh.

April: Following a missionary story on Hawaii read by Mrs. Heckbert, Mrs. Long showed her movie pictures on Hawaii with an interesting travelogue. The members made corsages for their mothers for the closing meeting and made preparations for the affiliation.

As well as doing all things previously mentioned, the Explorers carried out missionary projects each month based on their book "Ten Pairs of Shoes."

A hike is being planned for May 12th. The girls will meet at Mrs. Cooper's home right after school.

The members of the Explorers co-operated splendidly throughout the year, indicating that they found the program interesting and at the same time beneficial and entertaining under the able leadership of Chief Counsellor Mrs. Rosemary Heckbert and Mrs. Rita Cooper.

Discovers Aged Letter From Sam Barr When Renovating House

MANNVILLE — An interesting discovery of an old letter was found while renovations were being carried out at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Summers from a former Vermilion man, Mr. Sam Barr who now lives in California. The letter was written from overseas during the first world war in 1916. Mr. and Mrs. Summers were living in the house at that time according to advice given by their daughter Mrs. Fred Prill, who still resides at Mannville.

Letter was to Mr. Fred Smith.

The custom of mounting a horse from the left side probably started in the days when men were long swords that hung down the left leg, says The World Book Encyclopedia. It was easier to throw the right leg over the horse's back.

Vermilion River Council Has 3-day Agenda, Sets Mill Rate

The Statutory meeting called for April 3, 1959 turned out to be a three day session and was adjourned after a full day on April 3 to April 14 and continued on until late evening of the 15th of April. The highlight of this meeting was, of course, the bylaw which established the mill rate for 1959 based on the estimates which were accepted at this meeting. The municipal mill rate was set at 20 mills, Vermilion school division 35 mills, Lloydminster public school district, 26.5 mills: Clandonald separate school district 20 mills, the Lloydminster hospital district 1.5 mills and for the purposes of satisfying the requisition of the government under the Hospitalization Benefits Act, 4 mills.

This was one of four by-laws passed by the council. Two of the remaining three concerned the purchase of land to provide extra road width for the 1959 work and the purchase of an International half-ton truck.

ANNEXATION OF LAND REFERRED TO PROVINCIAL PLANNING BOARD

Building permits amounting to an estimated cost of $100,000.00 were issued by the council. A proposal to annex certain land and improvements in the Lloydminster rural area to the city of Lloydminster was considered by the council and it was their opinion that this proposal should not be opposed by them, but that reliance should be placed on the provincial planning advisory board to advise the Minister as to the best course of action in dealing with the matter as the Board has the benefit of the experience of many similar experiences throughout the province on which to draw in formulating a long range plan beneficial to the whole area.

SAFETY CONFERENCE

It was regretted that members of the council could not attend the Alberta Safety Conference scheduled to take place on May 25 and 26, as it was felt that no commitment could be given for attendance at such a meeting especially at a time when farm work should be at a peak and it might likely be that attendance could not be affected.

The Trans-Canada Highway System Association presented a copy of the minutes of the 9th annual meeting of the Yellowhead Route Branch and a grant was made to this association to forward their work.

CONVENTION REPORT

The report of the meeting of members of the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts on April 7, 1959 was made to the council. All phases of the co-operative trading activities of the Association were reviewed and discussed thoroughly. It was indicated that the association would henceforth receive more support from the municipalities in the form of a greater amount of purchases through their office and through the firms which coupled value with the lower cost and have signified willingness to trade through the association. Culvert business especially was by far the largest item and now that the price structure has been broken b ynew entries into the culvert supply field in Alberta much of the business would be placed through the association.

Two firms active in the gravel crushing and trucking business attended the council meeting with quotations for crushing and loading gravel.

Approval was given to the Provincial Planning Advisory Board proposal to transfer part NE 2-50-12 W4th and the council approved a slight change in the location of the water line to serve the City of Lloydmintser. The Hazeldine and Belcamp R. E. A. L.'s were granted permission through Canadian Utilities Limited to extend their facilities.

P. F. A. AREA ENLARGED

A further report on Prairie Farm Assistance Act investigations and declaration of eligible areas were made to the council. It was noted that reports had been received on 35 townships to this date and these are as folows: Townships 48, 49, 52, 53 in Range 1; Townships 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 54, 55 in Range 2; Townships 47, 48, 49, 50 and 54 and 55 in Range 3; Townships 48, 49, 54 and 55 in Range 4; Townaips 48, 53, 54, 55 in Range 5; Townships 47, 48, 49, 51, 53, 54 and 55 in Range 6; and Townships 49, 50 and 51 in Range 7.

FUEL OIL PRICES & SUPPLY

Monthly reports were received from the gas inspector and the road superintendent. Fuel oil prices were the subject of intensive study and debate by the council and final decision as to purchases for 1959 was delayed for further consideration. It was felt that the size of the purchases of the M. D. was large enough to warrant considerable study.

ROAD COMPLAINTS

Road complaints were received and dealt with and a claim for damages was rejected by the council. Consideration was given to the details of machinery which was available to the municipality for hire by people located within the boundaries of the M. D. and while the use of extra machinery was not warranted at this time details were ordered filed in case emergency action later on in the year is required.

The resignation of the nurse at Tulliby Lake was accepted by the council.

The budget and the setting of the mill rates for 1959 concluded the three-day meeting.

Simpson Employees Share the Profit In Record Year

More than $1 million out of the 1958 profits have been contributed by Simpsons, Limited and Simpson-Sears Limited to their employees' savings and profit sharing fund. The amount of $1,080,886 represents five per cent of the total profits before taxes of the two companies and is the largest contribution made in the 40 years the fund has been in operation.

In addition, the employees themselves deposited $1,916,628, while earnings on the fund's investments were $638,310, bringing the total assets to the credit of current members accounts at the fiscal year-end to $14,054,823. This is almost double the assets of six years ago and does not include increase of $2,957,576 in the market value of Simpsons, Limited shares held by the fund.

The largest number of employees in the history of the companies are now members of the fund, amounting to 94 per cent of those who are eligible.

Regular employees may participate after one year's service and deposit five percent of their earnings up to a maximum of $200 a year.

A recent change in the plan now allows members to withdraw from the fund with profits after five years' service instead of 10 years.

Polar Bear Moves On Express To Zoo

WINNIPEG. — A 20-pound, 7-week-old male polar bear cub, trapped near the Southampton Island, in the District of Keewatin, some 400 miles north of Churchill, was shipped via Canadian National Express to the zoological gardens at Granby, Quebec.

The pot luck supper which was to have been held at Mrs. McDonald's was cancelled due to so much illness. The 'Easter dinner for eight' raffle was most successful. A baby layette was sent to a needy family in the district through municipal welfare. Each member contributed twenty-five cents to the A. C. W. W. travel fund. Secret Pals for 1959 were again drawn. Mystery parcels were won by Mrs. H. Batty and Mrs. Burton Parker.

At this time I would like to take the opportunity to thank the Vermilion and Mannville businessmen who so generously gave advertising to be put in the new Alberta Women's Institute Report book.

WOODVALE NOTES

Farm and field once again have taken on a wintry look and low temperatures and heavy wind make it feel like winter too, but the snow brought much-needed moisture and therefore was welcome. After it has melted, farmers can really get back to work. So far not too much land has been seeded, though there are, as always, exceptions. Fred Kottmeier had a field of wheat up, when the heavy frost struck on the 26th but it luckily did not do any damage.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Funnell got 'excellent' as their mark and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Oldenberg 'superior' in the farm improvement competition and are to be congratulated on the winning of these high awards for their efforts.

The Union hall is being enlarged and work is well advanced though it may take a few months yet, before it will be completed. A lot of work in raising the money for this project has been done and now everyone is pitching in to make the old school over into a modern community center.

Congratulations to the four local winners in the Islay amateur show: Charlotte Wolters and Larry Funnell each took a first; Mr. and Mrs. Wes Funnell and Charles Young who each took second in their various competitions.

Word has reached friends, that Harry Ferguson died in a Vancouver hospital in April. Harry took a three month holiday last summer and spent that time in the Tolland district where he used to live and spent most of that time at his former home, as a guest of Chris Thomsen. It is good to know that this trip, which proved to be his last one, had been so thoroughly enjoyed by Harry.

It is with regret that the community sees another couple, Mr. and Mrs. William Fortune of Hindville, leave the district. They sold their farm to their nephew, John Watson, and have bought a house in Lloydminster. An auction sale was held on their farm where the local Red Cross auxiliary sold lunches and coffee and a great many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fortune gathered to wish them many happy years of retirement in their new home and to express the hope to see them often for a visit here, and where they have lived for fifty years and were married forty-two years ago last fall.

The week previous, some close friends and neighbors gave them a surprise party, bringing with them a matching trilight and table lamp and a beautiful cushion. Mr. Walter Procter and Mr. W. Haines made the presentation with humor and sincere appreciation for the hospitality and friendship they have extended through the years to everyone. Their home was a gathering place and they will be greatly missed.

INSECTICIDE POISONING

With every passing week bringing new insecticides (insect killers) to add to the multitude now in use, it is becoming increasingly evident that the time is not too far distant when regulations governing the sale, use and storing of insecticides and other pesticides will have to be introduced as a public health measure. Such regulations should not interfere with free enterprise and should only stress the precautions, through labelling, controlled outlets, etc., necessary for ensuring the protection of the health of the people.

It is ridiculous to claim that most of the insecticides are harmless to human health when there is ample evidence to prove that, conversely, the majority of them are harmful when used by other than competently trained people. And with the increased immunity that has been developed by a wide range of insect species to the usual insecticides there has been an increasing tendency to use chemicals of known high toxity to man in developing more potent insecticide formulations. Unfortunately most of the insecticides are insidious in action. A few of them are immediately fatal to man and these few, such as cyanide, etc., are under strict control. The majority of the dangerous ones are dangerous in the sense that (1) the poison often is cumulative in body organs and tissues and eventually fatal, and (2) they may effect the blood chemistry and cause serious and even fatal illness not directly apparent as being related to the use of the insecticide.

In a rough evaluation of 38 insecticides in general use it was found that 27 of them were included in a group where the toxicity to man varied from a few drops to one ounce; seven were in the group where the toxity varied from one ounce to one pint; and four were in the group where any apparent toxic effect required one pint or more. In other words approximately ¾ of them were extremely dangerous to human health. The fungicides were somewhat similar with eight out of eighteen preparations having a toxicity rating of from a few drops to one ounce; six required from one ounce to one pint; and four required more than one pint. The herbicides (weed killers) were somewhat safer with 13 out of 17 preparations, requiring more than one pint to produce a toxic effect and only four requiring less than one pint. However this is not the whole story because this evaluation was based on the supposition that the preparations would be infested whereas in actual fact the toxicity of any pesticide is directly related to its mode of entry into the human body. Therefore, it is not the amount of the pesticide involved but the kind of pesticide and its mode of entry that is of prime importance. For instance, a small amount of organic phosphate liquid on the hands may be more dangerous than a pint of chlorinated hydrocarbon liquid taken internally, or conversely, a small amount of kerosene (a common solvent and carrier for many insecticides) taken internally may be more dangerous than the inhalation of a considerable amount of aerosol. Consequently each case of pesticide poisoning must be evaluated and treated on the basis of the kind of pesticide involved and the amount and mode of entry into the human body, with particular attention being paid to the probable secondary toxic effect of the solvent and/or carrier.

A very important point which has been overlooked in regard to the widespread use of pesticides is their probable deleterious biological effect on domestic animals with the consequent result that the food products for human consumption from such exposed animals may be harmful to human health, not only from an accumulation of toxic materials in the animal tissues but also from certain physiological changes brought about by exposures to potent chemicals. This possibility is well-recognized in the matter of grains, fruits and vegetables for both the United States government and the Canadian government — under our Food and Drug Act — have established by law maximum residuals or tolerances for pesticide residues in or on domestic and imported grains, fruits and vegetables designed for human consumption.

It should always be remembered that there is no safe pesticide but all pesticides may be used safely. It is imperative that the directions on the container should be read and followed.

BOWTELL BULLETIN

Some of these news items may be a little late folks as we were unable to get them in until now.

The Loafers club would like to thank Mr. Dixon and Fred Scott for their recent kindness.

Due to poor health Mr. Dixon, one of our old timers, sold his farm recently. While a patient in the hospital he was presented with a gift from the community. We wish to extend our best wishes Joe for improved health in the future. Mr Dixon has lived in this district since coming from England in 1927.

Jack Coward Sr. of Easyford visited in the district recently.

All are sorry to learn that Mrs. Simmick's mother is a patient in an Edmonton hospital.

Don't forget the church service this Sunday at Pleasant Valley folks.

The writer was pleased to have Peter Gurney, Mrs. J. Rochford and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. Hobbis, Mrs. Knutson, Harold and Maybelle, and Mr. Kay visit us recently.

The weather has certainly been miserable with snow and cold, but all welcome the moisture.

Mother's Day Tea Very Successful

MANNVILLE. — Gay little Maypoles comprised of a candy cane, streamers and marshmallows, formed the table decorations at tea time for the May tea, which is held annually before Mothers' day. A most enjoyable lunch is reported, with popular sewing tables which contained graceful aprons and other articles for sale, and a bake table which is always popular.

Mrs. Betty Ramsey, the United W.A. president, officially opened the sale after the singing of "Let the Beauty of Jesus". Despite poor weather a most successful day was experienced by this enterprising group of ladies of the W.A. of United church.

Corridor Swap?

The B. C. government may try to swing the biggest real estate deal in West Coast history this summer, reports The Financial Post.

Watch for appointment of a three-man commission by the cabinet with orders to try swapping a remote corner of B. C. for a corridor of the Alaska panhandle.

That's the word from Herbert Bruch, chairman of the Social Credit caucus, who made a jocular suggestion during this year's legislative session that the swap is feasible now.

Quite a snowstorm this Saturday morning as we write these notes. It will give some much-needed moisture. Some seeding has been done but all report very little moisture in the seed bed.

A lot of people have been laid low with the flu. Old and young alike seem to have it with some being quite seriously ill.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

We've had snow with a bit lower temperatures, then nice spring weather and now a heavy fall of snow and much colder.

It was nice to see such a grand attendance on April 19th at the Clandonald United church. The sermon on the "Sixth Commandment" gave us something to better our ways of living. May 3rd will be Rev. MacKay's last Sunday at Clandonald.

On May 10th our student minister, Mr. Hugh Farquhar from Nova Scotia will be on the Clandonald Mission field for the summer. Presuming the services will be as last year, Allandale will be at 11:30 a.m. every Sunday. Everyone is welcome to worship at our little church on the corner.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Nelson returned home to Lloydminster on the 22nd. They visited friends in Campbell Lake and relatives in Allandale and daughter Lorna and Tommy Stockwell in Clandonald. They had a wonderful holiday and Alva has improved so much in health.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Stockwell on the birth of a son, Nelson Clifford, on April 25th.

Mrs. Ray Stetsen and sons from Fort Saskatchewan were holidaying with her parents at the Wm. Cross home.

In March Don and Joyce Macgillivray, their family Lewis, Barbara and Janet, enjoyed a two weeks' holiday in B.C., Washington and other points of interest in the States. They visited several friends, called on Don's mother and her husband Mr. and Mrs. Bill Martin in Vancouver, and were also guests of Joyce's Uncle Louie Newcombe and wife Erma. Louie's old friends here will be interested to know that he is foreman of a racehorse ranch. He and Erma own one horse and manage 18 others, keeping them at the ranch at Lonby, B.C. in winter months. From spring through to fall they follow the race circuits in the States and Eastern Canada. Much to the delight of the children a little colt was born while they were at the ranch.

On April 21st Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson and Johnny Anderson of Dewberry, motored to the city and the same day Don and Johnny boarded a chartered airplane for Peoria, Ill. Mrs. Wilson met her sister Mrs. Orlene Whelan and family from Calgary, and returned home the same day. Orlene and children will be holidaying at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Omness.

Helen and Frank Schmidt and family and Anna Lacusta from Lloydminster, were visitors at the home of the girls' parents, the Melvin Nelson home on the 19th. They also called on Grandma Ockerman in the Elk Point hospital and at the Ockerman home in Ferguson Flats. Anna was at the Nelson home for a few days while her mother was up north.

On April 26th Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ockerman and son Johnny from Nukko Lake, B.C., were visitors at Lloyd's sister's, the Nelson home. They had been visiting at Elk Point and Ferguson Flats.

Vernon Nelson, Eugene Deford and Leslie Bowman motored to the city on April 27th where they visited friends and attended the rodeo in the evening.

The last of April Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dyjur of Lethbridge were visitors at the Dyjur and Deford homes. Duane Deford is continuing his work in the south country.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Steve Gordey on the birth of a daughter on April 27th. Mrs. Gordey's mother, Mrs. Nick Naciuk from Mannville is helping at the Gordey home.

On April 30th Mrs. Gus Throndson accompanied Mr. Wm. Dougan to Lethbridge by car, both visiting sons and families.

On May 1st Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson, Raymond, Dorothy and Marlene, accompanied by Orley Omness and Chris Maggs, motored to Edmonton. They spent most of the afternoon at Mrs. Wilson's sister's, the Walsh home. The trip was made for a check on Marlene's eyes which they found had improved 90%, so that now she doesn't have to wear glasses. She is in grade 2 and the two consecutive years before going to school she had had operations on both eyes. Credit is due to Dr. Timothy Daly's efficient work. Naturally the doctor and the family are highly pleased with results.

The same evening the folks enjoyed TV at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Maggs and saw the Patterson-London fight and attend the rodeo.

Mr. and Mrs. Ort Strome and daughter Beverly, Miss Janet Hall and Miss Patricia Stewart, motored to the city on Friday to attend the rodeo.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Magistad of Ponoka were visitors at the home of Mrs. Magistad's sister, Mrs. Throndson in town, and visited other friends there on May 1st. The storm prevented them from visiting in this district.

Replacements of the Lodgepole pine trees have been made in the churchyard. The trees were donated by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cross which is appreciated very much.

The snow on May 2nd, around six inches here, although seeming unseasonal, was certainly grand for moisture.

It is pleasing to see in the Standard that Bill and Leona, proprietors of McLaughlin's Self-Serve are going on an extensive holiday, a well deserved rest after many years of work. We wish them a happy holiday.

Closing thought: "We move towards peace when we realize that our happiness depends upon the happiness of others".

ROUSERS

Clock-radio makers are going all out to rouse slow risers, reports The Financial Post. New U. S. models are equipped with repeating "wake-up" alarm that will "call you" up to six times each morning. Pre-set buzzer will go off every 7 minutes.

National Survey To Be Conducted On Farm and Home Safety

Canada's first national survey on farm and farm home safety will be conducted over the next two months.

In making the announcement, Jack Whyte, Chairman of the Agriculture Committee of The Canadian Chamber of Commerce, said that the 73,000 enrolled in 4H Clubs across Canada will be playing a key role through reporting the accidents on their home farms. The survey, itself, has been co-operatively organized and is being carried out by the Canadian Council on 4-H Clubs, the Provincial Departments of Agriculture, the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, the Canada Department of Agriculture and the Canadian Federation of Agriculture.

"There are no adequate national statistics at the present time on farm accidents," said Mr. C. A. Douglas, President, Canadian Council on 4-H Clubs. "However, we do know that farm accidents, in addition to causing much suffering and hardship, are responsible for serious loss of time, production and income to the farm industry. It is hoped that up to date information on the kind, cause and incidence of farm accidents will facilitate the development of better farm safety programs in Canada."

Mr. Whyte said all those concerned with the survey appealed to the farm parents and local 4-H club leaders for assistance and co-operation in supplying statistical data to 4-H members. Questionnaires, to be filled out, would cover the period January 1 to December 31, 1958, and it is hoped to have results tabulated by next autumn.

Agriculture and business have long been interested in such a survey, and are in agreement that a co-operative effort is needed to develop an effective program of national farm safety. Although some sectors of Canada have developed farm safety programs that have produced a lower frequency of deaths and accidents, much remains to be accomplished in this field.

Eras and Ages of Tribute
From friends who know you well.
Made complete at Vermilion, Alta., at 17:30k, May 4, 1959.

The above train order might well have suited the occasion of a ceremony held at the CNR roundhouse here, May 4th, when Mayor Melvin Hill, Jack Kneale, president of the Board of Trade, Ashley Cooper, Editor of the Vermilion Standard, Slim Hammond, C. N. R. agent and Harry Brown, C. N. R. locomotive foreman, paid formal tribute to the passing of an era, in the transition, on the railway, from steam to diesel power.

The occasion marked the last service of a steam locomotive at Vermilion, and also, it is believed, in the entire western Canadian territory of the provinces of Alberta and British Columbia.

In proper form and under the supervision of Locomotive Foreman Brown and Agent Hammond, Jack Kneale moved engine 2168 out of her berth in the roundhouse and onto the service track, where pictures were taken under Ashley Cooper's direction and appropriate regard was paid to the event. Then, as the final act in the era of steam, Mayor Hill took charge of the throttle and capably and with due reverence, ran engine 2168 onto the turntable for the last trip into the shop under her own power.

Engine 2168 was built by the Canadian Locomotive Company in the year 1913 for the former Canadian Northern Railway, now a part of the Canadian National system. This engine has at one time or another, worked in every class of train service over all or most of the territory west of the Great Lakes during the intervening time, being eclipsed, of course, in later years, by larger and more modern locomotives, but was still rendering adequate and useful service.

Mayor Hill, in his remarks, while acknowledging a new age of progress marked by the advent of diesel power on the railways, paid tribute to the steam locomotive for its part in the development of our present way of life. As a fellow pioneer of the west, Mr. Hill also bade nostalgic adieu to a good and faithful partner, in engine 2168 and her kind.

Tragedy Strikes Vermilion Home

Elmer Cawthorpe, 3, Dies From Burns; Eleanor, 2, In Critical Condition

One little child is dead and his sister lies critically injured as a result of an explosion and flash fire in the basement of the new east end home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Cawthorpe at noon on Tuesday. Dead is little three-year-old Elmer Cawthorpe, while Eleanor aged two, is critically burned. Following the muffled explosion and flash fire, the two children were rushed to the Vermilion hospital and almost immediately to the University hospital, Edmonton. On reaching the city hospital Dr. King found six internes and four nurses awaiting them, with full preparations to care for the tiny patients. Elmer passed away at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday.

It appears that the two children were playing together in the basement of the home. Mrs. Cawthorpe heard a muffled explosion and immediately the house filled with smoke. Nevertheless she rushed to rescue the children from the basement, to find them with all clothes burned from their bodies. Neighbours saw the smoke and in a matter of seconds help arrived and the children were on their way to medical aid. Damage to the house was confined to that done by the smoke.

Subsequent investigation by officials revealed that the children had played with a can containing gasoline. This had been spilled on the floor, and on themselves as their shoes, the only clothing left, bore a strong smell of gasoline. Fumes from the gasoline had reached the automatic furnace and when it came on, the fire set off the explosion.

Apparently painting was being done in the house and the gasoline was kept for cleaning paint brushes.

Mr. and Mrs. Cawthorpe have two other children. The most sincere sympathy of the whole community goes out to the young family in their tragedy.

Alberta Election Set for June 18th

Stage was set this week for a whirlwind, month-long campaign by the candidates of four Alberta parties on the heels of Premier Ernest C. Manning's call for a renewed mandate for his Social Credit administration in a June 18th provincial election.

The premier, in a province-wide television and radio address last Saturday, announced the dissolution of the 13th Legislature, and set Thursday, June 18th as the date for balloting in the province's 65 constituencies.

By mid-week nearly 150 candidates had been nominated throughout the province and more would be in the field by week's end.

In his election announcement, the premier said his administration was seeking Albertans' "direction and endorsation" in pushing ahead with "the biggest program we have ever undertaken."

Noting the government's Five Year Plan had been "widely and enthusiastically received", he said Alberta had "only scratched the surface of what can and will be done in the next few years."

Mr. Manning said good progress had been made in getting the first phases of the $300,000,000 Five Year Plan underway. Alberta was poised to "move even farther out in front of the rest of Canada."

Saying Alberta had a future unrivalled in the world, he said the Social Credit administration was asking for Albertans' "judgment of our stewardship."

He noted that in less than a generation, Alberta, under a government divorced from "the old line parties", had come from the brink of economic bankruptcy to "our present enviable position."

Alberta was the only province in Canada able to carry out a multi-pronged program for the betterment of its citizens' lives without resort to special taxes. The province was able to finance from its own resources.

Even with the bi. new provincial program, Alberta would be able to meet current expenditures without drawing on the province's carefully-accumulated $400,000,000 reserves.

The premier likened the experienced Social Credit administration to a longtime employee whose value had increased over the years.

"I believe in Alberta and in its future," he said. "Under the Providence of God, we will go forward to our reward."

In the Vermilion constituency candidates have already been nominated by Social Credit, Liberal and Conservative parties; in Alexandra to the east, only two parties have been nominated to date, Social Credit and Conservative.

On Tuesday morning total nominations stood at: Social Credit 53 candidates; Conservatives 46; Liberals 32; C.C.F. 20. Nomination day is June 4th.

The tea was a decided success and proceeds will go towards the First Derwent Brownie Pack funds.

109 Robins Gather On One Lawn

DEWBERRY — One of the oddities occurring during the snowstorm of last Saturday was the sight of a flock of 109 robins gathered on the lawn of Charles Kinshella at Dewberry. No reason was forthcoming for the "robin conference" except that possibly the sheltered spot offered a haven from the storm.

Derwent Farmer Slain In Shooting Affray

One man is dead and his son is in hospital with a bullet wound, following an argument between three men over a line fence marking the boundary of two farms located three miles north and one mile east of Derwent. The shooting occurred Monday morning.

Dead is Steven P. Jacula who had farmed in the district for the past 45 years. In the Royal Alexandra hospital in Edmonton with a bullet wound in the shoulder is his son Marshall Jacula, aged 27. His condition is not serious. He was first taken to the Elk Point hospital, later going to Edmonton to have the bullet removed.

In police custody and charged with murder as a result of the double shooting is Mike Kwasnycia, 54-year-old farmer who owns land on both sides of the Jacula farm. Kwasnycia gave himself up to the police when they arrived at the scene, and appeared in Vermilion police court before Magistate Basler later on Monday. He was remanded until May 19 and is being held at the Fort Saskatchewan jail.

It appears that Mike Kwasnycia owns the north-west quarter of the section, Jacula the south-west quarter, while a brother of Jacula, John, owned the south-east quarter. This latter quarter was recently sold to Kwasnycia so that he owned land on two sides of the Jacula farm. On the morning of the dispute, the Jaculas, father and son, were engaged in changing line fences to what they claimed were the proper survey lines. An argument ensued. It is claimed that Kwasnycia went to his truck and procured a .22 rifle and began shooting, resulting in wounding of the younger Jacula and killing the father.

Large Attendance Hears Witty Talk by Col. Eric Cormack

Each spring the Vermilion board of trade entertains officials of boards of trade of neighboring towns and villages, representatives of the two rural municipalities and some community associations at what is called the spring banquet. Special efforts are made to secure a good after-dinner speaker, the ladies of the Legion W. A. serve a delicious meal, and altogether a very sociable time is enjoyed. The object is to promote acquaintanceship and understanding between neighboring communities.

This year a very happy choice was made for guest speaker, Col. Eric W. Cormack, Department of Extension, University of Alberta, and a former member of the staff of the Vermilion School of Agriculture. Col. Cormack delighted everyone by reminiscing and thereby revealed a wonderful memory for details going back to his first arrival in Vermilion back in 1925. He brought in local names, incidents and experiences, many of them humorous, and many with a moral to forward the theme of his address. His witty, breezy talk was a pleasant experience.

Col. Cormack was introduced by Mr. N. S. Bentley, and following his talk was thanked by Mr. E. H. Buckingham. Both are old acquaintances of the guest speaker and were thus able to add much to the occasion.

Chairman for the well attended event was Mr. J. V. Kneale, the president of the Vermilion board. Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Folk led in some much enjoyed community singing. Mayor M. Hill welcomed the visitors to Vermilion, while at the close of the program Mr. Bonnie Barwick, president of the Elk Point chamber of commerce, expressed the thanks of the visitors, and he too, recalled old times in Vermilion.

Mr. Arthur Shortell of Lloydminster, second vice-president of the Alberta chamber of commerce, was introduced and addressed the gathering briefly.

Mr. Angus McMillan, vice-president of Vermilion board of trade was called upon to introduce the guests present, who were as follows: Ivan Inman and Wm. McLean, Islay; Headley Dennill and Gerald Holmes, Dewberry; Cliff Miller and Clarke Richardson, Kitscoty; Mike Craddock and J. C. Spence of Vegreville; Harold Fossey and Vernon Miner, Lloydminster; Laurence Perks, E. Meiklejohn and Mr. Lorne, Marwayne; Bonnie S. Barwick and Phil Ludwig, Elk Point; A. E. Williams and R. J. Whitson, of Mannville; Frank Eyben and Ray Hay of Minburn M.D.; Don Wilson and A. R. Kay of Vermilion River; Arnold Olson and Phil Zaph, Clandonald.

Arrangements were in charge of the entertainment committee of Rudi Renaud, Jim Champion, Leo McKernan and Warren Rosequist.

The enjoyable event was held on Wednesday evening May 6th.

A farewell party was held in the Elks hall last Thursday evening for Leo McKernan who has been transferred by Northwestern Utilities to Drayton Valley. Leo was an enthusiastic golfer, curler and was generally interested in all community projects so that he and his family will be very much missed in town.

MISS JOANNE MILLER

A Worthy Queen

The Standard is quite sure that everyone will agree that Miss Joanne Miller, pictured above, would be a worthy Queen of the Calgary Stampede. The Elk Point Chamber of Commerce is very much of this opinion and they have entered the seventeen year old Elk Point beauty in the Calgary Stampede queen contest as the candidate from north-eastern Alberta.

Everyone in this area should do everything possible to help Joanne to win. Members of the Elk Point Chamber will be around to show you how you can do it, and every ticket purchased is good for 25 votes.

Joanne is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Fred G. Miller of Elk Point.

The queen contest is sponsored by the Alberta Commercial Travellers, with the Elk Point library fund benefitting considerably from the sale of tickets.

65 More Wayside Kitchens Along Alberta Highways

Gordon E. Taylor, Minister of Highways, announced over the week end that work was being completed on more than 65 wayside kitchens along the highways in Alberta.

Way-side camp sites consist of of a shelter containing a stove and tables and the grounds normally contain toilet facilities, a water supply and additional tables.

Last year more than 40 camp sites were constructed and these together with the additional 65 will provide tourists and visitors, as well as the people of the province with excellent facilities for picnics and camping. The plan of the Department of Highways is to construct way-side kitchens approximately every 50 miles along the arterial highways of the province, insofar as it is possible to so do.

This winter's program was carried out in co-operation with the Federal government to assist in the employment situation and the Federal government shares the cost of labor.

The completion of the program on or about May 31st will see many new camp sites along Alberta highways, including the following in this area: Highway 45 near Hairy Hill and near Two Hills; Highway 16 at Ranfurly, Gainford, Mackay, Roundcroft; Highway 36 north of Viking; Highway 13 at Hardisty, Czar; Highway 28 at Floating Stone Lake, Cold Lake, Moose Lake, and north of Moose Lake, Ethel Lake, at Bonnyville Beach, Lake Bellevue, Frenchere Bay.

"It is our hope", stated Mr. Taylor, "that these kitchens will provide a convenience for our own people to have picnics and family outings as well as being an enticement for tourists to camp and relax."

Yellow Journalism and Television

The term yellow journalism, as applied to newspapers of a decade or so ago, referred to the tendency on part of some newspapers, in an apparent effort to attract subscribers, to give excessive publicity to crime, divorce cases and in general to news which was of little value to the advancement of the community. The term "yellow" was used as an expression of criticism or disapproval of newspapers, said by their journalistic brothers to be guilty of methods which were not only bizarre and sensational but [illegible]. Anything to get an extra dollar.

One wonders whether a similar term might not be used in connection with some television programs. Guns and daggers of whatever variety might be considered of some value in war but they are not in common use in the drawing room. Triangles and divorces may exist in life but it is a question whether their exploitation on television programs is elevating for the youthful mind. There is such a thing as a gangster, but depicted almost daily on television programs he may become a hero in the eyes of juvenile television fans.

Imitation is a natural human characteristic and there have been numerous examples quoted in the daily press of youthful hangings, stabbings, gun fights, and other deviations from the normal conduct of youth, which may well be imitations of television programs which depict not the normal but the unusual.

One wonders who is responsible for the choice of too many television programs, which suggest that there may be yellow journalism in television as well as in newspapers. It would seem that there are some people in the centre of things in the television field who are not too impressed by the difference between right and wrong but rather with the desire to bring in the dollars whoever may be hurt in the process. There is much good but also some dangerous nonsense in television programs in North America, especially those originating in the United States. One wonders sometimes whether the good programs get in by accident.

Costly Wrangle

Fears are mounting that a whole construction season may be lost in building gas export lines because of the [illegible] Federal Parliamentary wrangle over gas and oil policy, warns H. R. [illegible], in The Financial Post.

Vast projects, years in planning, are waiting to get underway.

But if Ottawa won't give them a prompt O.K., nothing much will happen in 1959, with unpleasant consequences for pipe mills, a host of other suppliers and a lot of labor.

This provides an outstanding opportunity for the heavy Conservative representation from Saskatchewan and Alberta to make their presence in the House known.

Official figures show that Canadians, during the early part of 1959 were paying off their debts to installment finance companies faster than they were taking on new borrowing.

District Agriculturist.

POCKET GOPHERS

Pocket gophers, moles and, very often called by some names that can't be published, are the little animals that root up mounds in hay fields. Strychnine Alkaloid dusted over carrot or parsnip cubes in a closed container makes an excellent bait. One-quarter of an ounce of strychnine treats one gallon of bait. One or two cubes placed in a runway is enough to kill the animals living under 10 or 15 mounds. Be careful, strychnine is poison. Early poisoning is most effective. Bulletins are available.

FENCE POSTS

Fence posts treated with penta or pentachlorophenol last the longest and it is the easiest to do. The equipment consists of an old gasoline barrel with top cut out and enough solution to cover the posts past ground level. The penta is cheaper when bought in the concentrated form that has to be diluted with diesel fuel or waste oil. Oh yes! This calls for thoroughly dried and peeled posts. Tamarack and Jack Pine take penta the best but poplar and willow have been done with success. Remember that posts cost money but the penta lasts twice as long. When you buy a post preservative be sure to look for that funny long name 'pentachlorophenol'.

ENDRIN

Endrin was a magic insecticide in 1958 but like the genii in Aladdin's lamp, it was hard to get. Because of the shortage the Department of Agriculture made special efforts through the district agriculturist to secure supplies. For 1959 supplies are guaranteed through normal channels. So if the area is unfortunate enough to require control for cutworms or beet web worms, Endrin can be obtained locally. Care must be taken in handling this insecticide as Endrin is more deadly than strychnine.

4-H PUBLIC SPEAKING

4-H clubs are holding final public speaking contests Thursday, May 21st in the Vermilion School of Agriculture beginning at 8 p.m. Everyone interested in 4-H is welcome.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The end of the school year is fast approaching and most undergraduates are thinking of the future. Before giving up on the assumption that advanced education is too expensive, investigate the scholarship possibilities. Anyone interested in advanced education, especially in Agriculture, is welcome to discuss university or other training with the D.A. Every year many scholarships go unused so let's make 1959 an exceptional year and use all of the resources available for higher education in this area.

SOIL

A new generation has taken over the farms since the dirty 30's, or so it would seem. Strangers travelling throughout this district are surprised to see so many ditches filled with drift soil. This is the park belt where soil doesn't normally drift. Before a match is struck, think! Perhaps a fire isn't necessary. Perhaps the cultivator is a better machine to use than a heavy disk. Whatever is the case consider the soil. It is possible that you may need it a while yet.

LAWNS

Building a lawn this summer? This is a larger operation than possibly you expected. There must be at least [illegible] inches of good top soil well packed. The seed is thoroughly mixed and half broadcast north to south and the other half broadcast from east to west. Rake lightly after seeding and roll to promote germination. If water is available wet the seed bed thoroughly but don't puddle. Three pounds of Kentucky Blue grass and one pound Creeping Red Fescue is recommended per 1000 square feet. For a lawn without extra water one pound of Kentucky Blue and three pounds of Crested Wheat or three pounds of Russian Wild Rye are recommended to 1000 square feet. Bulletins are available.

The Homemaker

Donna Westendorf
District Home Economist
Lamont, Alberta.

This week's column is especially for you if you have a young daughter in your family or know of a young girl who is considering that special problem now, her future.

Because the field of home economics is so wide, and in so many cases, so unknown, I would like to mention some of the opportunities available to the girls studying home economics.

After a three year course at the University of Alberta, four years at most other Universities, the girl with a degree may intern in a hospital to become a registered dietician, may take further training and teach, or she may go into the working world.

Following are some of the possibilities:

1. Dietician in a hospital, restaurant, store or airforce.
2. Teaching Home Economics in schools.
3. Work in fields of radar, television or journalism.
4. Home service field with utility or equipment company.
5. Testing demonstrating for manufacturing company, foods and recipes, soaps and detergents, new material, zippers, etc.
6. Government research work.
7. Interior decorator with a housing agency department or furniture store.
8. For the girl with a flair for fashion: dressmaking, designing or consultant and buyer in a dress shop or large store.
9. Extension work — as a district home economist for provincial Department of Agriculture mainly with adult education and 4-H clubs.

Many of these positions entail quite a bit of travelling. There's lots of variety. Please drop in and talk it over. I'm in Two Hills office Thursday, Lamont the other week days.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

There are various types of bursaries available. It is hard to believe that some scholarships go out of existence because no one applies for them. Surely it isn't because no one needs the money.

Did you know that the Canadian National Exhibition is offering ten scholarships to the value of $750.00 and one to be awarded in each province? This award is open to 4-H members and former members and is to be used for a course at University level.

The scholarship will be awarded to candidates wishing to enter a degree course in Home Economics, Agricultural Engineering or Veterinary Science.

The candidates must be at least 17 years of age by July 1st 1959 and must have at least two years in 4-H clubwork. Leadership ability and interest may have considerable influence, also. Successful candidates may have five years in which to take up their scholarship.

Did you know that the Alberta Wheat Pool have scholarships available to 4-H Garden Club members wishing to enter the faculty of Home Economics?

Did you know that there are several types of scholarships available to both boys and girls wishing to attend Alberta Schools of Agriculture?

Why not drop in and enquire about them before the deadline closes?

ATTENTION TEENAGERS! Drop me a line for the booklet "Pretty as a Picture Parties." There are bound to be some ideas you will like.

Sixteen Years Ago

MAY 13th, 1943

The steel bridge over the river at Vermilion went "out" about 7 o'clock Tuesday evening, after withstanding the abnormally high water ever since the spring break-up early in April. The valley is still well flooded, the water remaining high longer than at any time in memory. While the bridge has dropped some two feet on the north end, it is still being used, although loaded trucks are being warned against crossing.

Kenny Mills, Vermilion-born boy who loved to dance from the time he could toddle, is now the greatest jive artist in Edmonton, if all tales from that centre are true. It seems that when Ken and his partner hit the dance floor, everybody just naturally stops dancing to watch them.

Weather continues cold and hard frosts are registered nightly. Growth is slow and work on the land is far from general as yet. Earnest efforts are being made to clean up the threshing and this object will soon be achieved.

Latest recruits from this district to join the armed forces are: Miss Mary Martin of Dewberry, who has joined the women's division of the R.C.A.F.; John H. Lambert and August Walter Bobroske who have joined the Canadian Army.

Mr. E. Broch, B.A., of Toronto, has arrived to conduct services on the Auburndale Mission of the United Church of Canada. He comes well qualified and with much experience.

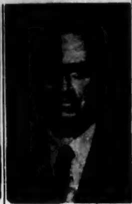
Alberta Report

by Anders O. Aalborg,
Social Credit Candidate for Alexandra
AND
Ashley H. Cooper,
Social Credit Candidate for Vermilion

ANDERS O. AALBORG



ASHLEY H. COOPER

Thursday, June 18th, has been selected as the date of the next Alberta general election. The 13th Legislative Assembly held since the province was first formed in 1905 has been dissolved, and Writs calling for the election of members to serve in the 14th Assembly have been issued to 65 returning officers throughout the province. This was announced by Premier E. C. Manning in a special telecast and radio broadcast which was carried by all TV stations and many radio stations in Alberta Saturday evening, May 9th. The last general election was held Wednesday, June 29th, 1955.

RETURNING OFFICER

In Alexandra the returning officer is Mr. Merlin Moncrieff of Islay and in Vermilion constituency Mr. Ralph Wagner of Mannville, who will make all arrangements necessary for conducting the election in their constituencies in accordance with the terms and provisions of The Election Act and the instructions of the Clerk of the Executive Council, Mr. Raymond Crevolin, who is the Chief Electoral Officer for the province.

"X" SYSTEM OF VOTING TO BE USED

The forthcoming general election will see a return to the 'X' system of voting which was dropped in 1926 in favor of the single transferable ballot in rural constituencies, and the complex proportional representation system in the cities of Edmonton and Calgary. The change back to the 'X' system was made by amendments to the Election Act passed by the 1956 session of the Legislature.

SINGLE MEMBER RIDINGS FOR CITIES

Single member ridings in Edmonton and Calgary will be another major change in this election. Since 1926 these cities have been multiple member ridings and during the Legislative Assembly just dissolved Edmonton was represented by seven members and Calgary by six members elected at large by the proportional representation system. For the purpose of the present election Edmonton has been divided into nine and Calgary seven single member ridings, and in each the 'X' system of voting will be used exactly as in all ridings in rural areas.

In the far north-western region of the province there is a new constituency, Dunvegan, consisting of all the lands lying north of the Peace River and west of the 6th Meridian. This area was formerly within the huge Peace River constituency.

The increase in the number of members from the two major cities — two from Edmonton, and one from Calgary — and the addition of one new riding boosts the number of members in the next Legislature to 65.

WHO MAY VOTE?

In each constituency every Canadian citizen or British subject who is a full 19 years of age on or before election day (June 18th), and who has resided in Alberta for at least 12 months immediately prior to the day on which the election was called, May 9th, and who is a resident in any polling subdivision of the constituency on that date, May 9th, is entitled to have his or her name placed on the voters' list for that polling subdivision, and to vote in the election.

STATEMENT BY PREMIER MANNING

In calling a provincial election at this time Premier Manning stated:

"On the 14th of last August in a province-wide telecast and radio broadcast I outlined to you what has since become known as Alberta's five-year program. Since that time as our people have become acquainted with the nature and scope of the program, approval and enthusiasm have been expressed on every side. Even our political critics admit that the projects proposed are sound and right. Their only complaint has been that we shouldn't have proposed them because they wanted to advocate them themselves.

Good progress has been made in getting the five-year program underway. At the recent session the necessary additional legislation was passed, and the funds necessary for this year's expenditures were provided. Now that the program is rolling Alberta will quickly move even further out in front of the rest of Canada in a score of important fields such as education, youth activity, public health facilities, care of our aged citizens, highways, market roads, agriculture and industrial advancement.

Notwithstanding the tremendous progress Alberta has experienced in the past twenty years we have no intention of resting on past achievement. We intend to see that every necessary and sensible step is taken to ensure even greater progress in the days ahead. Alberta is still a young province. We have come a long way since the days of the pioneers and the grim years of the thirties. But we have only scratched the surface of what can and will be done in the next few years.

During all of these past eventful years of progress my colleagues and I have had the privilege of working with you and for you in the administration of your provincial affairs. We have long realized from first-hand knowledge the almost unlimited opportunity we have as a province to ensure for all our people a future that can be equalled in very few places in this world.

If I sound enthusiastic it isn't the enthusiasm born of mere wishful thinking, but enthusiasm and confidence that comes from knowing that we in Alberta possess everything necessary to make possible the kind of future we all wish to see for ourselves and our children. I have asked for this opportunity to speak to you of these things tonight because my colleagues and I feel we have reached the stage in our planning for the future where we should ask for your direction and seek your endorsation of what we propose.

As your servants in the field of government it has been our practice to seek from you a renewed mandate every four years. We feel that this is the right and proper thing to do now before we proceed further with the implementation of what certainly is the biggest program we have ever undertaken on your behalf.

Because I believe in Alberta, in its future, and in you its people I ask with confidence for your renewed mandate that we may go forward together into the bright tomorrow that under the providence of God will be the reward of our labours."

The above quotations are taken from a television and radio address delivered by Premier Manning on Saturday, evening, May 9th.

Dewberry Ladies' Aid Meet Well Attended

The monthly meeting of the Dewberry Ladies Aid was held at the home of Mrs. Harold Craige and it was most gratifying to see so many out, there being twelve members present. It was indeed a pleasure to have Mrs. Craige Sr., attend too. Following the opening hymn, 'Work for the Night is Coming,' Mrs. W. Young read from the Upper Room.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. It was decided to buy flowers for the church on Mother's Day. A motion was made and seconded to pay the Pension Fund allotment of this charge as it has been due for some time.

The meeting closed with the benediction after which lunch was served by the hostess assisted by her daughter.

Mrs. May Braithwaite will have the June meeting at her home.

Pretty Spring Wedding at Kitscoty

Baskets of spring flowers provided an attractive background when Joan Margaret, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McCourt of Kitscoty, Alberta became the bride of Mr. John Thornton Easton, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Easton of Coronation, Alberta. Rev. D. Wilson performed the double ring ceremony in Erskine United Church, Edmonton.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white taffeta overskirted with lace. The bodice was styled with lily point sleeves and a pearl-trimmed neckline. She carried a cascade of red roses.

Attending the bride were her three sisters. Ruth and Helen wore identical turquoise dresses and carried bouquets of yellow carnations, while Marion, as flower girl, wore a yellow dress and carried a bouquet of white baby mums and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom was attended by Mr. Ronald Webb and Mr. Roger Miller. Mr. Steven Penney ushered the guests to the pews. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Pat Alter and Mrs. George Springham was soloist.

At a reception in the Airlines Hotel, Mr. W. T. McCourt, uncle of the bride proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom ably responded. Mr. Ronald Webb proposed the toast to the bridesmaids and Mr. Roger Miller read the telegrams of best wishes to the bride and groom.

For the happy occasion, the bride's mother wore a blue flowered dress with white accessories and the groom's mother wore a navy flowered dress with off-white accessories. Each wore a corsage of red roses.

For a wedding trip to points in north-western United States, the bride changed to a dusty-blue toned suit with navy accessories completing her ensemble. Her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses and she wore a double strand of pearls with matching earrings.

Mr. and Mrs. Easton will make their home in Edmonton.

Golden Age Club Plans Social

The various committees of the Golden Age Friendship club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Waldenberger on the evening of May 7th with fifteen members present. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. The treasurer's report, the kitchen convener's report, the sick committee's report and the entertainment committee's report were all very favorably received.

Letters of appreciation from Mrs. Mary Shaw, Mrs. Percy Cross and Mr. Walter Fisk were read. It is certainly nice to know how a get-well card can cheer you up folks, and it is hoped you will all be at the social on May 20th. A hearty vote of thanks went to Mrs. Waldenberger for the lovely lunch, which was very well received.

The next social of the club will be held in the Legion hall, on Wednesday evening, May 20th at 8 p.m. sharp. Whist will be played with some very nice prizes to be won, donated by Mrs. Powell. Mrs. Powell is presently in hospital and a speedy recovery is wished her. It is hoped to see her on May 20th. This will be the club's last social event before the summer recess so please make an effort to attend and bring a friend. Lunch will be served.

NEWS from ISLAY

Mr. and Mrs. Barney McGeough and four children called on the Potvins Sunday. They now live in Edmonton but at one time resided in the Trimbleville district on the farm now occupied by Mr. Duddy.

A group of surveyors are busy on the Islay-Dewberry road. It is rumored that the road may be widened and the Vermilion River hill is to be cut down and straightened. At present there is a difficult hairpin bend in it.

Utility men have been busy here the past few days installing gas. Now Mrs. Steinhauer is enjoying this wonderful fuel.

Fresh radishes? Sure, Mrs. Bruce McLennan has them in the hot bed.

Mrs. Ulva McFadyen was a caller at Mrs. Steinhauer's home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sophus Olsen of Kitscoty, Mr. and Mrs. Neil McLennan were dinner guests on Sunday, Mother's day, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McLennan.

Alberta Exterminates More Than 200,000 Rats Since 1951

More than 200,000 rats have been exterminated since 1951 along a 300 mile front of the Saskatchewan - Alberta border, through a year round rat control program conducted by the Alberta Department of Agriculture in co-operation with various municipal governments. The program is maintaining Alberta's status as Canada's only rat-free province.

The rat invasion from Saskatchewan began in 1950. The Pest Control Division of the Agriculture Department initiated a control program and during 1952-53 called in professional exterminators to temporarily halt the invasion. Since 1950 the program has cost approximately $235,000 for a saving of over $1,000,000 damage to Albertans.

A specially trained corps of pest control officers regularly inspect farmsteads in suspected areas. In 1958, 637 farms of 3,774 inspected were found to be infested. The control program exterminated all but 32 colonies which were subsequently wiped out in a follow-up winter campaign.

The area of infestation occurs along a twenty mile wide strip stretching from Medicine Hat in the south to Cold Lake in the north. The westward thrust of the rat movement is felt most keenly at such points as Grande Centre, Onion Lake, Lloydminster, Provost, Alsask, Empress and Schuler.

Two poisons, Warfarin and Pival, are distributed by the government free of charge to farmers, municipalities and urban centres. Pest control officers employed by the Department direct the control program. Over 30,000 pounds of dry-mix and 16,000 quarts of water soluble bait were used to kill an estimated 58,000 rats last year.

The rat is commonly confused with the muskrat although the two animals differ in a number of respects. A rat is usually brown in color; about 16 inches in total length including a seven-inch rounded scaly tail, and weighs about 11 or 12 ounces. The muskrat is much larger with a slightly flattened tail. It also has feathered or "webbed" feet which a rat does not have.

TOMORROW'S DRIVERS

In this age, all Canada is safety conscious. Dr. Arthur F. Van Wart of Fredericton, president of the CMA feels a child should be prepared for driving a car. A sense of timing and muscular co-ordination can be developed by activities such as dancing and bicycle riding. The kiddie-car tractor, ridden by Mike Christopher is a help to the small fry.

More than 3,000 Canadians died in the last decade as a result of accidental poisoning, exceeded only by falls and fires as the most fatal type of home accident.

New Publication On Rural Electrification

When planning a farm electrification system care should be taken to see that it will meet the family requirements and that it will allow for future electrical installations. This is the advice given in the publication entitled "Rural Electrification" prepared by the Extension Service of the Alberta Department of Agriculture in response to rapidly increasing interest in electrical power on the farm.

The purpose of the publication is to acquaint the rural user with electrical terms and meanings. Also to assist him in planning for the eventual use of electricity on the farm and to familiarize him with the various types of electrical equipment and their characteristics. The part on wiring is supplied to give additional knowledge and understanding of wiring principles.

The pamphlet (No. 110) has been approved by the Electrical Inspection Branch of the Department of Industries and Labor.

Forestry authorities figure New Brunswick forests, if raised to full productiveness, could grow twice as much wood in the next 25 years as is done at present.

KITSCOTY

Letters to the Editor

The Editor,
The Vermilion Standard,
Vermilion, Alberta.

Dear Sir,

As we in Canada step hopefully into another year, secure and faith, freedom and harmony, across a world of turmoil and distrust, the beacon of liberty tries valiantly to pierce the dark recesses of deprivation and ignorance, that spell a life of freedom gone, a grim reminder of death, in vain.

We who are bathed in freedom's light must be forever conscious of the fact that its hope of instrumentation and permanence came with the advent of the ballot, and we can retain this shining efficiency only with its continued use.

The eve of each Canadian election offers to each of us an opportunity, not only to consider the personal presentation of the ballot, but to contemplate the result of our decision, and to take a personal as well as a national appraisal. It is also time to dwell in inspiring reverie of the great men who helped raise Canada and the great men Canada raised.

The Fathers of Confederation, whose very principles of government are envied today by millions in countries less fortunate than ours.

A great imprint was made in the history of our nation with the result of the last Dominion election and too much credit cannot be given to the intelligence of the Canadian people as a whole who buried political differences not only to present the Diefenbaker government with a mandate, but to place their nation in the fore-front of all national desires. Many with conflicting political beliefs put personalities before parties to express their faith in John Diefenbaker with the apparent belief that he possessed the leadership qualities needed to lead this great nation to unequalled prosperity and the burning desire to bring an end to inhumane and tyrannical practises, and to establish international confidence and co-operation throughout the world. Failure in this leadership would in all probability result in a third party emerging victorious from the next Federal election, and the first third party government in the history of Canada.

Canada, since the war years, made natural advances that did not stem from, nor could be hindered by, federal government action. Canada, regardless of government action, will continue to advance, but as a child of delinquency born of poor discipline, she would fail hopelessly in the world leadership needs and Canada as never before needs great men at the helm.

The world is on the threshhold of a new era. The dignity of man in union with God's grace coupled with the material miracles of this atomic, hydrogen age, are a nucleus of this new reformation taking place in the world of today. The manner in which these ingredients are mixed may spell the end, or the beginning of a new era.

In view of world uncertainties all eyes are turned towards Canada, the young giant of the north, who is only now feeling its muscles, youthful, untainted by past iniquities, haven to the downtrodden of many lands, her magic wand of love and understanding can further dispel the degrading laws of jungle savagery still prevalent in the affairs of men in many parts of the earthly sphere. Not only can Canada play a vital role today in world affairs, but consideration must be given to Canada's great potential.

Considering Canada's role today in world affairs we must, as Canadians play our parts, lay or clerical, individual or organized, not for medals or fame, but rather that we might feel no twinge of guilt or shame when we sing "Oh Canada, we stand on guard for thee."

Charles Mullan.

OUR LETTER FROM EDMONTON

Soc. Credit Lead With 53 Candidates Nominated; Cons. 46, Liberals 32, CCF 20

by KEN MASON

(Written on May 6th, prior to Election announcement)

EDMONTON — As of the end of last week, the Alberta political picture remained pretty cloudy.

Only one thing was certain — all major political parties are preparing for an election some time in June, with June 18, 22, 25 and 29 being mentioned by observers as the most likely dates.

At the time of writing, there was still a chance Premier Manning would tip his hand sometime over the weekend. If the vote is to be held in June, there will have to be an announcement before too long. The election Act specifies a minimum of 39 days between issuing of election writs and election day.

Premier Manning held a press conference last Friday and reporters were expecting him to announce the date of the forthcoming election. But he skillfully sidestepped all questions and claimed "All I know is what I read in the newspapers."

At week's end, 130 candidates had been named by all parties to contest the 65 seats at stake in the next election. Social Credit led the field with 53 in the field and more nominating conventions coming up within the next two weeks.

Progressive Conservatives had 46 candidates while Liberals placed third with 32 and CCF trailed with 20.

While the premier refused to be drawn on the date of the election last week, he did let the press in on his own plans. He announced he will let his name stand for nomination in the Edmonton riding of Strathcona East.

The Strathcona East nominating convention of the Social Crediters was scheduled for Monday of this week, and there was no doubt Premier Manning would get the nomination. His announcement, however, did end speculation as to where the premier would run for re-election.

In making his announcement, the premier turned down an invitation from Liberal MLA Abe W. Miller to run in the Edmonton riding of Jasper West.

Mr. Miller's invitation was contained in a letter to Alberta daily newspapers. He and J. Percy Page, Conservative MLA are running in Jasper West, and the letter pointed out that it would make an interesting three-way race. In fact, Mr. Miller said it would give voters a chance to "kill two birds with one stone."

Premier Manning's reaction: "I haven't anything against either of the birds. I wouldn't want to see their demise."

For the record, standing in the legislature by parties at present is as follows:

Social Credit, 37; Liberal, 15; Progressive Conservative, 3; C. C. F., 2; Independent, 1; Independent Social Credit, 1; Coalition, 1; Liberal-Conservative, 1; total, 61.

As the week ended, political guessers were still pondering the election talk. Adding significance to the talk was a report Premier Manning planned to go on the air with a province-wide radio and television talk.

Mr. Manning also used his press conference to get in a few digs at the federal government.

Commenting on a report that Ottawa has not yet chosen a route for a proposed new railway to the Northwest Territories, he said the federal government is "glad for an excuse to put it on the shelf."

He said Ottawa "bit off more than it could chew" when it promised the rail link would be built to the mineral-rich south shore of Great Slave Lake. He indicated the dispute in Alberta over the northeastern route vs the northwestern route is giving federal officials an excuse to shelve the plan.

Regarding difficulties facing the Alberta oil industry, he said Ottawa doesn't seem to recognize the serious effect on the country's economy. The lifting of import quotas by the U. S. government isn't enough, he said. What is required is federal pressure on major oil companies to accept more western Canadian crude oil at U. S. refineries.

Public opinion surveys show that a big percentage of Canadians believe labor unions are too prone to use the strike as a weapon.

Impressive Ceremony Marks C. G. I. T. Graduation

On May 10th, an impressive ceremony was held at the United church when seven girls graduated from C. G. I. T. The girls, Merle Marshall, Betty Robinson, Laurian Edey, Jeanette Wilson, Marie Tovell, Frances Mihalcheon, and Elizabeth Stewart, have all attended C. G. I. T. for the past six years. At the service, which was led by Margaret Rooks, Laurian Edey, the valedictorian, very ably expressed the feelings of the group. The girls were presented with their diplomas and roses by Mrs. H. Tebbutt. Following this, white Bibles were presented to the graduates who had attended Sunday school for the past twelve years. Mrs. C. MacKay spoke on the value of Bible reading and pointed out the special features of the girls' Bibles. These included a concordance, presentation page, and red printing of Jesus' words. Mr. E. Schurman, superintendent of the Sunday School, then presented the Bibles to Merle Marshall, Laurian Edey, Jeanette Wilson, Marie Tovell and Elizabeth Stewart.

On Monday, May 11, the annual C. G. I. T. Mother and Daughter banquet was held. The theme this year was "Over the Rainbow," and the church hall was well decorated in accordance with this theme. Merle Marshall, president of the C. G. I. T. this year, was the chairman. Dorothy Tovell gave the toast to the church which was replied to by Mr. E. Schurman; Jean Stephens proposed the toast to the mothers which was responded to by Mrs. J. Wright, and Mrs. F. Stewart proposed the toast to the C. G. I. T. girls which was replied to by Margaret Rooks.

Following the toasts, the graduates sang the theme song "Over the Rainbow" and then Mrs. N. Bentley, the guest speaker, spoke on Egypt and the contrast to life there to what we enjoy here.

Mrs. C. MacKay presented Ten Commandment bracelets to Elizabeth Stewart, Evelyn Pool and Mrs. E. Samuelson for the best-done Bible Study lessons and for learning the 13th chapter of 1 Corinthians.

Mrs. H. Clarke paid tribute to Mrs. A. Kather for her leadership this year and representatives from each group presented their leaders with gifts.

Other items on the programme were two songs, "Bless This House" and "Side by Side" by the seniors; a solo by Glenda Brennan accompanied by Dorothy Jean Stewart; a song-skit by the intermediates; a song, "Tammy" by the juniors; a piano solo by Sharon Martin, and a very amusing skit, "Ministers Haven't Anything To Do" by the graduates.

The last C. G. I. T. meeting for this year will be held on May 20, when the girls are going on a hike.

The bear hunt will start May 16 despite protests of the mass slaying of he animals. Suggestions have been made that the hats be made of nylon.

WILDMERE WINKS

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to Mr. Jimmie Stone and his sister on the passing of their father last week. Mr. Stone Sr. lived a good, long and active life, coming west in the early days and farming near Beaver Lake, at Tofield. He later moved to south of Kitscoty where he had made his home since. Another of our grand old pioneers who had seen vast changes in the country during his lifetime. Up until only a short time before his death he was about doing chores which he still thought he should do. He passed his 95th birthday last March. A grand old age.

On Tuesday of last week Mrs. F. Gibson of Basswood underwent a serious operation in the Vermilion hospital. We are pleased to say at time of writing that she is coming along very well. Mrs. Ken Shepherd is taking care of the house.

On Thursday of last week Mrs. D. Hughes very kindly took Mrs. Holte, Mrs. Roy Dibben, the student minister Mr. Nicholls and Mrs. Wallington to the conveners' conference of St. Paul Presbytery of the United Church held in Lloydminster at Grace United church where some thirty-five or forty ladies gathered. The president, Mrs. Roddick of Viking very ably conducted the meeting. It was approved that after the 1960 annual conference, which will be held in Viking, they will be held in Vermilion as Vermilion is more central for all groups in the Presbytery. The Lloydminster W.A. served a delicious hot dinner to the group, and later lunch before we left for home.

We were pleased to see such a nice turnout to Sunday school and church on Sunday evening numbering 41 in all. It gives our student encouragement in his chosen work. He gave a very interesting sermon.

Vast changes are taking place on the coulee hill on our road to town which is also being straightened out past Mr. Bell's farm. We may have a black-topped road yet in the distant future, who knows?

Seeding is going ahead but only slowly as the weather is so cold and unseasonable. Men come in off the tractors nearly frozen. Trees which started to come into leaf during the few warm days now seem to be at a standstill.

Mr. Adam Smith accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Cruthers, went to Wainwright on Sunday afternoon where a supper was enjoyed — giving the ladies a break on Mother's day.

The writer will be in Edmonton this week as a delegate to the Home and School convention held at Convocation hall, University of Alberta, from Wednesday to Friday.

Snow flurries have been in effect for the past week and on Monday were still having their fling, the last, we hope. High winds have blown topsoil considerably rendering visibility nil at times across farm fields.

A happy time was reported at the weiner roast social held by the A.Y.P.A. members at the Innisfree lakeside cottage of the leader, Nancy Coxford.

Dr Bourke medical superintendent of the Minburn-Vermilion Health Unit addressed the Vermilion Rotary club last Friday. The subject of his talk was the health unit and its function.

Dr Bourke stated that a large part of the work of the unit is concerned with preventative medicine. There are six nurses on the staff and a considerable part of their time is taken up with immunization of both children and adults to [illegible] scarlet fever, whooping cough, etc.

The nurses on the staff recommend to parents that they take their children to dentists or physicians where teeth or eyes require attention.

The speaker said that health units have a good deal to do in the control and prevention of T B in the area.

Also there is a sanitation inspector who checks on cafes for enforcement of sanitary requirements. Food, water and milk are checked regularly for clean storage and handling.

The guest speaker was introduced by Ken Rowe who said that Dr Bourke was born in Ulster where he graduated as a surgeon and where he practised medicine with his father before coming to Canada a year ago. Curt Aiken thanked the speaker for his very informative address on a subject that the club was glad to hear about.

Jack Kneale reported that the auto driving school started last Friday with a full class of learners. This school is sponsored by the Alberta Motor Association and by the local Rotary club.

President Jim Robson was chairman of the meeting.

TEACHERS BY DAY, PUPILS BY NIGHT

One night a week for the past 24 weeks, some 200 teachers in North York, Ont. have been learning how the student half of the world lives. They have become students again and follow a course of advanced training in general educational procedures. Forty-seven of them are taking a strenuous physical education course, twirling hula hoops and skipping ropes, above. The course, which corresponds to summer school courses, concludes with exams which the teachers must pass if they wish to receive a higher teaching standing and corresponding increase in salary.

Members of Fire Brigade And Guests Enjoy Annual Banquet

Members of the Vermilion Fire Brigade took time out on Friday evening to enjoy their annual banquet and to entertain a number of guests. The gathering indicated that the fire fighters can enjoy themselves as a group just as effectively as they can fight a fire as a unit.

Fire Chief Ken Urquhart was emcee for the evening and kept a program of short speeches rolling along rapidly after introducing the guests of the evening who were Mayor Hill and Mrs. Hill, councillor Reg Ireland and Mrs. Ireland, councillor Chas Thompson, councillor Ken Rowe and Mrs. Rowe, Ashley Cooper and Mrs. Cooper, as well as all the wives of the firemen and the guest speaker Mr Al Johnson and Mrs Johnson of Edmonton.

Herb Lemaureux led in some snappy community singing and this was followed by short talks by His Worship Mayor Hill, councillor Reg Ireland who is chairman of the fire committee, Albert Hareuther assistant fire chief whom Ken claimed had difficulty finding his way around town, Mrs Russell Carroll who gave impressions and re-action of a fireman's wife, Ashley Cooper, Editor of the Standard.

Guest speaker was Mr. Al Johnson of the office of the Alberta Fire Commissioner Edmonton. Mr Johnson expressed the regrets of Fire Commissioner Austin Bridges who looked forward to the annual Vermilion firemen's banquet and was a regular attendant but due to a former commitment was unable to be present this year. During the course of his remarks he stated that the Vermilion Fire Brigade was noted in his office for their co-operation and the practically negligible fire loss in town was a tribute to the efficiency of the brigade.

Mr Johnson was accompanied by his wife who was also present as a special guest of the Brigade.

Catering was by the ladies of the Royal Purple, the members being called in, congratulated and thanked by chairman Urquhart for the splendid meal they had served.

The banquet is held annually by the Fire Brigade, the one occasion of the year when they get together for sociability and relaxation instead of fire fighting or fire practice.

Girls' Auxil. Gather At Home of Leader

MANNVILLE — Members of Christ Church Girls' Auxiliary met at the home of leader Joan Lugg on Tuesday, May 5. Plans are also under consideration for a wind-up party prior to summer holidays, to be held outdoors if possible.

Hi-C Expresses Appreciation

The members of the United Church Hi-C would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who had their cars washed on May 9 and helped to make our car wash a success.

We would like to give special thanks to those who provided transportation from place to place, to Mr Ackerman for getting us organized and keeping us going, to Mrs. Herbert and the group of ladies who served us lunch and supper in the church, to all the mothers who sent food, and to those ladies who had us in for a cup of hot coffee when we washed their cars.

Your co-operation and kindness is much appreciated.

We are sure that if you are as pleased with the results as we are, we will be able to have another successful car wash in the near future.

Allan Cup Champion

Whitby Dunlops won the Allan Cup four games to one as they swamped the Vernon B.C. Canadians 5-2. Sid Smith, shown above with the cup, announced he is retiring from hockey. Smith played with the Toronto Maple Leafs for several seasons and in 1958 returned to top-level amateur competition. As player-coach he led the Whitby team that year to the world championship against Russia.

Bride-Elect Of May Is Feted

MANNVILLE — Complimenting a bride-elect of May a miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mrs. Hugh Doherty, sponsored by Barbara's school girl friends at Mannville High. The many lovely gifts were piled on a double deck coffee table and were opened by Barbara's mother Mrs. Walter Hinton and sister Judy. Previously the girls had arranged an interesting number of stunts, one of which was to "dress the bride contest" in which newspapers were used extensively, and resulted in out of this world creations (not by Dior either!). Barbara thanked all her friends for the honor bestowed on her, while lunch served by the girls concluded an enjoyable evening.

Bride-Elect Feted At Mannville

MANNVILLE — Tuesday evening, May 5 was the time selected for a miscellaneous shower to honor Doreen Gerhart whose marriage to Bernard Chey took place May 9. Many were the beautiful gifts received at this event. Following a series of interesting contests Mrs. Hugh Doherty presented the bride with her gifts and in well chosen words outlined Doreen's activities. Helping to open gifts were Doreen's mother Mrs. Gerhart and her sister Janet. Doreen thanked all present in a sincere manner and lunch climaxed a happy evening.

Cubs Distribute May Baskets To Shut-Ins, Patients

The number one and number two Vermilion Cub packs recently held a joint meeting and distributed the May baskets that have become an annual event.

The pretty colored baskets of goodies and spring flowers were delivered by the cubs, to the elderly shut-ins in town and at the hospital. Baskets also went to some of the younger shut-ins who are confined indoors.

Approximately sixty-five baskets were made and delivered, and from all reports, are very much appreciated.

If any elderly shut-ins were missed it was simply because their names had not been handed in to the leaders and was in no way intentional.

BOTTLE DRIVE

The Vermilion cub packs held a bottle drive last Saturday. Those boys that turned out really worked hard and collected quite a number of bottles.

Many thanks to the parents who turned out with their cars and those who donated bottles.

Many Attend Career Night Programme At Mannville

MANNVILLE — Meeting in the high school auditorium recently, approximately 175 parents and students from grades nine to twelve inclusive, enjoyed a "Career Night" program from which all greatly benefitted. Mr. Hugh Doherty, principal of the Mannville school, introduced Professor B. Deckrell, Faculty of Education, University of Alberta, Edmonton, who in turn, introduced the other guest speakers for the evening as follows: — Commercial opportunities — A. D. McTavish, McTavish Business College, Edmonton. Armed Forces — Captain W. Barry, Canadian Army, Edmonton; University Training — D. Fair, Student Advisory Services, University of Alberta; Technical Training — J. W. McKenzie, Institute of Technology and Art, Calgary; Nursing — Miss Laurie Lovett, of Minburn-Vermilion Health Unit. Specific Occupations — G. L. Spears, Assistant Supervisor of Guidance, Edmonton. Mr Spears also acted as chairman for the evening. Vermilion School of Agriculture and Home Economics — Mr N N Bentley; Apprenticeship and Trades Training — Sydney Wallator, Provincial Supervisor of Trades and Training, Department of Industries and Labour.

Mr. Hugh Doherty warmly welcomed all present and thanked those counsellors of the evening with a touch of notable graciousness and humor.

Following these preliminaries, the various counsellors retired to separate classrooms where students and parents could attend two of these meetings, thus enabling the student to come to a decision regarding what career he would follow after receiving his schooling. Grades nine and ten for instance, would then know what high school courses to take, which might prove most beneficial in the particular field in which each student was interested. Many good points were stressed regarding the student's education by the counsellors.

Mrs. Hugh Doherty presided as hostess in her usual gracious manner, for the lunch which followed, in the home economics room to the teachers and counsellors.

West Featured In U. S. Radio Series

WINNIPEG — Western Canada, and its unique attractions to tourists, will be brought home to millions of Americans in nine weekly broadcasts over a network of 356 U S radio stations from California to Maine, in Alaska and the Virgin Islands. It is estimated that the series will be heard in some 70 million American homes.

In these 15 minute programs, Canadian born commentator, Peter Roberts will describe Winnipeg, St Boniface and The Pas in Manitoba; Saskatoon in Saskatchewan; Edmonton and Calgary in Alberta and Vancouver, Victoria and Prince Rupert in British Columbia.

The broadcasts are part of a series of 26 recorded programs produced and distributed by the Public Relations Dept of the Canadian National Railways. The series, entitled "This is Canada," has Peter Roberts telling of the cities and towns in each province, the universities, the arts and crafts and even the weather. Canadian folk songs are introduced at appropriate spots in each broadcast.

This is the third consecutive year in which the series has been produced by the CNR to attract American tourists to Canada. Each year a different theme has been featured.

Vermilion R.C.A.F. Officer Named Fire School Chief

WINNIPEG — For the past three years fire marshal at the R. C. A. F.'s Training Group Headquarters here, Flying Officer W. J. (Bill) Maggs, son of Mr and Mrs. George Maggs of Vermilion, moves to a new appointment this week. He has been named officer commanding the Fire School at the RCAF Aircraft Trade School, Camp Borden, Ontario.

Born and educated in Vermilion, F/O Maggs went to sea for three years with Canadian Pacific Steamship Co., before joining the RCAF in Vancouver in 1943. As a member of the fire prevention division of the construction engineering branch, he served at stations from Lachine, P. Q., to Patricia Bay, B. C. In 1953 he went to Europe for three years as fire chief at the RCAF's No. 3 Fighter Wing, part of the Canadian NATO force in Germany.

F/O Maggs takes a keen interest in youthful sporting activities, and while in Winnipeg has been active in coaching little league and pony league baseball teams and junior hockey teams both RCAF and civilian.

As a farm raised Albertan, he has always loved horses. For the past five years, in partnership with his brother Bob Maggs, he has been breeding and training purebred Arabians on their 160-acre farm near Vermilion. They have had several show successes, including a Canadian Grand Championship at Calgary in 1955.

F/O Maggs is married to the former Edna Jean Mayhew of South Burnaby, B. C. and they have three children, Randy, 15, Darryl, 10 and Wendy 7½.

Succeeding F/O Maggs as Fire Marshal is F/O P. S. (Phil) Barrett, who comes from the Fire Marshal's branch at Air Force Headquarters, Ottawa.

Born at Totton, England in 1920, F/O Barrett was educated at Guelph, Ontario and Ottawa. He joined the RCAF as a fire-fighter in 1940 and held the appointment of fire chief at various air force stations across Canada before receiving his commission in 1953. He is married to the former Lois Sarsfield of Brandon, Man., who with their three sons and two daughters, remain in Ottawa while F/O Barrett locates suitable accommodation here.

Pretty Wedding Is Solemnized At Paradise Valley

BOUCK — ADAMS

PARADISE VALLEY — The Church of God at Paradise Valley was the scene of an attractive wedding on April 25 when Miss Marilyn Adams became the bride of Mr. Ralph Bouck. The bride's parents, Mr and Mrs Robert Adams reside at Paradise Valley and the groom's parents are Mr and Mrs. Harry Bouck of Wainwright.

The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev Harvey Johnson, assisted by Rev. A. A. Lewis of Wainwright.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her floor length gown was of white satin with an overlay of lace. She wore an attractive headpiece over her chapel length veil and carried a bouquet of red roses.

The bride was attended by Miss Darlene Adams of Paradise Valley, Mrs. Royden Gilchrist of Victoria, both sisters of the bride, and Miss Norma Goodman of Edmonton. All three attendants wore identical dresses of red velvet with white feather hats and gloves. Their flowers were white carnations.

The groom was attended by Mr Reg Newal of Guelph, Ontario and Mr Royden Gilchrist and Mr Don Adams were ushers.

The bride's mother, Mrs Adams wore a navy suit with pink accessories and corsage and Mrs Bouck mother of the groom chose a light blue ensemble with pink accessories and corsage.

A reception for 130 guests was held in the Paradise Valley Community hall following the ceremony. Mrs. E. L. Sunderland proposed the bridal toast and Mr Allan Bouck of Camrose was master of ceremonies. Later in the evening Mr and Mrs Adams held open house in honor of the bride and groom and their many friends.

Mr and Mrs Bouck motored to Banff for the honeymoon. For travelling, the bride wore a light blue suit with pink accessories and a corsage to match.

They will make their home near Kitscoty.

Out-of-town guests included Mr and Mrs Royden Gilchrist and Mrs. Gladys Thompson of Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. M. Fredlund, Three Hills; Mr. and Mrs Gust Paulgaard and Mr Lars Paulgaard of Provost; Mr. Reg Newal of Guelph, Ontario and friends from Wainwright, Edmonton, Camrose and Carstairs.

Glendonald and District Activities

The sad news was received recently by Mrs. Clement Forestell of the passing of her mother Mrs. Lillian Atkinson in Victoria, B. C. Mrs. Atkinson, who had been making her home with another married daughter had been in failing health for several years. Mr and Mrs. Atkinson lived in the Rusylvia district [illegible] years leaving there [illegible] for the coast. Mr Atkinson predeceased his wife a year or more ago.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Ernest Stanley whose brother Vince passed away quite recently. This is the third brother he has lost during a period of only two years.

These days, when so many rural dwellers are pulling up stakes and moving to supposedly greener pastures it is quite refreshing to notice one family who intend to remain right in the district. Mr and Mrs John Nowakowski sold out their extensive farm holdings in the Rusylvia district about a year ago and last fall purchased the farm of Mrs. Smith, widow of the late Jim Smith which is located just south of town. This summer Mr and Mrs. Nowakowski are erecting a lovely home on the property with all the modern facilities. The home which will be a three bedroom size when completed, will represent an investment in the neighborhood of ten thousand dollars. We would like to take this opportunity of wishing John and family many years of comfort and happiness in their new home.

Quite recently the writer and his brother spent a very pleasant evening at the home of a former district resident whom they had not seen for almost thirty years. Clarence Vance left here as a lad of about eleven years of age in 1930 when his family moved to Rosevear near Edson. He now makes his home in Jasper Place is married and has three daughters. Clarence has worked at many points since leaving here and growing up, and is at present working at a plywood plant. He is no stranger to many around here who remember the family well and there are besides, many relatives in the nearby district. His mother is well known to many as the former Florence Graumann whose family lived at Raft Lake for many years.

Miss Marilyn Brake who has completed her first year in Education at the U of A, was home for the week end not long ago. She is now back in the city employed in the veteran's ward of the Col. Mewburn hospital and likes her work very much.

Another former resident, Donny Good is quite a frequent visitor here. He and his father are employed at a service station just south of the subway on the road to the Namao airport.

We are pleased to report that both Eileen and Clifford Good, who have had to take treatment in Edmonton for their ailments, have been told by their doctors that they are well on the road to complete recovery.

Crossing the ferry at Lindbergh was quite a novel experience for the writer recently. The water was so low that great difficulty was experienced in getting across on account of rocks that had been washed down when the ice went out. It seemed rather strange to see the ferryman don hip waders and step out in the middle of the river to heave the ferry off a rock. Deepest point in the river was about four feet which is the lowest that it has been for many years.

Mrs. Tony Charchun, a former village resident, was a guest of Mr and Mrs. Matt Kada over the week end. She made the trip down with John Tkachuk who is employed in the city and gets home almost every week end. The Charchuns have a home on the south side in a district south of the University buildings.

Tom Souder, former town business man has informed us that Frank, who does geophysical work, is now in Anchorage, Alaska and may be stationed there permanently. Tom has the heavy responsibility of taking care of Mrs. Souder who is in extremely poor health. He is always very pleased to see old acquaintances from this area.

I believe the West will eventually win the world to its side, because of its belief of the freedom and dignity of the human personality.

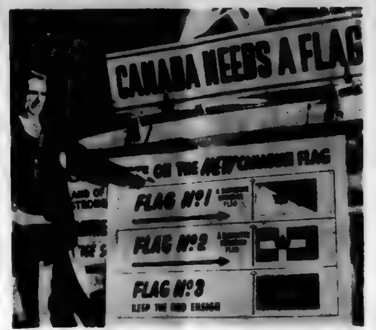
TRAVELLING SALESMAN FOR CANADIAN FLAG

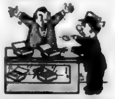


John Heysel, 29, of Thorold, Ont., stands beside a large copy of the ballot he has passed out to Canadians as he travelled across the nation. For the past five years Mr. Heysel has tried to sell a distinctive national flag by taking a poll of the population preferences. The crusader will speak "anywhere, anytime a Canadian will listen." He is planning a concentrated campaign in Ontario where he expects the toughest opposition.

HAVE FUN!

By LES SHYAN

The man bought a cigar, and then left. Five minutes later he dashed back to the store. "That cigar," he shouted, "is simply awful."



"It's all very well for you to complain," said the storekeeper, "you've only got one. I've got hundreds of the darn things."

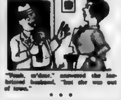
"Couldn't you think of anything better than coming home in this drunken condition?" asked the outraged wife.



"Yeah, m'dear," answered the lame-brained husband, "but she was out of town."

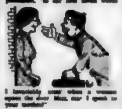
"I owe my success as a salesman," said the speaker addressing the gathering of young men being trained for the profession, "to the first seven words



I invariably utter when a woman opens the door: 'Miss, may I speak to your mother?'"

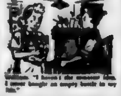
Wife: "William, how do you suppose these dozens of empty bottles got into the basement?"

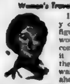


William: "I haven't the remotest idea. I never bought an empty bottle in my life."

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane

Women's Travel Authority



In February, you probably figured April would never come but here it is, bringing the promise of warmer weather ahead. And so now's the time to prepare your car for it.

Have your service station dealer:

1. Drain winter oil from the crankcase, and put in heavier oil.
2. Check the oil filter; replace if necessary.
3. Give car thorough lubrication.
4. When danger of frost is over drain antifreeze, flush the radiator and check hose connections for leaks. Refill radiator with fresh water and add a rust inhibitor.
5. Check spark plugs, points, ignition timing, carburetor, fuel pump and air filter.
6. Check tires for worn treads, cuts, abrasions. Make sure they are rotated at least every 5000 miles.
7. Check entire electrical system. It has probably been used plenty in cold weather after dark driving.
8. Look at the fluid in the automatic transmission.
9. Give car a thorough washing to take away any traces of salt or other corrosive residue used on roads. Then wax.
10. Now you are set for summer. Drive carefully — have fun!

Lake Superior, deepest of the Great Lakes, has a maximum depth of 1,302 feet. Our deepest river, the Saguenay in Quebec, has depths exceeding 700 feet.

Marwayne F.W.U.A. To Send Delegates To Young People's Week

MARWAYNE — The April meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Goline Kvill with Lil Quist and Ruby Kvill as co-hostesses.

There was a very good attendance and everyone was glad to see Dorothy Mike back at the meeting after her long stay in hospital.

The meeting opened with the singing of Roll Along Silvery Moon.

Money was made available to send either a boy or girl to Farm Young People's Week in Edmonton.

The club bought three books of tickets for the junior F. U. A. Queen contestant from this area.

A donation of $10.00 was made to the Legion Polio Fund and one for $25.00 to the Catholic Church Building Fund.

It was decided to cater to the Kent-Hancock wedding reception on July 4th.

The Flower Show committee was named, being the same as last year.

The May meeting will be at the home of Doris Tupper on May 25th.

It is a very easy thing to devise good laws; the difficulty is to make them effective.

Cliff Smallwood Speaks At Ottawa On Deficiency Payments

Mr Chairman, at this time I should like to spend a few moments referring to the remarks made by the hon. member for Assiniboia about the way in which western members had betrayed Western Canada. I am sorry that the hon. member is not in his seat, but if his colleague would care to go up and get him I would be glad to repeat my remarks while he is in the chamber, because I would prefer he was in the house at the time I am making them.

I can assure the committee that I have not betrayed either my constituents or western Canada. I still live on my farm and in my constituency. I did not leave my people and move to Ottawa. I am still living there with my people. But it seems to me that ever since we came into this house we have had to listen to irresponsible remarks by the hon. member for Assiniboia.

We have only been in power for one year. During that period, however, this government has enacted the Agricultural Stabilization Act. It has amended the Animal Contagious Diseases Act and the Canadian Farm Loan Act. It has also amended the Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Act, made a start on the South Saskatchewan dam project, has amended the P. F. A. A. and authorized subsidiary payments to western grain growers. Prairie farm assistance amounted to $25 million: acreage payments amounted to $41,300,000, the surplus disposal plan for wheat, to $35 million interest on cash advances, $1 million, and storage charges $37 million: a total of $139,300,000. And yet we have these irresponsible people in the C. C. F. group getting up and saying we have done nothing. I wonder why they do not take the trouble to look over the figures.

We have today a prime minister who knows more about the troubles of western Canada than previous prime ministers. He has representatives here from the farms of western Canada working together with him. We do not meet the press every day with a bunch of irresponsible remarks, but we are working together with the prime minister, for the betterment of agriculture and for the betterment of this country. It is time the people realized what is going on instead of listening to the bunch of rubbish put out by the C. C. F. along the lines of what we hear every day.

The C. C. F. group supports deficiency payments. They are in favor of everything. If we were to give agriculture $5,000, they would give $10,000. If we were to give $5 million, they would give $25 million. They are irresponsible. They have no responsibility to Canada, and they never will have. It is time they realized it themselves. The hon. member for Bow River suggested that the C. C. F. and the C. L. C. would be married off. That would be a sad thing to take place, because if it did it would be too bad for the farmers of western Canada, they would be playing the role of the unwilling bride in that marriage.

Now with regard to deficiency payments. They say we are against it. I am not against deficiency payments. Nobody would be better off than myself because I would get a cheque for $4,500 and my neighbor probably one for $500 or $600. That would be a great sin would it not? We got last year $41 million to take out west and if we divided it up like a deficiency payment, how much would the small farmer get? Twenty-five per cent of the producers would get 75 per cent of the money. Then they brought down a brief and they want us to go back to 1955, 1956, 1957. Is that the responsibility of this government when the Liberals were in power and the C. C. F. from the western provinces were down here? It is not our responsibility to rectify those mistakes made by the representatives of the people of western Canada in those years.

Then there was talk of betrayal, that we betrayed western Canada. I will tell you who betrayed western Canada. It was Jack Wesson of the Saskatchewan wheat pool. In 1946 Wesson and the Saskatchewan wheat pool put the pressure on the government to sign the British wheat agreement. When my colleague, the minister of northern affairs, accused them of this the other day, finally the member for Assiniboia said that it was not true. Let us go back to the 1946 Hansard when they were discussing the British wheat agreement, and we see the hon. member for Assiniboia speaking, as reported on page 4939 of Hansard on August 15 1946. He said:

'I agree with the leader of this group (Mr. Coldwell) who stated that we in this party welcome the agreement.'

Then we turn over the page and see the member for Assiniboia again speaking. He said as reported on page 4941

I welcome the wheat agreement.'

Plymouth, Dodge Offer New Improved 6-Cylinder Engines

New and improved engines, which are designed to provide economical trouble-free motoring, are now being installed in the six-cylinder models of Plymouth and Dodge passenger cars produced by Chrysler of Canada.

These greatly improved power plants are identified by their unique gold paint finish. Plymouth's new sixes have been called the "Econo-Jets." In the Dodge they are known as the "Econo-Flites."

Chrysler of Canada engineers, who have been working for some months on the improvement of the six cylinder engines, state that better performance and gasoline economy are being delivered by the new "Econo" class engines.

Better gasoline mileage is attributed to increased compression ratio. New valves provide greater durability and full-pressure lubrication system assures lubrication to all moving parts.

The proven and popular "L-Head" engine design has been retained. In this engine there are few parts to wear out, Chrysler engineers point out, and it can be counted on for dependability and economical maintenance. "Hushed" valve action assures smoother quieter engine operation.

Health Unit Notes

DISPOSAL OF COMMUNITY WASTES

The proper disposal of waste materials produced for our day-to-day living is essential. As population increases and lives together in larger communities, the job of removing these wastes becomes a most important task. In fact, should a breakdown of waste removal services occur for any reason, life in large cities such as New York, London and Paris can be brought to a standstill in a matter of hours.

Due to many years of public health education and experience, the citizens of our communities now realize how essential it is to provide a safe supply of water and how necessary it is to provide expensive sewers and sewage disposal systems to remove these liquid wastes and dispose of them in a manner safe to all.

Now we all agree that the proper disposal of liquid waste, which we will call sewage is important. How do we feel about the disposal of solid waste which we shall call garbage?

Experienced health officials feel that proper handling and disposal of garbage forms a most important part of their programme to keep down the spread of disease in a community and to improve the local surroundings and environment in which its residents live.

The disposal of garbage (solid wastes) has been the 'Cinderella' of the waste removal services as far as getting moral and financial support from the citizens it serves, to help modernize and improve the services to meet the needs of the ever growing communities.

Such a situation as mentioned in the previous paragraph presents a challenge to health authorities to renew their efforts to keep the public informed on the importance of work, why charges are necessary and how they can co-operate.

Sherry Ann Shomachuk, 13 Months Loses Life On Buffalo Coulee Farm

Little Sherry Ann Shomachuk, 13 months old, was killed late Saturday afternoon when run over by a truck driven by her father. The accident took place on the farm home of Mr. Arthur Phenney for whom the little girl's father, Mr. Leo Shomachuk works.

Mr. and Mrs. Shomachuk and their three children live in a separate house on the farm of Mr. Phenney, located about 20 miles south-east of Vermilion. On Saturday afternoon, Mr Shomachuk was engaged in moving some garbage with a ton truck. This was in the neighborhood of the house and little Sherry Ann was watching him. She had run out to the truck twice and he had carried her back and set her on the doorstep of the house. When ready to drive the truck to a second clean up spot he had looked for the little girl and seen her sitting on the step. After driving the truck to the second clean up spot he got out to load up and saw Sherry Ann lying on the ground and realized that she must have been run over.

Dr. Hasinoff was phoned at Mannville and the little girl rushed towards the Mannville hospital. They were met on the way by Dr Hasinoff who examined Sherry Anne and pronounced her already dead.

Mr. and Mrs. Shomachuk have two older children, both boys.

All students were able to choose two special interest speakers to gather factual material as to the nature of the work, type and location of further training required beyond high school, employment opportunities, job satisfactions and hazards and the selection of high school courses that would be further preparation of one's career. A ten minute period was set aside for questions by students.

Students and their parents visiting Kitscoty were served a hot drink with their lunch before the return trip. Speakers and visiting teachers were the guests of the Kitscoty high school and dormitory staffs at lunch and of the Vermilion Home and School Association for a delightful afternoon tea in the Home Economics room at the end of the day. Hospital Receives Bequest Of $1000 From Franco Public Service

The Vermilion municipal hospital has been bequeathed $1,000.00 by the Franco Public Service Co. and have already received the cheque for that amount.

Franco Public Service was the company which first supplied natural gas to the town of Vermilion. The company later sold its holdings to the Northwestern Utilities and as there was no further point in continuing operations the company has been dissolved. When all the business affairs had been completed it was found that $1,000.00 remained in the treasury. This could have been divided among the shareholders which possibly number in the hundreds, but would have meant little to each, and the cost of distribution would have consumed the entire $1,000.00. The executors of the company then decided to make the generous donation to some worthy institution in Vermilion, and chose the hospital.

Interesting Facts From Town Census

Some very interesting facts were gathered up by John Wilson in the recent civic census conducted in the town of Vermilion. The total figures amounted to 2240, some 80 more than one year ago.

In addition to totalling the population it was found that 51 houses in town were occupied by only one person: 132 houses by two persons; 93 by three persons, 78 by four and 147 by five or more people. This relates to private residences and does not include rooming houses or apartment blocks. This makes a total of 501 residences in Vermilion.

The 2240 does not include those living on the V. S. A. campus. The campus is outside the town limits. Population on the V.S.A grounds is approximately eighty.

Legion Sends $1212 To Polio Fund

Chairman Vic Tillett of the Legion Polio fund committee reports that a cheque for $1212 was sent to Edmonton head quarters recently. Fossils From Glacial Age

The fossil shells found recently by Harry Ames imbedded in a sandstone rock are strange specimens from the Devonian waterways formation according to information from the Department of Geology University of Alberta. They were brought by the glaciers that moved down from the McMurray area in the last ice age.

No Change In Location Highway 41

Every once in awhile, rumors crop up that surveyors are hard at work surveying a new route for highway 41. Sometimes this new route is 5 miles east, sometimes 10 and so on. Ashley Cooper was asked to investigate these rumors and as a result of an interview with Highways Minister Gordon Taylor on Monday was able to give a reassuring report to Board of Trade members at the Wednesday noon day luncheon.

Mr Cooper quoted Mr. Taylor as stating "with reference to highway 41 we have not given any consideration to relocating this highway in the vicinity of Vermilion. The survey parties working are certainly not members of this department. I cannot understand where rumors like this originate as we have never even given consideration to relocating highway 41 in the vicinity of Wainwright and Vermilion."

Highway 41 from Wainwright is being extended south to Czar and some location work is being done on the south end for this [illegible].

Rotary Club Wins In Province-Wide Competitions

The second victory was for having the highest number of 100% meetings during the same time. Ross Banks the president-elect made the report to the Rotary meeting here and displayed the handsome trophies which will be held in custody for one year.

GUEST SPEAKER MR. PAT ROWAN

Mr Pat Rowan who is in charge of the driver testing program for the provincial government was the guest speaker. He stated that only about half the applicants for a driver's license pass the test at the first try. One man had fourteen examinations in two years before he finally passed.

Mr Rowan said that it is required that the driver has skill in the operation of the car, and that he knows the rules of the road. The examiner must be very sure of the driver's ability before he can make the decision to issue a driver's license. He is under a great responsibility to the public.

Mr Rowan was introduced by Mr Bob Carmichael one of the district examiners for driving licenses while the speaker was thanked for his very fine address by Jack Kneale. Mr John Wilkie, another examiner was also a guest of the club on this occasion.

Other guests present were Blythe B Davidson of Canadian Utilities, Drumheller, and Rev W A Champion, newly appointed Anglican minister of Vermilion. Visiting Rotarians were Cpl Harry Ames of Vegreville and Dave Mellon of Lloydminster.

Cold Facts About Drinking and Driving

A drinking driver was involved in at least 30% of all fatal U.S. traffic accidents last year.

Twenty-three per cent of the adult pedestrians had been drinking.

Forty-eight per cent of the Labor Day fatal traffic accidents involved a drinking driver.

In many accident cases, the fact that a driver has been drinking is not recorded and is never entered in the driver's official record.

In spite of past and present efforts to increase safety education and traffic enforcement too many drinking drivers are still operating on our streets and highways.

The social drinkers are a greater menace than commonly believed, as their critical judgment is impaired with a fairly low alcohol concentration and they out number the obviously intoxicated drivers.

Small amounts of alcohol reduce judgment, self-control and driving ability.

Drinking to any extent reduces the ability of any driver.

Alcohol is not a stimulant and is classified medically as depressant.

Loss of judgment and the capacity for self-criticism occurs before obvious symptoms of intoxication.

It takes at least three hours to oxidize (eliminate) one ounce of pure alcohol (about 2 cocktails).

Two cocktails (about 0.04% of alcohol in the blood) may reduce visual acuity as much as wearing dark glasses at night.

"Under the Influence" means that due to drinking alcohol a person has lost (to any degree) some of the clearness of mind and self-control that he would otherwise possess.

You do not have to be obviously intoxicated to be "Under the Influence" and an unsafe driver.

Pure alcohol leaves no odor on the breath — it is the flavors in the beverage that cause the odor.

Coffee or other stimulants will not offset the effects of alcohol. Only TIME can eliminate alcohol from the blood stream.

Chemical tests provide the police with a scientific means to determine whether or not alcohol has reduced a driver's ability.

Emotional Problems Cause Many University Drop-Outs

The "spoon-feeding" of children has been blamed for the high drop-out rate in universities, according to a communication from the American Medical Association received by the Health League of Canada.

Four out of 10 students at university today will not stay long enough to be graduated. The root of this high rate is said to lie in psychological troubles. The students simply are not mature enough to cope with college and its demands.

They are products of an era of "spoon-feeding", according to the release. When the student gets to college and finds that everything is not done for him, he cracks up and drops out.

There are, of course, other reasons for leaving, including financial difficulties, marriage or inability to meet the necessary intellectual standards.

Some suggestions were offered to parents and students for handling these college emotional problems.

Parents can help their children remain in college by leaving the children alone; by seeing that they have information about college and career selections, but letting them make their own choice; by refraining from imposing their parental interests on the children; by seeing that children have a previous living-away-from home experience; by not overstressing the need for high grades, and by letting the children earn part of their own expenses.

Advice to students is as follows:

Before going to college try to get a realistic picture of what to expect; recognize that college will present stiff academic competition, from the start, budget study time; if shy, get a room-mate and make yourself available for social contacts, but don't over-emphasize the social side of college; try to think through what you want to get out of college, then make sure your work has a direct relationship to your career.

More than half the total area of all Canada's national parks is located in Alberta. In order of size the five parks in Alberta are: Wood Buffalo (3,700 of its 17,300 square miles in N. W. T.), Jasper 4,200 square miles, Banff 2,564 square miles, Waterton, 204 square miles, and Elk Island, 75 square miles.

NURSERY STOCK

Every year thousands and thousands of dollars go out of this area for nursery stock which hasn't a chance of survival in this climate. Some of this stock often flowers the first year but it will either die from the severe winter or changeable spring weather we experience. If a person does not know the best way to be sure is to buy from the local nurseries. If this is not possible then make purchases from a firm that has been in business for a long time.

CUTWORMS

Now is the time for watching! Cutworms can be expected any time from now until the end of June. As soon as damage is observed in field or garden action must be taken to save the crop. Poisons for field crops are available through most commercial dealers, the cost running about $1 per acre. Small poison packs are available eliminating messy bait mixing for control in the garden.

DRIFTING

There has been a lot of soil moving from some of the farms in this area, especially Sunday May 17th. If you are certain that all of your soil remained at home then you have no problem. Many people believe, and I cannot help but agree that the farm operator has to make the decisions that affect the farm. If this is true then this spring is the time for decision making. Making decisions to go easy on the soil this summerfallow time by easing up on speed. Soil can be worked hard, deep and often without too much injury but when the speed of operation is increased, damage increases proportionately.

TURKEYS

So you think you have troubles! Did you ever consider the turkey gobbler? He has Thanksgiving, Christmas, frozen turkey and turkey pieces to mention a few problems. But now he has family troubles. Mr Gobbler is in danger of losing his influence in the turkey world. Turkeys have been hatched at Beltsville, Maryland, which have no parental grandpaps. They were hatched from unfertilized eggs. But old Tom Turkey shouldn't feel too badly after all — all of these birds were males. In order to preserve the species turkey hens are necessary and these have only been produced to date with aid of a gobbler.

LONG BACON HOGS

Many breeders of swine claim that their pigs are longer because of more pairs of ribs. A detailed study on the Lacombe hog shows a variation of from 20 to 24 sections of vertebrae in the back and from 13 to 17 pairs of ribs. On occasion the rib count has varied from one side of the pig to the other. The only other place that a similar study has been undertaken was in Denmark where similar results were obtained. Oddly enough, the pigs with the largest number of ribs did not always produce the longest carcass. However, the pig with the largest number of vertebrae in his backbone did produce the longest carcass.

APRIL HOGS NEAR RECORD

Swine producers are well advised to consider two prominent facts as of April 1959. Excepting 1944, this was the largest April marketing of hogs in Canada's history. Secondly Oct. 1, 1959, the support price for swine will be reduced $1.35 per 100 pounds. Before planning a large hog production in 1959-60 consider the writing on the wall. Support prices slow up supply adjustments and it may be late in 1960 before any kind of an upward swing in price develops.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

What kind of driver has the most accidents? The rank beginner? The skilled but too daring youngster? The older, over cautious driver?

If you picked any of these, you're wrong.

The fact is that the so-called "average driver" has most of the accidents. As one of this country's top traffic safety experts said recently, "The real key to traffic safety is the fellow who sits behind the wheel, the fellow who decides whether his car shall travel 50 miles or 80 miles an hour; whether to halt at a stop sign or barge through; whether his car will blend itself sensibly and safely into the traffic stream or create turmoil, confusion and danger".

He goes on to say that although we like to think there is a special class of 'careless driver' flouting laws and enjoying discourteous actions, this is not so. Actually there are few habitually careless drivers; eliminating them wouldn't start to solve the problem.

What to do? First of all — realize YOU are the average driver and practice safe driving YOURSELF all the time. Remember that you are "the other fellow" to the "other fellow".

Some safe driving tips: Avoid over-confidence, emotional disturbances, hypnotic inattentive driving, poor mechanical condition of car, distractions while motoring.

Don't be an average driver. It's not good enough by far.

In the four districts of Ontario's northwest — Patricia, Kenora, Rainy River and Thunder Bay — the population averages one person per square mile.

Alberta Report

by Anders O. Aalborg,
Social Credit Candidate for Alexandra
AND
Ashley H. Cooper,
Social Credit Candidate for Vermilion

ANDERS O AALBORG

ASHLEY H. COOPER

In calling a Provincial General Election on Thursday, June 18, your Social Credit Government is seeking a renewed mandate on the basis of its past record and its plans for the future.

THE RECORD

The proven record of your Government stands out in striking contrast to the other alternatives that are being offered to the people of Alberta in this election. The facts speak for themselves. The funded debt of the province has been wiped out and a surplus of over $326,000,000.00 has been built up. There has been rapid and orderly development of our abundant natural resources in the interests of all the people and since 1947 public revenues from this development have already reached the colossal sum of $880,000,000.00. As a result of these revenues we have enjoyed a rapidly expanding system of social services in the fields of health, education and welfare; vast programs of public works, and financial assistance to municipalities all on a pay-as-you-go basis, and on a scale not possible elsewhere in Canada.

FUTURE PLANS

But because Alberta is still a young province we are much more interested in the future than in the past.

Last August Premier Ernest C. Manning announced the Social Credit program for the next five years — a far reaching program of development which quickly caught the imagination and aroused the enthusiastic support of citizens in all parts of the province.

This plan calls for the construction of 50 Senior Citizens Homes, street paving and other community projects in the smaller urban centres, greatly increased expenditures for education and health projects, a vastly expanded program of highway and bridge construction and more attention to the needs of farmers to mention only a few of the main highlights. Alberta is the only province which can carry out such a program without imposing new taxation or incurring an additional burden of crushing public debt. The five year program is now well underway, and the Government is anxious to secure your direction and endorsation before proceeding further with its proposals.

IN OFFICE TOO LONG?

During the campaign our political opponents are, of course, making an all out effort to undermine your confidence in the Government which has worked with you and for you to bring Alberta from the brink of bankruptcy in 1935 to the unequalled position of leadership which this Province enjoys in Canada today.

They are trying to tell you that your Social Credit Government has been in office far too long that it is time for a change. People never use that childish argument except when they are talking against a Government. They never suggest that a farmer should fire his hired man and replace him with a new one simply because the first one has worked for him for a long time. Every sensible farmer knows as every businessman knows, that the longer the man works for him the greater is his experience, the more valuable he becomes to his employer and the more the employer wants to keep him. The field of public administration is no exception to this rule.

VALUABLE EXPERIENCE

For nearly 24 years your Social Credit Government has done its best to give you honest and efficient administration. The valuable experience which has been gained can now be used to great advantage on your behalf as we move forward into a great new era of further expansion and development. The more we progress the more important experience becomes in solving quickly and efficiently the many complex problems that lie ahead. This is something to keep in mind when someone suggests that after all these successful years you should now vote against your Social Credit Government because it has served you too long.

WOODVALE

Miss B. Campbell of New Brunswick, a student of the Deaconess Training school, Toronto, has held church services at Tolland for the past two Sundays and will be here for the other two Sundays in May with church service starting at 11 in the morning. This is Miss Campbell's first trip to the West, also the first time she spent on a farm and is enjoying her new experience. After staying with Mrs. K. Seitz for the first half of the month she has moved to the home of Mrs. Gladys Wolters for the second part of May.

At a meeting of the Tolland Community Centre Association on May 10th, it was decided to keep the old Ganton school for a church and have it placed on a new foundation in the N.W. corner of the grounds. Mr. H. Portsmith will start with making the forms and the work is to be completed with community help a little later. There are plans to have pews and a pulpit installed and new hymn books will be bought. The other building, the old Triangle school, will become the community hall. A basement was dug last fall for it and another meeting has been called for June 1st to discuss the use of cement or cement blocks for the foundation, and further plans for work on the hall.

Mrs. W. Proctor is in the hospital with a severe case of flu and we hope most sincerely that she soon will be home again.

Mrs. M. Watson had her daughter Mabel and her husband Mr. and Mrs. B. Bissonnette of Edmonton and their two children here for the long week end.

A shower for Evelyn Lamport of Vermilion, whose marriage to Mr. W. Clark will take place on May 23rd, was held at [illegible] hall on Monday. Evelyn lived all her life in the Hindville district until she moved with her parents to Vermilion a few years ago and has many friends and relatives in the district.

Brilliant Graduating Exercises At Mannville High School

MANNVILLE — Friday May 15 was a gala night for the five graduands who sat down to a delicious turkey supper with parents, teachers and other guests in the United Church social rooms and catered to by the United Church W. A.

Rev. Harry Shell was called upon by toastmistress Janet Pruklivets to offer the blessing. Following the toast to the Queen, Lillian Zaharia proposed the toast to education stating that the former was a continuing and advancing process after which graduands apprentice in chosen careers. Education, she said, was a challenge, and by accepting life's challenges is the mind's way of growing. Mrs. W. Rea replied, urging graduands to explore one field, and thereafter make a contribution to society by means of this education which she defined as a thing of power and beauty. Donna Doherty proposed the toast to the parents and thanked them for the sacrifices made by them as well as for their guidance. Mrs. Zaharia replied to this toast saying that despite the years of sacrifice on the parents' part, this was a day of sincere pleasure for them, and they felt assured that the graduands would justify their sacrifices.

The toast to the graduands was proposed by high school teacher Mr. Angus Smith, who saw in these young people talents which he hoped would be given ample opportunity to cultivate. As graduands he said they were in the hands of opportunity and it was his conviction that opportunity had fine material with which to work. Concluding, he quoted Winston Churchill saying "This is not the beginning of the end, this is the end of the beginning."

Retiring to the high school auditorium, guests noted with pleasure the attractively decorated hall depicting the Japanese theme "Sayonara." The backdrop on stage gave one a glimpse of Japanese picturesque scenery, while oriental characters conveying messages to graduands [illegible] on the walls through the [illegible] of Joe [illegible] restaurant owner and [illegible] also lent for the occasion by him. High school [illegible] Forsyth was a gracious chairman at the graduation exercises, introducing graduands after a graceful seating drill by four lovely young ladies and one handsome young man. Miss Faye Ellen Peden and James Scott delighted the audience with vocal selections, "Sayonara" by Miss Peden and "May You Always" by Jim Scott. Dainty Miss Mavis McCauley [illegible] warm applause for her two piano selections, one of which she composed herself. The invocation followed the singing of O Canada, given by Rev. Harry Shell, asked that the confines of knowledge be enlarged, and that God's blessing might fall on those who teach, those who learn and all graduands.

From the Vegreville Divisional Board, Joe Kufeldt brought greetings and congratulations, saying that the board supplies the means of education, the remainder is up to the students. Mr. Facey, Inspector for Vegreville School division, complimented the grade eleven class on the attractive decorations and the unusual theme. He gave an informative account of possible aid to graduands in detail under new Students Assistance Act and expressed pleasure at all graduands now given a chance notwithstanding financial conditions.

Jacqueline Hadnoff was a most capable class historian, giving a clear account of beginners, who twenty years ago were eager to begin education in the halls of learning and outlined difficulties in olden days when educational habits were formed. Comparison was made to the present day modern building and gratification expressed. Personal histories were given of fellow graduands in detail and humorous vein.

Charles Gerhart, as class valedictorian gave an excellent rendition of ideals and views on leaving these premises and aptly gave a clear-cut view of graduands standing on the threshhold of a gate which is open to green pastures of success. Learning, Charlie said, is a lifelong process and given a chance, results can be educational and spectacular. Referring to memories of Mannville schooldays, he quoted "you may break, you may shatter the vase if you will, but the scent of the rose will hang 'round it still."

Mr. Hugh Doherty, school principal introduced the guest speaker Mr. Newcombe N. Bentley, after commenting on the number of students who would be in this class but who are now attending school elsewhere. Two were present at this graduation, namely June Vandusen from Edmonton and Hans Pedersen who is now at Red Deer. Mr. Doherty paid tribute to the high calibre teaching staff at Mannville and the record of students graduating.

Newcombe N. Bentley, principal of the Vermilion School of Agriculture, complimented the class historian and expressed pleasure at Mr. Facey's report of the Students Assistance Act, with reference to scholastic record given special attention. Recently home from a trip in the agricultural interests to Egypt, Mr. Bentley gave an informative address on that country's habits and government and urged Canada and graduands especially to count their blessings. Enumerating, he cited the blessings of space, opportunity and freedom of this land in Canada as reasons for thankfulness.

Miss Rea and Allan Rastrom, at this point, presented the five graduands with class rings. Academic awards were given out by Alison Toronchuk and Angus Smith, first to grade ten students maintaining an average of 75%, viz. Merna Whitson, Kenneth Nash, Gordon McLaughlin, Eleanor Keuschnig and grade eleven Berna Cotter and Marion Yacak. Grade ten improvement awards went to Malcolm Kufeldt, Faye Ellen Peden, Inez Christensen, Sharon Politshak, Lillian Werbitski. David McLaughlin won the grade eleven award and the grade ten sports awards went to Allen Mann and Eleanor Keuschnig.

Presentation on behalf of the student's union was made by David Croft who lauded Mr. Doherty as a "good" principal, and expressed the regrets of the school at his leaving the Vegreville [illegible] division. Mr. Doherty in reply, thanked David for the kind words and the gift, assuring him that a goodly slice of himself would be left at Mannville, upon leaving the [illegible]. He thanked all for their co-operation etc.

[illegible] completed, pictures were taken and dancing was enjoyed until the wee small hours. Lunch was served by the executive of the Home and School.

RAP GALLERY FOR "HIDING" QUEEN MARY'S CARPET

Before entrusting Queen Mary's carpet, right, to the National gallery in Ottawa, the IODE proudly displayed the carpet across Canada. Now it is kept behind a curtain in the gallery on orders of the director, Allan Jarvis, left, who claims it is not a work of art and should stay behind the curtain. The IODE members are up in arms over Jarvis' action. It came in for some hot discussion at an annual IODE meeting in Hamilton recently. In defence, Mr. Jarvis says the carpet has been moth-proofed and "has had as good care as any of our old masters." He added that the carpet is not entirely the work of the late Queen Mary as generally believed.

McLaughlin's Self-Serve

To the People of Alexandra Constituency

Alberta is to have a provincial election in a few weeks' time. Our citizens will have an opportunity to express an opinion concerning the administration of the province's schools and educational system.

Conservatives wish to take full advantage of the chance to say something about educational administration that comes with a provincial election. So centralized has the system become that a provincial election offers almost the only chance there is to offer criticisms, to point out weaknesses, to suggest reforms.

For almost a quarter century educational matters have been taken more and more out of the hands of the people and centralized, first in the divisional offices, and, finally in the provincial capital. As is characteristic with excessive centralization, moves may be made at a snail's pace, or with lightning speed, and, in either case, with no reference to local needs.

Does a window need to be replaced? Does a swing need to be fixed? Is some new cement work necessary? The office will see about it, but the repair man is at the other end of the division.

Is there to be a new auditorium? Here the wheels may turn with lightning speed, and decisions may be taken without any consultation with the principal or local people. A school may be equipped with a massive show-piece that bears no relation to the community's needs.

The other side of the coin is that public interest withers away. The man who has not been consulted in any way over small decisions proves to be a reluctant ratepayer when larger expenditures are needed.

Conservatives believe that it is time to overhaul the administration of the province's schools in such a way as to give local boards an increased share of responsibility for the school, its planning, [illegible] and improvement.

Centralization has gone too far. It is time to consider the ratepayers' opinions again.

CCF Smallwood Speaks At Ottawa On Deficiency Payments

That wheat agreement cost the western farmers over $500 million, and now they want this government to give it all back in one year.

We had the march on Ottawa which was carried out very respectably. Why did they not march in 1955 or 1956? It was a different government then and there were a lot of CCF members from Saskatchewan who were interested. No, they said they would wait. Then this year they decided to come down here. They said, "This Diefenbaker government is bringing in a lot of legislation and things will look tough for us, so let's get down there." We are supposed to believe that every member of that delegation was in agreement with deficiency payments. They were not. They came to present to the government and the people of this country the troubles of the farmers of western Canada, and a good 50 per cent of them were satisfied with the acreage payments if only we would pay just a little more. The payment last year was rather small. I had over 21 delegates from my constituency and out of those 21 there was only one delegate who demanded deficiency payments. But he left and he left in good spirits and in agreement with me. The rest of my delegates said that they were fairly well satisfied with what we were doing but they were still in trouble. I know they are in trouble in the west, because I am a farmer. They do not need to tell me that I know we are in trouble because I am a farmer myself.

Then what happened? The march ended in Ottawa; they got off at the station and the member for Rosthern mentioned the greeting they had. Well, Mr Chairman, my good friend the other night mentioned that there was an eight-ring circus down there. If you, sir had been down at the station that morning you would have seen it in full force. The Minister of Agriculture was there, the Minister of Northern Affairs and National Resources was there, and a lot of western members were there. But we were standing back in the station not to embarrass these farmers coming to Ottawa. However this eight ring circus was going on. The member for Assiniboia was down there, the fat man was there, the thin man was there and they were carrying big CCF signs. I watched those farmers come from the station and a lot of them drooped their heads because they were ashamed of any political affiliation with their march on Ottawa. They did not want that. Then we got reports in the newspapers next day about how the CCF met them at the station and it looked like a CCF delegation all the way. These farmers from western Canada did not want publicity like that. The hon. member for Assiniboia told us how pleased they were about this reception in the committee room. I met a great number of the delegates, and I am telling you, sir that they were ashamed of that performance at the station, every one of them.

This is some of the publicity. This is what took place. This is from Victor Mackie, the Ottawa correspondent for the Winnipeg Free Press. He had this to say:

As delegates began to enter the station from the first train CCF members of parliament also outjockeyed the cabinet ministers for positions in what amounted to an informal receiving line.

CCF house leader Hazen Argue commented to a reporter, "It's all good clean fun."

Mr Chairman, that march was not fun. That march was business. These farmers from western Canada had to come down to Ottawa to present to parliament their problems. They were not down on fun but on business.

Mr Chairman, I did miss one point I wanted to make. The CCF agree with everything in the brief. We agree with deficiency payments and the brief, and I would like to ask you, Mr. Chairman, to go back to what the CCF member from Port Arthur said. As I say we agree with everything in this brief. We agree, oh yes, we agree with everything in the brief. The hon. member for Rosthern who recently participated in this debate referred to the payment of $4,500. But let us examine what was said by the hon. member for Port Arthur as reported at page 2732 of Hansard of April 15, 1959.

As I understand it, we supported the position taken in the brief, which would be a maximum of $1,500.

The hon. member is apparently under the impression that there is a maximum payment of $1,500. But that was for one year and must be multiplied by three which gives a total of $4,500. That illustrates the kind of thinking of which CCF members are guilty.

I have in my hand a publication called The Western Producer. In my opinion it would be more appropriately entitled "The Western Producer." It is interesting to note that this publication suffered a deficit last year of nearly $160,000. The Saskatchewan wheat pool owns it and this illustrates how they run their business. I am prepared to make another prediction. If hon. gentlemen pick up a copy of this publication next week they will see that it contains an editorial about me.

I am down here working for the family farmer. I am a grain farmer and a mixed farmer. I am in Ottawa to work for the farmer of Canada and of the west.

I should like to turn to a problem of great concern to the farmer of western Canada. The government expended $130 million on agriculture last year putting it in the hands of western farmers but we still find ourselves caught in a cost price squeeze. Let me place some comparative figures on the record. A combine which cost $5,600 in 1953 cost $9,000 in 1958. An Ontario farmer friend of mine bought a manure spreader for $250 in 1953 and in 1958 the same unit cost $700. A tractor which cost $4,600 in 1953, cost $6,300 in 1958. Freight charges on a tractor in 1948 were $96.47, in 1957 $201.78 and in 1959 are $235.41. These examples serve to illustrate the difficulty the farmer experiences in equipping himself for his operation and it must be observed that throughout the period to which I referred during which prices continued to climb, the farmer's income constantly decreased.

The price of grain has not increased. Last year it might have gone up 10 cents a bushel due to better grades but since 1953 it has shown no substantial increase and in fact it has been constantly declining. Western farmers are caught in the grip of a vicious cost price squeeze. Western farmers are told that they do not need to buy new machinery. How can we repair our old machinery in view of increasing costs and dwindling returns? I have not many examples of increased prices to machinery but I might state that a Massey-Harris disc spool which cost $2.25 in 1953 cost $4.25 in 1959. That is what the western farmer is up against today. The price of everything we require is increasing due to freight rates and other things but our products have not increased in price.

Meat packing continued to be Alberta's largest classified industry, with 1958 value of production estimated at $340 million. Overall gross value of foods and beverages at $521 million was more than double the amount of oil, petroleum and coal production.

I had rather do and not promise, than promise and not do.
— Arthur Warwick

Velma Milligan and Ken Holgate Married In Afternoon Ceremony

Baskets of spring flowers decorated St. Saviour's Anglican church on the afternoon of May 9 when Miss Velma Milligan became the bride of Mr. Ken Holgate. The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs. T. Milligan of Vermilion, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Holgate of Lloydminster.

Reverend H. Shell of Mannville performed the double-ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father chose a waltz-length gown of nylon sheer gayly festooned and decorated with embroidered applique which was repeated in the flowing back panel. The fitted bodice was designed with a sequin braid neckline and lily point sleeves. A head piece of seed pearls and sequins held in place her chapel-length veil of silk illusion, also embroidered with sequins, and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Shirley Taylor, cousin of the bride and Miss Jean Burdett wore identical frocks of pale aqua nylon over taffeta, styled with fitted bodices and full skirts. White bandeaux and short gloves completed their costumes. They carried bouquets of shasta mums.

The best man was Mr. Tom Holgate, brother of the groom, assisted by Mr. Ken Sawtell and the ushers were Mr Keith Ollis and Mr Harry Holgate.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. C N King and Mrs. S. Burdett sang "Oh Perfect Love."

A reception for eighty-five guests was held in the parish hall, at which Mr. Lloyd Milligan of Edmonton was toastmaster. Mr. William Novak proposed the toast to the bride.

The bride's mother received the guests in a green two-piece dress with beige accessories complemented by a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore a pale blue printed silk with apricot accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Caravan to New FUA Camp Planned

The F. U. A. Camp Committee announced today that a car caravan to the F. U. A. campsite at Gold Eye Lake is planned for Farmers Day June 12. All Farm Union people, old and young, are welcome to join the party. The purpose of the caravan is two fold, first to acquaint F. U. A. members with the camp area and secondly to promote interest in this leadership training project. The caravan is an additional Farmers' Day celebration, not intended to distract from already planned Farmers' Day celebrations. To any locals who do not have anything planned the caravan will offer an enjoyable day. The cars will meet at the Junction of highways two and eleven three miles north of Red Deer and will leave for Gold Eye Lake at 10:00 a.m. The caravaners will bring box lunches for dinner and supper and the camp committee will supply coffee. There also is planned a short program with speakers from the F. U. A. and outside slated to speak.

It is hoped that a large group of F. U. A. people will join this caravan and visit the camp site at Gold Eye Lake — 100 miles west of Red Deer in the Rocky mountains.

Largest Construction Program In History of Alberta Underway

Plans and contracts are well under way for the largest highway construction program in the history of the Province of Alberta with a vote of $22,300,000 for main highway construction plus $3,000,000 to complete the Trans Canada Highway and $4,000,000 to commence the reconstruction of the Mackenzie Highway, Highways Minister Gordon E. Taylor announced today. Federal Government reimbursement of half of the Trans Canada Highway vote and the Mackenzie Highway vote is expected after completion of the work.

With these votes it is expected that more than 300 miles of new sub-grade will be built, that more than 300 miles of stabilized gravel base course will be applied, that more than 300 miles of asphaltic surface course will be laid. In addition, more than 300 miles of gravelling will be done and 200 miles of asphaltic seal coat surfacing will be completed.

In addition, some 200 miles of double surface treatment, the first stage towards making the secondary highways modern highways, will be carried out. This stage construction will not only lay the dust but will also be an investment towards stronger and better highways in the future.

One of the major projects being undertaken in this year's program is the continuation of the divided four lane highway south of Nisku. The divided four lane was completed last year between Airdrie and south of Red Deer and is considered one of the most modern highways on the continent.

The completion of the blacktopping to the base course stage on the highway between Edmonton and the B. C. boundary will be carried out. At the end of the year Alberta will be the only province in Canada having a blacktop road from the American boundary to a point so far north. Most of this highway is now of modern construction and has already become known as the Paved Corridor to Alaska.

The divided highway will also be continued from High River south towards Nanton.

NEWS from ISLAY

Fred and Larry Playne were callers at the John Maire home on Sunday.

Mr and Mrs. Ray Coombe were visitors at the Golby home for the holiday week end.

Billy Potvin was one of the High school graduates at Kitscoty on Friday. A number of Islay folk attended the celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Potvin were guests at the banquet and dance.

Mr and Mrs Brigham of Edmonton visited at the Potvin home on Sunday. Mrs Brigham is a sister of Mrs. Potvin.

Miss Willa Bowman who is training as a nurse's aide was home for the week end.

Mr Pryce-Jones visited at the King home for the holiday.

The 4H Food Club Achievement day was successful. The good attendance was nice to see and even three fathers were there — all honor to them! They were given a big hand when one of the girls came out displaying a large paper hand and said "Let's give the dads a big hand!" And the crowd did! The club staged a regular business meeting which was well done, then a program. Margaret Hanna and Shirley Buchan demonstrated right and wrong way of measuring ingredients for a cake and drew many a laugh from the audience. Sharon Redmond and Sandra Bell showed the right and wrong outfits to wear for an afternoon of shopping. The blue jeans and high-heeled slippers certainly looked uncomfortable and they were. There were readings too "The Telltale" "Goodbye to the Old Stove" this latter fitted Islay as gas has only recently been installed, and an accordian solo. Miss Janet Kent favored with a lovely solo "A Tribute to Mother". The girls showed appreciation by presenting gifts to their leaders, Mrs. Moncrieff and Mrs. Redmond, also to Miss Kent who had led them in sing-songs during the year, and to the United Church W A a money gift, in appreciation for use of the church hall and its equipment. The W A are happy to have a hall and girls to use it. During the year the girls had heard good music and attended the play "Romeo and Juliette". In the church hall cooking was exhibited. Must mention the cakes, there were 11 girls and each made a butter cake for each month as February a Valentine, March St Patrick, September a school, October a witch; November a birthday of the girls etc. Miss Pasechnik, assistant supervisor of 4H clubs, gave the detailed criticism of the work examined, all quite instructive. Miss Wolshyn, the fourth teacher recently added to our staff talked to the audience on her years at university taking dietics and education showing the different channels a girl can follow going on from 4H club work. Many of us wished some of the present day opportunities had been open to us in our teen years. A nice lunch was served and those lovely cakes cut and highly enjoyed.

Omer Easton was in Edmonton last week and called on some of the ex-Islay folk.

Noticed moving around town: Rosa Swan, Archie Chambers, Jim Carry, still with a big boot on one foot. Will Muir, Gordon Terry. The latter is putting in crop for Mr Muir.

Farmers Promote Safety Program

Farmers in the Echo Hill community gave a terrific response to a safety program designed to make their farm machinery safer to move on the highways, W. J. Perkins, Farm Safety Director for the Alberta Safety Council reports.

Three hundred farm machines operated on seventy farms had red reflective tape 3 inches by 6 inches put on them for safer movement at night both for the farm operator and the motorists travelling the roads and highways. The tape when properly installed is visible to oncoming traffic from distances up to 1500 feet.

The reflective tape was donated by members of the Echo Hill Womens Institute, who, with the help of the 4-H members of the Echo Hill Beef Club personally visited the farms and applied the red reflective tape to the machinery. Cost of the project, believed to be the first of its type in the west was approximately $100.00.

Many of the farmers taking part in the program were from the F. U. A. locals of Vimy, Legal, Busby and Picardville.

All members spoke of the good response by farm operators cooperating in the program and because of the enthusiastic reception of the Safety Committee, Mrs. Lloyd McMillan, Mrs. Sam Yeomans and Mrs. William Price hope that further safety programs can be carried out in the future.

RUBBER RISE?

Watch for an increase in the price of almost everything made from rubber, natural or synthetic, warns W. L. Dack in The Financial Post.

That's the outlook for Canadian consumers.

The price rise is likely to come as a direct result of a 22% increase in the past three weeks in natural rubber prices. They are now 50% higher than the synthetic product.

As a result, synthetic rubber is poised for its first advance since the Korean war of 1950-51.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

The weather is more like April than May. Cool and snow with temperatures around the freezing mark.

An error in last week's news. It was Mr. Throndson who accompanied Mr. Dougan to Lethbridge and not Mrs. as stated.

Miss Sylvia Sheppard of Kitscoty spent the week end of May 3rd at the Throndson home visiting with her sister Evelyn and Alvin. On May 9th Sylvia and her sister Donna left for the Pacific coast. Sylvia as a physiotherapist will be interning at Vancouver and Victoria. Donna will be teaching in the fall.

We noticed recently a lovely new home under construction at the Johnny Starko farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Rochford and family from town have moved back to their farm and we welcome them back to the district. It is the former Sid Pratt farm.

The latter part of April Albert Armstrong from Uranium visited with his parents, the Wm. Armstrong home. Sister Joyce, Ronnie and family from Royal Park accompanied him. Albert plans on working in the city and to return to Uranium for the winter.

Mr. Johnny Butz of Calgary was a caller in the district on May 9th. His wife Ellen and family are all well. Ellen's sister Jennie (Mrs. Wm. Axley Sr.) is in Calgary at home with her sister and sons Mr. and Mrs. Benny Axley and family and Mr. and Mrs. Buster Axley and family. We are pleased to hear that Jennie is enjoying fine health after a siege of sickness.

May 10th church service was well attended. Mr. Hugh Farquhar had a grand sermon for mothers, fathers, children and the home generally. It would be an inspiration to many to better our way of living and be more appreciative of the good things of life.

Mrs. Frank Schmidt and family from Lloydminster have been visiting and helping at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Idelore Nelson. Her [illegible] has been at her parents the [illegible] home at Ferguson Flats and [illegible] her mother in the Elk Point hospital.

Mrs. Hilda Cross is a patient in the Vermilion hospital. Best wishes for a speedy recovery are wished her.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baldock from Camrose were visitors in town and the district on May 10. Mrs. Cole, a good friend, accompanied them. Callers at the Don Wilson home that day were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baldock, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Glen Baldock and son, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Klashinsky, Mrs. Orlene Whelan and family and Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Omness.

A few of the Allandale folk attended Miss Audrey McIntyre's shower on May 9th at the Ort Strome home, Campbell Lake. The bride-elect received many beautiful gifts for which she was very appreciative. Our thanks to Ort and Jessie for their hospitality. A sumptuous midnight lunch closed a very interesting evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown are at Innisfail and as they are well known in the district their whereabouts should be interesting news to many.

Gravelling has been carried on in this district and the road from the Nelson farm to the Community centre has just been finished making a grand improvement. Mr. Ben Axley from Dewberry was the gravel checker.

On the evening of May 14th the Allandale W.A. ladies were very pleased to attend the Clandonald W.A. meeting. The report given by Mrs. Opal Cooper, who was the delegate from here to the St. Paul Presbytery held in Edmonton was very informative and interesting. Mrs. Laird spoke briefly on the meeting she and Mrs. Cooper attended in Lloydminster. Mr. Hugh Farquhar welcomed the visiting ladies. A delicious lunch was served and a visit enjoyed with the Clandonald and Dewberry ladies. Thanks again to the Clandonald ladies for their kindness and hospitality.

On May 16th the thermometer got to 94 above. A decided and very quick change to what the month of May had been giving us.

Mrs. O. Omness spent the last week end in town at the Fleming home. Mrs. Fleming was in the city with her mother Mrs. Ringeman from Esther who is a patient in the University hospital.

On May 17th Mr. and Mrs. Gus Throndson of town visited the latter's brother Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Nelson in Lloydminster.

Mrs. Stella Mayers from Irma was home for the long week end. She and sister Mabel Lee were gardening at the farm and visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Axley from Dewberry attended church May 17th at Allandale and later they visited at the Omness home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb McPhee, Myrna, Irene and Billie, Mr. and Mrs. John David and Keith of town, John's brothers Tom and Ewan and sister Betty from Edmonton, Mrs. Dave McPhee and daughter Jean from town, and Lorne and Norman McPhee from Pelican Lake all motored to Grand Centre and Cold Lake on May 17th, a birthday party for Mrs. Herb McPhee. On the way home the McPhee family stopped at Fort Kent to visit the Bert Bosfields who have a lumber yard there. They hadn't seen them for years. Going north they went by Elk Point and came home by way of Lea Park. The road from Grand Centre to Lea Park is very good.

Closing thought: Parenthood is a combination of very serious responsibilities and utterly delightful opportunities. Parents watching their children mature, each in their own way, know the wisdom of the ancient Chinese philosopher. Asked what he thought was the most precious experience in life, he replied: "It is to hear a little child go down the road singing after she has asked me the way."

Tulliby Lake H. & S Hear Talk by Nurse

The regular meeting of the Tulliby Lake Home and School Association was held on the evening of April 8th with ten members and several visitors present.

Business included discussion in regard to holding a graduation dinner for the grade 9 students. The motion was approved and now awaits the decision of the students. If they are in favor it is planned to have the dinner the last part of May or early in June.

The announcement that extra playground equipment is being supplied by the Vermilion school division was received with much pleasure and approval.

Highlight of the evening was a visit from Mrs. Dauchot, senior nurse from the Minburn-Vermilion Health unit. She gave a very interesting and informative talk on the various forms of poliomyelitis and how body damage is caused by this disease.

The evening was brought to a close with lunch.

Health Unit Notes

HOUSEFLY

Flies constitute a large order of insects, there being over 50,000 known species. Some are serious pests functioning as carriers of disease-producing organisms.

The housefly has a world wide distribution and lives in close association with man. It is well established in the province. The housefly is a known carrier of a number of serious human disease-producing organisms.

LIFE HISTORY & HABITS

The adult flies need no description, for their abundance has made all persons familiar with their appearance. The mouth parts are of a sucking type and they are unable to bite. They feed by sucking up liquid or semi-liquid material. As disease carriers the houseflies are a most dangerous nuisance. In crawling over and feeding on filth of all kinds, their legs and bodies usually gather germs of various diseases. Then, in subsequent visits to houses where they crawl over and feed on human food, much of the filth and often many of the germs, are transferred to it. As flies feed by regurgitating a small amount of the previous germs which have been ingested during the previous meals may be deposited on food designed for human consumption. Flies are very active agents in the transmission of many diseases.

Houseflies emerge from the pupal stage in the spring and begin to breed immediately. In about three weeks the eggs have developed to the point where they can be laid. One fly's eggs total about 500, and are laid in batches of 125. The eggs are laid in manure or decaying matter. They hatch, depending upon the temperature in from 8 to 72 hours into very small larvae or "maggots" which feed for about five days. At the end of that time the maggots migrate a short distance from the feeding place and pupate in the ground. The pupa is formed inside a small brown case or "puparium." Then the pupal period lasts about seven days. As it takes only a month to complete a life cycle, it is possible to have four or five generations in a season.

CONTROL

Housefly control can be achieved through:

1. Elimination of breeding places. Despite the effectiveness of various insecticides in reducing the number of flies and various infections, authorities will agree that the real solution to the fly problem is proper sanitation. The importance of householders owning garbage containers with tight fitting lids is imperative. Periodic cleaning of the containers and wrapping of garbage to prevent a collection of garbage sludge at the bottom of the cans, and elimination of privies, will all assist in the control of these pests. In rural areas proper manure disposal is essential, or if manure must be stored for a few days some reduction in fly breeding is possible by the use of larvicides.

2. Screening of homes and privies to prevent entry of flies is obvious.

3. In the control of houseflies, great benefit has resulted from the use of DDT and other residual insecticides, such as chlordane, benzene hexachloride, and methoxychlor. Proper care should be adopted when using these and always read the instructions on the label and follow them closely.

PILL REMINDER

Regular user of pills often forgets how many he has taken. But new cellophane pack has built in memory to do this job, once it is set for the day, reports The Financial Post. The day's quota of pills can be pushed from a large into a special, four-windowed section from which they can be pushed one at a time for using.

The potato, grown in Canada from coast to coast, ranks fifth among the Dominion's field crops in gross farm value.

BUT CAN IT BE FOUND IN THE BIBLE?
People often indignantly demand that Catholics prove their teaching from the Bible.
The Bible is their "rule of faith" . . . and they argue that every man has the right and ability to discover for himself, by his interpretation of the Bible, what he must believe and do in order to be saved.
We do not question the sincerity of these people and we applaud all who strive earnestly to understand and observe the Scriptures. But — are they right in calling the Bible, privately interpreted, the sole source of Christian teaching?
"Hold the teachings that you have learned," wrote St. Paul, "whether by word or by letter of ours" (2 Thess. II:15). He refers to Christian teachings, some oral, some written . . . and demands that all be received.
Christianity did not begin with the Bible. It began with the coming of Christ. The Lord instructed His Apostles to "go forth . . . teach all nations" — and to insure that His truths would always be maintained, Christ established His Church, "the pillar and mainstay of the truth" (1 Timothy III:15).
The last part of the Bible . . . written by St. John . . . was not completed until 60 years after the Crucifixion of Christ. There was no Bible in anything resembling its present form until nearly 400 years after Jesus had died on the Cross. And the widespread distribution of the Bible as we know it today was impossible until the invention of printing, some 1400 years after the Savior's death.
By what "rule of faith" did the millions of Christians live during those 1500 years?
The answer is, of course, that the teaching of the Church was the rule of faith for the Christian world. And St. Paul reminds us that Christianity consists of "one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism" (Eph. IV:5). "God is a God of peace, not of disorder," St. Paul said further (1 Cor. XIV:33).
Yet today we have nearly 300 different religious denominations, all calling themselves Christian . . . all professing the Bible as their rule of faith . . . and all differing to some extent or another in their understanding of what the Bible means. Could Christ have left a "rule of faith" that would permit such confusion? Would He have left the interpretation of His Word to the fallible and changing judgments of men — when our very souls depend on a correct understanding and observance of the things Christ has taught us.
FREE — Because this question is all important . . . because it certainly does matter what a man believes . . . we invite you to examine the rule of faith of the first Christians — a rule that is still maintained by the Catholic Church. Because the Bible is God's Word, and because He gave it to us for a purpose, we invite you to see what this purpose is. We have an interesting pamphlet on the correct use of the Bible, and we offer it for the inspection of all who are sincerely interested in following the teaching of Christianity as Christ revealed it. Stone quarry owner rates Chevrolet the toughest truck going Cuts gas costs by 30% on multi-stop schedule!

"Put a Chevy out there and it stays!"
At the Snyder Stone Quarry, you see Chevrolet trucks of all ages. "They get better and better every year," Mr. R. C. Snyder says. "My '59's keep going with no down-time at all for major service . . . moving more material at less cost per mile than any other make of truck I've had." The grades are steep from quarry to crushing mill, the loads are big and punishing. That's why Mr. Snyder specifies Chevrolet. "Put a Chevy out there and it stays," he says.
"You never do wear one out. You just get tired of looking at it and get a new one".
The truck you see up above is taking on a mountain of a payload . . . yet Mr. Snyder states, "It moves over the road like a light truck."
That kind of performance is a specialty of the house. Chevrolet turns out heavy-duty trucks that keep their poise no matter what you put in them. They're beating the big oversized rigs at their own game, showing that precision-engineered chassis components and super efficient V8 power make up for a locomotive-looking build any day of the week.
Today you sure can't assume that because a truck is trim-lined and good looking it doesn't work every bit as hard as those old-styled steam rollers. Put a Chevy on your run and see what a little pure efficiency can do. Your Chevrolet dealer will arrange the details.
This bakery firm is sold on Chevrolet's "easy driving and fuel economy". Their Chevies keep at it 10 hours a day, averaging 70 stops, covering about 3,000 miles a month!
No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck!

WILDMERE WINKS

The whole district was deeply shocked and saddened over the sad accident at the Cawthorpe home last Tuesday. Everyone extends heartfelt sympathy to the parents and sorrowing relatives.

Congratulations to Viola Maggs and her husband who were married on Saturday in Edmonton. Best wishes for a long, happily married life.

Congratulations to the following happy parents on the arrival of new babies — Mr. and Mrs. George Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cleland and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Maggs.

Mrs. Frank Gibson of Bassano returned to her home last Friday afternoon from the hospital. She is still on the weak side however and all wish her a speedy recovery.

[illegible] choir did well in singing their hymns. Stars for regular attendance at Sunday school are being put on the honor roll this year and the children seem quite eager to come. Mrs. Hughes teaches the junior class and Mr. Nicholls the senior group.

Seeding is going ahead more rapidly the last few days due to improved weather. Tractors can be heard humming early and late. Here's hoping we get some rain after the crop is planted.

Little Diana and Jeanie Smith, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smith of Edmonton travelled by themselves on the train to Vermilion to visit their uncle Bill and Aunt Lil Smith over the long week end. They also visited other relatives in the Wildmere district. We were happy to see these fine girls once again. Their father Norman spent most of his boyhood on the farm the girls visited.

The writer enjoyed the Home and School convention in Edmonton last week. It really is a big organization, there being 602 groups with a membership of 32,194. One has only to attend a convention to see the tremendous amount of work that is being done. The theme this year was "Roads to Understanding". Delegates had the pleasure of hearing Sidney Katz, assistant editor of Maclean's magazine, speak to a group of 1200 on Tuesday evening at the Jubilee auditorium. All in all it was a very busy three days and the rest from getting meals and doing dishes was thoroughly enjoyed.

A pick-up ball game was enjoyed Sunday afternoon by a group of young folks at the Wildmere picnic grounds — so it must be spring!

The Wildmere W.A. will hold the May meeting at the church on Wednesday, 20th with Mrs. H. Cooper of Clandonald as the guest speaker. We hope other W.A.s are able to attend that evening as well.

Here is something that could well apply to our recent holiday: It is better to be a minute late in this world than 25 years early in the next.

Canadian water power potentials, explored and recorded, are sufficient to yield 66,000,000 horsepower.

W. A. Meets At Manz Home

MANNVILLE. — Ladies of the Senior W.A. of Christ Church, met at the home of Mrs. C. Manz. A number of ladies were absent due to illness. Following the devotional period, reports were read and adopted. The educational secretary read from the study book, and two delegates were chosen to represent this group at the forthcoming Deanery, May 21, while plans were made to help for this event. Helpers were also chosen for the sewing and baking table at the tea on June 6th. A delicious lunch was served by co-hostesses Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Ellwood.

EARLY ATTENTION TO WEEDS
Because they reduce tillering, weeds offer severe competition to crops in their early stages of growth. Thus chemical treatment should be timed to kill weeds while they are still young and before they have damaged the crops.
Plan to spray early, using the type of chemical that is recommended.

Public Speaking Winners Vermilion Area In Edmonton Contest

A 4-H public speaking contest for the Vermilion area was held at the School of Agriculture at 8:00 p.m., May 21st. Miss Miriam Williams, Durness 4-H Beef Club, Lloydminster was judged the most outstanding speaker of the night. Miss Linda Stepenoff, Paradise Valley 4-H Garden Club, was the top home-making speaker. Track and field participants are all busy practising for the events which will be held in Kitscoty on Friday, June 5. The student body has high hopes that Vermilion will again win the Divisional track and field trophy.

Grade 12 students wrote preparatory departmental exams last week. The teachers issued the students last year's departmentals to give them a general idea of what they'll be up against in June.

The air is buzzing with excitement as graduation rapidly approaches. The plans are well underway as Friday, May 29th is the date for the annual event. Grade 11 students are doing a commendable job to make "Graduation '59" a success.

Bus Parking Area Discussed At Board of Trade

Mr. Norman Williams, district manager of the Greyhound Bus Lines, was a guest at the Board of Trade dinner last week to discuss parking area for busses on their stops here. It was felt by town authorities that much parking space was being lost through a half block being reserved all day long for busses which only stopped for 15 minutes each trip.

Mr. Williams stated that the company would very much like to retain the present parking privileges at the Boston cafe as this was the most ideal parking of any town in Alberta. He suggested that all the space being reserved was not essential and that the parking area could be cut off at the light pole thus leaving approximately half the space previously reserved for the bus open for public parking.

Queried about the possibilities of building a bus depot here or of maintaining a depot of their own, Mr. Williams stated that it would be impossible to maintain a bus depot in such town due to the expense entailed.

The Board of Trade empowered Mr. Al Locke to approach the town council with a view to lengthening the no-parking space in front of Curley's store to eliminate cars partially blocking the lane and making it very difficult to make a right turn. This has since been done.

The Board also asked that some traffic direction be maintained at the intersection of 50th avenue and 50th street when the fire siren sounds. This has also been attended to and the R.C.M.P. will direct traffic at such times.

Mannville Taxes Are Down; Lowest Mill Rate Since 1953

MANNVILLE. — Ratepayers at Mannville are in for a shock when they receive their tax notices for the year 1959 — but a pleasant one. This is because the tax rate this year will be set at 52 mills by the village fathers. Rate on business assessment remains at 22 mills. The revenue this year is expected to total $60,970.00 of which $39,484.00 will be raised by taxes, with the balance derived from grants, water and sewer rates and miscellaneous sources.

In the expenditure side are naturally many commitments, as the school requisition takes $17,810.00 and general government, public works, sanitation, health and social welfare will require $21,921.00.

The council has [illegible] considerable public works including the extension of water and sewerage to serve the south side of the village, with street and sidewalk work for the north side. Owing to the increase in the village assessment, it has been possible to lower the mill rate once again so citizens may now with thankful hearts continue to improve their property, landscaping, etc. without fear of the "high cost of living." Mannville has, in the past few years, undertaken an important step in modernizing the village with the laying in of water and sewerage, and natural gas piped in greatly adding to the comforts of the residents.

Sharp Increase in House Fires

Last year in Alberta there was a sharp increase in the number of dwelling fires, particularly in cities, towns and villages. According to reports submitted to Fire Commissioner A. E. Bridges the number of dwelling fire losses reported almost doubled over that reported for 1957 and the increase in the fire loss in this class of property was [illegible] over the previous year. There were 1816 dwelling fires in 1958 with the result that $1,[illegible] worth of homes and home property were destroyed by fire. The loss of life also [illegible] persons is more serious in homes than in other classes of property and over the years 80% of all deaths have occurred in the home.

The Fire Commissioner is asking that fire chiefs in Alberta give greater attention to informing the home owner of methods of fire prevention. The fire chief and other members of the fire department need only a little encouragement and a show of interest from the home owner to start a systematic fire inspection of all homes in the community. The fire fighter sees the many conditions that can cause fires in the home and he is able by his knowledge and experience to impart life-saving information to the home owner. If there is a home fire inspection program in your community [illegible] is keeping up with modern protection practices but it is feared that this is not the situation in most communities and therefore the Fire Commissioner recommends home fire safety is a proper subject to engage the interest and endeavor of all home owners and all organizations concerned in the welfare of the home.

Sunday Weather: Unsettled!

"An increasing number of business men want the Lord's Day Act observed," states Rev. A. G. McIlreath, general secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance. Numerous owners of small businesses, real estate firms, and others, view with distaste and annoyance the illegal activities of competitors who commercialize Sundays, according to the annual report of the Alliance just issued.

"The majority of people in business wish to keep their shops closed on Sunday," the report maintains. "They claim need of the day of rest and acknowledge a desire for the change it provides. But these privileges are being endangered by unlawful activities of business rivals."

The report also indicates that the matter of cultural entertainments and [illegible] provided on the Lord's Day "for their beneficial and elevating influence" and without a view to monetary gain will eventually need to come under review with consequent alteration of law. The Alliance however sounds a strong warning: Projects which show little interest in ennobling life but only in making profit, should continue to be prohibited.

Significantly the 1959 report of the Lord's Day Alliance is entitled "Sunday Weather: Unsettled." Attitudes are in ferment according to the report. The Sunday that Canada has long known is under fire. Law is under attack the report avers, with all its complex problems of Dominion responsibility and Provincial preferences. Mounting pressures suggest that the matter cannot be permanently postponed, the report says. Because of the frequency of offences against the Lord's Day Act and the ever-present effort of business toward expansion, the menace has serious significance for the whole community. That the present situation should have "the attention and co-operative effort of the altruistic and the concerned," is the main plea of the report.

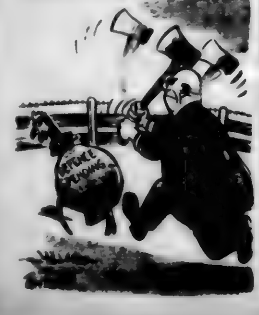
Dairy Farming Is Big Business

Canadians will be reminded during the month of June that the dairy industry is still one of the nation's largest, most important and most complex businesses. Over the years dairying in all its manifestations has become highly efficient beginning with the production of milk and carrying through to the delivery of the finished product to the consumer. For instance it might be assumed that the dairy cow population would be increasing with the increase in milk production which last year topped 18 billion pounds. However, the number of dairy cows in Canada has not varied [illegible] remaining at a level slightly above three million animals. Steadily increasing milk production, while influenced on a seasonal basis by weather conditions, can be directly traced to herd culling and breeding programs which have resulted in herds of more highly productive cows.

Canadian dairy farming can be divided into two main classes: (1) the specialty dairy farm where all the income is derived from the sale of milk and dairy cattle, and (2) the general dairy farm where the dairy herd and its products are only a part of the farm business. The specialty dairy farm most likely will be producing fluid milk for a nearby city or town and some breeding stock may be sold if herd members are of good enough quality to be in demand. The general dairy farm may provide a variety of alternatives. The milk may be separated and the cream marketed while the skim milk is kept at home as feed for hogs or poultry. Here again the sale of breeding stock from the herd from time to time may be an important part of the general farm operation. General dairy farmers often have some cash grain or other crop to sell in addition to the milk which may go to concentrated milk plants or cheese factories.

In connection with dairy farming it is important to remember that milk is not the only product of the herd. In the process of management, calves as well as cows have to be culled in the interests of herd improvement, which in turn is responsible for the increased milk production mentioned above. This culling process is the source of considerable dairy income since it is estimated that 40 per cent of the beef and 60 per cent of the veal consumed in Canada comes from dairy herds. In a country which sometimes [illegible] preoccupied with the importance of wheat it is worth remembering that in a given year the value of the products of Canadian dairy herds exceeds that of any other single farm product, including wheat.

Careful, She May Lay A Golden Egg



Letters to the Editor

R. R. 3 Vermilion,
May 19th 1959

The Editor
[illegible]
Dear Sir:

Now that election time is coming around again I suppose that it is the duty of full blooded Canadian citizens to dish around free advice on how to vote as per the letter signed Charles Mullan in your May 14th issue.

One cannot hope to arise to the height of oratory and eloquence obtained in Mr. Mullan's letter. But I feel that I should say something, just to prove that I am not a yes man.

We who are bathed in freedom's light must often come to the conclusion that the ballot is not the efficient thing it is cracked up to be. We have been listening for years to our leaders telling us through years of Liberal dictatorship that what we needed was an efficient opposition.

Now what happens? Through the brilliant leadership of John Diefenbaker this Liberal dictatorship has been changed to a Conservative one. And our poor splinter parties, what happens to them? We have had for years from the West the Social Credit party representatives with their different viewpoint on financial matters and the good men of the C.C.F. party presenting the social side of humanity first. We need these different viewpoints expressed in parliament with greater force than ever. It seems to be the aim of the Conservative party to eliminate all opposition both federal and provincial. It is time to wake up and take notice. "By their fruits ye shall know them". First, the "Bond Conversion" — the basic fact of this Canadians are going into debt to the tune of another billion dollars without gaining a thing. When British manufacturers offered free trade up went the Canadian tariff. When our farmers went to Ottawa Mr Diefenbaker said governments cannot do [illegible] he should have added, not for everybody [illegible].

Speaking to the Rotary club, Mayor Hawrelak of Edmonton emphasized the role of the utilities in keeping the city of Edmonton in a favorable financial position. It is fortunate that Edmonton owns five of its utilities [illegible].

Yours for Public Ownership
H. Wear.

GREEN ACRES

by H. MORLEY DOUGLAS,
District Agriculturist

CONGRATULATIONS

Hearty congratulations to Miriam Williams of Dewberry 4-H Beef club who won the Agricultural section and Lewis Stepanoff of Paradise Valley 4-H Garden club who won the Homemaking section of the district public speaking contest May 21 at the Vermilion School of Agriculture. These two young ladies will represent this area at the Edmonton Exhibition public speaking contest on July 17. A special congratulation must be offered to Allen Gray of Dewberry 4-H Beef club who won the junior section.

LAWNS

The use of phosphate fertilizers on lawns will promote the growth of legumes (clover) says R. W. Peake, Head Forage Crops section, Dominion Experimental Farm, Lethbridge. A straight nitrogen fertilizer promotes the grass.

BEEF SUPPORT PRICES

Possibly due to high prices many cattlemen are unaware of the fact that beef has a price support. For the year 1959-60 the price support of beef is $17.80 per cwt Toronto. That price is 30 cents higher than 1958-59 based on 80% of the average for the past ten years.

FARMERS EFFICIENT

Did you know that it took 370 hours of labor to produce 100 bushels of wheat in 1800? By 1900 these hours of labor were reduced to 150. In 1940 the figure was down to 43 hours and today it is calculated to be 26 hours of labor per 100 bushels of wheat.

ROW CROP HAY

At Swift Current hay produced the heaviest yield when spaced in rows from 12 to 18 inches Between 1940 and 1954 output per man hour in farming rose 83% while in the same period in industry the man hour productivity gained only 30%. apart. Spaced closer together the yield went down and further apart picking up the hay became a problem. Row crop seeding not only increased the yield but also reduced the amount of seed. The basic rate of seeding remained the same, 35 seeds per foot of row. The spaces were kept clean by an annual cultivation and spraying with 2,4-D.

VIBRIOSIS

Vibriosis is an infectious venereal disease of cattle which may result in abortion, delayed breeding or temporary sterility. Like Brucellosis there are no real symptoms but when an apparently normal cow or cows return to heat repeatedly Vibriosis may be suspected. At times the cows apparently settle for 3 months and then return to heat. If the herd has from six months to a year's sexual rest the cows throw off the infection and return to normal reproduction. The bull spreads the disease from cow to cow. Whole herds may be infected by one cow, a proven sire or a wandering scrub. In choosing replacement stock you cannot be too careful. Only virgin heifers and untried bulls are recommended. In April Vibriosis was diagnosed in a large beef herd in Vermilion River M. D. Any herdsman who is experiencing any of the above troubles will do well to consult a local veterinarian. A veterinarian's advice may save a calf crop. The tests are complicated and the bugs are temperamental but the vet can do the test and the Province of Alberta will do the lab work. Bulletins are available.

WEEDS

These warm days will promote growth and consequently weeds will become a problem. Remember 2,4-D used early is more effective in killing the weeds and is more effective in preserving that precious moisture which may be so vital this year.

The good judgment of some people will never wear out—they don't use it often enough.

Farm Machinery Boom In Canada

Farm implement and equipment sales are booming across Canada reports Forbes Gilbertson in The Financial Post.

From the start of the fiscal year for equipment manufacturers, Nov. 1, until the end of April 1959, they are running well ahead of the same period last year.

By the year-end they should show a larger gain over the 1958 grand total of [illegible] million than the 13.6% increase recorded in 1958 over 1957.

For the current year so far Massey-Ferguson Ltd., Cockshutt Farm Equipment Ltd., International Harvester, J. I. Case (Canada) Ltd. all confirmed significant increases in sales.

One major company [illegible] that the year should be a record [illegible], if not for the industry.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Thinking of buying a used car? It's a buyer's market right now and you may pick up a bargain — but here are some things to check before you buy:

Does the brake pedal continue to yield under steady foot pressure? This usually indicates a bad leak — it needs repair.

Do you hear a grinding sound when you start the car? This is a sign that the teeth on the flywheel gear ring are worn or missing. Another big repair job.

Does the exhaust spurt smoke when you race the engine? If so, you probably need new piston rings. Farewell another $100.

Do you get too much play in the steering mechanism when making sharp turns? This could mean badly worn parts.

Does the clutch "give" easily for the first inch or so? If so it could mean a new clutch plate.

Does the car swerve when you brake suddenly? Do the brakes grab? More money for repairs.

Does the car pull consistently to one side when you stop? This could mean the front end is out of line. Look for another car.

If the tires all look new, double check to see they are not "seconds".

Best advice: Go to a reputable dealer, take along a mechanic, test drive the car thoroughly before you buy it.

Canada now ranks sixth in the world in manufacturing output and manufacturing now employs one out of four working Canadians.

The great bulk of Canadian National Railways' traffic produces a very small margin of [illegible]. On the average, the CNR must haul more than a ton of freight for two miles to earn [illegible] enough to buy a [illegible] lead pencil.

Today nothing [illegible] to succeed like the appearance of success.

Bridal Shower At Campbell Lake

The spacious home of Mrs. Ort Strome was filled to overflowing when friends of Miss Audrey McIntyre, R.N., gathered there in honor of her marriage, to take place this month.

Delightful games and contests followed and then a "well" of gifts was brought in. Audrey was assisted in opening the lovely parcels by her sister Mary Ellen and Miss Vi Varabiov. The happy bride-to-be thanked her friends charmingly and invited them to visit her at her new home in Grande Prairie.

A great many men shiver in the cold just because they imagined they had the fire of genius.

Frissell-Carmichael Vows Pledged At Candle-Lighted Service

A wedding of interest was solemnized in the First United Church, Vermilion, on April 29th at 7:00 o'clock, when Miss Suzanne Lenore Carmichael, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Carmichael, became the bride of Edward Alexander Frissell, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Frissell, all of Vermilion.

Rev. C. W. MacKay performed the double-ring ceremony in the chancel softly lit by tall tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor-length traditional gown of imported Alencon lace and illusion over satin extending into a short train. Seed pearls and irridescent sequins outlined the scalloped sabrina neckline and the rose appliques on the bouffant skirt. The sleeves formed petal points over the wrists. Her beaded close-fitting cap held her triple-fingertip veil of french illusion in place. Her white prayer book, a presentation of the C.G.I.T., carried orchids and trailing pink carnations. Her only jewellery was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

SIX ATTENDANTS

Miss Anne Stewart, maid of honor, and Miss Barbara Green, bridesmaid, were dressed in identical gowns of nylon organza over turquoise printed charm, featuring scooped necklines and white accessories. They carried white carnations and shasta mums.

Gerald Marshall was chosen to act as best man, and Robert Carmichael, brother of the bride, was groomsman.

Little Marilyn Senz, as flower girl, was demure in a dress of pink embossed nylon organza with matching headband and she carried a white basket of blue marguerites and carnation petals. Ronnie Frissell, brother of the groom, acted as ring bearer.

The ushers were Walter Zavaduk and James Frissell, brother of the groom.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. A. M. West, who also accompanied Dr. A. B. King while he sang "The Wedding Prayer," and during the signing of the register "O Perfect Love."

RECEPTION IN THE CHURCH HALL

Immediately following the ceremony, approximately 200 guests were received in the church hall where the bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake, and decorated with tall white tapers and bouquets of spring flowers.

To receive her guests the bride's mother chose a sheath frock in beige tones, fashioned with blouson bodice and boat neckline, with orange ice accessories. Her corsage was of rust and yellow roses.

The groom's mother wore a sheath dress of pale blue brocaded bengaline with cowl draped neckline and matching accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. E. Frissell Sr., the groom's grandmother, chose a blue printed silk gown with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Those invited to pour tea were Mrs. E. M. Stewart, Mrs. A. Green, Mrs. R. Hall, Mrs. S. Cooper, Mrs. G. Senz, Mrs. T. C. Marshall, Mrs. F. Young and Mrs. H. Young.

Misses Dorothy-Jean Stewart, Merle Marshall, Margaret Rooks and Lila Porter acted as serviteurs during the reception. Kenneth Frissell, brother of the groom, was in charge of the guest book.

Rev. MacKay, as master of ceremonies, called upon E. M. Stewart who proposed the toast to the bride, the response being ably made by the groom. Gerald Marshall read several congratulatory telegrams.

HONEYMOON IN U. S. A.

Father Landrigan performed the ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a pink tweed suit and white hat, gloves and shoes for her wedding ensemble. She wore a corsage of deep red roses and carried a white prayer book.

The bridesmaid, Miss Judy Hinton, sister of the bride, wore a beige suit with matching hat and shoes. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

The best man was Mr. Max Callaghan, friend of the groom, also of Vermilion.

A reception for the family was held in the banquet room at the Brunswick Hotel at 12:30 p.m. Mr. Frank Schmidt Jr. was the toastmaster and Fr. Landrigan proposed the toast to the bride.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding, a two-piece navy blue dress with white trim, complemented with a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore a gold dress with a corsage of white carnations.

The happily married couple left in the afternoon for a honeymoon in the north. On their return they will make their home in Vermilion.

Following the games, Yvonne assisted by her mother, Mrs. Wm. Hannon, and sister Jean, opened many lovely and useful gifts. (The confetti in the balloons, by the way, was supposed to fall on Yvonne!)

A lovely lunch followed, served by the hostesses Eileen Doherty and Helen King, assisted by Ruth Moore and Teddy Watt.

Mr. Danny Watt, the groom-to-be, Wm. Hannon and Colin McLean arrived later to close the evening with some guitar playing.

Yvonne thanked the ladies present for the lovely gifts and invited them to her wedding on June 5th.

The guests left with many good wishes for the future of the happy young couple.

Bride-Elect Feted At Surprise Shower

Miss Shirley Underdown was very surprised when friends held a shower in her honor on May 20th at the home of Mrs. Thelma Gould.

After a few games were played a "Bride's Book" was started, giving rise to much hilarity in the selection of suitable pictures from old magazines.

Two of the smaller guests brought in a decorated basket filled with many useful and beautiful gifts. The bride-elect then thanked her friends for their good wishes and gifts following which a tasteful lunch was served to the guests of which there were [illegible].

Mr. and Mrs. Christie and family, James Barnett and David E. Brown gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Barnett northeast of Islay on May 24 to spend a pleasant time together reminiscing during the afternoon and evening of school days spent in Ontario.

It was too early in the season to attract many entries in the fastball tourneys held at Vermilion Victoria Day, May 18. As a result only three teams entered the men's division, with two in the ladies'.

Vermilion Ghosts captured the tourney with Kitscoty second and Lloydminster third.

Vermilion and Kitscoty ladies played a triple-header with the [illegible] Cardinals taking two games and Kitscoty one.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Nest Egg

A pinch of antibiotics in their feed causes many farm animals and birds to grow faster and bigger. And they eat less while they grow more!

In 1949, it took 12 to 14 weeks and 10 pounds of feed to produce a three-pound broiler chicken. By 1951, broilers were ready for market in 9 to 11 weeks — on 9 pounds of feed.

Such fantastic results stump even the animal nutritionists. An unidentified growth factor in the antibiotic may be responsible. The chemical may help the animal or bird get along better on less protein, or make better use of whatever protein there is in the ration. Or perhaps the antibiotic frees the animal of subtle, unrecognized diseases.

Science isn't sure. But it is using the discovery to human advantage.

Poultry nutritionists, for example, find that tiny amounts of an antibiotic formula in the drinking water of hens improves egg production as much as 27 per cent. A teaspoonful of Terramycin Egg Formula in 10 gallons of water cuts laying slumps and causes a hen to lay about four dozen extra eggs a year.

This means the owner of a 300-bird flock may realize as much as $240 more a year. Pullets reach peak production sooner while older birds are kept laying longer. At the same time, feed efficiency is improved. According to large-scale tests at university research stations, as many as 30 more eggs may be expected from each 100 pounds of antibiotic-fortified feed.

GANDER PROTECTS NESTING DUCKS

This Canada goose at Victoria, B.C., has adopted some nesting ducks and protects them with all the ferocity of a mother lion. Ed Lohbrunner is the beaten man who demonstrates what happens when anyone dares to disturb the sanctity of the gander's foster home. Ed has been bruised just walking past the nest since the gander became protective.

By AMBROSE HILLS

MORE CLOSED SHOPS!

Another Canadian textile mill, in New Brunswick, closed up this week, and hundreds of highly paid jobs disappeared. There will be no more bargaining there for still higher pay and fancier fringe benefits!

Recently two important garment makers, who had paid good wages to scores of Canadian workers, found it impossible to compete with the Japanese. So, on the basis of the old saw "If you can't beat 'em, join 'em," they have stopped making their garments in Canada. Hereafter they will be made in Japan, and the Canadian firm will merely act as distributor. This maintains the jobs of a few salesmen, but ends the jobs of the needle workers. More unemployment! More taxes to pay unemployment insurance!

Perhaps you think the closing of these mills means nothing to you as long as you can continue to buy Japanese textiles or other foreign made items cheaply."

How wrong can you be! Your standard of living as a Canadian depends more on the health of our manufacturing industries than anything else you can name. Manufacturing makes more jobs, and pays more taxes than any other industry.

If we all buy foreign-made products, Canadian jobs will disappear, taxes will go sky high, our standard of living will sink. This is pure common sense. Surely we ought to start demanding that "MADE IN CANADA" sign before we purchase. Buying at home keeps jobs at home!

Passing of the Steam Locomotive

On the front page of a recent issue of the Vermilion Standard there was a large reproduction of a photograph of a locomotive with the caption: "Last Steam Locomotive in the West, Will Never Run Again".

That is a brief matter-of-fact record of the passing of a powerful Titan of the age of steam. Its history goes back to the beginning of the 19th century and, [illegible] enough, in little Wales where a Cornish man named Trevithick built and operated a steam engine for hauling cars on a track. George Stephenson's first locomotive, the Blucher, was built in 1814 and in 1829 he demonstrated with his famous Rocket the practicability of the steam engine for transportation. His engine had four wheels, one pair being drivers, and a boiler six feet long. When running light it attained the terrific speed of 29 miles per hour!

The first locomotive to run in the United States was the English-built Stourbridge Lion in the same year. It was not a commercial success, owing, it is said, to the failure of the track rather than of the engine. A year later the Tom Thumb was built by Peter Cooper for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and was "an outstanding success" at about the same speed as the Rocket.

Meanwhile Canada was still in the backwoods, so far as transportation was concerned. The chief means of land travel were the stage coach and the lumber wagon over corduroy roads; but a macadamized and plank state route had been established from Montreal to Kingston, and later from Kingston to York (Toronto) and from thence to Niagara and Detroit. These roads were built and maintained by public funds, partly from toll-gates. But much of the passenger and freight traffic in those days was by boat on the lakes, rivers and canals. Thousands of immigrants were pouring into Canada. "Often," says one writer, "more than a hundred men, women and children would be crowded into a single thirty-foot bateau, huddled together as close as captives in a slave trader, exposed to the sun's rays by day, and the river damp by night, without protection." With the coming of the steamboat, water travel was greatly improved.

It was the locomotive that, by speeding up land transportation, opened a new era of progress for Canada. It began with the arrival at Saint John, N.B., of an English locomotive, named the Kitten, in 1837. The new engine was run on wooden rails and at the first trial "wouldn't (no pun intended) budge an inch." But we are told that it eventually "gambolled along at 20 miles an hour." The rest of the story is told in a book by Oscar D. Skelton, "The Railway Builders" published in 1930 which should be a 'must' text book for every student of Canadian history. That little Kitten was the pioneer of rapid transportation which linked the Atlantic to the Pacific, peopled the empty Prairies and changed the whole face of Canadian life. The locomotive transformed Canada from a colony [illegible] federated Dominion under the [illegible].

The passing of the steam engine marks the transfer from steam to diesel power and the ultimate passing of the giant locomotive that has pushed back the boundaries of civilization around the world. And it all started with that sputtering contraption which was slightingly dubbed "Puffing Billy".

The Canadian National Railways in 1958 continued to extend its passing sidings throughout the system. By year end [illegible] between Montreal and Winnipeg could accommodate 100-car trains. Those between Winnipeg and Edmonton can take 117-car trains.

Marwayne 4-H Clothing Club

MARWAYNE — The Achievement Day for the 4-H Clothing Club was held on Tuesday, May 12th in the Elks hall. Eight 2nd year and seven 1st year girls had sewing on display. There were many red cards in evidence as well as club collections of cosmetics, cloth samples, tags and a scrap book.

The hour-long affair took the form of an impromptu [illegible] of the girls talking [illegible] the events of the year. [illegible] two demonstrations, two talks and musical numbers.

The judging was done by Miss Nancy Paschnik, Assistant 4-H Supervisor from Edmonton. In her remarks she commended the girls very highly for their work and the program, and gave them some very valuable pointers for another year.

The sponsoring organization, the F.W.U.A., gave three pairs of scissors as prizes, one to Jean Kvill for promptness in her work for two years. The second pair went to Gladys Pashniak, the youngest girl, for starting late and still having her projects completed and well done. The third pair went to Isabel Gray for being an all around good member. These awards were presented by Mrs. Doris Tupper, president of Marwayne F.W.U.A.

Gifts from the mothers were presented by Mrs. Lillian Tupper to the three leaders, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Crichton and Mrs. Hutchinson. Lunch was served by the girls, bringing a very pleasant evening to a close.

DRIVERS . . Take Heed!

If you don't do anything else today, please read this letter:

Dear Driver:

A few weeks ago, I saw a little girl struck by a car as she tried to cross the street. I saw a father run toward her and hold her to him as she struggled in the agony of death. I saw all the plans that had been made for her dashed and I saw the look of despair that came over his face. I could only offer a prayer that such a thing might never happen again.

Today my daughter who is six years old, started off to school. Her cocker spaniel, whose name is Scoot, watched her leave and whined his belief in the folly of education.

Tonight we talked about school. She told me about the girl who sits in front of her a girl with yellow curls, and about the boy across the aisle who makes faces, about the teacher who has eyes in the back of her head; about the trees in the school yard and the big girl who does not believe in Santa Claus.

We talked about a lot of things—tremendously vital and unimportant things.

When her doll gets broken or her finger cut or her head gets bumped I can fix them. But when she starts across the street ... then, Mr Driver she is in your hands.

Much as I wish I could, it's not possible for me to be with her all the time. I have to work to pay for her home, her clothes, her education.

So Mr Driver, please help me to look out for her. Please drive carefully. Please drive slowly past schools and at intersections. And please remember that sometimes children run from behind parked cars.

Please don't run over my little girl.

With deepest thanks for whatever you can do for her. [illegible]

Very sincerely yours,

Final Social of Year Held By Golden Age Friendship Club

A social evening of the Golden Age Friendship club, held in the Legion hall on the evening of May 20th was immensely enjoyed. Owing to garden activities and other social functions only forty-nine members were present, with eleven tables of whist and one table of nine pins. The ladies' prizes were won by 1. Mrs. Wernp. 2. Mrs. Lee, with the consolation going to Mrs. Rooke. Gents' 1st. Mrs. Sinnott; 2. Mrs. Preston; consolation, Mrs M. Urquhart. All of the prizes were generously donated by Mrs J Powell and a great big thank you was extended to her. All were very happy to see her after her illness. May she enjoy good health now for years to come.

Many thanks were extended to Mrs. Urquhart for her acknowledgment of the get-well card and it was pleasing to know it helped to cheer her.

After whist was finished a very nice lunch was served, and again hats off to the ladies of the kitchen committee for their very efficient and prompt service. Mrs. Hill and Miss Keith very kindly volunteered to help with the dishes after lunch.

The delightfully decorated birthday cake from the Vermilion bakery was surrounded by eleven happy members whose birthdays are in May June July and August. All of them made a wish and then one big puff and all the candles were out, with the entire assembly singing "Happy Birthday" the cake was passed around.

After lunch was finished Mr W Waldenberger made a few remarks saying that this social was the last event of the Golden Age Friendship club before the summer recess and that socials will be resumed in September with a pot-luck supper. It was hoped by the speaker that the club would expand to three times its present membership. Mr Waldenberger went on to say that the groceries for this social were donated by Mr and Mrs Billy McLaughlin of McLaughlin's Self-Serve. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded Billy and Leona, and all trust that they have a wonderful vacation. Mr Waldenberger then extended a hearty welcome home to Mrs. Hill and Mr and Mrs Amos. Two new members were then introduced Mr and Mrs Ashley Cooper and Mr Cooper was asked to say a few words to the members present. Very appropriately and in tone with the Golden Age Friendship club, Mr Cooper spoke on the subject "The Senior Citizens' Lodge" which is to be erected in Vermilion, and it was certainly a very enlightening talk which was enjoyed by all present. A big thank you was extended to Mr. Cooper, and you may be sure all will be looking forward to seeing you and your charming wife at the September social.

To those members who were not present, all feel you missed a treat, but trust everyone will get together in September. Watch your Standard for further details.

Finally, to all members who are going on vacation, very best wishes for happy holidays and a safe return — be sure to walk or drive safely.

The evening came to an end with the singing of the theme song followed by "The Queen".

—CONTRIBUTED.

Dr. Harry Morris Tells of Work Of Health of Animals Branch

Guest speaker at the Rotary Club meeting last Friday was Dr Harry Morris. Dr Morris is district superintendent for the federal health of animals branch. He has been located in Vermilion since last December.

The speaker said that his responsibility is the detection and control of contagious diseases of animals in this area.

These diseases are Foot and Mouth disease, Scabies, Rabies, Newcastle disease, Anthrax, Hog Cholera and Tuberculosis.

Dr Morris has just finished up the testing of cattle for T.B. in M.D. of Vermilion River. Two trips must be made to each farm. On the first trip tuberculin is injected and on the second trip the veterinarian notes whether or not there is a reaction. As there are over 60,000 head of cattle in this municipality it can be easily understood that it is a large job.

The speaker said that Vermilion River M.D. has qualified for Bang's disease testing. There have been seven years of compulsory vaccination of heifer calves so the program has advanced another step. Dr. Morris said that a shortage of veterinarians is holding up the work at the present time.

Ken Greenwood introduced the speaker and Gordon Ross thanked him for his very able address.

Jack Kneale reported that it looks like the car rodeo which is sponsored annually by the Vermilion Rotary club will be held on June 12. Any business or organization may sponsor a contestant; everyone concerned should get particulars from Jack Kneale or Stan Jones.

President Jim Bateman presided at the meeting.

Split-Level Pool for Backyard

LATEST FASHION NOTE in home swimming pools is this handsome "split-level" one which is designed to fit into almost any backyard. Made of reinforced redwood, the Living Pool — so-called because "it grows with the family" — is built both above and below the ground, and can accommodate itself to even rocky or sloping terrain. Generous California redwood decking on all sides provides a family recreation area adaptable to sunbathing, outdoor barbecues, games, lounging, entertaining. High walls offer shy swimmers or poolside [illegible] the ultimate in privacy in backyard bathing. Locking doors and other special pool features insure maximum safety. A final touch, not shown here, is a plastic sun roof which will permit swimming in any kind of weather. This newest Esther Williams pool is modestly priced for the average-income family.

Mannville Home and School Enjoys Varied Concert Program

MANNVILLE — At the May 21st meeting of the Home and School Association, much fun and action was noted. It was truly significant of Home and School, as parents and children took part. Preceding the meeting a Health Habits film was shown. Then, with Mrs. R. Forsyth in the chair and Mrs. Pat Cotter as acting secretary in the place of Mrs. Betty Ramsey, the meeting began. Band funds were reported at $400.00, with a report to come at a future date re travelling bandmaster. Mrs. Sheila Baldwin won the shield for the most parents in attendance.

After the business part of the meeting was adjourned, a delightful selection of piano solos by Miss Edith Gedke was heard, followed by an amusing play staged by Mrs. H. Thompson's grade 7 room, "Willie Gets The Willies." Cast of the play included Ralph Pedersen as Willie, a talented natural on stage. Gladys (his sister), Judy Gerhart. Mother, Miss Dianne Whitson; Aunt Ida, played by Bonnie Coulter. Angel, Willie's admirer, Bonnie Proudfoot; and Joe, a boy friend played by Ross Sargent.

The entire cast gave an excellent performance, and managed to keep straight faces (almost) as Willie tried to wear red flannels in mid-summer, due to a mistake in the mail order department, confusing them with red paddles for a canoe. These were a present from his aunt who placed the order, little realizing the outcome. However, all ended well as she came for a visit and discovered the mistake.

Two vocal duets were heard following the play, "Sympathy" and "Lassie O' Mine," sung by Walter Osborn and Mrs. Joan Lugg. A piano accordian solo was well received by the audience, played by Lorne Miskiw. Mr. W. Osborn sang a vocal solo "The Trumpeter" which was much enjoyed. Mr Doherty introduced Mr John Spriggings, Supt. of Physical Education for Vegreville School Division, who spoke after the physical education display by various grades. First came Mrs. Baldwin's grade 3 class in a most appealing display of singing games and dances. Following this Mrs. Don Lugg's grade 3 and 4 class gave an amazing exhibition of square dancing with two very small artists playing the piano accordians for accompaniment. Following this Nestor Bohaichuk's supervised display of calisthenics by grades 8, 9 showed remarkable skill at tumbling, etc. Mr Angus Smith refereed while his class of high school pupils played volley ball. Mr John Spriggings followed this with an address on physical education reporting himself as being favorably impressed with the bright-eyed children which proved them a healthy group. In the first instance rhythmics teaches the child elementary rhythm needed later in basketball. In tumbling, as shown by the class, grace and muscular development is a vital necessity. "If we do not want to become regimented as in Europe," said Mr Spriggings, "rather let us 'play games' as some are prone to classify Physical Education." Lunch was provided for the estimated 200 in attendance by Chaley members of the Home and School.

CANADA BEATS U.S. IN TUG-OF-WAR

A tug-of-war on the international boundary of the Rainbow bridge opened blossom time in that area. The Canadian team made up of policemen from Niagara Falls, Ont., defeated the United States team of policemen from Niagara Falls, N.Y. The tug-of-war was the main event of the first annual Niagara Falls festival.

NO PAYMENT FOR PAIN

Under a new plan for automobile insurance there would be no payment for pain and suffering only for physical damage. Such a change says The Financial Post, would clean up the mess that our liability insurance is helping to create. There are obviously a lot of arguments to be made pro and con. But the suggestion is a good starting point for an examination of the whole matter by insurance organizations, government departments and others interested.

Ontario the province with the largest population and the largest number of cities and towns, ranks first in furs taken from wild life.

Red Cross Aid To Flood Victims

Seventeen cases of relief supplies containing over 5,700 items valued at more than $2,082 left the Provincial Red Cross headquarters in Calgary May 15 destined for Poland and Lebanon. These hand-made items, the work of Red Cross women's work groups throughout Alberta, will provide needed clothing and bedding for 60,000 homeless victims of Poland's worst floods in 25 years and will also give warmth and comfort to displaced persons in Near Eastern countries.

Supplies shipped to Poland will be distributed by the Polish Red Cross while United Nations Relief and Work Agency will have charge of distributing relief supplies to displaced persons in Lebanon.

The Canadian National Railways in 1958 continued to extend its passing sidings throughout the system. By year end subdivisions between Montreal and Winnipeg could accommodate 100-car trains. Those between Winnipeg and Edmonton can take 117-car trains.

DISTRICT COURT

At the recent Sittings of the District Court at Vegreville the suit of Charles Pearman vs Geo A. M. Bell, both of Vermilion was tried before His Honour Judge L. Y. Cairns, and judgment given in favor of Pearman who claimed damages from Bell for wrongful removal and conversion to his own use of certain gas pipe line from Pearman's land and for trespass on the land.

Bell in his defence testified he had purchased the pipe line from one Johnson. The Court found the pipe line [illegible] and that Bell [illegible] trespassed on Pearman's [illegible] for which the Court awarded damages of $225 [illegible] to be paid by Bell.

F. J. Richardson, Q.C. acted for the plaintiff Pearman and Mr John W. Koshuta of Vegreville for the defendant Bell.

JUNE 6th IS DATE OF ANNUAL FEEDERS' DAY AT UNIVERSITY

June 6 is the date of the University of Alberta's 28th annual Feeders' Day this year. It will be held as usual at the University Livestock Farm in Edmonton. Livestock feeding and breeding experiments, completed during the past twelve months, will be reviewed and lunch will be available on the grounds at a nominal charge. Reports by members of the Department of Animal Science will commence at 10 a.m.

Among topics discussed will be the inside vs outside raising of pigs, energy-protein relationship in swine rations, anemia prevention, re-evaluation of grains and supplements for pigs, and use of antibiotic supplements. Results of swine crossbreeding trials and similar work with sheep will be reported. Receiving attention also will be self feeding of lambs, the effect of feeding silage on the butterfat test of milk and pelleted vs meal calf starters. Cattlemen will be particularly interested in results of the steer finishing trials, self vs hand feeding, and the relative performance of low, medium and high quality feeder cattle. Veterinary problems will be discussed and questions invited.

Interest in this annual Feeders' Day event continues to grow and good use is being made by livestockmen throughout the province of results as they appear. Dr L. W. McElroy, Professor of Animal Science at the University of Alberta, reports that requests for last year's Feeders' Day results were so numerous that the 10,000 copies printed were practically all distributed within the month.

SEAWAY COMPLAINTS ARE NUMEROUS

Fishermen are complaining of a poor smelt catch at Port Weller, Ont. at the Lake Ontario entrance of the Welland Canal. A steady stream of vessels is passing through the system and each time a ship passes the fishermen must lift their nets. Shipping agents complained that the ships using the seaway will lose money on their first trip because of delays in locks and ports. The complaints centred on a huge traffic jam in the Welland Canal where some 60 ships are waiting to pass through. Transport Minister Hees said the delay was caused by "momentary overpopularity."

WILDMERE WINKS

The community joins with the writer in heartfelt sympathy for Mr A Kathdy, Peter and David and family on the loss of a loving wife, mother and grandmother. Pearl as she was known to most of us was always a cheery, happy person and it did one good to chat with her. Her happy smile will be greatly missed by all who knew her. When she started out to teach as a young girl her first school was Preston (better known as Wildmere). There she endeared herself to everyone and the friendship has lasted all through the years. We also extend our sympathy to her mother and sisters left to mourn her early passing.

Congratulations to Mr and Mrs Jack Clark and Mr and Mrs Johnson, who were married on Saturday at the First United church in Vermilion by Rev. C. W. MacKay. Both were very pretty weddings, with a nice attendance at both. The little ring-bearer and flower girl at the Clark weddings were really cute. They were the children of Mr and Mrs Bezaire of the Thorncliffe district where Mr. and Mrs. Clarke will reside. May both these couples enjoy many years of happiness.

A nice crowd attended the Preston Central Home & School meeting on Tuesday evening last week. Mrs. Wallington gave her report of the convention which she attended in Edmonton. The next meeting, June 15, will be the annual one, so plan to attend folks. Mrs. Symes and Roy Osterberg served a nice lunch, although Roy was absent. For the June meeting lunch will be served by Mrs. R. Smith and Mrs. Wallington.

The writer and husband had a nice surprise last Wednesday when Tommy Cairns of Vancouver B.C. called for a short visit. It is nice to see our old neighbor again. He motored out, returning home last week end to Vancouver.

Seeding is going ahead fast in our corner. Some are finished. Lloyd Howard and Howard Coburn have both completed their seeding. Wheat is already showing green. Here's hoping rain will come soon to give it a lift. Bill and Adam Smith have rape up — no frost by request as rape freezes easily.

Quite a number of school children from the Preston Central were at the elimination track meet held at the Composite high school last Friday afternoon. We are pleased to say some won prizes too, and will attend the track meet at Kitscoty later on.

Just as we were closing the Winks word came that little Eleanor Cawthorpe had passed away as a result of the severe burns she suffered two weeks ago. Two little flowers now walk side by side in God's heavenly gardens. Words fail to express our heartfelt sympathy for the sorrowing parents and relatives in their double tragedy.

Wednesday evening the writer accompanied Mr and Mrs H. Coburn to the bingo at the Wainwright drive-in but did not win any prizes. The show was enjoyed very much. Thanks Ian and Vernon for the hearty lunch.

There was a good attendance at church Sunday evening. Very pleased to see Mrs. H. Symes and family of Battleview present, also Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sweeney and family. Come again folks. Mr Nicholls preaches very interesting sermons.

Mrs. Lloyd Howard and Howard Coburn have the pleasure of a visit from their mother Mrs. Coburn Sr. of Vancouver Island, for a few weeks.

Miss Anne Garnett of Edmonton is home this week while her mother and Mrs. Neal Garnett are attending the Jubilee W.I. convention this week in Edmonton.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

[illegible]

The first wail of a newborn heralds more than a change in the world census. For doctors and nurses, it signals a watchful period — the first few weeks following birth when mother and infant are easy targets for invading germs.

For even with modern antiseptic precautions, certain stubborn germs can still raise havoc, especially when hospital staffs and facilities are taxed beyond normal limits.

During a recent outbreak at an overcrowded maternity hospital in Australia, for example, two research physicians found as many as four out of five infections suffered by mothers and infants could not be wiped out with the usual doses of penicillin. Although none of these "resistant" infections proved fatal, they added another burden to the already strained medical facilities.

The Australian doctors brought the outbreak under control with special drugs, strict sterilization of linens and equipment, careful laboratory studies of every infection, and isolation of sick mothers and infants. They also eliminated frequent moving and bathing of babies, which they considered "more likely to promote contamination than to prevent it."

Fortunately, during the past year science has learned to deal with such troublesome infections. Using a new drug called Sigmamycin, doctors can now quickly knock out stubborn germs left untouched by earlier drugs.

Thanks to new scientific knowledge, better drugs and continued vigilance of medical staffs, childbirth today is no longer to be feared. In the United States, infant deaths have been slashed to one-fourth the toll at the turn of the century, and deaths among new mothers have dropped to about one-twelfth the rate in [illegible].

Canadian National Railways Operates First All Piggyback Trains in West

EDMONTON. — The first all piggyback freight trains to be operated by Canadian [illegible] Railways in Western [illegible] began service between Edmonton and Calgary on May 25th. They carry for-hire truck trailers between these two cities four days a week from Monday to Thursday inclusive.

Because the volume of piggyback traffic is increasing steadily these special trains were inaugurated by the CNR to provide the most suitable schedule for this specialized type of freight service.

The deadline for loading trailers on the trains at both Edmonton and Calgary will be 9:00 p.m. with train departures scheduled for 10:00 p.m. The following morning, the trains are spotted for unloading in each city at 6:00 a.m.

In the current year Canadians will pay to the federal government about $1,889 million in personal income taxes, about $1,249 million in sales and excise taxes.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

Weather has been mostly cool, a bit of moisture and some frost.

On May 20th we noticed a large red barn going west by the Centre moving along at a good speed. Power and phone lines were disrupted for a short time along the way. The building came from north of Dewberry going to south of Borradaile. Perhaps Dewberry correspondent would know more of the details. It was an unusual and interesting sight.

Joyce daughter of Mr and Mrs Harold Cooper from Edmonton is expecting to see her friends at her Ronald party on June 6th, 8 p.m., at Mrs. Laird's in Clandonald. All are welcome to attend.

On May 22nd Mr Tony Killion from the States was a visitor in the district, at the Armstrong and Omness homes. Through the kindness of Warren Edwards brother Joe was along. Tony left Vermilion in 1924 and enjoys reminiscing very much. He homesteaded in the Rusylvia district. That land is now owned by Mr and Mrs Harold Schoonmaker. In the early days Tony worked for the late Mr Jim Armstrong in the Allendale district for a few years. Tony enjoys the local news and never misses the Standard.

The Allandale W. A. enjoyed catering to the Johnson-McIntyre wedding reception on May 23rd at the Allandale Community centre.

Our congratulations and very best wishes to the newlyweds, Mr and Mrs Walter Johnson. Also congratulations to the parents of the bride, Mr and Mrs. Wm. McIntyre on their 21st wedding anniversary and to Mr and Mrs Evans on their 51st. May they all enjoy the very best in life for many more years.

Church was well filled on Sunday May 24th. A very good sermon was given by our minister Mr Farquhar. There will be Sunday school at 11 a.m. May 31 and from then on all summer unless stated otherwise. Mr Farquhar will be superintendent.

Closing thought: "Oftentimes, if we knew the misery in others' hearts, instead of coveting their worldly goods, we would be thankful for our own possessions. No life has all sunshine and none has all shadow."

Red Cross Campaign Reaches 83% Of Objective

Returns in the Alberta Red Cross campaign for funds to date total $427,388, a percentage of 83.7 of the total objective of $510,300. Total contributions to May 15 represent returns of $238,745 from points in southern Alberta and receipts of $427,388 from the northern centres in the province.

Campaign returns to the same period last year totalled $380,535 or 70% of the provincial objective of $539,700.

U. G. G. Offers Two Bursaries For Farm Young People

Two bursaries will be provided by United Grain Growers Ltd. this year to assist young Alberta farm people to attend Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics. One award will be for entrance to the school at Olds and the other for entrance at Vermilion.

The bursaries will be available to any young person living on a farm, who is 17 years of age or older, and must be used for the school term which will commence next October. A committee appointed by the Provincial Department of Agriculture will be established to evaluate the candidates and to recommend to the United Grain Growers Ltd. to whom the bursaries should be awarded. In recommending the awards the committee will consider the following factors: academic achievement, interest in junior and community activities, leadership ability and the need for assistance. Primarily the bursaries are intended to help those who could not otherwise attend a school of agriculture, but through their participation in community activities have proven themselves worthy of assistance.

Application forms are available through the office of district agriculturists, district home economists and fieldmen of the U.G.G., or may be obtained upon writing to the offices of United Grain Growers Ltd. at Calgary. Applications will be considered until August 15th.

MANNVILLE — The regular meeting of C.G.I.T. girls was held on May 21st in the social rooms at the United church. Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and adopted, after which a short business meeting was held. A special treat was enjoyed by the girls, as they quenched their thirst with ginger ale. The meeting was closed by the singing of "Taps."

LIFE HISTORY AND HABITS OF MOSQUITOES

Although mosquitoes may vary by species as to abundance and habits, they are all [illegible] one respect. And that is they all breed in water, and all stages except the adult are passed in water — usually stagnant pools. The most abundant [illegible] usually develop in temporary pools, such as ditches, ponds of run-off water [illegible] in irrigated [illegible].

Contrary to popular opinion, mosquitoes do not breed in grass or shrubbery. They only hide or rest in such places unless, of course, there is standing water present.

There are four stages — egg, larva (wriggler), pupa and adult. The eggs may be laid singly, in clusters, or in "rafts" on the surface of standing water or on the ground. If they are laid on the ground they hatch when the ground is flooded following [illegible] or by the melting of snow in the spring. The number of eggs laid by one adult varies in different species but probably averages several hundred.

The eggs hatch into larvae or "wrigglers" that live in water and feed on organic matter. The larvae are easy to recognize as they have a large head and chest, and a long slender body with a respiratory tube projecting upward at the posterior end. They move about with an undulating or wriggling motion which has given them their common name of "wrigglers." Every two or three minutes each wriggler comes to the surface to breathe, taking air in through the respiratory tube. In a week to ten days (depending upon the species) the larvae transforms into pupae. These are quite different to the larvae, having the head and chest fused together and attached to a long slender body which is equipped at the end with two paddle-like structures. The pupae are active and move through the water by tumbling end over end. They are air-breathers and come to the surface every few minutes for air which is taken in by means of two short tubes on the upper side of the chest.

The pupal stage lasts for only a few days, and then the adults emerge. The adults are winged and fly about. In a few days the females are fertilized, and shortly after start laying eggs.

The habits of mosquitoes vary with the species, and unfortunately, Alberta has a large number of species that are vicious biters. Some of these bite by day while others bite at night. Those that are not vicious biters cause annoyance through their hum as they fly about at night.

As mosquitoes seldom travel more than three to five miles from their breeding place, control measures can be confined to small areas.

SUMMARY

1. About 30 species of mosquitoes, many of which are vicious biters, are present in Alberta.

2. The egg, larval and pupal stages require water for developing.

3. The destruction of the breeding places through ditching, draining or filling or the treatment of the surface of the water with oil or DDT in an oil or water solution will effectively control the nuisance.

4. Screening of the doors and windows effectively bar adult mosquitoes from buildings.

5. Mosquitoes seldom travel more than three to five miles from their breeding place, therefore control measures can be confined to small areas.

6. Aerosol bombs containing DDT or other insecticides will give effective but temporary relief to campers, hunters, picnickers, golfers, etc.

7. For large scale control programs, power sprayers for larviciding pools of standing water, and fogging machines for the control of adults are worthwhile investments.

HAVE FUN!
By LEE BRYAN

A sailor after placing some flowers on a grave in a cemetery noticed an old Chinaman placing a bowl of rice on a nearby grave, and asked: "What time do you expect your friend to come up to eat the rice?"

The old Chinaman replied with a smile: "Same time you friend come up to smell flowers."

"I'm sorry that I haven't a dime," said the lady as she handed the bus driver a ten dollar bill.

"Don't worry lady, you're going to have 99 of 'em in a couple minutes."

Mother: "Where have you been Johnny?"

Johnny: "Playing ball."

Mother (sternly): "But I told you to beat the rug, didn't I?"

Johnny: "No ma'am. You told me to hang the rug on the line and beat it."

Reports were heard from the committees in charge of collecting old clothing for Korea and old woollens sent to Fairfield's for re-weaving into blankets. Both drives were very successful and the committees take this opportunity of thanking the members for their co-operation.

Anyone having old eyeglasses is asked to bring or send them to the next meeting as there is a great need for these in India.

All members working on the layette to be exhibited at Vermilion fair are asked to have the finished garments ready for the June meeting. This will give the display committee ample time to work on their end of the project.

A reminder to all those interested in the Ronald party to be held at the home of Mrs. Bob Gray on June 4th - this is an afternoon gathering, not evening as stated in error in our previous report.

Two items of legislation passed at the 1959 Session of the Legislature which are of particular interest to farmers are "The Farm Home Improvement Act" and amendments to "The Farm Purchase Credit Act". These are important features of the Social Credit Government's program to improve and advance conditions for our basic industry Agriculture.

FARM HOME IMPROVEMENT ACT

The purpose of this legislation is to assist farmers to [illegible] the cost of installing [illegible] conveniences and to undertake other improvements to farm homes. The Act guarantees repayment of one-half of any loan made by any bank or treasury branch to finance such improvements. The maximum amount of the loan is $2000 with a minimum annual repayment of $100 and ten years to repay. The interest rate must not exceed 5%.

According to the Act a farmer means any person whose principal occupation is farming and who is the owner of a farm or the purchaser of a farm under an agreement of sale.

The farm home improvements for which a loan may be made include water systems, sewage systems, central heating systems, concrete basements, new floors, new roofs, new siding, painting, interior decorating and remodelling. Improvements may [illegible] include additions to the home where the addition is a bathroom or provides for a bathroom, but they do not include household furnishings, electrical appliances or other things not affixed to the house.

This legislation is already in force and loans are obtainable now under the terms and provisions set forth in the Act. Anyone interested in applying for a loan should make enquiries at the nearest bank or treasury branch.

FARM PURCHASE CREDIT ACT

This legislation first passed in 1957 has been amended to broaden the terms and provisions of the original Act. The purpose of the Act is to assist farmers, particularly young farmers, to finance the purchase of farm land. A loan up to 30% of the purchase price to a maximum of $10,000 may be obtained from the provincial treasurer provided the purchaser makes a down payment of at least 20% and the vendor agrees to carry up to 50%. The term of repayment is twenty years and the interest rate is 5%.

To qualify for a loan a farmer must be a Canadian citizen or British subject, at least 21 years but not over 55, and a resident of Alberta for not less than three years. Also he must have had three or more years of successful experience as a farmer.

According to the Act the council of any municipal district may appoint a three-member Farm Purchase board to receive applications for loans and as soon as such a board has been set up loans may be obtained by the farmers of the municipality subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the legislation. On receiving the plan and establishing a Farm Purchase board a municipality agrees to guarantee 10% of the loan on any loan made by the provincial treasurer with the government guaranteeing the remaining 90% of any loan.

As yet the M.D. of Vermilion River has not appointed a Farm Purchase board but it is hoped that this municipality may see fit to do so at an early date so that its farm residents may take advantage of the legislation.

Several purchases under the plan have been made in Minburn M.D.

As at May 4 1959 [illegible] applications for loans under this Act, totalling [illegible] have been granted throughout the province.

PROCLAMATIONS AND VOTERS' LISTS

This is a good opportunity to mention two very important and timely matters in connection with arrangements for voting in the provincial election on June 18.

By now the returning officer will have posted up in at least two conspicuous places in each polling sub-division a Proclamation describing the area of all polling sub-divisions in the constituency. On or before June 3 the enumerator for each polling subdivision will post up [illegible] copies of the voters' list for the poll in conspicuous places. In order to make sure that his or her name is on the list [illegible] voter should read the Proclamation and carefully check the voters' list. If a voter's name is not on the list as posted it may be added later when the list is being revised on Tuesday June 16. On that date the enumerator will sit at a place named on the voters' list where the voters may find him between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. for the purpose of hearing and disposing of applications for revision of the list.

RIGHT TO VOTE

To vote by secret ballot in free elections is a most important right in our democratic way of life, so if you are qualified to vote in this election you should, first of all, make sure that your name is on the voters' list. While enumerators try to be very careful it does happen once in a while that a name is left off the list by mistake. When you have made certain that your name is on the list be sure to go to the poll and exercise your right to vote on June 18th. In the meanwhile you will have many opportunities to gather information regarding the issues in this election. Next week this column will discuss a few more of these issues for your careful study and consideration.

Maple sugar and maple syrup were first made by the Indians and there are recorded sales of these products in Quebec and Montreal as early as 1683.

Baler School At Derwent On Wednesday, June 3

John Karpchuk of the Derwent Implement Co. has announced that his company is sponsoring a baler school to be held in Derwent on Wednesday, June 3rd, starting at 1 p.m. It will be of interest to farmers owning other types of balers to see the John Deere baler demonstrated. On display at this time will be a John Deere 14T baler, an 851 side delivery rake, a 350 side delivery rake and a No. 8 mower.

The public is cordially invited to attend this baler school and everyone will be welcome.

FARM ACCIDENTS

AT LAST A PREVENTION PROGRAM

Do you know that farming is the third most dangerous occupation? Only mining and construction are more hazardous. The story of farm accidents makes grim reading. Let's look at a few figures. There were 2,724 hospitalized farm accidents in Saskatchewan in 1957. No less than 536 of them were caused by farm machinery; moreover, 773 of them involved children under 15 years of age. Tractor accidents alone caused 17 fatal accidents in the same year, and fires in farm homes 22 fatalities. Add to these grim statistics, the broken homes, suffering, and the anguish caused by accidents and you have a grim, sad story. And let it be clearly understood that Saskatchewan's record is no better, or worse than that of Manitoba or Alberta.

Industry has proved that an educational program can materially reduce the accident rate. Such programs cost money, time and effort, but the returns in man hours saved and the reduction in human misery far outweigh the investment.

Until recently, farm safety has been treated as an "orphan child" in Canada. The need for an active farm safety program was brought into focus, however, at the first annual meeting of the Western Farm Safety Council held in Edmonton early in 1958. The second annual meeting of the Council, held in Valley Centre, Saskatchewan, in January, 1959, was attended by representatives of Federal and Provincial Governments, universities, industry, farm organizations, and many other agencies. At this important meeting, plans were laid for the development of a constructive Farm Safety program for Western Canada. Everyone realizes that time, money and energy will be required to carry out a sound, effective program of Farm Safety. You will have a chance to help. Be prepared to do your share to "back the attack on farm accidents."

To the People of Alexandra Constituency

Few things are more important in our society than an efficient and impartial administration of justice.

If justice is impartially administered public respect for it develops. If it is not impartially administered public respect for it is lost and the underpinnings of the state are corroded away.

The average citizen sees few law books and gives little thought to the principles of justice until he becomes involved in some sort of legal process. Then, justice is the local magistrate or district court. The citizen listens to what the magistrate says and observes how he says it. He notices the decisions and how they are made. If the magistrate is easily influenced by a shrewd lawyer the word will get around that there is the lawyer to hire. If the apparent wealth of the people involved in legal processes impresses the magistrate, it may soon become common knowledge that there is one law for the rich and another for the poor.

Conservatives submit that the present government has been very lax in its treatment of the Attorney General's department. For a number of years that department has been headed by an individual without sufficient training in the law. Conservatives question whether an untrained individual is in a position either to make the appointments which are necessary or to recognize that certain reforms are needed in the department itself.

If a Conservative government is elected in the forthcoming election every effort will be made to put a qualified person at the head of the Attorney-General's department so that needed reforms may be carried out.

Cliff Smallwood Speaks At Ottawa On Deficiency Payments

I would define a family farmer as a man with a small section of land. Let me give an illustration concerning a farm family on one section of land with 300 acres under cultivation. The farmer is allowed to sell on a 6 bushel quota and would therefore sell 3,000 bushels. For this he would receive a price of perhaps $1.20 per bushel, or $3,600. As against this he must make the following expenditures in round figures: taxes $300, fuel $300, casual help $200, seed and fertilizer $300, the payment on his farm, $1,200, and estimated repairs on his machinery, $900, giving a total of $3,400. If $3,400 is subtracted from $3,600 it is evident that the farmer has only $200 left. That represents his profit on his grain farming for the year. Although it is necessary for a farmer today to raise this grain and to engage in mixed farming I feel it is unfair that he should be expected to produce this grain with so little return on his operation. In giving the illustration above I did not take into consideration the many small items on which a grain farmer would be required to spend money. The only way a farmer can exist in the west is to go into mixed farming but he should get a greater return on producing grain. These are problems for which adequate solutions must be found.

We must also protect the farm family from contract farming. This is gaining popularity in the pig industry and others. In my constituency last year I would say between 700 and 800 turkeys were raised in the entire area. When I left to come to Ottawa there were four farmers who had 8,000 turkeys. This is just an example of what is taking place. It is the responsibility of this government to find solutions to these difficulties.

In both the east and west I know there are farmers who are becoming too old to remain engaged in active farming and who would like to turn over their farms to younger people. There are many young men coming along who are eager to engage in farming but who have not sufficient capital to acquire a farm. I urge this government to consider the possibility of introducing legislation under which extended credit and long term loans would be made to young farmers to keep them becoming established in farming. I hope this government will continue the acreage payment the same as last year. It was of some assistance but it was not large enough last year.

It is a sad situation in western Canada today. I observe that on a loaf of bread costing 20 cents or 22 cents that the western farmer receives only 3.2 cents. In Alberta a year ago we had bread being shipped by train. One day one of the bakers decided to try something new and so he sent the bread on a truck and put it on the road. Another baker and then another decided to follow suit and so the trend developed. Not being satisfied with that they decided to put larger trucks on the road. They hired additional men to drive the trucks. At the first of this year they decided they could not make enough money doing that so price of a loaf of bread was increased by 2 cents a loaf in Alberta. The western farmer received no benefit from the increase. I request that the government conduct an inquiry into bakery combines in Canada with a view to exploring their operations and having the western farmer receive a fair return on his grain growing operation to assist him to overcome the cost price squeeze in which he is caught. In other words a two price system.

Flocking To Europe

If all remains quiet on the Berlin front, more than 150,000 Canadians will converge on Europe this year — an increase of about 5% over last year says Beatrice Riddell in The Financial Post.

The majority will be from central Canada, although faster air services and "over the Pole" flights are luring more westerners to Europe.

Most of the trippers will go between early June and early August, spend four to six weeks abroad and be home shortly after Labor Day.

But this year, off-season travel has been more popular than ever before. Airlines carried nearly 20% more passengers from January to March than in the same period of 1958.

Marie Tovell Is Valedictorian For Vermilion Class of '59

The graduating class of the Vermilion High school was honored at a banquet and dance in the school auditorium on Friday, May 29th. Marie Tovell was chosen from the twenty-seven graduands of this year's grade 12 class to be the valedictorian, an honor considered to be the highest given by the staff of the high school and based on an outstanding academic record obtained by Marie through her high school years. In her speech Marie thanked the many people who had helped the graduands to achieve the opportunity of graduating from high school. She mentioned that, although this was a happy time for the students, it was also a time of farewells, and that high school days would always be a fond memory.

SILHOUETTE DECORATIONS

A novel and effective decorative idea used by the grade 11 class who were in charge of the arrangements for the banquet and dance, under the direction of Miss K Fulcher of the high school staff was a display of silhouettes of the twenty-seven graduands, and their teachers. Each of these was so life-like as hardly to need the accompanying name plate. The back wall of the stage featured a mural used formerly in the operetta, and made by Betty Robinson, and the hall itself was gay with colorful streamers. The program booklets for each place at the tables was the art work of Patricia Thompson and her committee.

BANQUET PROGRAM

The Mistress of Ceremonies for the banquet was Dorothy-Jean Stewart who called upon Father Landrigan to ask the blessing before the meal. At the conclusion of the turkey dinner prepared and served by the Happy Hour group of St Saviour's Anglican Church Julia Kaiser a grade 11 student proposed the toast to the graduands wishing them well in their future life. Ken Graham ably responded to Julia's toast. In her toast to the parents of the graduands, Mary Gibson thanked them for their support in making the occasion of high school graduation possible for her and her classmates. Mrs. Rock Mead, mother of one of the graduating girls, spoke of the parents' pride and pleasure in seeing their children achieve their education.

In proposing a toast to the staff of the high school and the school board, Fay Wilson acknowledged that it was a privilege to have such excellent teachers and an honor to be the first class to graduate from the fine new high school. Claude Brennan on behalf of the staff and school board, wished the graduands every success, and thanked Fay for her kind remarks.

Bob Waldenberger, Class Historian, gave a witty and interesting sketch of each of the graduands, pointing out a few details of the characteristics of his class members and telling something of their future plans.

Elks scholarships, presented by Tom Smith, Exalted Ruler of the B.P.O.E., Vermilion, were won by Marie Tovell of grade 12 and Judy Long of grade 9. These awards are based on a high standard of general proficiency attained by students in grades 12 and 9.

The awards given by the I.O.D.E. for the highest level of general proficiency in grades 11 and 10, were presented to Julia Kaiser and Dorothy Tovell by Miss Alice Keith, Regent of the I.O.D.E.

Fay Wilson was presented with the Rotary scholarship denoting an outstanding record in the social, academic, cultural and athletic life of the school by E.M. Stewart, chairman of the Education committee for the Rotary Club of Vermilion.

"COUNT YOUR BLESSINGS"

N. N. Bentley, Principal of the Vermilion School of Agriculture and Home Economics, addressed the graduands and their friends. The theme of his remarks was "count your blessings" and he adjured the young people to consider how fortunate they were to be able to complete their high school training. In listing some of the 'blessings' Mr. Bentley made reference to his recent experiences while in Egypt as an advisor on agriculture education to the Egyptian government under the auspices of UNESCO and told the graduands that they were in a position to make a choice of future careers, something that not every young student in the world today could be assured of. And something else that was often taken for granted in this country, but is by no means a condition of life everywhere is the spaciousness of our land. In some places crowding for lack of space, has a direct and telling effect on the mode of existence, a problem with which we are fortunate not to have to contend. He commented on the excellent facilities for education available to the Vermilion students, and to the contributions to their advancement made by teachers, parents and taxpayers. He wished them well in their chosen careers, and said that he hoped that they would achieve the success in the forthcoming departmental examinations that they deserved through their own abilities and efforts.

AWARDS PRESENTED

The point system of awards was explained by the principal of the high school, John David, and he presented crests, wings, bars, pins, identification bracelets and gold rings, on behalf of the Students' Union, to those high school students who had qualified by their achievements in academic, athletic, cultural and administrative affairs of the Students' Union throughout the past term. S. D. SIMONSON, GUEST SPEAKER

Chosen for the honor of giving the valedictory speech was Orest Yarmuch. S. D. Simonson, Superintendent of schools for the Vermilion School District, gave the address of the evening.

The banquet and dance were in honor of 15 high school graduands of the 1958-59 class: Gary Algot, Gordon Benson, Margaret Bielech, Bill Fedechko, Elizabeth Kiziak, Herbert Lovall, Shirley Lovall, Dora McNamara, Gloria Noster, Richard Ostnchuk, Emil Sakowsky, Nick Wysocki, Sylvia Wysocki, Paul Yacevko and Orest Yarmuch.

The Ukrainian Ladies' Catholic League of Derwent catered to the banquet.

Rev. John Nowakowski Celebrates First Solemn Mass

Rev. John Nowakowski ordained by His Grace Coadjutor Archbishop A. Jordan, D.D., on Thursday last, celebrated his first solemn Mass in St. Columba [illegible] on Sunday. Over [illegible] attended the Mass [illegible] parish banquet served [illegible] St. Columba's Hall [illegible] ladies of Clandonald and St. Andrew's.

Assisting Fr. J. Nowakowski at the Mass were Rev. J. M. [illegible], Rev. A. [illegible], Rev. [illegible]. Other minor ministers were the [illegible] of St. Columba's parish. Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus formed a guard of honor.

Rev. F. Otterson, B.A., B.Ed., principal of St. Mary's High School, Edmonton, delivered a sermon on "Vocations to the Priesthood" for the occasion.

Following the banquet served after the Mass a short program was presented at which Kenneth Lawrence rendered a reading, "The Beautiful Hands of a Priest," followed by two numbers sung by the High School Choir under the direction of Miss Leona Michael with Miss Joy Leslie accompanist. Mrs. Marvin Little sang "Ave Maria" with Miss Gwen Zaph as her accompanist.

Mr. Joe Casey, on behalf of the parishioners read an address to Rev. Fr. Nowakowski and presented him with a purse of two hundred dollars. Retiring Grand Knight, Joe McIntyre then presented a travelling bag to Fr. Nowakowski on behalf of the Vermilion Council of the K. of C.

Mrs. John Nowakowski, mother of the new priest, was then honored by a presentation of a bouquet of roses and gifts from the ladies of Clandonald and St. Andrew's. Presentations were made to her by Mrs. James Martin Sr., and Mrs. Pat O'Neill of the respective parishes.

The newly ordained priest then thanked all who had so generously feted him on this occasion and his parents and family members, to whom, he said he owed so much in the realization of his ideal, the priesthood.

Father Nowakowski will assume his new duties in St. John's parish, Jasper Place, this week where he will remain for the summer months to fill a vacancy left by Rev. Adolph Gillis who himself was a former pastor of Clandonald and is now on leave of absence for several months.

GREEN ACRES

by H. MORLEY DOUGLAS, District Agriculturist.

The annual 4-H Interprovincial Beef show will be held at Lloydminster Monday June 8th. The starting hour is 8 a.m. and the show is over by noon. All 4-H club members and prospective members are invited to attend this show. The sale takes over in the afternoon and everything will be rounded up by 5 p.m. There are 300 finished beef calves entered in this Lloydminster show which is bound to be a spectacle.

CLEAN CROPS

Those 50 bushel to the acre bumper crops that stories were told about before the advent of the modern mass media of entertainment were often based on fact. The reason for those yields was clean fields and fertile soil. It may be too late to do much about the fertility of the soil at this late date but the weeds? Spray early and conserve that moisture. 2,4-D is most effective on small weeds. Sometimes under dry conditions a heavier application is necessary.

RATS

Where the rat population is large enough to be seen more damage is being done than by coyotes, magpies, crows, grasshoppers, cutworms and wireworms. That is a whopping statement! Why do rats cause so much damage? Every other pest strikes in a cycle for a definite period of time. Rats strike for a definite period of time — 365 days of the year. This is the reason for Alberta's concern. This is the reason for your concern. If rats are suspected contact your pest control officer immediately.

VIBRIOSIS & YOUR CATTLE

Good rules to prevent Vibriosis are

1. Buy replacements from safe sources. A safe source has good calf crops.
2. Avoid bargain cows and proven sires.
3. Don't mix your herd with other cattle. Isolation is important.
4. Isolate virgin heifers.
5. If suspicious, contact a veterinarian.

BEEF PRICES

Canadian beef prices are influenced by the U.S. market. Where is that market heading in the next 6 to 12 months? If the present build-up slows down, beef output by 1964 will be about 90 pounds per capita in the U.S. If the build-up does not slow down beef supplies will not be heavier until 1964 when there will be 94.5 pounds per capita. U.S.A. 94.5 pounds per capita means a lower price. A factor which may slow [illegible] beef herd build-up in the U.S. southwest is drought. At present the entire south west and northern plains are unusually dry. The weather in the southwest may be the determining factor as to whether or not future Canadian beef prices rise or fall.

CUTWORM DAMAGE

The cutworms are at work. Keep a constant watch on emerging oat, flax or other susceptible crops. Cutworm damage has been reported and the cutworms have stopped with Endrin. Apply 2 ounces of Endrin and as close to 10 gallons of water to the acre as possible. Endrin is available locally which means you can check the worms quicker. Keep up the watch. If there are no rains this pest may be with us until the 1st of July.

4-H Clubs Plan Achievement Days and Sales

A total of 166 beef clubs with an enrollment of over 2800 boys and girls will hold their Achievement days and sales throughout the next three months. This announcement was made by Alberta's Supervisor of 4-H clubs, C. L. Usher.

In some cases the clubs will hold individual shows in their own communities while in others several clubs will join together for combined Achievement days. Judges at these shows will include Department of Agriculture staff and other qualified persons. In addition a limited number of junior [illegible] will work with senior [illegible] for the first time. By this [illegible] the Department hopes to [illegible] further practical [illegible] to young men who have [illegible] [illegible] in this field. Also for the first time this year a pen of five [illegible] will be exhibited by [illegible]. The feeding and [illegible] for a pen of five is a new [illegible] 4-H project introduced last fall in an effort to give older members more advanced training.

The sales to [illegible] the Achievement days will [illegible] a total of 2,143 animals [illegible] for sale by public auction. As a further step in the beef project the Canada Department of Agriculture and the packing industry have offered their cooperation in helping to secure for club members a carcass grading report on all animals which go through the major packing plants in the province. This will allow them to compare live animals with the dressed carcasses.

DEWBERRY NEWS

We were pleased to see and have a chat with Mr. and Mrs. Angus Smith, Mannville, at the graduation dance. Jerry Conlon, Edmonton, was also a visitor at the dance.

Miss Annette Garnier, Edmonton, is home for a three week vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Garnier.

The track meet on Saturday saw the usual activities — races, jumping, ball games, etc. There were not so many spectators this year as in previous years. Busy on the land probably. Hope to see lots of people at the picnic at the grounds on Sunday, June 7th and also at the Farmer's Day picnic on the 12th.

The statement that Mr. Jos. Wyn and Don Braithwaite should have been Mr. and Mrs. Joe, Mr. and Mrs. Win and Mr. and Mrs. Don Braithwaite went by plane from Edmonton to attend their parents' golden wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Braithwaite of Lloydminster also flew there. None of the grandchildren were able to attend.

Gospel Team To Visit Alliance Chapel On Sunday, June 7th

A gospel team from the Prairie Bible Institute, Three Hills, Alberta, will be at Vermilion on Sunday June 7 at 11:30 a.m. under the auspices of the Alliance Chapel. The team is headed by Rev. C. Dean Brown, a Prairie faculty member. Other members of the group are Cornelius Klassen, a soloist and member of the Prairie staff, Bernard White, song leader, vocalist, and Bible School graduate of 1959, and Will Irving, team pianist and Prairie faculty member.

The Prairie Bible Institute beginning in 1922 with an enrollment of eight students now has a Bible school and High school attendance of over 1080. The founding of an interdenominational Bible Institute is unique among Christian schools. Prairie is located in a small farming community on the wide, sparsely settled prairies of Western Canada. Prairie Bible Institute is a missionary training school, over one thousand former students are serving Christ on foreign mission fields, and hundreds are engaged in pastoral and other Christian service in Canada and the U.S. The principal of the Institue, L. E. Maxwell, is well known as a Bible teacher, editor of the Prairie Overcomer and author of three inspiring books, Born Crucified, Abandoned to Christ and Crowded to Christ.

Mr. Brown graduated from Bible School in Ardmore, Oklahoma, and joined the Institute staff in January, 1956.

WILDMERE WINKS

The well filled church at Mrs. Kather's funeral bespoke the high esteem the family held in Vermilion and district. Rev. MacKay paid tribute to the work Mrs. Kather had done in support of her church. It was a very comforting service to the ones left to mourn her passing.

There was a nice attendance at our little church on Sunday evening. Mr. Nicholls is giving a series of sermons on Christian living. On May 24th he spoke on loyalty and last Sunday on courage, both of which were very interesting. Sunday school attendance has been very good too.

Wildmere W. A. held its May meeting in the church and had Mrs. Cooper of Clandonald as guest speaker. It was pleasing to see such a nice turnout of the Auburndale groups. Before Mrs. Cooper spoke, the regular meeting was held and Mrs. Cruthers gave the devotional, speaking on "the hills of life," and "the little pilgrim." It was really very interesting and was much enjoyed by everyone. Mrs. Cooper said Wildmere has been mentioned at some of the conferences as having good devotionals and after she had listened to the one given by Mrs. Cruthers, she could understand why. Mrs. Cooper gave a very good outline of the conference she attended in Edmonton recently and said she plans to attend another one this month. Anyone wanting to know about Lake Whitney camp should get in touch with Mrs. Laird of Clandonald who would be only too happy to attend a W. A. meeting. Mr. Nicholls sang a solo during the evening. Mrs. W. Brooks, president of the Auburndale group, very heartily thanked Wildmere for their kind invitation to them to attend the meeting. The most enjoyable evening came to a close with an hour of visiting over a cup of coffee and lunch.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nichols of the Triangle district on the birth of a baby boy and also to Mr. and Mrs. A. Redford on the birth of a son and Mr. and Mrs. A. Duczek on the birth of a baby daughter.

The writer and husband enjoyed a very pleasant evening at the Gay Nineties on Thursday evening. A good crowd and a good time were enjoyed by all in attendance. Mr. Freestone, as M.C. made sure there was never a dull moment. It was the last dance of the season and everyone will be looking forward to them beginning again next October. President Chet Waldenberger heartily thanked the directors and members for helping to make each get together so pleasant. The Hanna orchestra furnished the music for the dance and it is hoped that they will be playing again next year.

Remember the Social Credit meeting with Ashley Cooper as speaker to be held at Preston Central School on Friday evening June 5. Ladies are to bring lunch and David Dibben is bringing the coffee. Plan to attend folks, a film will also be shown.

Many parents and relatives attended the grade twelve graduation banquet on Friday evening at the Vermilion high school auditorium where twenty-seven students were on the graduating list this year. Everyone did justice to the wonderful meal supplied by the happy hour group of St. Saviour's Anglican church. The speeches were very good although it was hard to hear the speakers at times. That all the graduands pass their final exams with good marks was the wish of all present. The grand march was very pretty with all the girls in their lovely gowns and not forgetting the boys in their suits. They all looked very nice and we are sure everyone was very proud of their boy or girl in the class and of the teachers who work so hard to get them to the graduating class.

The Wallington's have purchased the house belonging to Mr. J. Maxwell in Vermilion, so in the near future will be moving into town. Mr. Maxwell is building himself a fine new residence in Pilkieville.

Sorry to hear of the fire Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff experienced at their home in town recently.

Dewberry H. & S. Plan Banquet

DEWBERRY — On May 14, the Dewberry Home and School held the regular meeting in the school. There were 27 present.

The president Mr. J. Whiteside opened the meeting with the singing of O Canada. The secretary Mrs. [illegible] read the minutes of the last meeting which were adopted as read.

Mr. Whiteside introduced a new teacher, Miss R. Williams.

The final arrangements for the graduation banquet were made and a committee selected for the booth at the track meet.

It was asked why the contestants for the track meet this year were picked according to height rather than age groups as formerly. Mr. Marshall explained that the system is used this year in all Alberta track meets. Some agree with the new system and others definitely do not like it.

A nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Durnin, Mrs. Boothman and Mrs. McMullen was elected for the nomination of officers for the next year.

Mr. Kellaral gave a very interesting talk and explained the curriculum for the high school students. He explained credits which must be taken and how many subjects from which electives might be chosen.

A delightful lunch served by the lunch committee brought the evening to a close.

Open House At Islay Hospital; Modern Equipment Displayed

ISLAY Bouquets of glads and carnations decorated the entrance and halls of the Islay hospital for the recent "open house". A steady stream of visitors were directed from the waiting room to the office by Mr J Hurst. Here they were welcomed by Miss Marie Carey who was in charge of the guest book. On display in the office were various nursing school calendars and pamphlets describing the various occupations available in hospitals. Also on display was the first day register of the hospital - at that time named the "Lady Minto Hospital"

Visitors were then taken on an escorted tour of the hospital by Matron Miss M Gilpin, Mrs. H. Bell, Mrs. B. Cundal, Mrs. M. Walton and Mrs. M. Purves. The residents thoroughly enjoyed the tour through the operating room, case room X ray and lab department, patient wards and nursery. X ray and lab procedures were thoroughly described by Mr L. Marian. Included in the tour was a visit to the work shop, the laundry store rooms and kitchen.

In the dining room guests were served tea, sandwiches and a variety of small cakes. Yellow and mauve mums and shasta daisies centred the lace-covered tea table. Serving during the afternoon were Miss E. Podhaniuk, Mrs. G. Hannon, Mrs. Norah Carey, and Mrs. N Renaghan. At 3 p.m. tea and lunch was served to the patients.

Guests calling during the afternoon were from Islay, Kitscoty, Dewberry, Vermilion, Clandonald, Marwayne, Tolland, Edmonton, Lloydminster and Waseca, Sask. In all there were one hundred and ten visitors.

In the X-ray room was a Metabulator, "the very best that is made" explained Mr. Marian. In the hall outside the X-ray room is a beautiful desk, large enough for two to work on. Here are kept patients' charts, etc. This desk was made by a local craftsman, Mr. Bill McLean, the agent at the Pool elevator. It is a marvellous piece of handwork all in modern style.

In the nursery is an incubator for the wee babies. It can be used too as an oxygen tent. Many of the visitors had never seen one of these. The room is very prettily decorated, complete with dainty pink curtains.

In the wards on the bedside tables we saw the pretty towels made by the Dewberry CGIT and given to the United Church W.A. who passed them on to the hospital by request. The wards are also furnished with very comfortable new chairs. There are plenty of them around too, and in the halls.

Down in the basement there is a spacious deep freeze, plenty of storage cupboards and a work shop. The water supply is also located in the basement, a vegetable room and dark room for developing films.

Recently the hospital has [illegible] redecorated throughout, plaster board on walls and ceilings and painted in very pretty bright colors. Floors are covered [illegible] sparkling linoleum. It is exceptionally well equipped. Many remarked that they had no idea of the equipment in the hospital.

Favorable comments were also heard about the tasty lunch arranged by Miss Podhaniuk.

District Cub Will Hold Cubaree In Camp Wainwright June 7

Weeks of planning by the District Commissioner and the Camp Wainwright Scout Group Committee (who will be hosts for this occasion) will culminate on Sunday afternoon next — June 7 at 2 o'clock sharp when Cubs and their pack leaders from the Battle River district will converge upon Camp Wainwright for a cubaree. This is expected to be the largest Cubaree held in this district and as there are approximately 270 registered Cubs in the [illegible] (which comprises Vermilion, Islay, Irma, Edgerton, Chauvin, Town of Wainwright and Camp Wainwright) it should be quite a day. Sunday afternoon was chosen because of the fact that most of the pack leaders are tradesmen and shopkeepers and this seems to be the [illegible] time for all to be present.

It is hoped also that this afternoon will be more convenient to the parents and that they will come out to Camp Wainwright and support the boys. An interesting programme has been arranged and it is expected [illegible] the "march past" will be taken by the Assistant Provincial Commissioner for this district, Wing Commander Phripps of Cold Lake RCAF station. Mr. Kim Whittaker, Edmonton Training Team, will also be [illegible]. The Cub packs will be [illegible] for a shield to be held annually and which has been donated by the District Council. There will be a mass Grand Howl and a mass Jungle Dance. The rally will be of 1½ to 2 hours duration. Come out and support these keen little fellows who need and expect your support.

Other Scouts and Cubs news in the district can well be mentioned here. Two weeks ago a Chauvin Pack Leader was honoured and the District Commissioner presented Mel Goode with his Gilwell neckerchief, beads and certificate. Mel is the third Gilwell Pack Scouter in this district and has devoted much time and energy to Pack Scouting. DC Salmon, on making the presentation said it was a great pleasure to welcome Mel to the Gilwell circle and hoped it would not be too long until Troop Scouters in the district were ready for such an award.

The town of Wainwright this week exhibited a humourous film starring Clifton Webb in "Mr Scoutmaster" and, through the kindness and generosity of Mr May, the whole proceeds went to the funds of the Town Scout Group Committee for the operation of their growing Scout Troop and their three lively cub packs. Wainwright has quite an undertaking with so many boys to cater for and are urgently in need of help from the public. Mr. May's gesture is a wonderful one and is very much appreciated by the District Council as well as the Town Group Committee.

ATTENTION TO RESIDENTS OF ALBERT AND DISTRICT

More than half of the world's people live in areas where $100 per year is the average per capita income. They work with pointed sticks for tools. They have too many one-crop farmers; too few trained carpenters, masons and other artisans. With basic tools, sent through CARE of Canada, Ottawa, they could increase their productivity, learn new skills to support themselves.

The Homemaker

NANCY HOOPER
District Home Economist
Wainwright, Alta.

The position of District Home Economist with the Provincial Department of Agriculture serving the Wainwright and Vermilion areas has been vacant since last December. For several years I have filled a similar position in the Camrose district and it was with pleasure that a transfer to this district was accepted.

Some of you may not be familiar with the free services offered by Home Economics Extension. Perhaps the women's group to which you belong would like a talk or demonstration or hold a group discussion on some phase of homemaking. Topics given include those from foods, clothing, and handicraft, home decoration and home management. A group of a dozen or so ladies might like to have a sewing [illegible] to make a garment for themselves or some other member of the family. Individual assistance is given to help you with pattern alteration, garment construction and finishing.

Frequently requests are received for home visits from persons planning to build a new home or remodel their present one. Have you seen our booklets? —

1. Farm House Planning.
2. Farm House Remodelling.
3. Farm Kitchens and Utility Rooms.

These may be loaned for a limited period of time. Besides these publications there are numerous others for distribution which need not be returned. For a complete list, write, call in at the office or phone 51, Wainwright.

From time to time the homemaker has individual problems for which she does not have the necessary reference material in her home. For example recent purchasers of home freezers are concerned with their most economical use. Questions arising deal with what foods are recommended for freezing, vegetable varieties most suitable to freezer storage, preparation of foods for the deep freeze and kind and methods of packaging.

If you have questions about homemaking, please do not hesitate to phone, call in or write about them. I will do my best to answer them for you.

If you have a teen-age daughter it is possible that she is in or would like to be in a 4-H club. Projects for girls include gardening, clothing, foods and home decoration. The latter three will organize in the fall. Eight members and a local leader are necessary for club formation. For more information contact this office.

ALBERTA REPORT

Anders O. Aalborg
Social Credit Candidate for Alexandra

During the course of the present election campaign now moving into high gear many readers of this column have asked me to outline briefly the financial assistance which the Alberta Government provides for the municipalities, schools and hospitals which serve the people of our constituency.

MUNICIPAL AID

The Municipal District of Vermilion River No. 71 covers the entire area of Alexandra, and the Alberta side of the city of Lloydminster and the villages of Kitscoty, Marwayne and Dewberry lie within the constituency. In 1958 the Municipal District of Vermilion River received $163,000 for road grants and the five municipalities mentioned received the total sum of $229,000 in unconditional grants as their share of the provincial gasoline tax. Of this grant the municipal district received $189,000, the city of Lloydminster nearly $30,000, village of Kitscoty $3300, Dewberry over $3000, Marwayne nearly $4,500. These five municipalities also received over $18,000 in welfare grants.

SCHOOL GRANTS

In Alexandra school services are provided by the Vermilion School Division No. 25, the Lloydminster Public School District and Clandonald Roman Catholic Separate School District. During 1958 these three units received a total of over $760,000 in school grants from the province. The Vermilion School Division received $388,000 in operational grants and over $275,000 in school construction grants. The Lloydminster Public School District received $64,000 in operational grants and $14,000 for school construction grants while the Clandonald Separate School District received over $10,000 for operational grants.

In 1952 the operational school grant for the Vermilion School Division was only $98,000. In 1959 it will amount to over $440,000, more than four times as much as in 1952, and equal to more than 25 mills on the total assessment of the Division. In the Lloydminster Public School District operational grants received from the Alberta Government have risen from less than $10,000 in 1952 to nearly $73,000 in 1959.

HOSPITALS

Four hospitals located at Lloydminster, Vermilion, Islay and Elk Point serve the people of Alexandra. During 1958 these hospitals received over $180,000 in grants from the Provincial Government. Of this amount the Lloydminster hospital received $116,000. During 1959 provincial grants for these hospitals will be substantially increased and the province will take over all hospital capital costs including the payment of debentures presently owing and thus relieve the municipal ratepayer of this burden.

PROVINCE PAYS OVER 50%

When the various grants for hospital, school and municipal services in Alexandra are all added together they amount to the very tidy sum of over $1,300,000, or more than 50% of the cost of these services in the area last year. This is a very significant figure and means that although this region of Alberta has the good fortune to enjoy a relatively large municipal assessment the local taxpayer is required to meet less than one-half the actual cost of these vital services. The greater portion of this cost is borne by the province.

Financial assistance on this scale is not found in other provinces of Canada.

This favorable situation is the direct result of the policies which have been followed through the years by your Social Credit Government in working with you and for you to bring about rapid and orderly development of the natural resources of the province in the interest of all the people.

NEWS from ISLAY

Would anyone like to try to match Mr. Whitcher Sr in walking? He is 84 years young and walked from Vermilion to within one mile of Mr Jim Miller's farm when a friend overtook him and gave him a lift the last mile and even then he did some gardening before quitting for the day. It is eight miles to Miller's farm.

Preston school children visited Islay school on Monday evening and two ball games were played. The girls of Islay won out, also the Islay small boys won. Come again. The adults enjoy these young folks' games very much.

Saturday June 06 is set as a work day for the men at the church. Could you spare a few hours?

Girls Attend Anglican Festival

MANNVILLE — Six girls of Christ Church Junior Association, Mannville attended the annual festival at Edmonton with their two leaders, Janet Peddlivets and Joan Lagg on Saturday May 30. After registration a worship service was held in All Saints Cathedral with 450 girls and leaders attending. The service was conducted by Very Rev Dean Burch, and the Anglican Bishop Rt Rev H. H. Clark addressed the young people. The girls were shown the new prayer book which may be adopted in 1960 by the Anglican Communion if approved by General Synod. [illegible] the J A their church goes all over the world and to keep in mind that the J.A. Diocese is a missionary organization.

Following the church service the girls retired to the All Saints parish hall where a hearty lunch was served courtesy of the Edmonton branches, including chocolate milk and ice cream. The large band of girls then marched to Alberta college where the afternoon program took place. Many interesting and enjoyable items were offered by each group for entertainment. The girls were addressed briefly by Diocesan President Mrs Violet Hammett by Mrs. Chamberlain and Rev Harry Shell of Mannville. Rev. C. C. MacPherson now of Fort Saskatchewan assisted in the program. Maurice Mercer kindly transported the girls to Edmonton while the leaders accompanied Mr and Mrs J Mc Luckie there on Friday night.

The Bible Today

After eight years of work by a team headed by Bishop Cassian, who worked for long periods in a remote village of Northern Spain, a translation of the four Gospels in colloquial Russian was produced and has now been published by the British and Foreign Bible Society. The Russian traditional Bible, in the old Slavonic liturgical forms, no longer appeals to younger people.

Three Russian scholars were associated with the Orthodox Institute of St. Sergius in Paris. Microfilm copies of the documents which formed the basis of the new translation will be sent for use in Russian theological centres.

Flying Doctor Lands At Vermilion Field

Richard C. Murphy, M. D. of the Warren State hospital, Warren, Penn., a flying medical doctor, landed at the Vermilion airport on Saturday afternoon en route to Anchorage, Alaska. The trip north was a combined business and pleasure tour and he was accompanied by another doctor. They were flying a Cessna 981MD.

The two medical men were shown the sights of the town by Mr Peter Lasko, and the visitors were greatly impressed with the Vermilion hospital, where the low $1.00 per day rate amazed them, the new high school and V. S. A. grounds and buildings.

They stated that several planes carrying doctors might land here en route to a medical convention in Edmonton.

Rotarians Hear About Trucking

At last week's Rotary meeting, Stan Jones, one of the members of this club gave a talk on the trucking business. Besides giving sheets of statistics on freight trucking in Alberta, Stan made his talk most interesting by relating incidents that happened in building up his own trucking business right here in Vermilion.

Claude Brennan introduced the speaker and George Webb Sr., thanked him for a very humorous and interesting discussion on his own vocation.

President Jim Robson was chairman of the meeting.

Mr. Robson announced that Fay Wilson, a grade 12 student in Vermilion High School, had been awarded a scholarship of $25.00 by the Rotary Club. Mr. Robson said that the award was for all around general proficiency and in extra curricular activities connected with her school term.

Three Rotarians from Lloydminster, Ray Nelson, Archie Miller and Mel Lavold visited Vermilion club at last Friday's meeting.

To the People of Alexandra Constituency

The present government has always set great store by the reduction of the provincial debt. We are told incessantly that the provincial government has reduced the debt by so many millions and that this is so because of certain financial policies and careful management of natural resources.

Conservatives are not deceived by these boasts. They believe, in fact, that this government's policy in debt reduction and resources development has often been irresponsible. They believe it has also shown a cynical disregard for anything but the continuing success of the Social Credit party. They point to the province's astronomical municipal debt as proof of the government's true attitude toward debt.

The oil and natural gas resources are not put in the earth under Social Credit auspices, government claims to the contrary! And municipalities have little or no chance to use natural resources development to lessen the tax burden on the people. Yet when grants are made to municipalities, care is taken to insist that proper mention must be made in tax notices of where the grants came from. The reason is above. Taxes are unpopular, and councils can take the blame for them. But grants are attractive, so the proper people must get the credit for them.

Previous governments made grants to municipalities before oil was discovered, but the present government has perfected the art of giving itself all the credit for grants made possible by oil and gas development.

Probably enough has been said about the oil and gas dividends. Here was irresponsibility at its peak. With money available to provide or improve services, the government chose to pay dividends to the people of the province and promise them that the services would come later!

"Why worry?" They must have thought as they prepared the cheques. "the municipalities are carrying the tax load. Let them worry!"

Conservatives believe that such irresponsibility should be rewarded by defeat at the polls.

Conservatives believe that municipalities, since they are in a more vulnerable position than the provincial government, are entitled to more consideration on the part of that government. A Conservative government would do all possible to reduce the municipal debt load.

(Inserted by Alexandra Progressive-Conservative Association on behalf of the candidate, Dr. A. H. Russell).

Dreaming is all right as long as you keep wide awake doing it.

What does YOUR [illegible]?

To Whom It May Concern:
WARNING!

Persons who live in the area served by the Ottawa Rural Electrification Association are warned that the shooting off of insulators on the power line is a serious offence. This causes much loss to subscribers who depend on electricity for pumping water, heating brooder houses, running milking machines, cream separators and other appliances.

Finding the trouble and then repairing it can be very costly. If an offender were apprehended and had to bear the cost of repairs, it would be very expensive for him.

Mannville Hobby Fair Presents Great Variety of Interesting, Novel Exhibits

MANNVILLE. — The Happy Centre W.I. has once more sponsored the ever popular Hobby fair, and although there was not so large an attendance as in previous years, it was felt that the items entered for inspection by and enjoyment of the public were of a much higher calibre than heretofore.

It was interesting to note the many collections of coins, dolls and stamps. The younger members of the community appear to be showing interest in this type of display and are contributing entries.

HEALTH HOUSE SHOWN

An exceptional entry was made by Miss Jean Allanach (as well as her internationally famous doll display), a 'Health House, in [illegible] all foods containing proper vitamins were used. For instance, the walls were stuccoed with rolled oats, the [illegible] boxes contained colored jelly beans and dried fruits, while the shingles were graham wafers and the overhanging trim of Ritz biscuits. Window curtains were two leaves of lettuce and the chimney was a half pint of milk. The door was made by two slices of brown bread, and a glace cherry was used for a knob, while the doorstep was carved from a block of cheese. The base of the house was trimmed with beans and peas while the door was edged with popping corn. A pathway to the house was sago or rice edged with walnuts and peanuts for trim. A tree was secured in a half an apple, and was a stick of celery, with the Union Jack waving from a pole stuck in a raw potato. A fence around the front porch was composed of peanuts placed in an upright position and attached to a railing of spaghetti. An attractive sprig of English ivy trailed up a spaghetti trellis and red roses (cherries) were in the garden. It was a clever piece of work and Jean would have been rewarded for her pains if only by hearing the 'Ohs' and 'Ahs' resulting from the viewers' close scrutiny.

WIDE VARIETY OF DISPLAYS

Entries for display purpose only were: flowercraft of foam rubber; paintings; oil and water color originals; copper tooling; leathercraft; knitting; 4 H sewing; crochetting; embroidery, woodworking, woodcarving (entry over 65 years old), a copper chest beautifully hammered out in an intricate rose design by a 76-year-old entrant who used 80 different tools for the job. An original Green Gables cup was on display, also a jewel chest made of porcupine quills by the Mic Mac Indians of the Maritimes, cushion display and from the over 75-years-of-age class, crochetting and fancy work. There were scrap book collections; rugs, photo displays; old time snapshots of particular interest to Mannville residents, church group handiwork; straw weaving, basket weaving, and a tinsel picture display from Edmonton. One of the quilts shown was [illegible] presented to Mr and Mrs. [illegible] Swanson on their 30th wedding anniversary by W I members of Happy Centre group on which is embroidered the names of each of the members.

Miss Elizabeth Lowe from the Home Services Department Canadian Utilities, was present with a small electrical appliances display, and gave a demonstration of deep fat frying and blending.

The schools were awarded prizes, and the children's entries were given awards of merit. Other entries were for display purposes only.

There were numerous souvenirs and collections from other lands, a monkey skin from Africa's Gold Coast; one of the antiques drawing considerable attention was a brass hot water bottle of the year 1880, with amber-colored composition handle, the whole being in first class condition; a Presbyterian Record bearing the date 1907 old Edmonton Journals; an iron kettle, Grade 5 Canadian Shields; an 1856 tray and other novelties, fancy aprons showing some embroidery done by machine.

PRIZES AND AWARDS

Prizes were given to the winning grades, up to grade 5, in various techniques. Certificates of merit were also awarded to the following:

Grades 5 and 6 for their Enterprise display, Grade 6, Minburn school, Sawdust Modelling; Arts Class, Earl McBeath; Coronation display, Geoffrey Holter; Movie Star Collections, Beverly and Corrine Ewing, Scrapbooks, Jerry Malin (football); Movie and TV stars, Heather Morrison; Serviettes collection, Martie Park, Handicrafts, Group display the United Church Explorers group; Anglican Girls' Auxiliary Anglican Junior Auxiliary; Album collections, Rudy Younge. Art Exhibit, crayon and pencil, Kenny Johnston, Handicrafts 4 H Sewing club, Woodcarving, August Sheffler; Painting Karen Stephenson, Doll display Heather Morrison; Stamp collection, Stuart Forsyth, Copper tooling, Mrs J Chudyk, Myrnam; used greeting card novelties, Mrs. Palun, Claysmore; Straw weaving, Mrs. D H. McMillan, Vermilion.

A display by the grade 9 class of Science posters was most educational with charts pertaining to the various subjects which were self explanatory. There were also many Health posters depicting posture, [illegible] studying, good habits and job versus a rolling stone. Many [illegible] also appeared on other posters, the posters and charts being of a high standard of workmanship.

The Happy Centre W.I. would like to thank sincerely all those who entered and helped in any way, our Hobby fair, thus making it a success.

News from Dewberry

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Matt Braithwaite of Vancouver who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on May 26. Mr. and Mrs. Braithwaite are well known in Dewberry and district. They formerly lived on the farm now occupied by their son Don. Their sons Joe, Win, Don and families were all at Vancouver to help their parents celebrate the happy day. Many more anniversaries to you Mr. and Mrs. Braithwaite is the wish from writer and community.

Birthday congratulations to Mr. A. Stone who was 80 years young on May 28th. Hope you enjoy many more happy birthdays Mr. Stone.

Black bears are again in the news. Wayne and Stanley [illegible] saw one beside the gravel pit near Hazeldine recently while coming home by car with Mr. J. Gray who works on the Garnier farm.

Mr. Sol Lemp and Dennis also saw a bear at Cold Lake recently when they were up there fishing. Sol and Dennis [illegible] caught some big jacks at one lake then went on to Cold Lake where they caught a trout. Leaving these in a sack on the shore they went out again fishing. On returning they found Mr. Bruin enjoying a meal of their fish. Oh well Sol and Dennis, you had the fun of catching the fish anyway.

Despite the cold day Sunday, May 24th several parties of men went fishing. We think some of them caught little more than a cold!

The grade 12 graduation banquet on the 22nd was very enjoyable and so was the dance. The large attendance at the latter event made the auditorium look crowded.

The Track meet was held on the school grounds on Saturday, May 30th. The Home & School members ran the booth.

The annual Catholic picnic will be held in the picnic grounds on June 7th. There will be the usual ball games, races, etc. Everyone is welcome. No admission charge.

The Farmers' Day picnic will be held in the picnic grounds on June 12th. This will be up to the usual high level. In fact Mr. Anderson says it will surpass previous years. Everyone is welcome.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Craige Sr. is in hospital; also Mr. Gus Garnier. A speedy recovery is wished to both of them.

TEA AND BAKE SALE

The Order of the Royal Purple will hold a tea and bake sale on Saturday, June 6 from 3 to 5 p.m. in the Elks hall. Handicraft submitted by members of Handicraft Guild will be on display. 46-7

News from Tulliby Lake

Johnny Marsh is a patient in the hospital at Elk Point. He had the flu and was given some flu tablets by the nurse to counteract it. Apparently Johnny was allergic to these tablets necessitating his stay in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat MacDonald and family of Edmonton are visiting in the Christine Mass home.

Telephone service has been reinstated for Stanley Walterhouse who is working the cultivated ground on the Joyce Walterhouse holding just south-east of Doug Cooke's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Pynten and son Larry of Edmonton were visitors in the Behrens' home on Sunday evening.

Doug Cooke was up to see how his cattle were and found that some intruder had killed and partly eaten one of his spring calves. On investigation the next day Doug found about a 350 pound black bear feeding on another calf which he had apparently killed. As Doug had no gun with him the bear was able to make his get-away. The police were notified and Wesley Hayes accompanied him. They put out cyanide guns in an effort to destroy the bear before he does any more damage.

Douglas Adamson spent the week end with his parents.

The monthly meeting of the Heinsburg Local No. 432 of the F.U.A. was held in the Central school on the evening of Wednesday, May 20. Plans were made to have a picnic on Farmers' Day, June 12 at the usual place, Frog Lake.

Claire Anderson, sub-district director, will be in the district on June 15 and Doug Cooke will take him on a tour of the various ranches at Tulliby Lake.

A political meeting was held in the central school on the evening of Saturday, May 23. The Hon. Raymond Reierson was the principal speaker on behalf of the Social Credit party.

A fair crowd witnessed the Achievement day of the 4-H club at the school on the afternoon of Saturday, May 23.

HANDICRAFTS GUILD

The Vermilion Branch of the Canadian Handicrafts Guild will hold their annual display of work in the Elks hall on Saturday, June 6, from 3 to 5 p.m. in conjunction with the Lilac tea held by the Order of the Royal Purple. 46-7

The custom of throwing rice at a wedding may have originated as a bribe. According to The World Book Encyclopedia, rice may have been an offering to evil spirits to persuade them to stay away from the newly-weds.

SMOKE 'EM SHORTER

You can always tell a Canadian by the size of his butt, says Robert Majoribanks in The Financial Post.

Cost-conscious Canadian smokers take an extra couple of drags on their cigarettes before putting them out, while U. S. smokers are noticeably more prodigal in disposing of butts.

Surveys made in Canada and the U. S. show the average Canadian butt is slightly under 1 in. while the U. S. butt is about 1¼ in.

Cigarette makers say the only reasonable explanation is that Canadians, who pay 20 cents tax on a pack of 20 cigarettes compared with 8 cents a pack of 20 in the U. S., are determined to get their money's worth.

Health Unit Notes

Since the advent of the newer insecticides claims have been made that human lice are no longer a serious problem. This is true — but only to a limited extent. Lice are still a problem and in such places as jails, etc., are a very real problem.

Lice become more plentiful, and more evident in Alberta during the fall and winter months because of a number of factors. These are: — the wearing of heavier clothing (particularly underclothing) for extended periods of time, the crowding together of such seasonal employees as construction and lumber workers in temporary camps; the fewer opportunities for bathing in places not properly equipped, the necessity for seasonal unemployed, for economic reasons, to seek cheap (and often not too clean) accommodation. Under these conditions the introduction of lice can develop into a serious infestation in a short period of time. Furthermore, the transient or migratory worker, who is generally none too clean, often picks up an infestation at one place of unemployment and transfers it to a number of places such as rooming houses, bunk houses or homes on farms where he is temporarily employed, construction or lumbering camps, etc. Often lice are innocently introduced into homes by members of the family or by friends who have been unknowingly exposed to an infestation while visiting, travelling or working, and specimens from such home infestation often are carried to school or recreation centres by the children and may develop to serious proportions. Consequently, any outbreak of louse infestation should be checked as to its probable source, extent and ramifications.

CONTROL

Most of the drug houses detail excellent shampoos, lotions and ointments for the control of all types of louse infestations, and the commercial preparation of choice should give good results. An ointment made of 0.5% lindane (benzene hexachloride) in vanishing cream is reported as giving good control in body louse, and crab louse infestations, while the head louse has been controlled with two to five per cent DDT in an inert powder dusted on the body and/or in the clothing.

Chips Are Down

What Canadians are up against in providing facilities for higher education is dramatically highlighted by the University of Toronto's new expansion plan, comments The Financial Post.

It took the university 116 years to build up its plant to the point where it could cope with today's 13,000 or so students. But it expects to have to take in and teach 23,000 by 1968 — a doubling in a decade.

The price-tag of the construction program alone, which calls for 19 new buildings by 1963: $32.4 million. Some $12.6 million of this must be raised by public subscription — the largest sum in gifts ever sought by a Canadian university.

The chips are down. And after all the talk and concern about meeting Canada's needs for university graduates, it's now up to individuals and corporations to step forward and be counted.

They have in the past. But the challenge now is bigger. If the onus falls in any one place, it falls on business — a heavy debtor to higher education.

THREE-STOREY FALL ERASES MEMORY

Jack Beemer, 27, a steel rigger from Hamilton, Ont., fell three storeys while working on a construction job April 17. The 36-foot plunge took Mr. Beemer's memory and now he does not recognize his children. He seems to recall his wife but his two little daughters, Sandy, six and Colleen, four, shown above, are strangers. Doctors say recovery will take many months.

OUR LETTER FROM EDMONTON

Election Campaign Is Warming Up As Date Draws Near

by KEN MASON

EDMONTON — At week's end a total of 206 candidates had been nominated for the 65 seats at stake in Alberta's June 18 provincial election and there was a possibility a few more might turn up by nomination day on June 4.

Social Credit led the pack with 64 official candidates and one unofficial one. The unofficial candidate is R. Earl Ansley running in the Leduc riding as an Independent Social Crediter but with the blessing and support of the Social Credit League.

Progressive Conservatives are close behind with 59 candidates chosen, while Liberals (whose 15 members made up the official opposition in the last Legislature) had 46 candidates in the running. CCF trailed with 30, and there were six independents.

Fifty five of the candidates named so far are members of the last House seeking re-election. Social Credit is again in the lead with 36 of its 37 members running again. The only one not in the running is Dr. W. W. Cross, retired minister of health.

Eleven of the 15 Liberals are running for re-election and all three Conservative MLAs are in the running again. One of the two CCF members is taking another crack at provincial politics while four independents are up for re-election.

It appears at week's end that at least two independent members of the [illegible] Legislature will be backed by both Liberals and Conservatives. [illegible]

[illegible]

Liberals [illegible] on their Twelve Points for Progress [illegible] the government [illegible] to tackle [illegible] problems [illegible].

Liberal leader Grant MacEwan is saying the government should devote as much effort to finding markets for Alberta's surplus farm products [illegible] market for [illegible] industry.

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] cit financing when you have money in the bank to cover it.

The five-year program appears to be the most powerful political weapon yet to appear. One of the most potent parts of it is the government's plan to put initial blacktopping on some 200 miles of secondary roads in the province this year, and candidates are using this to make political hay.

Mammoth election rallies appear to be a thing of the past. There will be more emphasis this time on radio and television talks by candidates at prime listening and viewing hours, and more small neighborhood meetings in private homes.

Leaders of the three major parties, Mr. Manning, Mr. MacEwen and Mr. Kirby, have all started tours through the province to make appearances at key points, but these meetings aren't being carried out on the scale of past elections.

END OF AN ERA

The last of Ottawa's streetcars went to the junk yard a few days ago and another city joined the growing list of municipalities which have given up this type of transportation since the end of the war.

Soon, says The Financial Post, if one wants the thrill of riding a tram, there will be only Montreal and Toronto in all eastern Canada where that will be possible and there is even less choice in the west.

That's quite a change in 30 years.

Back before the first world war, almost every city had its own streetcar system. It was the streetcar, rather than the private automobile, that crowded the driving horse off urban streets.

Claysmore Couple Makes Interesting Tour of Great Britain

The following account, written especially for the Standard, tells of the many and varied experiences of Mr and Mrs. Percy Willes of Claysmore during their recent tour through Great Britain.

Our original trip had been booked by chartered plane to Brussels, but as [illegible] cancelled about three weeks before we were due to leave, we decided to go by TCA to London. We left Edmonton about 12.45 p.m. on Sunday, July 20, stopping at Saskatoon, Winnipeg and Toronto. We landed in Toronto about midnight and this landing was one to remember with the street lights all aglow and the car lights of the cars moving slowly along. We left Toronto and arrived in Montreal about 2.30 a.m. Here, we had about 17 hours to visit with son Edwin. We left Dorval airport about 8 p.m. on Monday and began a non-stop flight to London, arriving there around noon on Tuesday. We were met there and driven across London to Leyton, my boyhood home, stayed four days visiting my boyhood haunts and also visited the school which I had attended for 10 years. Leaving there, we made our headquarters at Clapham the home of my wife's cousin. We spent a day at Eastbourne and were driven along the seafront to Pevensey where William the Conqueror landed in 1066. Back in London we visited many places of interest, among them St Paul's, Westminster Abbey and Cathedral, Tate Gallery, Wallace Art Gallery, Victoria and Albert Museum, Madam Tussaud's Waxworks where they have replicas made of our Prime Minister and of all the commonwealth ministers, the [illegible] Presidents of the [illegible] and present members of the British parliament.

The Chamber of Horrors, where the murderers are, we missed. There is a tableau of the beheading of Mary Queen of Scots.

Derry and Tom's garden is well worth a visit. It is on the roof of a store, 100 feet high, the only one of its kind in the world. There are lily pools and fountains, an artesian well 100 ft deep, a wishing well, and a Scot in kilts playing the bag pipes.

I went on my own to the monument, built in the 1600's by Sir Christopher Wren, to commemorate the starting place of the Great Fire of London which wiped out half of that city. It is 202 feet high and has 311 steps, just room for one to go up and one to come down. It is possible to get a magnificent view of London from the top. From there I walked to Trafalgar Square and Nelson's Column. It reminded me of an old [illegible] "I live in Trafalgar Square. [illegible] Lions to Guard Me, Fountains and Statues all Over the [illegible] the Metropolis Staring me Right in the Face, I Own It's a Trifle Draughty, but it's this way see, What's good Enough for Nelson is Quite Good Enough for me."

Our next move was by train to Liverpool, and by underground to Hoylake, staying there four days. We were driven to the lovely country of North Wales, through Llangollen, Chester and back to Hoylake. We also had a day at Blackpool.

Next we visited Port Sunlight and Lady Lever art gallery; coming out we saw a Chev car with red letters on the back "Edmonton to Brussels or Bust." Being curious, [illegible] went back to inquire who owned the car. A lady came up and said they did. I said we were from Vermilion an she said that she was Mrs. Smeltzer and had lived five years in Vermilion. What a small world!

Back to Clapham and from there to Wendover Bucks. We stayed there four days, visiting Woburn Abbey, Bedfordshire, the home of the Duke of Bedford, and had been in their family for nearly 300 years. It comprises about 3,000 acres of the most beautiful parkland in Britain, a sanctuary for many varieties of beasts and birds, driving along the seven miles of private roads visitors may observe 11 species of deer, the largest in captivity, European Bison, Old English white cattle, flocks of Emperor Red Breasted and Swan Geese, Manchurian Crane Rhea and Amherst Pheasants, American Bison and Wallabies wander at [illegible] the park.

Our next visit was Kew gardens, with its wonderful Tropical [illegible]. Our stay there was too short to see everything. Next we took a [illegible] to Newport, South Wales, stopping for lunch at [illegible] church and changing [illegible] at Cheltenham, then [illegible] Gloucester and Chepstow to Newport. From there to Cross Keys, the wife's birthplace, staying there a week visiting Pontllanfraith, Abergavenny[?]. Then back to London by coach through rain all the way.

Next was a visit to the sea and a day by coach to Canterbury via Eltham, Dartford, Rochester, the river Medway runs through it, and the courier explained that one side of the river were the "Men of Kent" and on the other, "the Kentish Men." Arriving at Canterbury we were shown over the Cathedral, nearby is St. Martin's church, the oldest in England, built in 580 and where services are still being held.

We returned to London via Maidstone, the day trip cost five pounds, including morning coffee, tea and admission charges. Having taken treatment for ear trouble, and attending the clinic at St. James Hospital at Balham three times they advised a mastoid operation, which I had on September 2nd, and was hospitalized for twelve days. The best part was that it didn't cost me anything as it came under the National Health Scheme.

We only made one visit after that, at Chingford and Billericay, Essex, to see nephews. We left London airport at 10:00 p.m., arriving at Montreal next morning, and stayed there eight days with Ed and family. Left Montreal 8:35 a.m., arriving at Edmonton at 6:30 p.m.

We thoroughly enjoyed our trip and the six weeks spent over there. Saw quite a change in six years. There are plenty of new cars on which they have to pay 50% tax, so they come pretty high. Travelling by bus is cheap. From London you can go anywhere in Great Britain, by conducted tours or on your own. I saw more of London this time than I did in the 23 years I lived there. I was born there but I lived about six miles out. We were disappointed in not getting to Brussels as I wanted to get some pictures of the World's Fair. Anyway I brought back about 170 photos which I can throw on the screen and which will bring back memories.

A golfer is one who yells "fore", takes six, and puts down five.

Most of us are beginning to learn that the cost of experience has gone up like everything else.

Death of Miss Grace A. Bury Saddens Friends

The passing away of Miss Grace Bury on Sunday morning, June 7th saddened her many friends here, and removed a citizen who had been long regarded with the highest esteem and affection.

Miss Bury was a person of many talents which she generously used to further the welfare of the great variety of organizations in which she was interested. Since her arrival in Vermilion in 1912 there wasn't a Vermilion Fair in which she didn't have exhibits of her excellent handicraft work, among which was knitting, crocheting, embroidery and other projects. Nor did she limit her activity in this regard to exhibiting, but was a faithful and hard-working member of the Ladies' Committee of the Agriculture Association.

Miss Bury was a devout and active member of the St. Saviour's Anglican church congregation, holding office in both the W. A. and the Deanery W. A.

Many people remember Miss Bury for her teaching of folk dancing in preparation for the festivals that were once a feature of Vermilion entertainment.

The Guide and Brownie movement in Vermilion felt the influence of Miss Bury's support for many years, and she was a Brown Owl, leader of the Brownies when the organization was first formed here.

Miss Bury was one of the original members of the Women's Institute in Vermilion; and the Red Cross also received the benefits of her interest and work.

As a hobby she made her own Christmas cards during the last twelve years, making photographs of her own designing, and then completing the individual cards by water coloring.

Miss Bury first came to Canada from England in 1911, settling in the Campbell Lake district, where she and her sister, now Mrs. R. Taylor, kept house for their brother, W. E. Bury, who was killed while serving in World War I.

Miss Bury was born in England on November 8, 1877, and it was there that she received her primary school teacher training at Froebel Institute. She taught in England and in South Africa before coming to join others of her family here in Alberta.

Surviving family members left to mourn her loss are two sisters, Mrs. Raymond Taylor, Vermilion, and Mrs. W. Bigg, Salisbury, England. There are five nieces, Margaret Taylor, of Vermilion, Dorothy Taylor, Edmonton, Mrs. George McPhee (Barbara Taylor) Clandonald, Mrs. Cecil Dexter, England, and Miss Joyce Peel, India; and one nephew, John Taylor of Wainwright.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, June 10, at St. Saviour's Anglican church in Vermilion with Rev W. A. Champness officiating. The pall bearers were: Thomas Watts, W. J. Fenks, Keith King, Kenneth Stone, E. H. Burkingham and O. R. I. Stephen.

After cremation of the remains, the ashes will be scattered over the grave of her brother [illegible] E. Bury who predeceased her by twelve years.

There are 12 entries to date and anyone interested should see or telephone Jack Kneale or Stan Jones immediately.

Sale of Horses Draws Huge Crowd

The auction sale of horses at the Vermilion Auction Mart west of town on Saturday attracted a crowd of over 750 people, they all couldn't get into the sales pavilion, and not only that but the bidding for the horses was really brisk.

Sales manager Harry Kopinsky who arranged the [illegible] stated that 143 horses [illegible] and prices were very [illegible] ranging from $65.00 to $180.00 per head. Furthermore bidding was brisk and apparently most of the people were there to buy a horse or horses. The list included some very fine horses, saddle, heavy and draft.

Mannville Scouts In Overnight Camp

MANNVILLE — On Saturday evening, May 30th, the Mannville Legion Scout troop enjoyed an overnight hike. A tent and grubstake had previously been transported to the chosen spot, and at approximately 10:00 p.m. the two scout masters with 12 scouts hiked the 3 miles packing bedrolls. Following breakfast on Sunday morning, the troop was marshalled out on inspection. A nature study hike was enjoyed later, some of the boys reported seeing an otter along the Vermilion river bank. Games were engaged in until noon, following the return to camp, after which lunch was eaten. Camp was broken at 1:30 p.m. and the boys and their leaders headed for home.

Sudden Death Of Mrs. Neil East

Word has been received of the sudden death of Dora East, beloved wife of Mr C. East, well known and highly esteemed former residents of the Vermilion district. The death took place on Friday, June 5 while Mr. and Mrs. East were on the return trip to Vancouver after visiting their daughter Nellie and family in Australia. The boat was only one day out of Vancouver when Mrs. East passed away.

Mr. and Mrs. East were married in Australia. They homesteaded in the Dewberry district in the early days, and then for twenty years lived south of Vermilion. After retiring from the farm they have travelled extensively.

Farewell Party for B. C. Grade Ten

Last Friday night a large crowd attended the farewell party for the Grade X students of Buffalo Coulee. This was sponsored by the Grade IX class who had the gym very nicely decorated in the theme "Blue Moon." There was a stage backdrop with silver stars, and balloons hanging from the ceiling. Five girls and five boys, Ellen Boler, Elaine Everett, Betty Green, Doreen Dirks, Shirley Hinton, Eddie Korhan, Donald Stone, Colin Kennedy, Keith Marfleet and Eddy Smart, members of the Grade X class, were on the stage, as well as the guest speakers.

Jack Beaman acted as Master of Ceremonies and gave a short talk to the class. Mr Jasko introduced each of the Grade X students with a little information about each one.

Mr Bauer, Divisional School trustee, on behalf of the [illegible] extended best wishes to the students for their success in continuing their education. Bob Nicholls, student minister of the Auburndale church, gave the main address, stressing the necessity of building their "house" or character on Christian faith which could not be overcome by the evil forces of the world.

Katherine Barlow gave a few well-chosen words of farewell to the Grade X class, and Lyla Ryben presented them with B. C. pennants.

Donald Stone spoke on behalf of the departing class, expressing thanks to all who had made the evening a memorable one for them, and appreciation for the privilege which had been theirs in attending a country school such as B. C. This fall will see them separated and going to different high schools.

Helen recited a very fitting poem and the exercises closed with a group of girls singing "Blue Moon."

Chairs were pushed back and dancing was enjoyed until after midnight. Lunch was served by the Students' Union.

The best wishes of the community go with this fine group of young girls and boys as they continue on to further education.

BEAMANS FETED

Another feature of the evening was the presentation of a pair of matching table lamps to Mr and Mrs. Beaman from the community as a farewell gift on their departure for Elk Point. Ted Marfleet extended the best wishes of all their many friends to the young couple. Both Jack and Gladys very fittingly expressed their thanks and invited people to visit them up north.

The draw was made, too, for the T. V. stools on which the Junior Red Cross had been selling tickets. The lucky winner is R. Wilson of Vermilion.

Annual Missionary Convention At Alliance Chapel

The showing of the film "Congo Contrasts", Sunday, June 14 at 7.30 p.m. will precede the annual missionary convention at the Alliance Chapel, Vermilion.

This year the missionary convention will be held June 15th to 21st with the first two days in the Mannville Alliance Tabernacle. The guest missionary is Mr. J. P. Ellison who will speak in both churches.

Mr Ellison is the son of missionaries to Cambodia, the land to which he also has gone as a missionary. His first twelve years as a boy were spent there. He arrived back on the field as a missionary in 1954 and after a year's language study was assigned to evangelistic work at the station [illegible] grew up on. Mr Ellison has with him curios, costumes and pictures of the land of Cambodia.

Honor Award To Vermilion Scout

The final meeting of the term for the Vermilion Boy Scout troop was held recently at which time Patrol Leader Brian Keen was presented with a trophy as "Honor Scout" of 1959. The presentation was made by Assistant Scoutmaster Gerald Willmer and Scoutmaster Dr. Ben King.

Work is proceeding on development of the Scout camp at the Vermilion park and the committee would ask that all parents when called upon give as much of their time and talent as possible to help speed the conclusion of this project. When this area is ready it will be made use of by Scouts, Cubs, Guides and Brownies.

Accidents Kill Two, Injure Two In Vermilion District

Last Sunday accidents accounted for two deaths and two people injured in the Vermilion district.

Philippe Baril, 25, of Bonnyville, was piloting a two-seater aircraft over Moose Lake with Gladys McGinnis, 27, of Elk Point as his passenger when the plane made a slow swoop over the lake, and then banked. [illegible] apparently stalled midway through the bank and plunged into 12 feet of water about 200 feet from shore. Motor boats went immediately to the rescue. Artificial respiration was applied to both victims and they were taken to Bonnyville hospital. Hospital authorities said on Monday that they had never regained consciousness.

ISLAY GIRLS INJURED

Also, two 17-year old girls from Islay were involved in an accident on Sunday when their car plunged into a ditch and rolled over completely, landing on its wheels. Barbara Colby, the driver, is in serious condition from her injuries and has been taken to the University hospital, and her passenger Frances Kowalski was less seriously hurt suffering from cuts and bruises, but is still in the Islay hospital.

Completes 50 Years As Business Man In Town of Vermilion

Albert M. West, general manager of Craig Bros. local store, has the unique distinction of completing 50 years as a business man in the town of Vermilion. Mr. West is the only business [illegible] circles today with such a record.

Albert, as he is so widely known, came to Vermilion on May 20, 1909 to join the firm of Craig Brothers. He brought with him an enviable reputation as being one of the top athletes of Western Canada. His greatest athletic triumphs were probably on the soccer field as he played with several championship clubs in the early days.

In Vermilion he is recognized as a wonderful community booster and worker serving as president of the Board of Trade, of the Athletic Association, being [illegible] the curling and golf clubs, and through the years to many other organizations which contribute to the welfare and activity of the [illegible].

In paying tribute to Mr West for his innumerable endeavors to speed the welfare of the town and district over the years, the Standard cannot omit reference to his outstanding contributions to the musical [illegible] of the community. Born of a very musical family Mr. West has made his name known throughout the province of Alberta.

In the old days, he sang stellar roles in such sacred oratorios as Mendelssohn's "Elijah," "The Messiah," Stainer's "Crucifixion" and many others. The entertainment world saw Mr West in Gilbert and Sullivan's operas, many other light musical comedies, and even vaudeville which the audiences thoroughly appreciated.

A. M. WEST

On many occasions he took part in musical festivals where he won trophies and was highly acclaimed by adjudicators. Although perhaps most noted for his tenor voice Mr West was for a number of years [illegible] about "tops" as a cornetist. For nine years he was the [illegible] cornetist in the old [illegible] Citizens' Band, when the band consisted of 35 pieces with an adjunct of 15 juniors. He acted as assistant conductor, when Mr. Wm. B. Elford was bandmaster. This aggregation covered most outdoor events in this part of Alberta, besides concerts in the theatre on Sunday evenings.

Pony-Grads Play High Calibre Ball In Season's Opener

In a fast, well-played ball game the Vermilion Pony-Grads defeated Mannville 10 runs to 9 in a real opening rouser.

The game was played Sunday afternoon in perfect weather and on a diamond all freshly groomed through the efforts of Irvin Gordon, who donated his time and equipment that morning to assure a first class playing surface.

Batteries for Vermilion, Ross (3), Marfleet to Manyluk; for Mannville, Mann to Doherty.

Umpires were Irvin Gordon and Gordon Ross.

STILL UNSPONSORED

Attention is drawn to the fact that the Pony-Grad team is still unsponsored. Coaching is being done by Bert Moore and appreciation is expressed by him to Irvin Gordon and Gordon Ross for their invaluable help Sunday, also to the Canadian Order of Foresters for their donation to cover insurance on the players.

Equipment of all kinds including balls, bats, catcher's gear and all the sundries that go with a ball team are sorely needed. Anyone or any club interested in helping the boys along please contact Bert Moore.

Next game is at Buffalo Coulee on Friday, June 12. Watch the Standard for announcements of future home games.

Program Change At Columbia Theatre

Due to the fact that the picture 'The Mating Game' is being held over in Calgary 'The Buccaneer' will be showing here at the Columbia Theatre on June 18, 19, and 20th. 'The Buccaneer' is a wonderful picture in vista vision and technicolor and was produced and directed by the late Cecil B. DeMille. It stars Yul Brynner, Claire Bloom, Charles Boyer and Charlton Heston. 'The Mating Game' will be showing at a later date.

Zone 3 Athletes Win Trophy At Divisional Track Meet

The annual track meet sponsored by the Vermilion Local of the A. T. A. was held in Kitscoty on Friday, June 5.

Despite the wind and dust, races and jumping events were under way by 10.00 a.m. and were run according to schedule. In order to group students as fairly as possible, their height and weight as well as their age were taken in to consideration this year in the classification of participants, instead of classifying them by age only as had been done in previous years.

ZONE 3 WINS TROPHY

Zone 3, consisting of the Dewberry, Clandonald, Marwayne and Streamstown Sub-Locals, received the track meet trophy for having amassed the highest number of points, namely 115. Zone 2 the Vermilion Sub-Local, was in second place with 102 points, and Zone 1 that is Paradise Valley, Kitscoty and Islay, stood third with 71 points.

INDIVIDUAL MEDALS

Three winners of individual medals received the highest number of points possible, as they placed first in four events to earn twelve points each. They were Philip Zubiak of Kitscoty in Class B, Gerald Kvill of Marwayne in Class C and Ronald Hemmingway of Vermilion in Class F. Billy Islay Class A of the Vermilion Elementary School won the medal for his group with eight points.

BALL TOURNEYS

Shortly after noon, the ball tournament was under way. With the weather improving as the day continued many good ball games were observed. The Kitscoty "A" High School girls defeated the Vermilion "A" team in a closely contested game. The victors went on to win the cup for that class. In the "B" girls group, Grade IX and under, Islay emerged the victor over six other competitors.

Vermilion Elementary School teams won cups in the "D" group for Grade VI and under mixed and in the "E" group for Grade I to VI girls. The "D" group had eight entries, the largest number of ball entries in one class.

Irwinville overcame the combined Wildwood-Kinnard entry in the "C" mixed class for rural school softball.

In the High School boys "A" team baseball, Marwayne defeated Vermilion. The play-off, which will be between Marwayne and Dewberry will be held on another day because of the late hour at which the rest of the games were completed. The other two baseball cups went to Marwayne entries. They were for Class B boys of Grade IX and under and [illegible] Class C boys of twelve years and under.

Although the crowd may have been smaller than usual this year, there was a tremendous number of entries in most events and many changes were noted. As well as a difference in the method of classifying pupils, improvements were seen in the preparation of the grounds. The race track was in exceptionally good condition and a few bleachers had been erected by the main diamond. The change in parking cars also helped clear the spaces required by contestants. The church groups that ran the booths should be complimented on the good supply of refreshments sold throughout the day. The public address system was very satisfactory.

Farewell Social For H. and S. Members

Report of the Provincial Convention will be give by local delegates, Mrs. R. Forsyth and Mrs. R. Lugg. After completion of business the meeting will take the form of a social and dance in honor of the Doherty's, Holter's and Forsyth's who are leaving the district. These three families have contributed much to the Home and School during their residence here. Lunch will be served by the executive and everyone is welcome.

Senseless Act Cuts Off Power

The senseless act of persons in shooting at insulators on the power lines, was the cause recently of the power being off in an area north of town for seven hours. [illegible] on a Sunday which made it even more difficult to repair the damage on short notice.

Once the power is off it means that a farmer could suffer very heavy loss, for instance if an electric brooder was being used, then of course there are a large number of freezers, refrigerators, electric ranges and numerous other uses of electricity which make it essential that the power be available at all times.

Parents should warn boys who are allowed the use of .22 rifles (said rifles are too often regarded as a toy) not to shoot at insulators, and if they find that the boys persist deprive them of the rifle. In some cases boys are not to be blamed . . . and the persons causing such damage are plenty old enough to know better.

THINK before you commit such an act.

Tree Planting

Approximately one and a half million trees were shipped to [illegible] by Alberta's Supervisor of Horticulture P. D. McCalla. The area covered by the shipments ranges all the way from the U. S. border in the south to Fort Vermilion in the north.

The trees were supplied by the provincial nurseries at Oliver and Brooks and included caragana, spruce, pine, American elm, green ash, Manitoba maple, poplar, willow, lilac and honeysuckle. They will be used for farmstead shelter belts, field windbreaks and roadside planting.
over 2100 Alberta farmers this spring. These figures were re-

Applications are now being accepted for 1960, says Mr. McCalla, and he advises to start planning your tree planting program for next year and get your order in early. Forms may be obtained [illegible] your district agriculturist.

New Danger To Children

A recent article in the April 25th issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association has drawn attention to a new hazard which may threaten the lives of children. Fortunately it is a [illegible] which is readily avoidable.

Dr. Paul B. Jarrett of Phoenix, Arizona investigated the deaths of some children who had died from suffocation while playing. He determined that laundry and dry cleaning establishments had been substituting thin plastic bags for the paper sacks previously used for finished garments. He also learned that some parents were giving the plastic to their children as "toys" after removing the cleaned clothing. Often the child would place the bag over his head and suffocation resulted.

According to Dr. Jarrett an electrostatic charge is generated by friction from handling the bag. The child in peering through the material having placed it over his head, is apt to have it grab him through electrical attraction to his face. If this happens only the prompt intervention of an adult will prevent tragedy. This dangerous material will not tear when a child fights it and death is the result.

By publication of this warning and education of parents many lives will undoubtedly be saved. Therefore parents, remember, do not give plastic bags of any size to children to play with or death may be the outcome.

Retrospect

The [illegible] bride sweeps down the aisle with all the self satisfaction of a modern Diana returning from the hunt with a stag slung over her shoulder.

But this spring ritual wasn't always the victory celebration of the female. And everything about the wedding -- including the word itself -- is designed to remind her that she once was at best, a marketable commodity and at worst, fair game for any strong-armed marauder.

The best man, for example is believed to be a relic of the days when a man simply carried off a girl who had wandered too far from home. The husband-to-be usually brought along a muscular friend to fight off pursuers, according to The World Book Encyclopedia.

The bridegroom had to hide out for a while until the girl's family got tired of searching for them. This was the beginning of the honeymoon.

Of course, these tactics didn't foster togetherness . . . and may have started the continuing battle between a husband and his [illegible].

The practice of buying a wife [illegible] lower [illegible] for it [illegible] for her pride especially when some African tribes thought she was worth about one ox.

Air Force Display At Lloydminster This Friday

Air Force Day will be observed in Lloydminster on Saturday, June 13 commencing at 12:45 p.m. Representation was made by the Lloydminster Wing of the R.C.A.F. Association to the R.C.A.F. to have a display on this occasion.

The show will be opened by a flight of four CF 100's and there will be flying demonstrations and ground displays. Also scheduled is a parachute drop as well as flights by a helicopter, Beechcraft Expediter, Harvards and Otters. The Flying Farmers of Saskatchewan have also been invited to attend, as well as a Saskatchewan government hospital plane.

It is also hoped by the sponsors to have a flight of Harvards piloted by NATO students from Moose Jaw.

Another feature of the day will be pyrotechnic displays, [illegible] equipment and air force [illegible]

SWINE SUPPORT

The Hon. Mr. D. S. Harkness has announced that the support price for hogs at Edmonton after Oct. 1 will be $20.15 per cwt. As usual there will be some additional charges deducted. $20.15 per cwt. is what the government will pay for pork on the rail in Edmonton. The method of providing for this price for support will be by deficiency payment. By this method it will be possible to limit payments to organizations operating under the so-called 'Vertical Integration' plan.

RAT CONFERENCE

One of the important things that came out of the recent Alberta Rat Control conference at Lloydminster was the confidence shown by pest control officers. In other years there always was one or more prepared to run up a white flag, but this year everyone wanted to carry on the battle. In the areas north of the Saskatchewan River rats have made some inroads as far west as St. Paul. But now that populace has been alerted and the situation is looking brighter. One of the great problems is that a few people still hesitate to be concerned even when the rats are running away with the place. If rats are suspected [illegible] not hesitate contact the M. D. office at Kitscoty or the D. A. office a Vermilion.

A. I. AT VERMILION

Mr. Van Wageningen of the Tolland district is now receiving frozen semen from the Artificial Insemination centre at Vegreville. Mr. Van Wageningen completed a two week course last winter and is a fully qualified technician. To date only dairy cows have been inseminated but beef bull semen can be obtained upon request. Anyone interested in using this service should contact Mr. Van Wageningen.

4-H ACHIEVEMENT DAYS

Five communities in the Vermilion D.A. area have held 4-H Achievement Days during the past two weeks. They are to be congratulated for the splendid turn out of 4-H members, parents and improved livestock. There has been a steady but marked improvement in three older clubs, Tulliby Lake, Paradise Valley, Marwayne. Dewberry and Durness holding their second Achievement Day, are one hundred per cent improved over 1958. These 4-H clubs are only possible with continual parent support and loyalty to the leadership committee. In 1959-60 some new things are planned to make the 4-H Beef program better than ever. If your son or daughter is interested don't hesitate to ask Mr. Douglas or Mr. Dubbo about 4-H and your community.

Congratulations to Dennis Whiting of the Durness 4-H Beef club on winning the grand championship of the Lloydminster Inter-provincial Beef Club show. Dennis topped 265 on [illegible].

Letters to the Editor

Marwayne, Alberta,
June 6, 1959.

Dear Mr. Editor:

I would like to try my hand at letter writing in your valuable column.

It is said people are funny. This statement prompts me to write.

Some people are saying it is time for a change of Government in Alberta. A number of them may become as wandering sheep, take up the cry and vote out a Government that has done us much good.

Some say they are against the government over school centralization, buildings, [illegible], etc.

Please think this through:

Our children are the Province's, and our most valuable asset — shouldn't they have the best?

If our Government were to say they shouldn't, wouldn't you be the first to kick?

Let us see to it that we, and our [illegible] take very good care of these excellent facilities, and it may be that we will be [illegible] use of such [illegible] bright, beautiful buildings for community activities such as 4-H and other such programs.

Centralization is simply a trend of the times and there is little anyone can do about it. It is found not just in Alberta, but everywhere.

The opposition is constantly whining about unqualified teachers, but even with these so-called "unqualified" teachers, we cannot get enough. How many "country schools" would there be without any kind of a teacher if we were to go back to the old system of many little schools, and ask teachers to live in isolated teacherages without the facilities and utilities of the average town, which by the way, has been largely made possible by the financial encouragement of the present Government.

The dividend program was not a mistake! We asked for it at the November, 1958 Social Credit convention.

At a following convention it was decided to discontinue the dividend program for five years and use the money instead for homes for senior citizens, hospitals, etc.

Some of us, especially the F.U.A. had long been looking for a workable plan whereby farmers could legally use purple gas in their trucks. Representation was made by the F.U.A. and the Social Credit convention delegates and this was granted to the full.

People of Alexandra — what do you think of your highways, bridges, and cleaning plant, etc?

If you appreciate all that has been done, let your Government know on June 18th next.

The Manning administration is spending much heavier lately to provide many things for Albertans and Alberta's pioneers. Because of this, some politicians are trying to frighten us [illegible] there is absolutely no cause for alarm.

There are some businessmen, including farmers, who were heavily in debt in the depression years of the 1930's, who braved the storm and through sound business practices and hard work are today financially secure and [illegible] quite lavishly on [illegible] and their families without fear of bankruptcy . . . so it is with our Social Credit Government. We are well on the road to financial security as a province and are now beginning to enjoy the fruits of our labors.

The people of Alberta should be justly proud of the fact that so many of our Social Credit candidates are high principled, time-proven men of the highest calibre. In the light of the facts I have enumerated I can see no reason nor room for any change in government.

Our Social Credit party will mark its 24th year in power in Alberta on Aug. 22nd next — let us make it many happy returns and many more of them!

Thanking you, Mr. Editor
Yours sincerely,
Duncan M. Addison.

Conservative Leader Cam Kirby Proposes Reforms in Education

A five-part program to reform education has been announced by Alberta Conservative leader Cam Kirby. Speaking in Lloydminster Wednesday last week, Mr. Kirby proposed to return basic fundamentals to the curriculum of Alberta schools. He said a Conservative government would halt and reverse a tendency to water down the content of classes, and would inject such things as literature, mathematics, history, and geography in school courses. Higher educational standards throughout the entire elementary and high school systems is the aim of the Conservative policy. Any techniques [illegible] might improve fundamental [illegible] as ability grouping in the larger schools and elimination of certain elective classes will be investigated [illegible] a Conservative government.

Mr. Kirby promised his party would raise the standards of teacher training, with an eye to eventually raising minimum qualifications required for teaching in Alberta classrooms. He promised co-operation with the teacher groups in determining the policy regarding the teacher standards.

A basic grant program will be instituted which will enable small towns and rural areas to attract and retain higher qualified teachers.

The Conservative leader also promised the provincial treasury would assume a higher percentage of operational and capital school costs, thus lowering the tax burden on homes, farms and property if a P. C. government is elected.

Immediate steps to check the drop-out rate in Alberta schools will also be undertaken. An equal chance for every Alberta child to gain a high school and university education is a Conservative goal, Mr. Kirby said.

Expansion of University facilities at Edmonton and Calgary is proposed and Mr. Kirby said his government would study the setting up of junior colleges at Lethbridge and the Peace River area. He also promised to re-open the Fairview School of Agriculture, study plans for establishing a school in southern Alberta and encourage the growth of technical schools.

Other points in the program call for a chair of Ukrainian language and literature at the University of Alberta and more funds for research at the provincial university.

The display consisted of a variety of projects completed by the students, as well as some work done by the adult classes of men and women. In the Home Ec. section the guests were invited to sample some of the girls' cooking, with cookies and punch being served at a special table. Again, as in the past Swift Canadian Company was the big purchaser. Substantial purchases were also made by Weller and Williams, Canada Packers, The Slim Bailey's Tom Boy store, etc. A number of local persons bought calves and at the same time helped their clubs greatly. The T. Eaton Co. Ltd. purchased the grand champion at 18 cents a pound whereas Empire [illegible] of Lloydminster bought the reserve champion at 33 cents a pound.

Vermilion River M.D. Sponsors Rat Control Conference

The consensus of an Alberta rat control conference held here [illegible] MD of Vermilion River and the Alberta department of agriculture was that rat infestation can be controlled and is being controlled.

Delegates were welcomed by Mayor V. U. Miner and G. F. Haynton of the Chamber of Commerce.

Delegates were present from many of the points along the Saskatchewan Alberta border such as Consort, Oyen, Chauvin, Bonnyville, Rivercourse, Ribstone, and other points further west such as Coronation, Blackfoot, Wainwright, Acadia Valley, [illegible], Mannville, Vermilion, Paradise Valley, Dewberry and Marwayne.

Chairman was J. B. Gurba, supervisor of crop protection and pest control for Alberta.

Purpose of the conference was outlined by A. M. Wilson, Alberta field crops commissioner and the present rat situation was outlined by D. Stelfox, assistant to Mr. Gurba. The rat campaign by districts was reported by each pest control officer.

A film was shown and coffee and doughnuts served by the Chamber of Commerce.

Chairman on the second day was D. Stelfox. J. B. Bromhall gave a talk on sanitation and rat control, and this was followed by a group discussion.

Special cases and future programs were discussed and a tour made of local rat control projects.

BUFFALO COULEE ACTIVITIES

The Heatherbell W. A. group met at the home of Mrs. Jim Duncan last Thursday evening. [illegible] daughter Jean, who was married in Edmonton recently. Unfortunately the bride was sick with the flu and unable to come down but at her request the gifts were opened by Mrs. Duncan Sr. and Mrs. Bert Duncan, and displayed. Everyone regretted that Jean was not able to be present but hope to see her sometime in the near future, when she comes home. During the meeting Mrs. Gladys Bauman was presented with a cup and saucer and extended best wishes on the occasion of her departure for [illegible].

The Autumn Leaf group met at the home of Mrs. Lorene Sorenson and the Willowby group at Mrs. Alf Groat's. Final bazaar plans were made at all meetings, with some of the sewing being turned in.

PLANS FOR RENOVATIONS

On Thursday evening the men and some ladies met at the Community centre to discuss plans for the renovation of the supper and ice cream booths. A work day is to be held this Tuesday with all the men asked to come and get it all fixed up. This is the only grounds used in the district now for picnics, and besides the W. A. bazaar, the B. C. Curling club and F. U. A. hold their picnics there, so the renovation is a three-way proposition. It is hoped that when completed it will be much more satisfactory for serving than it has been in the past.

B. C. WINS BASEBALL GAME

The Vermilion high school baseball team came out last Wednesday evening for a game with the local senior team, with the latter coming out the winners.

Not many people attended the game as quite a number that might have done so had gone to the Achievement night at the Mannville high school where the work of the boys and girls in the Shop and Home Economics courses was on display. Those attending reported seeing some very creditable work done by the boys and girls, and also by the adult class. The students of Grades IX and X of B.C. Big Upset In Ball Game

Last Friday, June 4 the "Flying Canaries" formerly known as the "Old Bags," won over the Vermilion Cardinals by a score of 18 to 13, at the local Athletic Grounds.

The Flying Canaries are a married women's team, and were considered to be a poor bet to win against the girls of the Cardinals. But this just goes to show that there is no such thing as a sure bet!

Of course at the invitation of the Cardinal coach, the Canaries did "borrow" the Cardinal pitcher and catcher for the evening but it must be quickly pointed out that these two imports were both married, and therefore fully qualified to play on the Canary team.

Davis Car Stolen From Residence

The car belonging to Tom Davis was stolen from in front of his residence on 51st Avenue about midnight on Friday. The vehicle was found well hidden in a bush just this side of Kitscoty on Sunday afternoon. It was undamaged except that the switch had been pulled out to start the motor, the wires attached, and then hadn't been separated so that the battery was dead. The car had been left standing right under a street light but even this did not phase the thieves.

34 Vermilion Wolf Cubs Attend Cubaree At Wainwright Camp

Thirty-four Cubs of the First Vermilion Wolf Cub pack went to the Wainwright Cubaree held on Sunday. The Association greatly appreciated the good turn out of parents who provided transportation and moral support which helped the boys bring home the shield.

The Cubaree started with the Flag Break, O Canada and a mass Grand Howl to welcome the honored guests which included Assistant Provincial Commissioner Phripp.

Wainwright, Edgerton, Irma, Chauvin, Camp Wainwright and Vermilion took part in the seven field events, testing the boys' skill and co-operation. Vermilion was tied with Edgerton but Vermil won out by winning the Duck Walk relay race.

Training certificates were presented by Mr. Kim Whittaker (member Canadian Headquarters Training Team) to the leaders from Wainwright, Camp Wainwright, Edgerton, Irma, Chauvin and Vermilion. Vermilion leaders who received training certificates were Constable Al Coker, Constable Bob McDowell, Mrs. Fay Park and Mrs. Edna Bottorff.

Following the presentation of training certificates all the Cubs did the mass jungle dance "The Death of Shere Khan".

Mr. McKim presented the shield to Constable Al Coker on behalf of the 1st Vermilion Wolf Cub pack. A sing-song was directed by District Commissioner Salmon, ending the interesting day and a very tired but a happy victorious troop of boys and their parents loaded up their cars for home.

SQUARE NOTES From Circle 8

Many Circle Eight members travelled to Mannville on May 29th to attend the Fun Fest sponsored by the Central Alberta Callers Association. It consisted of a whole afternoon of entertainment with a full-course turkey supper topped with a very well attended dance at night. Joining in the fun were people from all over Alberta and Saskatchewan.

After a short intermission the Circle Eight Club held a dance in honor of Shirley Underdown and Lewis Highberg at the Bowtell hall which was gayly decorated for the occasion. Everyone was in fine spirits and all had fun squaring them up again. At lunch time a silver purse was presented to the bride and groom-to-be by president Johnny Maxwell. Lewis and Shirley responded in well chosen words. Everyone joined in wishing them well.

A number of Circle Eight members motored to Elk Point on June 6th to the Jamboree in the new school auditorium. Everyone enjoyed the gay evening.

Our first open-air dance will be in the band shell at the Vermilion park on Saturday, June 20th. Will our members please bring sandwiches as we do at Bowtell? Come out folks and let's square 'em up at the Vermilion park.

The winners in the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion whist drive on June 5 were: Ladies 1st, Mrs. A. Burton; 2nd, Mrs. Michael; 3rd, Mrs. O. Repp. Gents 1st, Anne Anderson (playing as a gent); 2nd, Percy Cross; 3rd, Betty Moses (playing as a gent); travellers prize, Mrs. Johnson, Bill Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. West are visiting their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Holte in Winnipeg this week.

WILDMERE WAILS

On Friday evening we had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Ashley Cooper give a short talk on Social Credit, and he brought out some very interesting points. As it had been track meet day at Kitscoty many did not get home in time to attend. He also brought along a film "Tim's Choice" which was very good. It is too bad more of the 4-H club members hadn't seen it. Mr. Cooper was accompanied by H. Hodgins, E. Schurman and Mrs. Cooper. All we can say is good luck to Ashley on June 18.

The writer and Mrs. Ken Shepherd attended the wedding of Shirley Underdown and Lewis Highberg on Saturday. We wish them many years of happiness together.

We were sorry to hear of the passing of Miss Grace Bury. Miss Bury had lived a good, long and useful life. We extend heartfelt sympathy to her relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ford of Vermilion spent a few days visiting their daughter and family Mrs. F. Gibson of Basswood last week.

There was a good attendance at church on Sunday evening. The series of sermons that Mr. Nicholls is giving are indeed interesting. We have now heard sermons on loyalty, courage and patience and the [illegible] play in our everyday lives.

Remember folks the [illegible] Home and School meeting will be held at Preston Central on Monday, June 15th. Plan to attend. Mrs. R. Smith and Mrs. Wallington will bring the lunch that evening.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haines and family were visitors at the Wallington home. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sweeney and family and Ian Clark called at the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Garnett and son Roy of Basswood are planning on a trip back to England in July. It is thirty years since these fine people came to Canada with their small children. We all hope they can go and wish them an enjoyable voyage.

Our councillor Mr. Wilson has made a fine job of our coulee hill and the new part is now gravelled. Certainly makes a difference to go straight across those sloughs at Mr. Bell's.

Last but not least — Remember to vote on Thursday, June 18th. In our district vote at the Basswood Community hall.

Of Many Things . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

Can scarcely wait to pass this tip along to you readers. It is something I have known for a long time, but last night, at a party, I had it confirmed by a professor of psychology. Keep reading, because this little hint is worth its weight in gold to you and your folks.

A lady had remarked in the party small talk, that she had a friend who was always a delight to be with because he knows every inch of his city and all the history back of it, and is forever surprising you with new information.

I piped up to tell about a farmer, near Pilot Mound, who is a walking encyclopedia as far as his own district is concerned. Knows every farm, every ravine and the source of every creek or river. "Most interesting man you ever met," I said.

At this point the professor said "You know I haven't met either of these men. Yet I can tell you something about them, just as certainly as if I'd known them all my life."

I guess we all looked a little doubtful. Anyhow the professor turned to me. "Your farmer at Pilot Mound — he's well-to-do, a steady type of chap, never flustered, and he improves his position every year. His fields are weed-free, his buildings above average, and he is known for his common sense. He doesn't [illegible] for every new fad, yet he doesn't resist progress. Right?"

"Dead right," I agreed, "you must have been reading his mail."

The professor smiled and began to tell the lady next to me the style and dimension of her friend until she cried, "That's enough . . . you must have known him!"

"No," said the professor, "but there are certain qualities in people who know their city or district inch by inch. These are men or women who have made contact with their environment. In some it comes naturally. In others, it is acquired. It is either a mark of character, or it builds character or . . . as most of us think . . . both at the one time. It's healthy in every way to make complete contact with your immediate [illegible] with your environment in countless ways. You ought to try it. Now, take this street we're on. . ."

You know he's right. I am sure of it. I have seen enough of that sureness of foot and thought in men like my farmer friend to be convinced. When I moved to Manitoba some years ago, I bought a couple of books on the history of the province and a few travel books too. Did me a lot of good. I still get lost once in awhile, but I'm not the dunderhead I used to be. Guess maybe I am making contact with my environment.

Why don't you try it? Now, take that house you live in. . .

The Homemaker

NANCY HOOPER
District Home Economist
Wainwright, Alta.

In choosing fabrics, homemakers must now choose from natural fibers, synthetic fibers or blends. Then in addition, special finishes are being given to our old familiar fabrics to put them in the wash and wear class. To obtain this special finish, the fabrics (usually cotton) are run through a bath containing a form of resin. This resin [illegible] coats or penetrates the surface of the fabrics providing a finish which provides the natural fiber with characteristics similar to man-made fibers.

Cottons which have been resin-treated need no starching and little or no [illegible], but to retain these characteristics the resin-treated cottons must receive special care.

Several of the new resin finished cottons can be bleached with a chlorine bleach. When purchasing a cotton with a resin finish, the hang tag should be carefully studied. If the laundering instructions caution against the use of a chlorine bleach, mark the garment with a few stitches of thread reminding you not to use chlorine bleach. In some of these resin-treated fabrics, if chlorine is retained it may discolor or deteriorate the cotton. Yellow spots may appear. These may be removed by a commercial color remover. Follow the package directions. If bleaching is necessary later, use a perborate (powder) bleach.

Unfortunately many of the resin finished fabrics should not be subjected to heat. If the hang tag does not state that the fabric is wash and wear, it should be washed in cold water. If dried in a dryer, remove these garments when slightly damp.

Synthetic detergents should not be used on some of the resin-treated fabrics. Use soap instead and if you are in an area where the water is hard, add water softener to both wash and rinse waters.

Hon. A. J. Hooke To Turn Sod At F. U. A. Camp

It was announced today in Edmonton by A. F. McCalla, Junior F. U. A. Camp Committee Chairman, that the Honorable A. J. Hooke, Minister of Municipal Affairs for the Provincial Government, will officially turn the sod to kick off the Farmers' Union Camp building program. The event will take place during the program at Gold Eye Lake on June 12. The Camp Committee has been planning for some time a Car Caravan in to the camp site on Farmers' Day and this will be an additional attraction. The caravan will leave the junction of highways 2 and 11 three miles north of Red Deer at 10:00 a.m. in the morning and proceed to the camp site 100 miles west of Red Deer. The sod turning will take place at 3:00 p.m. It is expected that a large turn-out will be present to witness this event.

Mr. McCalla also announced that net receipts from the Provincial finance campaign now totals $5400.00.

Americans visited Canada in fewer numbers in 1958 than they did in 1957 and reduced spending by 5 per cent, the expenditure being $309,000,000.

C.G.I.T. and Explorers Hold Mother And Daughter Banquet at Kitscoty

KITSCOTY. — Fifty - four mothers, daughters and guests sat down to a banquet in the United Church hall here recently. The tables were [illegible] with red, yellow and [illegible] chrysanthemums. The mothers were presented with corsages. Place cards in the form of dressed dolls were made by the Explorers. Margaret Miles was chairman and also proposed the toast to the Queen.

Sandra Gerrits, Chief Explorer, introduced the guests at the head table.

The toast to the Church was proposed by Arlene Christofferson to which the Rev. J. Shortt responded.

Lynall Shortt then presented Mrs. Murray with a gift on behalf of the C.G.I.T.

Beef Club Achievement Day Held At Dewberry June 1st

DEWBERRY — The Dewberry 4-H Beef club held the Achievement Day in Dewberry on June 1st. The calves were brought in during the [illegible] and put in [illegible] barn.

Marley Douglas, District Agriculturist from Vermilion, and Edward Dobko, assistant D. A. for the district, were present. The judging was done by Mr. Duncan of Wainwright. The first class was judging of four calves by club members and Donny Flaney was the winner.

Norman Poitras took first place with his 1080 pound steer in the showmanship competition. In the calf class, Wayne Garnier's took the Grand Champion ribbon, and Reserve Champion was won by the calf owned by Stanley Garnier.

A banquet, catered to by the Dewberry Ladies Aid, followed the stock show, and was held in the Dewberry Hall.

A trophy, presented by Mr. Dennil, was won by Wayne Garnier. It was a replica of a 4-H calf, and will be kept by Wayne, as Mr. Dennil has promised to donate another trophy for next year's competition.

Don Braithwaite, the club leader, was presented with a token of the appreciation felt by the club members for his help in their work during the past year.

The new Assistant District Agriculturist, Mr. Dobko was introduced by John Anderson, Master of Ceremonies at the banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Bentley of the School of Agriculture at Vermilion, gave a joint talk on their recent experiences while in Egypt. They showed slides of scenes in that country and explained the way of life in the Middle East.

Ralph McGray Tells Election Stories

RIVERTON -- In honor of the visit of Ralph McGray who, in the early days homesteaded in the Riverton district and farmed and ranched extensively, a dinner was held at the home of Miss Ellen Timanson. About 1920 Ralph left Riverton for California where he is now a large scale contractor.

The guests at the banquet were old timers who knew him in the early days, Mr. and Mrs. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Joy, Mr. and Mrs. Sol East, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Timanson, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Green, Mrs. Durnin, Mrs. George Berry and Graham Skinner.

INCIDENTS OF FORMER ELECTIONS TOLD

Naturally with so many present who have taken an active interest in politics, and since this is election month, some incidents were recounted of former elections. It was told of the time that Jim Lowry spoke at Riverton while the Liberals were in power in Edmonton. He said "Which do you want, the Liberal paper railway, or the Conservative steel railways?" In those days the grain etc. was hauled to Islay or Kitscoty, a distance of about 25 miles, so everyone was keenly interested in the railway problem. J. Lowry, so Tom Lee says, got elected by just two votes.

Another time J. I. Jones was speaking at a meeting in the interests of J. W. G. Morrison. During the meeting the rain came down in torrents. So J. I. got his car stuck. Some Riverton boys who were at the meeting in the interests of Henry Spencer helped to get him going again. J. I. was so grateful for the help that, for a good many years he supported his helpers' cause.

After the banquet Ralph showed slides of his many travels. He had pictures of a street in Las Vegas where he said all the buildings were gambling places, and where they fed a person all he wanted to eat and drink, knowing that on the average they would be more than repaid through their attractive sucker bait.

New District Agriculturists Appointed

Leonard Bauer has been appointed assistant district agriculturist at Red Deer succeeding I. Trevor Jones who has been transferred to the position of district agriculturist at Grande Prairie. Mr. Bauer was raised in the Hilda district in Southern Alberta where he farmed with his parents while attending high school and the University of Alberta from which he graduated this year. During the summer months of 1958 he was appointed summer assistant with the district agriculturist at Ponoka and at Falher. He assumed his new duties on May 25th.

Clarence J. Roth has been appointed assistant district agriculturist at Camrose. He was summer assistant at the same office in 1958 and at St. Paul. He spent his early years up to the time of enrollment at university farming with his parents in the Bow Island district where he operated a dry land and irrigation farm. He worked on land survey with the Irrigation Extension service at Lethbridge for one summer. While attending university Clarence was active in student activities and was president of the Agricultural Society during the 1958-59 term. He received his degree in Agriculture this year. He has now moved to Camrose and has assumed his new duties at that point.

Inflation Hedge

The battle for the saver's dollar is likely to take on a new vigor before long, reports Paul Deacon in The Financial Post.

The variable annuity, a new form of savings instrument designed to protect annuitants from the loss in the dollar's purchasing power, has just received the green light from the New Jersey state legislature.

If the bill, which makes possible the sale of variable annuities in that key state, is signed by the governor as expected, it will be a major step toward widespread offering of this controversial annuity instrument by leading life insurance companies.

Most insurance men agree that if the variable annuities catch on in the U. S. they will spread quickly to Canada.

Good News for Homemakers

BUDGET BEATERS

Windy March days make everyone's eyes light up to the warm and cheery greetings of a casserole bubbling along in the oven.

Mighty pleasant too, is the freedom for the cook when she plans a one-dish supper around a casserole or top-of-stove meal.

The family will say—"Gosh, Mom, we never had it so good!" That kind of family talk convinces Mom she's the world's best cook.

Isn't it even better when she can have these heart warming compliments—with meals that help her budget for a spring wardrobe.

When the wind and weather say stay home, make your kitchen warm and inviting for once with these four Budget Beaters.

SOUPER SCRAMBLED EGGS

Stir 1 can Cream of Mushroom Soup until smooth; blend with 8 slightly beaten eggs, dash of black pepper. Melt 2 tablespoons shortening in skillet; pour in egg mixture. Cook slowly until eggs are set, stirring occasionally. 6 servings. For variety, use 1 can Cream of Chicken Soup or Vegetable Soup instead of Cream of Mushroom.

SOUPER BURGERS

Brown 1 pound ground beef and ½ cup chopped onion in heavy skillet; stir to separate meat particles. Add 1 can Vegetable Soup, 2 tablespoons ketchup, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, dash black pepper; simmer about 5 minutes. Serve on toasted buttered buns. Makes 6 sandwiches.

SOUPER [illegible] CASSEROLE

In a 1½ quart casserole, blend 1 can Cream of Celery Soup and ½ cup milk. Add 1 can (6 ounces) flaked tuna or salmon, 1 cup cooked medium noodles, 1 cup cooked green beans and 1 tablespoon [illegible] onion, 1 tablespoon [illegible] and 2 teaspoons grated lemon rind. UNITED STATES SCIENCE AWARD WON BY CANADIAN

CUTS OFF WATER

A C Douglas, Black Creek, Ontario near Fort Erie has turned the main valve in his filtration plant and cut off the water in 80 houses and a school in a nearby housing development. The development, known as Douglastown, was built by Black Creek Properties, of which Douglas is president. The homeowners pay Douglas $3.75 monthly for water from his filtration plant, it is believed to be the only one of its kind in the province of Ontario. Mr Douglas says he offered the plant to Willoughby township for $100,000 and they refused to buy. He said he was then forced to cut off the supply because capital costs of running the plant are too much for him.

"DEEP FREEZE" TREATMENT FOR BOY IN COMA

Little Roger Martel, 5, of North Bay, Ont., has been in a coma for 30 days. He was struck by a car April 6 and has been able only to blink his eyes occasionally since that date. Roger's sister brought him a panda bear for his fifth birthday but he hasn't seen it yet. Two days after the accident doctors packed him in ice and lowered his body temperature. The doctors hope the deep freeze will let the brain heal by slowing bodily functions, but the boy may remain in a coma indefinitely or even die. Mr. Martel, a mechanic drives every day to a nearby railway siding, then to the hospital with more ice as the doctors feared they may run short.

CANADIAN ENGINEERS BRING PROGRESS TO PAKISTAN

Canadian professional engineers are helping to bring progress to under-developed nations in the far corners of the earth under the Colombo Plan. A case in point is the huge Warsak hydro-electric power project in northwest Pakistan. Located on the Kabul river, the project consists of four hydro-electric generating units, each with a capacity of 40,000 kilowatts. When completed next spring the project will supply energy to a [illegible] square mile region and also provide irrigation for 100,000 acres of arid land. In addition to the 125 Canadian engineers and technical personnel employed on the huge project, there are also 10,000 native [illegible]. The Colombo Plan provides all engineering services, construction services and equipment. Picture shows Mr. S. L. Miller of [illegible] and Mr. H. F. [illegible], [illegible], Ont., at the [illegible] end of the Warsak dam powerhouse.

A CAR FOR A QUEEN

Little Ann Tuttle admires the rear compartment of the Cadillac Fleetwood Sedan which has been adapted and specially fitted for the Royal Tour of Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip. Two individually powered rear seats, upholstered in silver grey [illegible] Carriage cloth, are features of the rear compartment of the car. Matching cushions and a lap rug of the same material — the latter carrying the Royal Crest embroidered in real gold — as well as grey mouton fleece covering and individual hassocks, complete the decor of the rear compartment. The car is also specially equipped with twin air conditioning units, powered sliding sunshine roof panel and a remote control radio knob at the Queen's right hand. Shown top, left, is a rear view of the exterior of the Royal Cadillac, which illustrates the detachable bubble of optically perfect plexiglass. It can be removed or installed in minutes. Lower left shows the car emerging from one of the RCAF's C-119 "Flying Boxcar" which will transport it to many Canadian points and to Chicago during the Royal Tour.

Health Unit Notes

SLEEP

Adequate sleep is very necessary for all of us. It gives our bodies a chance to recover from tiredness and fatigue. Tiredness is a blessing and a safety valve since without it we would wear our bodies out and die.

Use of our muscles produces a waste product called lactic acid which is removed by the blood and finally excreted. Excessive use of our muscles or group of muscles produces an accumulation of lactic acid which produces the sensation we know as fatigue. As with muscles so with all other processes of the body, activities leads to fatigue and recovery comes only by rest. Both mental work and emotional activity can tire the whole body.

When the whole body gets tired we become sleepy and gradually loose consciousness. In sleep the activity of the mind (except in dreams) quietens, muscles relax, the heart beats fewer times per minute and respiration slows down. During sleep waste products are removed and the "wear and tear" repaired. We also lose around a pound in weight.

Loss of sleep affects speed, accuracy, alertness and learning capacity. These are of a temporary nature but lack of sleep may injure permanently. In boys between the ages of 15 and 18, growth is rapid and in girls between ages 14 and 17, and if fatigue consumes energy than growth in size and strength is likely to suffer. Many children are underweight not because of poor feeding but due to lack of rest. When such children spend long hours in sleep and take rest periods during the day, they promptly gain weight. Lowering of body resistance is another injurious effect of fatigue and the body is left defenceless against infection and particularly TB. It is significant that between the ages of 15 and 25 the death rate from TB rises sharply.

A healthy tiredness produces the best sleep, but over tiredness leads to restlessness and insomnia. The activities of the day should be turned off gradually during the evening hours, and exciting games, movies, bloodcurdling detective stories cannot do that. Routine is very important and if one forms the habit of being in bed at a certain time each night, slumber will come more quickly.

The bed, mattress and surroundings are most important for a good night's sleep. The mattress should be at least 39 inches wide, the bed should be neither too hard nor too soft, coil springs are best. Sleeping on a very hard and stiff spring robs the sleeper (next day) of about 12% energy as measured by his ability to do severe mental work. Sheets and blankets should be wide enough to hang over the bed and should not be tucked in too tightly. Finally the surroundings should be carefully considered. Coolness, quiet colors, and silence invite relaxation. Noises and light are the enemies of sleep.

THE QUANTITY OF SLEEP

Generally speaking growing children should have at least ten hours and youths in their teens at least eight hours sleep.

The use of sleeping powders in tablets should never be used in health, but only when prescribed by a doctor. If in spite of normal living sleep is poor, a doctor should be consulted.

Tiredness is the signal for rest and tiredness carried to the point of fatigue is damaging. Adequate sleep is vital for mental and physical fitness.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

If you haven't had your car prepared for the hot days ahead, attend to it now. Your local service station will be glad to:

Drain the winter anti-freeze and refill radiator with water containing a rust inhibitor; Remove the light oil and put in heavier grade oil (if you've been using the latest, premium quality oil — stay with it. It's good all year round).

Give the car a complete lubrication; Check the battery and entire electrical system; Switch the tires and test condition of fan belt, and examine the radiator hose for possible wear. Re-set the car's thermostat if it has been regulated for winter weather; Check the alignment of your wheels and see if the headlights are focused properly (hard winter driving can get them out of adjustment).

Remember, your car's in for plenty of hard, hot work this summer. A car check-up now will help insure happier, safer driving when the weather is really warm.

Beef Will Ride High

Beef price will ride high for some time, says The Financial Post.

Pork looks like it will stagger along under a crushing oversupply position.

There are several 'ifs' in the situation. But at least there are no certain signs of any change in the pattern, except seasonal swings, for the next year or longer.

Right now, beef prices are historically high and pork prices are skidding.

Aged Cyclist Pedals 126 Miles Non-Stop

MONTREAL — Dick Dechene, 59, Canada's oldest competitive amateur cyclist, and a grandfather of seven, recently completed a non-stop bicycle run from Montreal to Ottawa. He covered the 126 miles in seven hours and 25 minutes.

Dechene, a dining car steward aboard the CNR's Super Continental, took up cycling 18 years ago and, since then, has been an enthusiastic competitor in many cycling events. In spite of his age, he has never failed to finish a race and has won a number of trophies. He averages from 3,500 to 4,000 practice miles a year about a third of it during the winter on special rollers in his [illegible].

Camp Planned For Diabetic Children

The [illegible] annual Diabetic [illegible] camp will be held this summer from August 15th to 29th. The camp makes it possible for all diabetic children from 6 to 18 years of age to enjoy the benefits of wholesome camping and at the same time to receive essential medical attention. It is non-sectarian, non-racial and non-profit, the only criterion for acceptance being the need of the diabetic child.

The camp, sponsored by the Edmonton and district branch of the Canadian Diabetic Association will be held at the Anglican church camp-site on Kapasiwin Beach, Lake Wabamun, 39 miles west of Edmonton. Officials of the camp committee stress that every diabetic child who wishes to attend may do so regardless of ability to pay. The Canadian Diabetic Association, through donations to its camp fund, covers its expenses. The camp offers a full programme, including swimming, handicrafts, camp fires, sing-songs, boating, ball games, hikes, weiner roasts, square dancing and films. The medical programme offers advantages which cannot be obtained at home. The child has an excellent opportunity for proper treatment and regulation of his diabetes while at the same time he learns more of his condition and gains in self-confidence during his association with other diabetic children.

In addition to the programme director and supervising counsellors, a medical team consisting of physicians, nurses, a dietitian and laboratory technicians are on duty at all times.

Applications for the camp are being accepted by Mrs. J. V. McKague, 10723-133 Street, Edmonton.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Medicine In Space

The launching of our Earth's first artificial moon is now scheduled for next year. This project, undertaken as part of the International Geophysical Year, marks man's first step into interplanetary space, and scientists are already making plans for [illegible] to follow.

Medical scientists in particular are studying the problems which the human [illegible] will have to meet in the airless void between planets. At the School of Space Medicine at Randolph Field, Texas, U. S. Air Force scientists under the direction of Dr. Heinz Haber are testing men's reactions to heavy acceleration pressures, the possible effects of cosmic rays, and the problems of living inside a sealed environment.

One of the toughest questions of space medicine is how man will react to [illegible] a situation in which he [illegible] weight. It is possible to create such conditions on Earth for only a few seconds at a time, but space men will be subjected to them most of the time. If the result is simply vertigo, that can be dealt with by such anti-dizziness drugs as [illegible]. But many research workers suspect that total weightlessness may result in nearly total confusion of the senses. No final answer to this question is expected [illegible] man has actually undertaken this great adventure itself.

The time is coming faster than many people realize, however. An unmanned instrument carrying rocket will circle the Moon some time during the next five years according to experts George Gamow and Krafft Ehricke - and the man carrying vehicle will not be far behind.

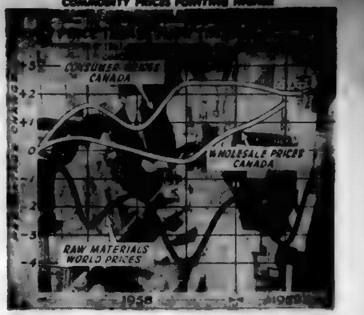
COMMODITY PRICES POINTING HIGHER



Better times in North America are helping to push most prices higher. Except for foodstuffs, consumers can expect to pay more for many goods. Higher trends in industrial material and wholesale prices promise to end the current decline in consumer prices. Sugar and coffee are becoming cheaper thanks to abundant world crops. Cotton goods should dip this year and possibly petroleum products, but commodities pointing higher are shoes, leather goods, lumber and metals. The chart above shows what is happening to prices.

ALBERTA NEEDS THE LIBERAL PROGRAM

Vote for ALBERTA

WHY?

With better management, Alberta would not now be facing a terrific deficit . . . problems in education . . . disgruntled municipalities . . . irate taxpayers . . . social welfare dissatisfaction. What is needed is a strong, virile, Alberta-conscious Liberal Administration. The LIBERAL 12 point action program includes—

- A just share of provincial revenues to municipalities.
- Better education facilities.
- A farm loan up to $25,000.
- Utilization of our Natural Resources to fully develop industrial opportunities.
- Attention to the North instead of neglect.

WOODVALE NOTES

We have to go back to May to report a pleasant visit Mrs. Gladys [illegible] had from her cousin Mrs. Barbara Clark of Saskatoon, who brought her friend Miss Joan Anderson with her. They came by car and went on to Edmonton.

The Red Cross group met at the home of Mrs. M. Watson on June 4th to work a quilt, with Mrs. Thelma Sweeney and Mrs. Della Lysons again as visitors or should we say, new members? No plans as yet could be made for the picnic. The quilt top worked was a pretty one, made and donated by Mrs. H. P. Long of Vermilion. The next meeting will be held on July 2 at the home of Mrs. Van Wageningen. Everyone admired Mrs. Watson's garden as it looked better than most in this dry season. A lovely lunch provided by the hostess was much enjoyed.

Ken Watt bought a large barn north of Clandonald and it required five days for Mix Movers to move it to the farm. It will be made into a hog barn.

Gordon Dickson had a cement pouring bee for a foundation for a new barn, his neighbors all coming over to give him a hand.

Keith King also had a dozen friends and neighbors over recently to pour cement for the foundation of his new home.

Mrs. Aubrey King and daughter Joy of Edmonton have left for a three weeks' vacation to Eastern Canada and the States. Mrs. Thompson of Thorncliff school is staying for that time at the King home where her husband is working on the new house.

The writer spent a week in Calgary and Banff to visit her daughter and niece and families, taken there by her two week end guests Albertha Lensbock and Gerda Leer.

Church services are being held at Tolland every Sunday in June at 3:30 p.m. by Rev. O Nugent of Edmonton.

Mr and Mrs. D McGrath and Margaret went to Edmonton last week and had a look around Alberta college where Margaret might go to finish her studies in the fall.

The directors of the Woodvale Mutual Telephone Co. held a meeting on June 2 at Watson hall and set June 25th as the workday for the members to work on and move the line south of highway 16.

A thank you letter was read from the Korean orphanages for a parcel sent in the fall. They hoped the group would keep on remembering them as assistance is still badly needed.

CREDIT UNION SOCIAL

For their June meeting the Vermilion Savings and Credit Union came to the home of Mrs. Van Wageningen and brought their wives and children who gathered around a campfire and roasted weiners, the men joining them after the meeting. D. Folk led a sing-song and ghost stories were told, keeping some of them spellbound. The executive very kindly gave the hostess a large box of chocolates. We will have to watch that waistline!

The thunder clouds hovering around all day Monday did not bring any appreciable precipitation to the Woodvale district as far as we know. Rain is badly needed everywhere in this M.D.

Fifty per cent of the world's children get no education. One of the reasons is that they don't even have enough pencils and paper to go around the classroom. CARE of Canada school kits are enabling children around the world to gain the knowledge to develop their abilities.

For once I find myself praising the CBC.

Recently in Winnipeg CBC television station interrupted its regular schedule of national programs to put on a local effort in aid of the community chest campaign. With one exception, the talent was local.

Perhaps there were a few flaws. I thought that there was too much use of the "Ladies and Gentlemen" salutation. However, as a show, it was a hit. It wasn't overproduced. It had spontaneity. The music, a Winnipeg man, was far above average. One of the singers, Red Alix, disc jockey on a local private station, CJOB, was a knockout. Everyone seemed at ease, there was none of the phony sophistication we've been getting in so many of the Toronto shows. Although I must say that even Toronto has reformed in that regard (particularly on the program "Showtime" which is now thoroughly professional.) I suspect that it cost very little to put on this Winnipeg effort, yet it was very worthwhile.

Why not more of the same?

In the old days, when CBC began, we were led to believe that they would make a genuine effort to make use of talent right across the country. Shows originated from Regina, Winnipeg, Prince Albert — every little city in the nation, both from private stations and CBC-owned stations. Today, however, I doubt if more than 5% of the entire Canadian schedule originates outside Montreal, Toronto. Did we build the costly microwave system to bring Toronto to the rest of Canada? What's the matter with Regina, London, Red Deer, Lethbridge, Moncton, St. John, Barrie, Edmonton? I know there is a great deal of talent in Edmonton, for example. Surely one show a month!

Perhaps this Winnipeg effort indicates some new thinking at CBC headquarters, and a return to the days when their talent scouts held regular auditioning sessions across the country. Let us hope so.

It has often seemed to us, judging from the accents, that radio and television talent from London, England is more likely to get a CBC break than is talent from London, Ontario, let alone Moose Jaw, Red Deer or Trail.

It seems to us the CBC could save a great deal of the taxpayers' money and give us a good deal more refreshing entertainment by originating more programs from outside Toronto.

Fire Damages New Home

Fire on Saturday morning, May 30 at 5 o'clock was discovered in the house recently moved into Pilkieville by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Woodruff. While actual flame damage was not great there was considerable smoke damage to clothes and furnishings.

The house was completely furnished and all of Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff's personal belongings were there as they planned to move into their new town home the next day.

To the People Of Alexandra Constituency

It is appropriate that, in this last weekly message before the election, we should return to the topic of education. In a previous message the excessive centralization of educational administration was touched upon. Let us now consider the courses that our schools offer, and try to decide whether they are good enough.

Conservatives believe that one of the functions of the school system is to prepare children for citizenship. We believe that a citizen cannot understand the present unless he knows a little about the past.

What do Alberta schools offer to meet this need? A solid grounding in the history of their country and its institutions? Not at all. Instead, there is a thin pablum called "social studies" which offers a little information about a great many things, from the price of tin in Malaya to railway systems of Argentina.

What of Canadian history? It is practically lost in the confusion. What of local history? It is an unknown factor completely. Suppose a teacher is interested and desires to give his students information about his province's or community's history. Is it available? Yes by writing to the proper address in Saskatchewan or Ottawa. What of his own province? He is promised that, under the "Five Year Plan" archives will be built. Saskatchewan, our sister province has had provincial archives for some years and encourages the gathering and preservation of local history.

Canada is one of the few bilingual countries in the world and more and more our public men and women are making special efforts to learn French. What do our Alberta schools offer? At one time our schools offered a three-year course in that subject and it was recognized that that was not enough. The present government's way of dealing with the problem was to bring in a two-year course using a textbook that had been designed for British schools! It is general knowledge among teachers that the course is completely inadequate.

Conservatives believe that these facts are in themselves an indictment of Social Credit policy in education. A Conservative government would make a thorough review of the curricula presented in Alberta schools, and would make the many basic changes which are necessary.

TIPPING OUT

There will be cheers from almost every traveller at news from the spring conference of world airlines in Switzerland, says The Financial Post. Tipping, already banned by many lines, is to be cut out everywhere.

To most travellers, tipping is a nuisance — and sometimes a very expensive nuisance. With postwar prosperity, the expectation that travellers will tip — regardless of service given — has spread far and wide. But it's no substitute for better pay for employees.

One of the very considerable advantages enjoyed by air travel in and out of Canada has been the no-tipping rule. It has perhaps created as much favorable comments as have the faster, smoother flights.

TO THE PEOPLE IN THE VERMILION CONSTITUENCY

June 18th is drawing nearer and nearer . . This is the day to get to the polls and exercise our franchise and vote.

We have long now been faced with a government that believes in centralization, and with no forward look into the future of this province. Concentration on centralization has cost the taxpayer more and more every year. We, the Progressive-Conservative party in Alberta, believe in decentralization and flexibility. We will, when elected on June 18th, increase the supplementary pension for old age pensioners by five dollars per month. We believe the elderly persons in Alberta deserve to receive more personal treatment. The present policy of dealing with their want through impersonal forms and curt notes will be ended, and instead they will talk to a person from their own area who knows their individual needs. Cottage type homes will permit elderly couples to maintain their dignity and their independence, and will be planned on the basis that will permit the couples to manage on their old age pension and supplementary allowance.

We will co-operate [illegible] in the provision of low rental housing for senior citizens who seek to establish independent small homes of their own, and will cooperate fully with public-spirited citizens' organizations that are attempting to provide homes for the aged.

AGRICULTURE

When elected on June 18th, we will deal firstly with the RURAL ELECTRIFICATION SITUATION in this province.

We will encourage industry to settle in municipalities in rural points where it will provide markets for special crops, off-season labour, for farm workers, and improve the tax position of country towns and villages. A Progressive-Conservative government will re-examine agricultural education in Alberta, modernize the curriculum, re-open the Peace River country agricultural school at Fairview, and study the establishment of an agricultural school in Southern Alberta; establish vocation schools for adult farmers; provide instruction in such institutions in farm management and cost accounting.

We will provide scholarships, bursaries and loans to young farm people to maintain enrolment at agricultural schools. We will provide farm improvement loans up to $25,000.00, at an interest rate of 1% over the province's borrowing rate, and at a flat 4% interest rate to young farmers over land, building, equipment, breaking and clearing, and other land improvements, breeding stock, and, in general, all farm operations.

Testing for tuberculosis will be made compulsory throughout the province and testing for bang's disease will be compulsory and will be paid for from the provincial treasury. An intensified program of research into animal diseases will be instituted.

We will establish a uniform policy on rural telephones, where rural and urban will receive equitable treatment.

We will, together with the Federal government, establish a crop insurance program that will insure crops and wipe out the glaring inequities in the Prairie Farm Assistance Act.

We will have farmers direct their own industry, and will have farmers serve on commissions or boards, and investigating bodies that might from to time be necessary, dealing with matters directly affecting the farming industry.

KIRBY CALLS FOR BETTER SCHOOL PROGRAM

(An editorial from The Calgary Herald, May [illegible])

Citizens who are concerned about the present state of elementary and high school education in Alberta ought to be impressed by the forthright statement on the subject made by the provincial Conservative leader on Thursday.

In an election speech in Lloydminster, Mr. W J. C Kirby came out strongly against dilution of curricula with such time-wasting courses as health and personal development for which credits are actually granted and by which [illegible].

Mr Kirby intimated that his party, if it wins office, will go to work on an overdue revision of the educational system.

It is heartening to know someone in this election campaign is coming out on behalf of sound education for Alberta youth. Certainly the complacent platitudes emanating from the tired and dispirited Social Credit leaders on education offer no hope for improvement.

It was the Social Credit government which devitalized the Alberta educational program in the first place. And it is extremely unlikely that Social Credit leaders who have created the new system will do anything to kill off their [illegible].

It is extremely unfortunate that the Cameron commission has not produced its report in advance of the current election. If this report were now available its recommendations could be debated frankly and the public on the basis of party and candidate stands on important educational issues of the day, could help determine educational policy.

Social Credit representatives have cautiously intimated they will be disposed to implement such recommendations as the Cameron commission makes as are deemed practicable. This is a pretty fair indication of how few changes are likely to be made in actuality. Like other commission reports obtained by Social Credit administrations, this one will more than likely end up in a dusty pigeonhole.

That there is a lot wrong with Alberta education has been obvious for a long time. Parents anxious to see their children become soundly educated have realized it. And the provincial conservative party, [illegible] resort to bland generalities but comes right out with specific proposals to restore virility to our school program, also realizes it.

Mr Kirby proposes elimination of elective courses of doubtful value, calls for greater emphasis on fundamental subjects such as literature, mathematics, history, geography and languages.

Paradise Valley Graduands Hear Hon. A. O. Aalborg Speak

PARADISE VALLEY. — On Friday, May 8th, the parents, honored guests and teachers gathered in the Paradise Valley school auditorium to honor the grade 12 graduating class. The graduands were June Adams, Alice Howe, Elsie Malka, Lois Reid, Edna Swean, Helga Jegberger, Don Churchill, David Bedwell, Wayne Davidson, Duncan Teasdale, Don Henry, Gordon Wild and Bernard Welin.

The auditorium was attractively decorated with each graduand's silhouette mounted on the walls as pictures. The back wall was traditionally decorated with the scroll and mortarboard above which hung a semi-circle of flowers. The front curtain was decorated with white flowers forming a large horseshoe and spelling "Good Luck Grads 1959." Adding to the attractiveness of the decorations were the girl grads in white formals with the boy grads in their contrasting dark suits. Place cards for the banquet were the scroll and mortarboard with the names printed on the scroll. Wayne Davidson and Helga Jegberger received the guests at the banquet on behalf of the graduands.

EDNA SWEAN IS CLASS HISTORIAN

The banquet began with Rev. Mr. MacDonald asking the Blessing. Following the banquet Mr. Clark, the toastmaster, proposed the toast to the Queen which was followed by O Canada. After the introduction of the head table and the graduands, Edna Swean gave the class history in which she explained how th present class was formed. She also presented Mrs. Aalborg with a bouquet of flowers from four of the graduating class who were taught by Mrs. Aalborg in grade one. The chairman of the local school board, Mr. W. P. Davidson, gave a short resume of the accomplishments of the past year. Mrs. Walter then proposed a fitting toast to the graduands to which Elsie Malka replied. Mr. Clark read a telegram received from Ernie Walter Jr., a former classmate of the graduands who is now attending St. Anthony's College, congratulating the graduands and wishing them good luck. The toast to the parents was given by Don Churchill after which each student presented their parents with a gift. Mr. Wild on behalf of the parents responded. Mr. A. Weeks, the Divisional trustee, told of the accomplishments of the Board and congratulated the graduating class. Bernard Welin proposed a toast to the teaching staff to which Mrs. Welsh replied. The guest artist of the evening was Mr Harold Angeltvedt of Provost who played a trumpet solo entitled "My Best to You". He was accompanied by Mrs. Spornetz of Edgerton. Mr Walter followed the usual procedure of presenting each of the graduands with a class ring and recalling the various incidents of their school life. Helga Jegberger replied thanking the Students' Union for the mementos.

ALICE HOWE IS VALEDICTORIAN

Alice Howe, Valedictorian, was introduced by Mr Clark. Alice capably conveyed the thoughts of the class and thanked the teachers for their guidance and the parents for their encouragement. Mr. Simonson, the superintendent of schools, introduced the guest speaker, Mr. A O. Aalborg, the Minister of Education. He expressed his pleasure in being able to attend the Paradise Valley graduation exercises. After recalling old memories of the students, he extended his sincere best wishes to the graduands for their future.

HONOUR DANCES

At 9:30 the graduation dance got underway with the Spornetz orchestra of Edgerton supplying the enjoyable music. The guests were received by Mrs. Gallagher, Ruth Walter, Gordon Wild and Mr. Walter. Invitations were received by Carol Weeks. The first dance was led by the girl graduands and their fathers, boy graduands and their mothers, the staff and former students. Roy Kirkpatrick capably acted as M.C. during the evening. A buffet style lunch was being served during the evening, with the iced punch a special attraction. The enjoyable event was brought to a close with a word of thanks by Helga Jegberger on behalf of the Students' Union.

The undergraduates would like to thank everyone who helped to make this affair such a success.

The Bible Today

A labor of love was performed by John C Cardwell of Chicago, a retired railroad telegrapher who recently died at the age of 92. Working four to eight hours a day since 1948 he spent six years and two months copying out the Bible in longhand.

He declared that he had got more from copying out the Bible once, than he had in all the 100 times he had read the whole Bible.

Suggested Scripture readings for next week:

Sunday, June 14 — 2 Kings 5 13-27.
Monday, June 15 — Rev. 20: 1 15.
Tuesday, June 16 — Rev. 21 1-14.
Wednesday, June 17 — Rev. 2:-13, 22:6.
Thursday, June 18 — 2 Chronicles 17:1-13.
Friday, June 19 — 2 Chronicles, 19:1-11.
Saturday, June 20 — 2 Chronicles 20:1-13.

Dust Storms Cause Concern

In the wake of high winds that threatened to touch off serious dust storms, prairie farmers are being urged to ditch their diskers and treasure their trash cover.

J. Roe Foster, superintendent of the Federal Experimental Farm at Indian Head Sask., said damage would have been much worse had the temperatures been in the 80's and the humidity in the 25 per cent range.

Although temperatures were low and the humidity high, fields with no trash cover were eroded and three to four inches of soil removed from vulnerable, high, bare spots. Soil accumulated in ditches and fence rows. There was some soil movement even on fields that had good trash cover.

"With this grim warning behind them, farmers should be thinking now about combating this menace which will likely occur again," said Mr Foster.

Crops in many areas were lighter than average in 1958 and this meant less trash. Operators in these areas should put away their diskers, oneways and plows for summerfallow operations. Heavy duty cultivators at shallow depths, duckfoot cultivators, blade and rod-weeders should be the only implements used for summerfallow tillage during the next year.

"Farmers who used the disker last fall or this spring have destroyed 50 per cent of their first line of defence against soil drifting," advised Superintendent Foster.

Use of spraying weeds on land being summerfallowed should be considered. It is, he said, an economical and fast operation. Where mainly susceptible weeds are present, it is just as effective as tillage in killing them.

"One or two less tillage operations this summer could mean the difference between the land staying at home next spring or ending up in the ditch," the superintendent said.

SUMMERFALLOW — 1959

The 1959 summerfallow season is "just around the corner." And the care with which the summerfallow operations are carried out this summer can greatly influence crop yields next year.

Three Factors Important. Three factors should be considered very carefully in planning the fallow program. These are: (1) Care in maintaining a trash cover to protect the soil from wind erosion. (2) Tillage which will most effectively control weeds, particularly perennials. (3) Conservation of moisture.

Stop Soil Drifting. The grim spectre of wind erosion is always with us. Thousands of tons of valuable top soil were lost this Spring through the use of careless farming methods. Let's make sure it doesn't happen again. A good trash cover on medium textured soils plus the use of strip farming on light and heavy soils can solve this problem.

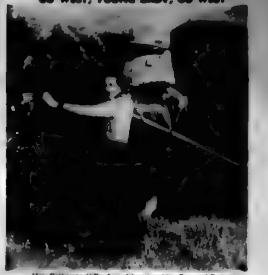
Perennial Weeds a Problem. Today, too much reliance is being placed on selective herbicides in controlling our perennial weeds. Often too little chemical is applied with the result that Canada Thistle and Sow Thistle infestations are increasing by leaps and bounds. A properly conducted summerfallow can do a great deal to weaken or kill Canada thistle or sow thistle. Carefully planned, thorough cultivation is the answer. Allow thistles to grow from 6 to 8 days after they first appear above the ground and then cultivate thoroughly. And remember blades of disc machines and shovels on cultivators must be sharp to do an effective job.

Conserve Moisture. The use of the duckfoot cultivator (at shallow depth) and the rod weeder instead of disc machines results in less drying of the soil. They also conserve more trash and a good trash cover reduces evaporation from the soil surface.

Plan your fallow operations carefully in '59, it will pay dividends next year.

Information on Trash Cover and on Thistle Control are available from local Agents of Companies listed above or Line Elevators Farm Service, 763 Grain Exchange Building, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

GO WEST, YOUNG LADY, GO WEST



Mrs. Catherine O'Keefe and her daughter Tessa of Toronto, Ont., are off to see Canada in a covered wagon which was converted from an old dairy wagon. They left from Barrie, Ont., for Kapuskasing on the first leg of their journey. They hope to reach Vancouver in two years in the rig which cost $320. They will cook all their meals and sleep in the wagon, living like the pioneers of old.

Clandonald and District Activities

CLANDONALD — Friends of Clement Forestall who recently underwent surgery in Edmonton will be pleased to hear that reports are that he is greatly improved in health. At time of writing he has not yet returned home but hopes are held high that he will eventually be fully restored to former health.

We regret to report that both Mick Convey and wife are at present patients in the Vermilion hospital. Mick appears to have picked up an infection in his neck and may be hospitalized for several days.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS FOR CO-OP

The anniversary celebration at Derwent will long be remembered by those who were able to be present. Due to the season and counter attractions not quite as many were present as had been hoped for but in spite of this about three hundred were on hand for the first sitting.

In his address of welcome, Mayor Algot recalled some of the events which had occurred during the twenty-five years in which the Co-op had been in operation. Part of that time there was no bank in Derwent and the firm of Algot and McConnell acted as paymasters. At one time having run out of cash a call for help was sent to brother-in-law Wilbur Currie at Clandonald. Roads being practically non-existent due to weather conditions other means had to be resorted to. A mail bag was filled with scrap iron and the money (some two thousand dollars) placed therein and dispatched by freight. Needless to say the C. P. R. did their part, doubtless quite unaware of the trust being placed in them.

Road crews have just about completed final work on the road which was started last fall from Highway 45 to town. Although gravelled at that time the road did not fully come up to standard and this work has been underway for the past week or more.

Mr and Mrs. Ernie Stanley had a pleasant surprise recently when Ernie's cousin, who farms a few miles out of Ottawa, Ontario, visited them. Mr Stanley was accompanied on the trip by his wife and daughter.

Young Socreds Form Groups At Many Points in Province

During the month of May, five new Young Social Credit groups were formed, in Nanton, Kitscoty, Flatbush, Jarvie and Wetaskiwin. R. L. Hogg of Millerville was elected president of the Nanton group; Steve Kuzius, of Heinsburg, president of the Kitscoty group, Ulrich Schneider, president of Flatbush; John Metulychuk, president of Jarvie and Lavina Thorne president of Wetaskiwin. Membership in this same period tripled.

ALBERTA REPORT

Anders O. Aalborg
Social Credit Candidate for Alexandra

When the people of Alexandra first elected me as their representative to the Alberta Legislature in August 1948 they made it clear to me that it was my duty at all times to uphold and support the Social Credit Government of Premier Ernest Manning, and in so doing to make sure that all the people in the various communities throughout the constituency received the full benefit and advantage which the policies and programs of this sound and progressive administration had to offer in this part of the province. Right from the start the people of Alexandra let me know in no uncertain terms that they believed hard work was good for me, that they were not interested in flowery speeches or fancy promises, but that they would look for positive action and definite constructive results.

Shortly after the general election of August, 1952, Premier Manning called upon me to act as minister of education in his cabinet. In assigning to me as your representative this great responsibility Mr Manning clearly indicated that he, too, thought that hard work was good for me and that he expected action and tangible results in developing and applying the government's policies in this very important field. In addition to carryin on the functions and duties of the minister of education it has also fallen to my lot to prepare and pilot through the legislature a major overhaul of the Liquor Act of the province as well as many major changes in the Election Act.

All of this has meant that for the past eleven years I have led a very interesting and busy life in serving the people of Alexandra as a member of the Provincial Government.

As we look about us in Alexandra today we can see numerous examples of the benefits which the programs of the Social Credit government have brought to this area . . . the good modern schools at several centres, the hard surfacing of highway 16, rural electrification, improved market and local roads, the bridge over the North Saskatchewan at Lea Park, Health Unit services, added hospital facilities; the completion of highway 45 from Clandonald to the provincial boundary, and seed cleaning plants to mention some of the main highlights. Over the years it has given me a great deal of satisfaction to work for these improvements in our area. The kind words of encouragement and the many generous acts of good will, friendship and support which so many citizens of the constituency have extended to me have been a constant source of strength and inspiration for which I am deeply and sincerely grateful.

For the future we have the greatest program ever designed by any Provincial Government in Canada, a program which is already well underway. Should you decide to re-elect me on June 18th I shall strive with renewed effort and enthusiasm to work for you to the best of my ability.

May I urge you to be sure to cast your ballot on June 18. To vote at elections is the first duty of citizenship. If you are qualified to vote don't let anything stop your from exercising your franchise on election day. Polls are open continuously from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Let's have a record turn out at the polls on June 18.

OUR LETTER FROM EDMONTON

216 Candidates In June 18th Election; Biggest Slate Ever

by KEN MASON

EDMONTON -- The Alberta election campaign continues to roll ponderously along, still failing to create any excitement. Politicians and political observers agree they've ever seen such a dull campaign.

Thursday of last week was the deadline for candidates to file their nomination papers, and 216 are officially in the race for the 65 Legislature seats at stake. They constitute the biggest slate ever to run in Alberta. In the 1955 election there were 208 candidates.

The way the campaign has been going, it's nearly impossible to spot a trend. But if there be any, some political prognosticators are saying Social Credit is a cinch to be returned to power, but that Tories will replace Liberals as the official Opposition.

A glance at the nomination list bears this out. Social Credit is in the lead with 64 official candidates and one unofficial one. Conservatives are in second place with 60. This in itself indicates a stronger Tory party this time. In the 1955 election, Conservatives trailed in fourth place behind Liberals and CCF with only 26 candidates.

Liberals have 51 candidates this time, two less than they ran in the 1955 election, while the CCF party has slipped to 32 from 38 in 1955.

The mere fact that the Tories have been able to attract more candidates is evidence that the party has more supporters since the Diefenbaker victory at the polls in the federal election. And don't think Social Credit doesn't know it. Socred candidates, including Premier Manning, are aiming most of their attacks at the Tories.

GEO. BRAITHWAITE EARLY LOSER

The unhappiest candidate on nomination day was George Braithwaite, nominated by the CCF in Red Deer riding. He found himself out of the running because his campaign manager didn't know deadline was 2 p.m. The manager was carrying the completed papers around in his pocket, but when he tried to file them after the deadline he was out of luck. As a result it will be a two-way race in Red Deer -- between Conservative leader Cam Kirby and Social Crediter William Ure.

LEGION WHIST DRIVE

A whist drive will be held at the Legion hall on Friday, June 19 at 8 p.m. sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion. This will be the last game for the summer so bring all your friends and enjoy yourselves. 49-0

MAIN DUCK ISLAND LEFT TO CANADA BY JOHN FOSTER DULLES

John Foster Dulles left his beloved Main Duck Island to the Canadian government. Main Duck Island is situated in the middle of Lake Ontario, is three miles long and about two miles wide. In some places it rises to a height of 40 feet above the water, then slopes to pleasant coves and beaches. Mr. Dulles stocked the island with deer and pheasants and would not allow anyone to cut the trees. An 80-foot lighthouse, right, is maintained by the Canadian department of transport as an aid to lake shipping. At left, photo shows the home Mr. Dulles used. It is made of logs and the front door is made of planks from ships wrecked on the beach.

Recreation Commission Will Be Re-organized

Adult and Youth Activities To Come Under Scope — Town-wide Support Is Urgently Needed

The Council of the Town of Vermilion has recently received a request from a representative of the Vermilion Amateur Athletic Association, to have that organization considered as being inactive. It is felt however that the work done by the Athletic Association in past years should not be allowed to disappear entirely. A recreation commission was formed here several years ago, and it is now felt that this Commission should be re-organized on a permanent basis, to carry on the work which has been done in the past by the Athletic Association, and to do other work in the field of recreation.

With this in mind it has been decided to call a public meeting to be held in the Elks hall on Monday, June 22 commencing at 8 p.m. Everyone who is interested in recreation in the community is urged to attend. It is anticipated that both adult and youth recreation will come within the scope of the Commission.

It is the intention at this time that the Commission be set up on a permanent basis and be responsible to the town council to make a periodic report to them of the activities of the Commission. In this way it is hoped that the Commission will operate continuously, and to avoid the ups and downs that have been experienced by other such organizations in the past. It is only possible if the [illegible] of the people of Vermilion [illegible] wholeheartedly behind the project, and for this reason, the meeting has been called.

Following this tour of inspection and before leaving for the Beizil's Blue Hill Hereford Ranch at St. Paul for a Field Day at 2:00 p.m. the caravan will stop and eat their picnic lunch on the Campbell ranch.

Guides, Brownies End Successful Year

The Vermilion Guides and Brownies had had a very busy and interesting year culminating in a Rally at Camp Wainwright. The girls from Vermilion did very well. Their marching was top notch in the March Past, and their skits followed the theme of the Rally to good effect. From the Rally the girls learned two important things, especially to obey orders, something that is necessary in such a large gathering, and to know that there are other girls besides themselves in the large family of Guiding. It was interesting to hear some of the girls say that they would be writing to friends that they had made in other towns.

The Local Association for the Guides and Brownies of Vermilion thank all parents and friends who have made the day at Wainwright possible by providing transportation for the girls.

GUIDES HONOR GUESTS

As a concluding feature of the year's activities the Guides and their leaders entertained the mothers and those who had conducted tests throughout the term at a tea in the Scout and Guide Hall. To each guest the girls presented a corsage of daisies. A very fitting tribute was paid to Mrs. [illegible] Clendenning who is relinquishing the duties of leadership to Mrs. L. Webb. At this same occasion the guides each received a little gift from their leaders.

HIKE ENJOYED ON FARMER'S DAY

Friday, June 12, when the girls had a holiday from school on Farmer's Day, three of the [illegible] the Brownies and the Guides enjoyed a hike and a picnic at the Vermilion Park. One little girl was heard to remark "Run Sheep Run" and baseball must be hard on those older ladies" but in spite of their age the seniors enjoyed the outing as much as the youngest Brownie.

The Brownies will conclude their year's activities with a special hike of their own on Friday.

Happy holidays to all leaders, Guides and Brownies and it is hoped that all will be ready to start another busy season next fall with renewed energy.

Farms Larger, But Small Farm Problem Increases

"Despite the trend toward larger farms Hon L C Halmrast ger farm" Hon. L. C. Halmrast, Minister of Agriculture, told the Special Senate Committee on Land Use in Canada, "the dimensions of the small farm problem is greater today than ever before. Some of the reasons for this situation," he said, "are (1) settlement in areas where modern farming methods cannot be exploited, (2) the lack of capital and space for expansion, (3) failure to provide the level of management required in farming today, or (4) the lack of suitable alternative employment for those who are not doing well on the farm.

The Minister said he hoped that in due course the Senate Committee will indicate the type of legislation and administrative action required to (1) alleviate the distressing of the small farmer and (2) implement a program designed to promote the establishment of optimum family sized farms.

DAD IS POPULAR . . .

Dad is just about the most popular guy alive — particularly, of course, with his family — according to this year's crop of Father's Day (June 21) cards.

The greeting cards, except for a few "contemporaries" which poke gentle fun at him, heap praise on Dad in both art and verse. Take this one featuring a silver-framed bouquet of flowers. Its sentiment concludes with this bit of adulation:

"He's the sweetest, the kindest, and the greatest. He's tops."

But, according to a short Father's Day history prepared by Coutts Hallmark Cards, he hasn't always come in for such high praise from his family.

Back in the stone age, Dad must have been looked upon with something less than affection. He was a tyrant and his word was law — until one of his sons was able to dispose of him in hand-to-hand battle and himself take command of the family.

The man of the house remained something of a despot throughout much of [illegible]. [illegible] a son [illegible] to his [illegible] to disagree with his father. If he did, the law [illegible] that he could be put to [illegible]

And in early Rome only by running the chance of being cursed by the ancestral Numina or family gods, could young people cut themselves loose of parental authority. In pre-Christian Northern Europe, it was considered a disgrace for a son still in his teens to appear in public with his father.

The ancient Greek father's authority extended to matrimony. He decided — with no questions asked — who his son's bride would be. A similar practice was carried on in India where youngsters were betrothed in childhood. And often the young man was not allowed to unveil his bride until too late — after the ceremony.

In some African countries, the man of the house was able to put his wife on the auction block. But in India and the African Sudan the shoe was on the other foot.

In India, the husband had to watch that he didn't get into debt. If he did, the little lady could sell him into slavery to pay off the creditors.

Until as recently as [illegible] a [illegible] wife after bearing five children could go back to live with her parents and leave the youngsters to be looked after by Father.

In Canada and the U.S. Dad's authority in the family seems to be slipping. Some sociologists say that Mom and not Dad has the final say at home. And each year women are gaining control of a bigger chunk of the country's national wealth.

But while Dad has lost some of his authority, it's obvious from the kind of cards he will be receiving for "his day" that he still enjoys as strong a place as ever in his family's heart.

Pioneer's Sons Gain Fame At Coast

It's interesting to hear of former residents who have "made good." The Hobbis brothers of New Westminster, B.C., who were born and raised on the homestead of their father, Thomas Hobbis, just south of Vermilion, are a case in point.

After receiving their education in the Vermilion district they moved with the family to the coast, and there they started a bicycle shop. It was a small beginning, but in the course of the last two decades the small shop has grown into a large and prosperous sales and service business for bicycles.

But it hasn't been all work and no play. Gerald (Cap) Hobbis became interested in a hobby of the collection and study of antiques of all kinds. The business and the hobby together gave rise to an idea for a special feature for the parade celebrating the opening of B.C.'s first International Trade Fair at Exhibition Park in Vancouver last year.

The Hobbis brothers constructed three bicycles in the old fashioned style with a large wheel in front and a small one at the back. The two-wheeled bicycles were authentic copies of those used at the turn of the century, and when Cap, his brother Bert and a friend mounted the bicycles they wore chin whiskers, the high hats or 'toppers' of the period, the string ties and dark suits of the style once seen on these bicycles.

The bicycles and their riders were such a success that they received invitations to appear in parades in the U.S.A. and other places, and gained the special attention of Governor-General Massey who asked to meet the riders that he might ask several questions about ancient machines, such as the penny farthing bicycles that they rode.

The boys' father, Thomas Hobbis, came into the Vermilion district 54 years ago this summer. He had been an engraver in the Old Country and on many occasions came in from the field to engrave the name plate to be placed on a coffin. He built the first chimney to be made in these parts, and constructed the first coffin. He recalls that the winter of 1906 was a terrible one with the temperature at 62 degrees below zero and not much let up through many months. Through that winter the only white men that he and his partner, Frank Gardiner, saw were Hugh Evans and Lance Playne, settlers on the Vermilion river. Fortunately game was plentiful, and they were able to live on the fowl they shot.

It is from beginnings such as these — first the pioneers, and then their families building up businesses, that the history of the west has led to the development of the present day.

THE Homemaker
[illegible]
Wainwright, Alta

All homemakers are interested in new fabrics and with such a changing field this is understandable. Last summer two of the most popular blends were 65% terylene (Dacron) and 35 per cent cotton, another 60% nylon and 40% rayon. These were highly recommended for summer wear because of their easy launderability. Remember, in choosing a blend, that the fabrics will show the properties of the fibre with the highest per cent in the blend. In the terylene blend, the higher proportion of terylene gives a fabric which retains pleats and requires little ironing. It has the feel of cotton. It should be washed as a drip and dry fabric and not subjected to hard wringing or twisting. If noticeable wrinkles are smoothed out when the garment is drying it will need even less ironing.

The blends mentioned above are still holding their own in the fabrics field. Voiles of dacron and cotton have achieved acceptance this year. The dacron and cotton blend gives wrinkle resistance and washability with little ironing. This therefore overcomes some of the weaknesses that in the past limited voile as practical women's wear. We may now expect far wider use of these fabrics in popular priced dresses.

Rayon, the oldest of the man-made fibres, is being used this year in combination with cotton. The new blend is trademarked 'Cotron'. The manufacturer claims that cotron [illegible] are [illegible] silkier with a richer lustre than fabrics of 100% cotton. Other properties of the blend include very clear colors and increased color fastness. The chief advantage of rayon-cotton blends is the wash and wear qualities which they can be given.

In the past consumers have complained that they do not know the characteristics of the fabrics they buy. Hang tags on many ready-mades now give the consumer much more help than previously and information about yard goods is becoming easier to obtain. Asking the sales clerk about the bolts of material can be of no avail if they are not marked as to the fibre content. With the new blends [illegible] should be stressed.

A good reference pamphlet "The New Fabrics" is available free of charge from this office. Write, phone or drop in for your copy soon.

Charge Dismissed

In Police Court last Friday at Vermilion, Magistrate Basler dismissed a charge laid by a Highway Patrol officer from Vegreville against Samuel (Sammy) Little of failing to stop before entering highway 41 from his home premises.

F. J. Richardson, Q.C., acted for Little and J. W. Anderson, solicitor in the Attorney-General's department at Edmonton, acted for the Crown.

Dewberry Ladies' Aid Donate $25 to Lake Whitney Camp Fund

The June meeting of the Dewberry Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. May Braithwaite with nine members and one visitor present. Following the opening hymn, "Till We Meet Again," Mrs. Kruger read from the Bible and Mrs. Wetendale from the Upper Room.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. It was agreed to give twenty-five dollars to the Lake Whitney Camp Fund. The Travelling Box is still missing and the Aid would very much like to know where it is.

Mrs. S. Wetendale gave a most interesting talk on "Answers to Prayer", which was much enjoyed by everyone present.

The meeting closed with the benediction after which lunch was served by the hostess.

Members are asked to note that there will be no July meeting and the August one will be at the home of Mrs. John [illegible].

Dewberry Has Pioneer Park

Immediately west of the town of Dewberry there is a park of twenty-one acres taking form as a recreation centre. The work on this land, known as Pioneer park, is completed to the point where it can now be used for such events as the Farmers' Day picnic, to be held there this week.

The name chosen for this site is in honor of the pioneers who helped to develop the town and district of Dewberry. To commemorate them as individuals it is planned to build a fence around the half-mile race track, the poles of which will be supplanted by ten-foot fir planks, painted white and with the names of pioneers and pertinent dates burned into the wood.

The ground chosen for the park is of sandy loam and is a level piece of twenty-one acres. Three ball diamonds have already been laid out, and one of these has been "clayed." That is, clay has been hauled in a distance of three miles, to give the [illegible] a harder surface thus making a faster infield for the games. There is a [illegible] of poplar trees to give [illegible] to shelter the refreshment [illegible].

The idea of Pioneer park originated with the Dewberry Sports Association and the Dewberry Farmers' Union local and the project is now sponsored by the Dewberry and District Chamber of Commerce also.

In connection with the development of the Pioneer park, the F. U. A. local is promoting a competition for a gate design. There has been offered a $5.00 prize for the best and most practical design submitted by anyone caring to enter the competition. The school children have already planned to work on such a design in their art classes. The judging of gate designs will be completed next [illegible].

Anglican S. S. Picnics At Lake

MANNVILLE — Children of the Anglican Sunday School, their parents and especially their faithful teachers, including districts of [illegible], Stellaville and Minburn and Mannville went for a picnic outing to Innisfree lake. Service, after the delayed arrival of all cars (due to an unexpected shower) was held inside the Conford cabin, and conducted by the Rev. Harry Shell. Following service those who wished went for a swim, after which a bountiful lunch was done full justice by all. Races were held for the children, a ball game was held by volunteer teams, and a supper lunch again spread out. The rain showers were accommodating and some activities were possible, the wind drying the grass quickly. All agreed it was one of the best picnics ever.

Canada's pulp exports to the United States currently are in excess of $300,000,000 a year.

The number of farms in Canada is shrinking. In the period of 1951-56 the total fell almost 8 per cent to 575,015 farms.

Audrey Jean McIntyre Wed On Parents' Anniversary

midvrf heonau off Ko g [illegible]

Miss Audrey Jean McIntyre, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McIntyre chose her parents' 31st wedding anniversary for her wedding to Walter Tiffany Johnson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Johnson of La Glace, Alberta.

The double-ring ceremony took place at the First United Church in Vermilion. Wm. McIntyre gave his daughter in marriage before the altar banked with baskets of spring flowers and boughs of cherry blossoms. The service was conducted by the Rev. C. W. MacKay.

BRIDAL GOWN OF SATIN

The bride's gown cut on Empire lines, was of pure white satin with sequin and pearl studded appliques of chantilly lace. The bodice was complemented by a sabrina neckline, cut in a deep V at the back.

A cloud of french illusion formed her chapel veil, which was held in place by a double crown, studded with sequins and pearls.

Her only jewellery was a single strand of cultured pearls, a gift of the groom, and she carried a white prayer book centered with red sweetheart roses and white gladioli streamers.

Attending the bride were her sister, Miss Mary Ellen McIntyre as maid of honor, and Miss Viola Varibiov, as bridesmaid.

ATTENDANTS IN BLUE

The gowns of the attendants were identical, of ice blue crystal charm, waltz length, with bouffant skirts. The bodices had a wide neckline cut in a deep V at the back and finished with a tailored bow of contrasting organza. They wore pearl studded head bandeaux of matching blue. They carried bouquets of shasta mums in white and yellow tones.

The groom was attended by his cousin Allen Johnson and Kenneth Hornland. The ushers were Keith McIntyre, brother of the bride and Ted [illegible].

While the bride and groom knelt at the altar, Oleif Lundberg, uncle of the groom, sang "The Wedding Prayer." During the signing of the register, he sang "Hand In Hand," accompanied by Mrs. Albert West at the organ.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McIntyre chose a tailored two piece dress of Honan silk in caribbean blue, complemented by pink accessories, with panama shoes and purse. She wore a corsage of deep pink carnations. The mother of the groom chose as her ensemble, a two piece printed silk in tones of mauve and brown, adding white accessories, and a corsage of pink [illegible].

RECEPTION FOR 100 GUESTS

A reception was held at the Allandale Community Centre where covers were laid for 100 guests.

The bride's table was covered with satin damask cloths, centred with a three tiered wedding cake, made by the bride's mother and beautifully decorated by Mrs. Ellen Omness. The room was tastefully decorated with deep blue and white streamers, which served as a very effective backdrop for the bridal party.

Keith McIntyre acted as toastmaster, and called upon Edward Peterson, uncle of the bride, to propose the toast. The groom, with a few well chosen words, replied to the very fitting toast [illegible].

The groomsman read telegrams from the [illegible] aunt and uncle, and the Matron and Staff of the Grande Prairie Municipal Hospital.

R. Johnson also spoke a few words, welcoming his new daughter-in-law into his family, inviting all those who might be in the vicinity of Grande Prairie on June [illegible] to attend the reception to be given in honor of the bride and groom.

Mr. Keith McIntyre then proposed a toast to his parents on their [illegible] wedding anniversary, and to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Evans on their 51st anniversary. Also in attendance at the McIntyre wedding, August Brunner and Mrs. Ed Peterson.

Hugh Farquhar, student minister was called upon to ask the [illegible].

At the close of the banquet [illegible] the gathering with the sacred solo "How Great Thou Art," accompanied at the piano by his mother, Mrs. R. [illegible].

In the evening, open house was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Robert McIntyre was in charge of the wedding gifts. Mrs. Ralph Reeves, life long friend of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

WATERTON LAKES HONEYMOON

For travelling to Waterton Lakes by car, the bride donned a stroller suit of all wool polished broadcloth, in warm toast color. Her cloche hat was of robin's egg blue, with matching gloves and a panama purse and shoes. Complementing her ensemble, was her corsage of yellow tea roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson will make their home in Grande Prairie.

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. R. Soseeth, Mayfair, Sask.; Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Tofield; Mr. and Mrs. Don Johnson, New Norway; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson and Miss Edna Shier of Lamont; Ted Roram, Ken Hornland and Oleif Lundberg of Grande Prairie; Mrs. Noel Tiffany and Doreen, the Tiffany [illegible] and Mr. and Mrs. Canteion of Meeting Creek; Mr. and Mrs. A. Good Progress On Homes For Senior Citizens

The Government of Alberta had signed five master agreements with municipal authorities to the end of May for the erection of homes for the aged, it has been announced by Premier E. C. Manning. The homes, first of 30 proposed for construction this year at regional points in the province, will be located at Ponoka, Drumheller, Bow Island, Westlock and Innisfail.

Tenders for construction at these locations will be called shortly by the Department of Public Works. Buildings will be of standard design, as chosen from plans submitted in a public contest earlier this year. Each will accommodate fifty [illegible].

Under the homes provision plan, municipal bodies are required to provide land for a building site. Cost of construction and furnishings, inclusive of landscaping, utilities brought to property line and all indoor furnishings complete with one change of bedding are borne entirely by the Government of Alberta.

Ownership will be vested in a foundation composed of representatives from participating municipalities. The foundation in turn will appoint a board of management with adequate representation from religious, service and other groups in the community. Where practicable, one board member will be chosen from among the residents of the [illegible].

How to taste AUGUST in FEBRUARY

What you will need, of course, is an electric freezer or refrigerator. Then the fruits and vegetables you stored in August, when they were so fresh, so inexpensive and so plentiful, will look and taste as good in February. The produce from your garden can be stored with the dew still on it. Meats, too, can be purchased when the price is right, and kept fresh all through the year. Fish, wild fowl and game may be cleaned and put away the moment the fisherman or the hunter comes home. Food stays fresh and retains its flavor—and you save so much—in so many ways.

GREEN ACRES

by H. MORLEY DOUGLAS
District Agriculturist

FIELD INSPECTION

All applications for field inspection of crops must be sent to Plant Products, Canada Department of Agriculture, 573 Federal Bldg., Edmonton by June 30. Application forms are available from the D. A. office.

NO LEAVES?

Many trees in this area appear to have no foliage. Closer inspection proves that leaf rollers and span worms are at work. It is impossible to protect the native bluffs but when the shelter belt or fruit trees are attacked something must be done. In some areas these caterpillars have been invading the dwelling. Endrin (3 oz. per 10 gallons of water), [illegible] (6 oz. per 10 gallons of water) or Malathion (½ pint 50% Malathion to 25 gallons of water) will kill the caterpillars. Once the leaves are rolled it is too late to spray. A heavy application of 25% DDT (8 oz. to 10 gallons of water) will stop migrations down the tree and into buildings.

EGG QUALITY

More quality is demanded of eggs every year. Customers want a uniform high standard product. This demand combined with competition resulting from increased production makes quality imperative if the poultryman is to survive. Factors which support quality are:

1. Balanced laying mash and the confinement of birds.
2. Plenty of fresh clean water.
3. Gather eggs often at least three times a day.
4. Keep the eggs cool and market often.

SEED SALESMEN

Seed peddlers are at work again in Manitoba selling Sangaste rye to farmers at prices ranging up to $100 per bushel. Could it be that they were selling Sorghum Almum in this area earlier in the year? Several farmers paid a deposit for Sorghum Almum and did not get delivery or their deposit back. The Department of Agriculture would like the names, deposits, amount of seed that was ordered [illegible] who seemingly has lost a deposit. Possibly something can be done.

2,4-D IN GARDENS

That 2,4-D sprayed on the dandelions is strong stuff. The fumes from a strong application of 2,4-D drift a long distance. This drift may be just enough to damage the perennial bed or kill the annual vegetables and flowers. Caution must be observed when applying 2,4-D in the garden. Perhaps some of the dandelions would be [illegible] dug out.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

When you and your family are on a motoring trip, the smart, healthy way to start the day is with a good and nourishing breakfast. This meal is the most important of the day according to nutrition experts.

Yet, you should avoid heavy foods at the start of a long drive.

What to do?

Try soup for breakfast.

Here's a nourishing breakfast that's not too heavy yet has the real staying power. And it's good, too. It stimulates the hardiest-to-coax morning appetite. It's also practical — especially if you stay at motels or tourist homes where breakfast isn't served, or if you like to make an early start in the cool of the morning before the restaurants open.

Canned soup is easy to prepare on a portable hot plate or pocket-sized stove.

If this is too much trouble, fill the thermos with hot soup the night before.

Try a "stirrup cup" of soup when you first wake up, and then a regular breakfast an hour or so later, to break the driving routine.

Sound strange? It might, if you're in a breakfast rut. But it's good. Try it.

Water-borne cargo through Canada's major seaports increased by more than 400,000 tons in 1958, totalling more than 47,000,000 tons.

The F. W. U. A. held their annual spring conference in the Legion hall, Marwayne on June 9th. Yearly reports were given in the morning and a picnic dinner was enjoyed on the lawn at Jim Hale's. There were not many there to hear the [illegible] speakers in the afternoon. Mrs. Dowhaniuk, 2nd vice-president spoke on the work of the F. W. U. A. Mr. Perkins of the Alberta Safety Council spoke on safety and showed some slides on questions asked when taking a driver's test, giving rise to an interesting discussion. He also showed a film on accidents.

District Teen-Agers Compete in Roadeo At Lloydminster

Douglas Keith of Red Deer won over 19 other contestants to take the Alberta Teen Age Car Road-e-o provincial finals in Lloydminster recently. Second was Murray MacDonnell of Namao and third Douglas Hall of High River.

Sponsored by the Lloydminster Junior Chamber of Commerce and Imperial Oil Ltd. the roadeo is designed to interest teen-agers in safe-driving habits [illegible].

Diary of a Vagabond

BY DOROTHY BARKER

This week we take pleasure in offering to our readers a new feature. It is written by one of Canada's outstanding newspaper editors, Dorothy Barker. For the past [illegible] years Mrs. Barker's column "As I Was Saying" presented a hilarious insight into the domestic life of a busy editor. It contributed considerably to her paper's success as a consistent prize winner in provincial and national newspaper competition.

Recently the Aurora Banner published her stories [illegible] and she [illegible] retirement. But not for long. The creation of her new column, Diary of a Vagabond, which will take our readers across Canada and the highways and byways of this fast growing nation, will be written in her well known humorous way. We are sure our readers will enjoy reading it each week.

This was the moment I had so often dreamed about. The day when I could give my typewriter an icy stare and not tear my hair because my mind was a blank and the linotype operators were out of copy. This was the first morning of my retirement. The silence was awful, not even a mouse licked paste from its candied copy of the WPB.

Behind me was the rat race, while ahead of me stretched nothing but day after wonderful day of perfect freedom. Was I happy? I was looking forward to reading the paper someone else had [illegible] together in the wee small hours of the morning in order to meet a deadline. Was I savouring the lucky break that had placed my feet on the desk and my typewriter-worn fingers in a twiddle?

I was not.

Instead my head was in a twirl. At times like this one usually takes stock of one's losses and ambitions. I started asking myself questions such as, "What do you want to do most?" "What has been the greatest lack in your life?" "Where do you most want to go?"

What did I most want to do? That was an easy question to answer. Now that I am free from the routine of an exacting career as a weekly editor I want to hop a train and call on other weekly editors across Canada who are making an outstanding contribution to the nation's progress.

I want to travel to the seat of Confederation, wander in the Peace Gardens on the Canadian-U. S. border, feast my eyes on the grandeur of the Rockies, smell the roses in the Butchart Gardens and watch the ships of the Canadian Navy sail into Red Deer Basin for repairs. I want to see the splendour of the wonders of Niagara Falls and east [illegible] of breath-taking beauty of the foothills seen through a [illegible].

The greatest lack in my life has undoubtedly been the need for more time. Time to read, to visit, to know and enjoy more Canadians and to know my own country better from coast to coast.

Because there are so many busy men, women, aye and children, too, in this rapidly developing nation of ours I am taking this opportunity to keep this vagabond diary for you about Canada, its people, its customs, its industries popping up all over the land in infinite variety and above all, to write of its great natural beauty, so many of us miss in our haste-filled existence.

Catch me right here next week when I write about my first journey in this great new adventure.

Young So-Creds Edit Newspaper

The first edition of the Young Social Credit paper "The Equation" was also [illegible] during May. Diane Farrell was appointed [illegible] editor of the month's sheet.

Groups throughout the province are taking an active part in the election campaign in distributing literature, organizing and canvassing. The number of Young Social Credit groups is expected to double this month.

WILDMERE WINKS

There was a nice attendance at the Auburndale W.A. bazaar and picnic last Friday afternoon, Father's Day. Ball games and races filled in the time. The bazaar and bake sale proved to be very profitable and the ladies served a tasty supper also. All were pleased to meet and chat with many you do not see often. Among them were Mrs. McKinnon and Mrs. Delf Seale of Wainwright.

In our church service on Sunday [illegible] Mr. Nicholls spoke on [illegible] in his Christian living series. These services are very interesting. He told about Lake Whitney camp that will be held in July for boys and girls from 9 to 17 years of age. Anyone in this age group wishing to attend should get in touch with Mr. Nicholls and he will give you all particulars.

On Sunday Brent Macnab Sr. and Jr., Mr. Barlow all of [illegible] Dale Coulee and David [illegible] and Evan and Cliff Cruthers of Basswood and Wildmere took a trip north to do some fishing and report a good catch. Many thanks for the feed of fish folks.

Ian Clark who works at the refinery at Wainwright, had the misfortune to have his fingers on one hand injured last week, necessitating a lay-off from his work for a few days.

Laurence Graham who has worked all spring at Kelfield, Sask., visited for a few days with his sister and Jim Wallington last week. He and Bobby Graham left Monday morning to obtain work in the southern part of the province.

Miss Betty Smith of the telephone staff in Vermilion spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith of Basswood.

On Saturday afternoon the Wildmere Beavers Girls' club held their June meeting at Preston Central school and invited their mothers and other ladies, including Mrs. P. Sloan, W. I. convener and Mrs. Chas. Waldenberger of Vermilion, as their guests. President of the Girls' club is Linda N. Smith, the secretary is Miss Joanie Hughes. These girls really know how to conduct a meeting. At roll call the girls presented each mother and the other ladies present with a lovely flower and also put on a little program that was greatly enjoyed by all. The girls and their supervisor, Mrs. Roy Dibben, are to be heartily congratulated on the pleasant afternoon. Mrs. Dibben has done a wonderful job training the girls. The afternoon closed with a delicious lunch served by the bigger members of the club. Mrs. Sloan, in a short talk, said the girls could really show her how to conduct a meeting. At the close of her address Beverly Westman presented Mrs. Sloan with a nice bouquet of plastic foam roses and fern. Thanks again Mrs. Dibben and girls for the nice afternoon. We forgot to mention that the girls had some handicraft on display which is going to the Olds convention.

The annual meeting of the Preston Central Home & School was held Monday evening with only fourteen members present. Owing to this small attendance no new officers were elected. The H. & S. is sponsoring a school picnic in the afternoon of June 30. Frank Gibson and Cliff Cruthers will be in charge of the booth. A free ice cream cone will be given to each child. Floyd Sweet and Albert Smith in charge of sports. All parents and children in the school district are invited to attend.

Mrs. Ken Shepherd is going to Vancouver this week to visit her grandmother, Mrs. J. Smith, for a couple of weeks.

Exams will be underway soon for school pupils in both the public and high schools. We hope they are not like this poem called "Studying" —

Exams are near, they start next week,
I've just got to study;
There's so much to learn, I know I'll fail;
I must soon start to study.
The hit parade's on, it won't take long.
When it's through I'll study;
Dad bought some books I haven't read
Then I'll start to study.
Mom said I could make some fudge
And eat it while I study.
I should put some pin curls in my hair
Before I start to study.
I promised Mary I'd phone tonight
Before beginning to study.
But it's half past ten and time for bed
Some other night I'll study.

SURE-FOOTED LADDER

A ladder leveller, completely automatic, takes the risk out of climbing from uneven surfaces, says The Financial Post. It levels and locks itself when the ladder is set in place, eliminating blocking and tying; each leg automatically seeks its own level and is locked in position by weight of ladder.

Marwayne H. & S. Elect Officers

MARWAYNE — The Marwayne Home and School held their final meeting of the 1958-59 season on Tuesday June 9th with a good attendance.

Mr Petryshen's room won the book of the month for April and [illegible] room for June.

A letter was read from the school board in reply to a letter from the Home and School and the F. U. A. saying that they hope to have a full staff here in the fall so that grade XII can be taught here again.

The uniforms for the Little League team cost $67.00.

Curtains were discussed for the Audio-visual room and it was suggested that purchase of a daylight screen be investigated instead.

Two more radios are to be bought for the school.

A motion was made and passed to have a second-hand book depot in operation when school starts. Those who volunteered for this committee were Mrs. Sinclair, Mrs. Hutchinson, Mrs. Culford and Mrs. Golightly.

Mr Golightly then took the chair to conduct the election of officers. Those elected were: Mr Peck, President; Mrs. Sinclair, Vice President. After many nominations and withdrawals Mr F. Gray volunteered to be Sec-Treasurer. Entertainment committee and a reporter will be appointed at the first meeting in September.

A vote of thanks was made to the retiring officers.

A motion was made to write a letter of thanks to Mr Simonson who is leaving this area.

Teacher housing in Marwayne was discussed. Mrs. Harrington volunteered to make a survey of the town as to possible boarding places for single teachers.

Those on the lunch committee for the September meeting are: sandwiches, Golightly, Gray, Harrington; cake, Hathaway, Joe Hale, Jim Hale.

Mr Robson, secretary of the Vermilion School Division, gave a most interesting talk. He read a quotation from Aristotle written in 400 B.C. which could well apply today. People were worried then. We are worshipping false gods, radio, television and fast cars, etc. Children need more parental control. More respect for teachers is needed from the adults. Canada lacks the [illegible] that the Old Countries have for education. Here things are taken for granted.

Vegreville Students Win High Award

Vegreville Senior High school students won the provincial award for Alberta in the mural competition sponsored by the Women's Division of the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto. Over 200 entries were received in the annual competition open to all Canadian school children. The theme this year was "Aeroplanes — Modern or Historic", to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of aviation in Canada.

The Vegreville students, who were taught by Neil B. Cassidy, used bright poster paint in an abstract style to show aeroplane parts, clock faces and checkered flags splashed over a large canvas with a map of Canada top centre. The judges said it was the sort of work which one could gaze at time and again, and always find something new.

How about that SUB. now?

Extensive Curriculum Changes For Schools of Agriculture

Opportunities for specialization, electives and increased emphasis on farm and home management are included in course changes at Alberta schools of Agriculture and home economics. These changes, approved by the Provincial Board of Agricultural Education, will become effective when the schools open in October, advises J. F. Hawker, Superintendent of Alberta Schools of Agriculture.

The time devoted to Farm Management has doubled in the last three years. This increased emphasis will allow for more attention to be given to farm records, farm planning and marketing. Saturday morning classes will be devoted to advance work in the major fields of study and each second year and two-in-one student will be required to select a field of specialization. Another change, related to electives, is that students who have achieved certain established standards in English, mathematics and science in high schools will not be required to take these subjects and will be permitted to choose other subjects instead.

These announcements came at the end of a very successful term at the Vermilion and Olds Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics. There were 126 graduates from the schools this spring and registration was higher than it has been for five years with accommodation for agricultural students filled at both points.

More information about the courses offered at the Alberta Schools of Agriculture can be obtained from the Principal at either the Olds or Vermilion Schools or from the Superintendent, Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics, Legislative Building, Edmonton.

Rid rooms of stale tobacco smoke with this 'home-made' deodorizer. Just mix a little ammonia in a bowl of fresh water and let it stand overnight in the smoke-filled room. The next day the room will be sweet and fresh again.

If the picture from the picture window is always rather hazy take a tip from the housewives of Holland. They keep their windows sparkling with a solution made by mixing one cup of cider vinegar and 1½ gallons of hot water.

Constitutional Rights Denied in Argentina

The Vermilion Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses learned last night, June 12, 1959, that Jehovah's Witnesses in Argentina have been denied their constitutional rights of free assembly and worship. A vote of protest was taken and plans discussed to petition the Argentine Republic to correct restrictions laid on the Christian group's activities.

Mr. A. Friesen, the local congregation's presiding minister, said that in spite of many liberal advancements made by the present Argentine government that ousted the dictatorial Peron regime, a few non-Catholic religious groups that were declared illegal by Peron have yet to be recognized by Argentine's constitutional president, Arturo Frondizi.

According to Mr. Friesen, two different applications for recognition were denied by the "Ministry of Worship," a department of the government formed by Peron to control the registry of all non-Catholic religions.

History of Derwent Co-Op Outlined On 25th Anniversary of Organization

Approximately three hundred people were present at a banquet at Derwent on Saturday, June 6, in the National Hall. The occasion marked the completion of twenty-five years of operation of the Derwent Co-operative Shipping Association. Host for the event was the Co-op, with catering by the ladies of the Greek Catholic Church. Those present included shippers and their wives, and a number of guests.

A huge cake, suitably decorated for the occasion was cut by the Secretary-Manager, H. Meyerman, who has held that post continuously during the past twenty-five years of existence of the Derwent Co-op. He was assisted in the ceremony by other officials.

Felix Woloshyn, Master of Ceremonies, called on Mayor Clarence Algot of Derwent who brought greetings from the village of Derwent and also presented a scroll to the association expressing appreciation of benefits accruing to the town from the efforts of the Co-op. Bill Zeniuk, president of the Derwent Board of Trade, brought greetings and congratulations from that group. A presentation of a [illegible] and clock desk set was made to Mr Meyerman by Max Borowsky, president and chairman of the Co-op Board. He outlined briefly the numerous organizations in which Mr. Meyerman had taken a leading part prior to, and during the twenty-five years of operation of the association. He expressed the esteem of the members for Mr Meyerman's work throughout his twenty five years of excellent [illegible].

Harold W. Webber, Supervisor of Co-operative activities for the provincial government, was introduced and related some very interesting facts regarding co-operatives and their amazing expansion during the past few years. One of the latest ventures in the Co-op field was the purchase of a fire engine by farmers in Leduc area. Following Mr Webber Clare Anderson, vice-president of the Farmers' Union outlined some of the accomplishments of the Union and what it hopes to achieve in the future.

In his report to the assembly Mr Meyerman, secretary manager of the Derwent Co-operative outlined the history of the organization since its inception in August 1933. Although there were several meetings through the summer and fall of that year the Derwent Co-operative wasn't formally organized until January, 1934, when the first meeting of contract signers took place and it was in the same month that the late S. P. Jacula, as shipper, started accepting livestock for shipment on behalf of the Derwent Co-op. The names of the directors and executives have been placed on a placard in the National Hall in Derwent.

Mr. Meyerman reiterated some of the salient facts that he had formerly reported by pointing out that the turnover in 1934 was $30,083.34, in 1939 $100,068.17, in 1942 $330,769.97; with a record smashing $647,055.96 in 1943.

In 1940 branches were opened in Clandonald and in Dewberry, and two years later further branches in Marwayne and Staplehurst. The Marwayne people decided that they would do better going it alone but eventually a packing firm took over and operated the Co-op set-up and the Marwayne organization is disbanded.

Staplehurst, Mr. Meyerman went on, is out of the picture too, but for different reasons. It was impossible to maintain an agent there since there was not enough volume for a farmer to spend a whole day at the work and besides the point is only seven miles from Lloydminster.

Derwent has handled 195,059 hogs and 22,835 cattle and the gross turnover is $7,140,410.71. Dividends of $31,382.02 have been paid out, and there is a surplus of $3,201.00. Considering that the patrons received the full market price in the first place, the amount distributed by way of dividends to hundreds of members is extra for them rather than in the hands of two or [illegible].

Mr Meyerman said he could recall very vividly all the heartbreaks and trouble gone through in the early days. No money, no equipment, no experience in either handling livestock or book keeping of any kind. But, on the other hand, there was something that would overcome any and all difficulties, a determination to succeed and a spirit of co-operation between the few members that were the vanguard of the organization.

He could recall clearly Mr Meyerman reported the distrust of most of the farmers during the first year, but what he likes to remember is the trust that the few farmers had in the Derwent Co-op. One thing is very noteworthy and that is that those who came in at the start are still there and never faltered throughout the years.

There has been a fortunate choice of Directors. There have [illegible] worked hard and given much of their time and energy for the organization. Now the directors are paid their expenses when attending board meetings, but in the early days when there were [illegible] as often as every week, they sacrificed a lot but never shirked the duties that they had undertaken. Hats off to them.

Having told of the past, Mr Meyerman asked, "What of the future?" He pointed out that it is up to the members of the co-op. The annual meeting is the time and place to plan for the future. "If we have made mistakes and we have — now is the time to correct them and to plan as best we know how."

In summing up, Mr Meyerman stated that the organization had saved the farmers of the Derwent [illegible] thousands, even tens of thousands of dollars during its twenty-five years of operation, since all farmers benefit, regardless of whether they are in the organization or not. Some farmers seem to think that the Co-op is the place to market all their culls and off-grades while all the prime stuff goes elsewhere. However they are the minority. All in all, there is a good group of members who realize that co-operation means to give as well as take, and with that knowledge the Co-op can face the future with confidence.

PIN WORMS

Pin worms are small, about a half inch in length, white in color, and usually described as appearing like little pieces of white cotton. The main symptom caused by pin worms is peri-anal irritation. This is usually more marked at night when the child is warm in bed but in severe cases may also be troublesome during the day. This irritation may be responsible for some cases of bed-wetting. There may also be headaches, pallor, loss of appetite, nervousness and attacks of appendicular colic, due partly to the worms and partly to the accompanying bowel catarrh. The only certain method of diagnosis is the discovery of the worms in the child's motion. It must also be remembered that adults may be infected as well as children.

SPREAD OF INFECTION

The peri-anal irritation causes the child to scratch itself and the eggs of the worms lodge on the fingers and under the finger nails. The eggs are then transferred to the child's mouth, to eating utensils or to food and in this way the child can re-infect itself. The eggs may also become detached from clothing and travel through the air with dust. From this it can be appreciated that pin worm infection can spread very easily through a family or a closed community, such as a school.

The treatment of pin worms is by drugs, which can only be obtained on a prescription from the family doctor. Together with the medicine the following precautions must be taken by the child's parents:

1. Finger nails should be cut short so that eggs cannot lodge under them.

2. Hands should be washed thoroughly before preparing or eating a meal.

3. The child should sleep in pyjamas and wear cotton gloves, which are securely fastened onto the hands. This prevents the fingers getting infected during the night and the gloves can be boiled each morning.

4. Underclothes should be changed frequently and boiled.

5. Each child should have a separate towel and eating utensils.

Host club this year will be Rockway Golf Club, Kitchener. The tournament is staged by the Canadian Blind Golfers' Association and sponsored by the House of Seagram. Since all costs are met by Seagrams, the receipts will again go to the national fund of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

The highly skilled Canadian and U. S. golfers will be assisted by sighted coaches, but will follow strict rules of tournament play. Teams will consist of seven golfers from each country.

Local organizers will work closely with members of the Canadian Blind Golfers' Association and strong support is being given by Kitchener's Gyro Club, in co-operation with other local service clubs. The Gyro Club is well known for its many projects on behalf of blind people.

[illegible] VERMILION

Pleasant Valley

Someone said oh where, oh where did the writer go? She went to the garden with the fork and hoe. There were weeds here, grass there and quack grass everywhere, there is where she went, where many hours were spent.

There were glads to be planted, dahlias too, new shrubs and plants, there were quite a few. The cutworms are busy as I see, most tops are off and lying on the ground, this means very late flowers to be.

The neighbors are busy one and all getting ready for the harvest this fall. The rains came at last and frowns were washed away, the smiles are on our faces once again. Let's give thanks for the lovely Eden.

MRS. CAIN IS 90 YEARS YOUNG

MANNVILLE — Approximately 100 friends and neighbors called on Mrs. R. E. Cain on the occasion of her 90th birthday on Thursday, June 4th, during the afternoon and evening.

The birthday cake was made and [illegible] by her daughter, Mrs. [illegible] Chiswell, of Calgary; [illegible] the lunch made and supplied by both daughters, Janet (Mrs. Harold Ricker of Bremner) and Mrs. Chiswell. Pictures were taken of various [illegible], one of them being of [illegible] over 80 years of age. [illegible] were also taken of the entire gathering in the afternoon consisting of W. I. members, friends and neighbors.

The honored lady of the day was the proud recipient of a carnation corsage, a gift of her four grandchildren. A bouquet of carnations was received from the Eastern Star ladies. Painted daisies graced the interior of the sitting room. With the exception of one who sent a congratulatory telegram from the States, the grandchildren phoned and talked to Mrs. Cain.

Born in 1869 in Sussex, New Brunswick, Mrs. Cain grew up there, married R. E. Cain and then moved to the [illegible] for 15 years. With her husband and four children she came to Alberta in 1906, where they remained on the farm north-east of Mannville until some years ago, when she and her husband and daughter, Abby, retired to the town of Mannville. Mr. Cain is now deceased.

Sask. Farmer Goes On Tour of Russia

WINNIPEG — T. G. [illegible] of Loomis, Sask., whose [illegible] wheat won first prize at the Toronto Royal Winter Fair in 1958, boarded the CNR's Super Continental here last week for Montreal. Accompanied by his wife he is enroute to Russia where he plans to observe the Russian methods of growing winter wheat.

Mr. Miller is taking with him a sample of his prize-winning wheat, Yogo, which he intends to compare with Russian varieties. During his Russian tour he hopes to find the answer to his main winter wheat growing problem — killing by severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller will return to Loomis in the latter part of July.

Final Accounting of 1957-58 Wheat Pool Now Completed

The final accounting of the 1957 - 58 Wheat Pool has been completed. Producers delivered 378.9 million bushels of wheat to the 1957-58 Pool.

An interim payment was made in respect of this Pool in March last. The interim payment involved the distribution of $38,783,896.67. The basis of the interim payment was ten cents per bushel on all grades of wheat excepting high quality grades of Durum wheat upon which the interim payment was 15 cents per bushel.

The final payment will come to $23,874,368.61 after providing for payment costs and the Prairie Farm Assistance Act levy.

The average final payment will, therefore, amount to the equivalent of 6.30056 cents per bushel.

Total prices realized by producers for the principal grades of wheat delivered to the 1957-58 Pool were higher than the total prices received for the preceding crop year. Prior to the deduction for the PFAA levy, the total realized prices per bushel are as follows:

1956-57. No. 1 Northern, $1.59838; No. 2, $1.54883; No. 3, $1.47978; No. 4, $1.37880.

The Canadian Wheat Board is in a position to commence issuing final payment cheques to producers immediately. The payment will be completed during June.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER DEATH?

In a few score years, all who read these lines will have vanished from the face of the earth.

Every day, almost a hundred thousand human beings finish their earthly span and pass off into the vast beyond. That our turn will come we all know, but when and where and how we cannot be sure.

No merely human being ever has been able to look into eternity and tell us what it is like. No scientific knowledge or scientific instrument can pierce the curtain that divides this world from that into which all of us must eventually journey.

All we know about God's eternal plans for us . . . all we know about what lies beyond the grave . . . comes from the God Who made us and to the extent He has seen fit to reveal it to us.

But we can face eternity without fear. For we do have a definite answer to the mystery of death. With the facts God has put at our disposal through the inspired books of the Old and the New Testaments, the Catholic Church always has given, and gives today, a definite answer to the tremendously important questions raised by the fact of death.

Man's life in this world, the Church tells us, is a preparation for the world to come . . . a testing-time which ends with our death. What happens after that depends on whether death finds us loyal to God, or opposed to Him and the way He expects us to live. ". . . it is appointed unto men once to die and after this the judgment" (Heb. IX:27).

Christ gave us (Matt. XXV) a description of God's judgment which leaves no room for doubt that our worthiness of everlasting reward will be judged solely according to the way we have lived our lives on this earth.

Death does not bring merely a long, unconscious slumber, but rather a quick awakening to the irrevocable judgment of our Creator. Nor does it bring us a second chance to prove ourselves or to amend our erring ways. In our own hands rests the opportunity . . . and upon our own heads the responsibility . . . to determine if death shall be the threshold to everlasting life among the blessed, or among the lost.

Men blessed by youth and good health often feel that death for them is far away — something to be worried about only in the twilight years. Some scoff at the suggestion that an everlasting hell could be permitted by a merciful God. Others seem to think that God will treat them kindly if they live reasonably moral lives, even though they pay Him no special honor which is His due.

[illegible] — But whatever they think . . . however they avoid the question . . . all men must eventually face the fact of death. To think about it wisely . . . and in time . . . is the most important thing in our lives. If you would like more information on this subject . . . on Heaven, Hell, Purgatory, the end of the world and the resurrection and judgment of all men . . . we shall be happy to send you an interesting pamphlet free of charge. Write today for Pamphlet No. 14—KC.

Social Credit Avalanche Sweeps 61 of 65 Seats

PREMIER E. C. MANNING — who led the Social Credit party to their seventh consecutive victory in Alberta with the greatest majority in its history. He was an easy winner in his East Edmonton seat.

ASHLEY H. COOPER who was elected in the Vermilion constituency with a majority of 980. It will be his first experience in the Legislature.

HON. A. O. AALBORG Elected first in 1948, the Hon. Anders Aalborg, Minister of Education, has won the Alexandra constituency in 1952, 1955, and again in 1959.

Cooper, Aalborg Win Local Seats With Majorities of 980 and 1121

Social Credit candidates, both locally and provincially, received an overwhelming mandate from Alberta people in last Thursday's election. Premier Manning and his party swept 61 seats with the remaining four split in as many ways. Only one Liberal and one Conservative were returned along with one coalition and one independent Social Crediter, whom the Social Credit party did not oppose in his constituency. It was the largest majority ever received in a provincial election and is all the more amazing when it is considered that the government had been in office for 24 years and this was the seventh time they had gone to the people. It speaks well of the legislation and of the legislators.

COOPER TAKES VERMILION CONSTITUENCY

In the four-way fight in the Vermilion constituency, the Social Credit candidate, Ashley H. Cooper, took an early lead and this kept increasing until the final returns gave the following results:

Cooper, S. C.	2204
Whitson, Liberal	1234
Franchak, P. C.	790
Hocaluk, Lab. Prog.	227

Each of the contestants were favorites in their home polls. Cooper swept Vermilion with the largest vote ever rolled up in the town for any candidate with 847. Whitson was second with 202, Franchak 125, Hocaluk 12.

In Mannville Whitson took a big majority with 249 votes, Cooper 126, Franchak 55 and Hocaluk 2.

The other villages, Minburn, Innisfree, Myrnam, Morecambe and Beauvallon all favored the Social Credit candidate and added considerably to his majority, while the rural polls followed the general trend. Thirty-one of the 45 polls gave Social Credit majorities.

All returns were handled by Returning Officer Ralph Wagner and his assistant Peter Nosler and a selected staff at Mannville. Every poll had reported by 10 p.m., speaking well of the organizational activities carried [illegible]

SCENE OF JUBILATION

The Vermilion Social Credit committee rooms were jammed all evening listening to the local as well as provincial results and were the scene of considerable jubilation over the fact that the constituency was once again back on the government side of the [illegible]. The areas to the north and to the south of Vermilion have been swept by quite violent storms during the early part of the week causing considerable hail damage to crops and gardens, and in one case drowning of poultry.

She has lived in Kitscoty most of her life and went to high school there. She later attended Alberta College and the University of Alberta.

Recreation Commission Reorganizes

At a public meeting which was held in the Elks hall Monday evening June 22, an interesting discussion was had regarding the re-organizing of the Recreation Commission. As a result of this meeting it was decided to ask the Council of the Town of Vermilion to set up the Commission in accordance with provincial government requirements and to employ, if possible, a fulltime recreation director.

The purpose of the Commission is to promote and support all recreation activities within the town, these activities to include both youth and adult recreation. It should be borne in mind that the Commission will not in any way be involved in the operation of the various groups or clubs or other activities, but will assist these groups in any way possible. The scope of the Commission is quite broad, in that sports, hobbies, cultural activities and any other matter within the general category of recreation are all included.

While the Commission is not as yet set up and functioning, it is prepared to receive suggestions from anyone who may have anything constructive that they wish to offer to the Commission. It is also part of the duty of the Commission to receive requests from any group within the town for assistance in any recreation activity. It is being formed to serve the people of Vermilion, and it is hoped it will be made full use of.

The Commission should be considered as the promoter of sporting and other recreation in Vermilion, and are willing to assist any group in any way possible.

Hospital Grounds Inviting, Beautiful

People travelling by the Vermilion hospital these days invariably stop and look and then look again. The landscaping under the direction of Jim Wallington, hospital board member has been completed and what a change, what an improvement! Cement curbs and walks have been put in, gravelled driveways built, lawns levelled and seeded, trees pruned and the whole enterprise blended into one very laudable achievement. It is a nice job, and one of which the hospital board, the staff and everyone in general may be justly proud.

Discovers 1948 Issue Vermilion Standard In New Zealand

Here's one for Ripley — a 1948 copy of the Vermilion Standard has been discovered in New Zealand. A Vermilion man, Earl Graham, is engaged as cook on a freight boat which ships out of Vancouver. He has been on trips to Japan, Australia, England and recently New Zealand. Having some shore leave while in the latter country, he took a hotel room, and pulled open a dresser drawer while unpacking and could hardly believe his eyes, there lining the drawer was a copy of the Vermilion Standard, with the date August, 1948. Furthermore, on examining it, he discovered the Wildmere Winks, written by his sister Mrs. James Wallington, and read what was going on in Wildmere back in that year.

Swimming Lessons Start Early July

Arrangements are now being completed to conduct swimming lessons at the lake again this summer. These lessons are available to all youngsters of Vermilion and district. Elsewhere in this issue you will find a registration form which should be completed and turned in to the Town Office or to the swimming instructors at the beach as soon as possible.

The instructors and lifeguards will commence their duties on July 1st. Registration of all those learning to swim will take place at the lake on July 2nd and 3rd. Anyone wishing to take the lessons should arrange to contact the instructors at the beach on either of these days.

The cost of these lessons is only $3.00 per pupil which represents only a fraction of the actual cost involved. These lessons have resulted in quite a number of expert swimmers and in a very large number of youngsters in the district who have reached the stage where they can get great enjoyment from a time spent near the water, and also enables them to enjoy all water activities in safety.

Helpful Hints To Help You Enjoy Your Vacation Trip

More people vacation in July, August and September than during any other three-month period of the year.

Most people who travel these months will make the trip by car.

About 3 out of 10 trips during the period will be less than 100 miles. More than half will be less than 200 miles.

With these facts in mind, the Alberta Safety Council issued these helpful hints for vacationers. Before you start your trip —

1. Jot down the items you want to take along. You'll think of more things to add on to the list as the Big Day approaches. And you'll probably eliminate a lot of the excess baggage.

2. Have your car serviced thoroughly. Pay special attention to lights, brakes, tires and steering.

3. Make sure you take along such items as a first aid kit, spare tire and jack.

On the way to your vacation spot, the Council says —

1. Pay strict attention to your speed. And obey traffic signs — they're your signs of life.

2. Look out for the other fellow. A good driver is a defensive driver.

3. Don't overdo it on the road. Take rest stops often, and limit your day's driving to 300-400 miles.

And when you arrive at your destination ... don't overdo it. "Fun is fun," the Council agrees, "but too much exercise can be dangerous. Play in moderation and rest when you're tired." Other suggestions:

1. Swim only as far as you know you can.

2. Look where you're diving. Before you dive, find out about underwater obstacles and the water's depth.

3. Enter cold water gradually.

4. If your boat capsizes, stay with it till help arrives.

5. When it's hot drink lots of liquids.

6. Better be pale than parboiled ... don't get half baked under the sun.

Canadians Greet Their Queen

Now is the winter of our discontent made glorious summer by this smiling great-granddaughter of Queen Victoria, Elizabeth the Second. [illegible] comes at a time of disappointment with the international conference at Geneva, where wise men of the East and West had great argument about it and about, yet evermore came out by the same door wherein they went.

The Queen comes from the Old World to the new, from a land with a history reaching back to the declining days of the Roman Empire, from which Britain inherited the art of government and the urge for colonization, which culminated in a greater empire than Alexander or Caesar ever dreamed of. Canadians are full citizens of the British Commonwealth of Nations today, and as such they will greet and acknowledge the young Elizabeth II as their Queen, with the same loyalty and personal esteem they bestowed upon Queen Victoria during her long and gracious reign.

The Canadian Constitution under the British Crown is not something that has been imposed upon the people of Canada by a foreign power, as is the case of, say, Poland and other Russian satellites. The French people of Quebec might claim that they were subjected to British rule by conquest, but their position after that conquest can not be compared with that of Poland today. In fact after the fall of Quebec they were in a better position politically and in every other way than they were under the rule of France. They were allowed the same freedom as the rest of Canada at that time, and the conquest under Wolfe actually saved them from being absorbed into the United States, which they did not want then, and do not want today.

Quebec was consulted, along with the other provinces, in drawing up the Act of Confederation. That Act assured to the French people their traditional rights, religious and cultural, including the preservation of the French language. Under Confederation with allegiance to the British Crown, Canada was united and has progressed from a colonial status to her present position as the leading member of the Commonwealth of Nations, from an agricultural and lumbering colony to a growingly great industrial nation with the second highest standard of living in the world.

That is something of which all Canadians should be proud, and which they should do their utmost to preserve. To preserve it Canadians fought in two world wars side by side with Australians, New Zealanders and other sons of the Commonwealth. Even the United States, by entering those wars, showed that they felt that the Commonwealth and all it stood for was worth preserving. After all, was not the United States an offspring of the British Empire? Almost the whole of the North American continent was a British colony before the Declaration of Independence, and the fact that the Republic was established with so little forceful interference, and is today a friendly neighbor of Canada is in itself a tribute to British world statesmanship. No part of the Empire was coerced into remaining under the British Crown if it proved itself capable of self-government and wished to withdraw. India and Egypt are examples of withdrawal, although the former is still nominally a member of the Commonwealth.

Canada today is as independent as the United States, and in addition we are linked through a Commonwealth of Nations in our loyalty to a historic Crown under which, since "the spacious times of great Elizabeth," civilization has been extended to the ends of the earth. LONG LIVE THE QUEEN!

Queen Elizabeth II was the first British monarch who was outside of Great Britain at the time of accession to the throne. The World Book Encyclopedia reports that Elizabeth was in Kenya on a round-the-world tour when George VI died.

UNNEIGHBOURLY ACT TO RATS

Every farmer knows how to build good bale stacks. I propose to improve on last year's stack by making certain that the bale string will not be eaten by mice. How is this done? It is done quite easily by baiting the bale stack with warfarin rat bait. This will kill two birds with one stone, the mice will be eliminated and the bale stack will not provide a harborage for rats during the winter. Leave a space down the middle of the first layer of bales. Put in a plastic sack or two of warfarin bait (where it can be examined from time to time after the stack is finished) and plug up the ends of the tunnel. Finish stacking.

Rats like a dark tunnel which they will build for themselves or will use if provided. The bait must be set in such a way that it can be examined to see if more is necessary. Further information may be obtained on baiting bale stacks from Mr He[illegible], field supervisor or Mr [illegible] Cundliffe, pest control officer at M.D. office, Kitscoty.

RABBITS

Many farmers nowadays have found out that a farm flock of one hundred birds or less does not pay. Hence, a good alternative may be in growing rabbits for meat. Some people are finding it a nice way to make an extra dollar without much investment in time building or breeding stock.

Actually the secret lies in using crossbreds. Crossing of Flemish Giants and New Zealand Whites for example, brings out many favorable points in growing rabbits for meat. Here are some advantages in using crossbreds:

1. They make better mothers.
2. Put on gains a lot faster than either of the pure breeds.

LAWNS

In establishing a lawn the following rules should be kept in mind as set forth by the provincial supervisor of horticulture.

The seed bed should consist of four inches of good top soil, well levelled and firmed. Grass seed should be thoroughly mixed and broadcast across the lawn from north to south and again from east to west. Rake lightly one way and give a light rolling if possible. A newly sown lawn must be watered until the moisture has penetrated to at least two inches, with care not to wash out the seed or leave the water lying on the surface. In extremely hot weather burlap laid over the newly seeded lawn will help the germination but it must be removed as soon as the seed begins to sprout.

BREEDING TIME

A period of sixty days or longer should elapse before breeding a cow that had calving trouble or was sick after calving. This time will allow the cow to milk for ten months, be dry and rest for two months and calve once a year.

The Homemaker

NANCY HOOPER
District Home Economist
Wainwright, Alta.

June is the month selected by the Dairy Foods Service Bureau to focus the spotlight on all dairy products. Homemakers use dairy foods so often in cooking that they seem like very plain foods, yet there are many things concerning their use which we are apt to forget.

If a recipe calls for heavy cream and you haven't any on hand, you may substitute ¾ cup milk and 3 tablespoons butter. To sour sweet milk, add 1 tablespoon of vinegar or lemon juice to 1 cup of milk.

Sour milk provides the acid which combines with baking soda to produce leavening action in some biscuits, pancakes and other dishes. In recipes using one cup of sour milk, use ½ teaspoon baking soda to leaven 1 cup flour.

When sour cream is being added as an ingredient to recipes, it should be added slowly or the mixture may curdle. It will also curdle mixtures which are brought to boiling temperatures. It should be added to hot mixtures in a double boiler or to hot food which has been removed from the flame. The temperature of the cooking utensil and the ingredients will heat the sour cream without curdling it.

If cheese is to be cooked, use only moderate temperatures. A high temperature will tend to toughen the protein of cheese making it less digestible. In order to mix cheese evenly with other ingredients, the cheese is usually melted, grated or ground.

When making cheese sauce, the cheese should be added the last and cooked only until melted.

Any uncooked mixture of cheese, eggs and milk to be cooked in the oven should be oven poached. "Oven poach until set" means to place the cheese dish in a pan of hot water and cook in a moderate oven, 350F, until a knife inserted comes out clean.

Scalloped or other cheese dishes made with cooked foods should be baked in a moderate oven for only sufficient time to thoroughly heat the mixture.

We have an excellent pamphlet "Cheese Dishes" which you may have by writing or calling in at this office.

Hi-C Enjoys Successful Season

The United Church Hi C group enjoyed slides and an interesting commentary given by Mr. Heckbert on his trip to Europe recently. The group would like to thank Mr. Heckbert for his co-operation on such short notice. It was a most enjoyable evening.

June 7th saw the close of Hi-C activities for 1958-59 when the Vermilion group was joined with the Vegreville Hi C's in a ball game and supper at the lake. Thanks are extended to Mrs. Ackerman and Mrs. Herbert for helping with the lunch.

The Hi C boys will be relieved of their ushering duties during July and August but will resume ushering in September.

Although this was the first year of organized Hi-C activities in Vermilion, it was quite successful. The main project was the car wash which turned out very well.

The Hi-C members would like to thank Mr. Ackerman, Mrs. Herbert and Mr. Tough for their leadership. Thanks are also extended to the group leaders who have supplied programs each week, to parents who supplied lunches when they were needed, and the people of Vermilion and district who have been so co-operative in the efforts of the group. It is hoped that all members and some new ones too, will be back next September.

Margaret Keast Is Bride In Double Ring Cermeony

A lovely wedding was solemnized at First United Church on Saturday, May 16 at 2:00 p.m. when Margaret Louise Keast, youngest daughter of Mrs. H. Mawhinney, was united in marriage to Roy Drabble, son of Mr and Mrs. P. E. Drabble of Speers, Sask. Bouquets of roses decorated the church for the double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. James Shortt.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her step-father, Mr. Herbert Mawhinney, to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Herbert Webedale. She looked lovely in a chapel train bridal gown with bodice peplum of luxurious chantilly lace, glamorized by a full tiered skirt of shirred ruffles. The sabrina neckline was trimmed with irridescent braid and the sleeves were of lily point style. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a coronet of rhinestones and seed pearls and her jewellery was a silver cross necklace with matching earrings. She carried a cascade of American Beauty roses.

The bride was attended by Miss Jean Holman of Dewberry and Miss Ida Langevin of Edmonton. They wore identical gowns of blue nylon chiffon over taffeta, styled with bodice and full skirts. Their picture hats matched their gowns and they wore white gloves. White Bibles, covered with pink rose buds gifts from the bride were carried by the attendants. Little Patricia Marchant, niece of the groom and Arlene Isert, niece of the bride were flower girls. They wore identical flocked pink nylon dresses with matching hats, white shoes and gloves. They carried baskets of flowers.

Attending the groom were his brothers, Edwin and Rex Drabble. The ushers were Gary Drabble brother of the groom and Earl Keast brother of the bride. The groom's gifts to the attendants and ushers were white ties and gold tie clips.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Mawhinney chose a mint green dress of flocked nylon chiffon, with white accessories and a corsage of pink gardenias. Mrs. Drabble mother of the groom, chose a grey jersey dress with pink accessories and her corsage was of pink gardenias.

RECEPTION AT GRANDPARENTS

Following the ceremony, a reception for approximately 70 guests was held at the home of the grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilson. The bride's table was centred with a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake flanked by vases of pink roses. The bride and groom were seated beneath an arch of various colored roses, and pink and white streamers.

Georgie Butz proposed the toast to the bride in very fitting words, to which the groom ably responded. Miss Doreen Dimmer of Edmonton attended the guest book.

A telegram of best wishes and congratulations was received from Mr and Mrs. Peter Trach of Champion.

For her honeymoon the bride changed to a black and white suit, with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The young couple will make their home in Calgary, Alberta.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. Marchant, Russell Cunningham, Mr and Mrs. R. Oakhouse and Trudy of Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bodie and Grant Cunningham of New Norway. Mrs. Dorothy Parks, Vancouver. Mr. and Mrs. J. Auger and Donna, Duhamel; Rex Drabble, Edwin Drabble, Mr. and Mrs. P. Drabble Gary Drabble, Mr and Mrs Les Bodie, Edgar and Zadie Bodie and family, of Speers, from Edmonton, Doreen Dimmer, Ida Langevin, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. F. Drury, Lois Auger, Vera McFadzen, Florence Butz, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Fleming, Jim Cunningham and Bruce Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Isert, Lloydminster; and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Keast, Vermilion.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

Welcome rain fell on June 10, our first. Last [illegible] our first good rain was May 30. It has been cloudy and showery practically ever since. A slight frost occurred on the morning of June 16.

Congratulations and our best wishes to Mr. Ashley Cooper on winning the election and is now our M.L.A. Also to Mrs. Cooper who will be taking an active part in many ways.

Mrs. Sperer and Mrs. Hyatt from [illegible] and Mrs Ortness [illegible] Allandale attended the Civil Defence Welfare course in Edmonton from Vermilion River M.D. from June 9 to 12. People from many points in Alberta [illegible] attendance. This course was both interesting and [illegible]. One surely doesn't realize the responsibility and the work that is being done by the [illegible] directors at all the government levels. I felt very much at ease as we are very fortunate in having in our M.D. such an efficient leader as Mr George Martin. Civil Defence could be summed up in very few words: Be Prepared to Live.

There was a good attendance at the Campbell Lake R.E.A. annual meeting at the Columbus hall in Clandonald on June 15. Through the kindness of Mr Milo Fleming of Vermilion a very interesting movie of the building of the aluminum plant at Kitimat B.C. was shown plus a short feature.

Church was well attended on Sunday June 21st when a very good sermon for all, especially fathers was heard. The children's story is always impressive with a good moral. Mr Farquhar has had experience in an orphans home and with his ability would be a 'big' brother to all the unfortunate children deprived of parents and home. There will be no Sunday school or church service on the 28th. Weather permitting the service will be held at Lake Whitney camp site at 11 a.m. with lunch following. What a grand opportunity to renew acquaintances and make new ones with Rev. Short's congregation.

An enjoyable afternoon was had at the home of Mr and Mrs Milt Farrell on June 21st when a shower was held for Mrs. Viola Maggs Kashuba. Mr and Mrs Nick Kashuba spent the week end with their relatives and friends in Vermilion and district. They are making their home in Lamont. Viola and Nick were very appreciative of the lovely gifts received. A delicious lunch was served and the visit was much enjoyed. Thanks to Zella and Milt for their kindness and hospitality.

On June 21st Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Ommen and daughter Irene from New Sarepta and Grandma Bury from Portland, Ore. were visitors at the home of Lorlene and Jack Hobbs and family in town. Grandma is visiting at her son Dave and Velda's in Lloydminster, and the Ommen family returned home the same day.

On June 21st Frank and Helen Schmid and family and Anna and Pete Lacusta of Lloydminster were all visitors at the Isidore Nelson home. That day Lee and Joan Nelson were enjoying a fishing trip at Garnier Lake.

Mr and Mrs Louis Boblock from Camrose spent the week end with daughter Beryl and Tommy, the Groeve family in the city on June 14.

On June 16 Mrs. Lucy Lundblad of Valley View called at the Walsh home in Edmonton. Her daughter Elaine is attending Alberta College.

Mr and Mrs Sid Pratt of Edmonton wish to be remembered to all their friends in Allandale. Their daughter Dorothy her husband and family [illegible] are planning to [illegible] in July.

Mr and Mrs Ed Magistad of Ponoka [illegible] the home of [illegible] and family on June 9. They were on [illegible] summer resort home at Lake Wabamun. Mr Arthur Lord [illegible] and enjoying his [illegible].

Closing thought: Your church has much to offer you. Remember, there are many things that need to be done in this world of ours, and there's a job for you to do. Talk it over with your minister, then, make up your life, not just your mind."

Students Visit Standard Plant

Twenty-six students of the junior high school visited the Standard plant last Wednesday and saw much of the machinery in action, turning out various stages of the newspaper. They witnessed the actual typesetting, saw the newspaper press in operation, how the type was made up into forms, each form a page of the newspaper, and some of the lesser operations such as pulling proofs on the proof press and reading the proofs for errors.

On completion of the tour, Ken Moren was called on by Mrs. June Mix, their teacher, to express thanks on behalf of the class to the Cooper Brothers and Bus Larkins for the various demonstrations. Kenny looked very thoughtful for a few moments and one of his classmates to encourage him said, "Come on on Kenny, you know what to say." "Sure I know what to say," replied Kenny, "but I'm just proof-reading it."

Jehovah Witness Supt. Visitor Here

The Vermilion congregation of of Jehovah's witnesses had a visit of the circuit supervisor of Toronto last week. Mr. A. M. Didur and his wife Peggy stayed at the residence of Mr and Mrs. Abe Friesen.

Wednesday through Sunday some time was devoted to field missionary service each day. Mr Didur joined ministers from the local congregation in making calls on residents in the community. This is part of the regular door-to-door ministry and training program of Jehovah's witnesses.

Sunday afternoon at the public talk in town, Mr. Didur spoke on the subject, "What is the Divine Will for Our Day?" He stated that there is a general apathy toward Divine Will on the part of the world and many individuals want to go their way. "The Divine Will must be done upon this earth as sincere people have prayed because Jehovah is Creator and his laws control the universe, not man. It means sweeping changes for the system of things not in harmony with the Divine Will to be destroyed at Armageddon and the earth be made a [illegible] paradise." He urged all present to study their Bible, separate themselves from the man made schemes to rule the world and serve God in harmony with His Divine Will.

Mr. A. Friesen local presiding minister of Jehovah's witnesses, stated that the witnesses [illegible] preaching in 175 [illegible]. Behind the 'iron curtain' in Communistic lands there are over [illegible] Jehovah's witnesses preaching underground in spite of the fierce persecution. In Eastern Germany alone 400 are now serving time in the penitentiaries. Throughout the world there are over 800,000 witnesses preaching from house-to-house.

Mr. and Mrs. Didur have left for Clandonald congregation where they will be spending a week in that locality. They will be staying with Mr and Mrs. George Bodnar in Clandonald.

The Adams family applied the adage Like father like son to the highest office in the U.S. The World Book Encyclopedia says John and his son, John Quincy Adams are the only father and son who both became president.

Of Many Things . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

We've got to keep things in balance where an hour's labor on the farm can be traded for an hour's labor in the city. Otherwise we're sunk. You just can't force high-priced products on foreign buyers.

I spent the week end with farm relatives. They have very nice homes, most of the modern conveniences, but they find ready cash hard to come by. Other farmers from the district also dropped in and there was a good deal of talk about farm problems.

Earlier in the day, I had walked and driven about the countryside a good deal, in search of ducks. I had been impressed by many of the older buildings, built at least a generation ago. So when the problems had all been talked over at length, I asked a question that had been bothering me.

"How," I asked, "did the men and women who lived on these farms — in some cases your fathers or uncles — manage to build such impressive buildings? This house we are in, for example, with so many fine rooms for the family and also that big annex for staff. Was farming so much better then, before they had such good roads, so many fine implements, fertilizers, weed sprayers and the rest? Were they supermen or is there something wrong with you?"

We were all friends and relatives, so I had hoped to start a lively but friendly little battle.

Instead, my cousin said "Say, I've often wondered about that myself. My forebears must have been darn good farmers. If I had to build this house now I just couldn't raise that kind of money. And if the wife had to go back to canning, curing, cooking and the rest of it on the old fashioned range without running water beside her, I think she'd head for the city!"

His wife laughed. "It's a silly question," she admitted. "But I think I know how they did it. To start with, they didn't need a great lot of cash money. Everything they bought came cheaper, a lot cheaper. John put a metal roof on that old granary — and that roof alone probably cost several times more than the whole granary cost when his father started farming here. And you should see the bills we pay for gas and oil, for equipment, for clothing, for everything we buy. And believe me, one way or another we pay for our better roads and better schools and all the rest. It's impossible these days to decide to be thrifty — the government forces you to progress, even if it breaks you!"

Well, that started it! And much to my surprise, the farmers were more critical of themselves than I thought any group could be.

"We've concentrated on getting higher prices for our products — the toughest job. We'd have been better to resist the high prices of things we must buy. We ought to fight to keep taxes down, inflation in check, wages [illegible] so that we could sell our products and avoid surpluses

Anders O. Aalborg
Social Credit Candidate for Alexandra

The people of Alberta have given their Social Credit Government another overwhelming endorsation at the polls. On the basis of unofficial and incomplete returns over 405,000 voters cast their ballots on June 18, and of these over 228,000 or about 56% were marked in favor of Social Credit candidates. In the last general election held on June 29, 1955, 378,179 ballots were cast with 175,553, or about 47% for Social Credit. The support received by other parties may be summarized as follows: Liberal candidates received nearly 57,000 votes or about 14% of the total as compared with 117,741 votes or about 31% of the total in 1955; Tory candidates received nearly 95,000 votes or about 23% of the total as compared with 34,757 votes or about 9% of the total in 1955. CCF candidates received over 18,000 votes or about 5% of the total as compared with 31,180 votes or about 8% of the total in 1955. Before the election was called party standings in the Alberta Legislature were: Social Credit, 37; Liberal 15; Conservative 3; CCF, 2; Independent 4, for a total of 61. As a result of the election just held which all but wiped out Opposition parties the Legislature will consist of the following: Social Credit 61; Liberal 1; Conservative 1; Ind. 1; Ind. Social Credit 1, for a total of 65.

[illegible] BROKEN

The sweeping victory won by Social Credit on June 18 sets a new record for provincial elections in Canada. Very few provincial governments have been elected for seven consecutive terms of office and on no previous occasion has the Government of any province been returned with such a huge majority after serving for nearly 24 years.

When final returns are in I shall report further election results throughout the province, and make a few comparisons and for Alexandra in particular, with statistics from previous elections which will be of interest to readers of this column.

SINCERE THANKS

The resounding vote of confidence which the people of Alberta have given Premier Ernest Manning and his Social Credit Government will be a very strong factor in maintaining the rapid and orderly development which the province has experienced particularly since the last war. Alberta will continue to have stable government with policies which are well known, respected and trusted by the various elements which [illegible] up the complex social and economic structure of the province. All this spells further steady growth and progress during the bright future now before us.

The dramatic results obtained in this election were made possible by the co-operation and support of thousands of interested and public-spirited men and women in all parts of the province. I feel highly elated over the [illegible] success Social Credit has scored at the polls but also very humble in the face of the added responsibility imposed on the Government by the very heavy majority which it will enjoy in the legislature, and deeply grateful for all the generous help during the course of the campaign. May I take this opportunity to extend a [illegible] and hearty "thank you" to each and every citizen in Alexandra who contributed in any way to the success of the Social Credit campaign. Your generous encouragement and support are deeply appreciated and will serve as a great inspiration to me in representing you in the legislature and Government of the province for another term. With your continued co-operation and support we shall make greater progress than during any previous period in our history.

SQUARE NOTES From Circle 8

Hi again square dancers! Quite a group of Circle Eight members journeyed to Islay on Wednesday evening to join in on another evening of fun and dancing. Henry Lien was behind the mike and a good time was had by all present.

On Friday night, June 19, two car loads of local square dancers travelled to the Cold Lake air base where an evening of square dancing was enjoyed. It was a new adventure to the Circle Eight members to dance at Cold Lake and they really were given a hearty welcome. They don't have mixer dances up there so everyone mixes themselves. There wasn't a dull or idle moment all night and the members of the Cold Lake club would be pleased to see some Vermilionites at their future dances.

Due to the rain on Saturday evening, the dance at the band shell wasn't too well attended, but the ones who braved the weather had a swell time and enjoyed the wonderful lunch which followed the dance. There will be another dance at the bandshell on Saturday night July 4th with Johnny Maxwell doing the calling. Circle Eight members please bring sandwiches.

Alberta Lynx For Winnipeg Zoo

WINNIPEG, — A northern Canada female lynx arrived at the C.N. Express terminal here last week. Shipped from the Alberta game farms near Edmonton, Alberta, to the Assiniboine zoo, it weighed 50 pounds and will be the mate for the male lynx there.

Dr. Guenter Voss, Assiniboine Zoo director said the arrival of the animal is the beginning of a long-range program to stock a big cat enclosure at the zoo which will include bobcats, cougars and lynx, all native animals of Canada.

Christ Church W. A. Meet at Mannville

MANNVILLE — Due to the death of an oldtime W. A. member (a lifetime member) of Vermilion, Miss Grace A. Bury, Mannville senior W. A. members postponed their picnic meeting which was to have been held at the home of the president, Mrs. R. Whitson. Several of the members attended Miss Bury's funeral on that day and returned later to the home of Mrs. A. E. Williams for their meeting. Reports of the business meeting were read and adopted, following the litany led by Mrs. Rutherford. Discussion took place regarding suitable cloth for kneelers for the church. Recent bazaar and bake sale held in conjunction with the June tea was a reported success. A donation was made to the vestry, and a chapter was read from the study book. A delicious lunch concluded the meeting.

Since 1945 the productive capacity of Canada's steel industry has increased by 70 per cent.

OUR LETTER FROM EDMONTON

Reasons for SC Victory

by KEN MASON

EDMONTON — No problem deciding what to write about this week.

The problem is what to say about it. What do you say about a victory as overwhelming as the one scored by Premier Manning's powerful Social Credit machine in last Thursday's provincial election? It speaks for itself.

With 61 of the 65 Legislature seats in the bag, Social Credit has the biggest House majority of its 24 years in office. During the coming four years the Socreds will face a pitifully small 'Opposition' of four members or only three really when you consider the leanings of Independent Social Crediter Earl Ansley of Leduc.

The question most political observers and politicians were asking themselves after the landslide was "How come?"

Premier Manning, naturally enough, attributes the avalanche to public acceptance of his government's program and confidence in the ability of his administration to continue its efficient management of the affairs of the province.

But there were possibly other factors as well. The results can be taken as a reflection of a big drop in support for the Progressive Conservatives — a surprising drop when you consider Alberta returned 17 Tories in the last federal election.

As for the drubbing the Liberals took, it's hard to explain. As the official Opposition in the House for the past four years, the Liberals had been doing a good job and were conceded by many to have made a valuable contribution to the handling of provincial affairs.

A factor not to be overlooked is the switch to the simple 'X' ballot as is in general use all across Canada. It's pure conjecture to say the results might have been different under the old transferable ballot system but it might have brought in a few more opposition members.

Under the X system it's too easy for the government candidate to be elected through a split of the opposition votes among two or more opposing parties. The opposition parties may start thinking again about joining forces as independents or coalition in an effort to try to whittle down the Socred majority in the next election.

Most Social Crediters think the Tories' personal attack on Premier Manning boomeranged. The Tories were referring to the premier and his cabinet ministers as "tired, arrogant old men". As the Socreds see it, the effect of this was to rally support behind the premier.

Liberals probably were up against it from two angles — the upsurge in support for Social Credit, and the resurgence of the Tories as a political force. And it's obvious now the Liberals missed Harper Prowse and Hugh John MacDonald, two stalwarts who decided not to run this time.

A wildly jubilant crowd of Social Crediters gathered in Alberta College auditorium here on election night to watch the results pour in. There was a 45-second standing ovation for Premier Manning when he came in about 10.30 p.m.

The rank and file of Social Credit supporters were deliriously happy, but a few more sober heads were wondering whether the landslide will be good for the party or for Alberta. Some highly placed Socred officials said privately they would like to have seen a bigger opposition.

Even Premier Manning said the lack of a strong opposition will impose a "different set of circumstances" on the government. He said government members will have to pay strict attention to all details while the House is in session, and make sure their program is "vital and active" instead of relying on the opposition to create interest.

An interesting question to be decided now is the choice of an official leader of the Opposition. Michael Maccagno, the lone Liberal from Lac La Biche, Ernest Watkins, Calgary Conservative, and Frank Gainer, the Coalition member from Banff Cochrane, all consider themselves in the running. They'll have to fight it out among themselves and ask Mr. Speaker for official recognition.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

If you're planning a summer vacation trip now, you will want to give some thought on how to keep the family in good health while you're away from home.

Does any member of the family suffer from hay fever or a similar allergy? Better check on your vacation spot to see if it's relatively pollen free. Your provincial government offices can supply you with this information.

Will elderly people travel with you? Try to find a vacation spot that affords recreation for them, too. Mountain resorts or other vacation spots at high altitudes can be uncomfortable for those with heart trouble or breathing difficulties.

Excessive heat and humidity are health problems for some folks — another item to check before making accommodations make sure that all members of the family can recognize poison ivy and poison oak. An ounce of prevention is worth lotions of cure.

If you're motoring to some distant spot where the climate and food will be markedly different from those at home, check with your family doctor. His professional advice can help you to a happy vacation.

The date your subscription to the Standard expires is shown on the label after your name. Check that date now.

News from Tullby Lake

The school children motored down to Marwayne to participate in the recent division track meet. They came back with 5 wins to their credit. These winners then went on to compete in the finals at Kitscoty on June 5th, coming home with three wins.

A mere sprinkling of Tullby Lakers attended the Farmers' Day picnic up in the Frog Lake country on June 13. This event is sponsored annually by the Heinsburg Local of the F.U.A. Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Cooke entered their well known horse 'Tony' in one of the horse races and although he has reached reached the outstanding age of 34 years he came in fourth. He was about twelve lengths in the lead for half the distance and would have no doubt made an even better showing had his usual rider been in the saddle.

Lars Belsheim Jr has traded off his car and now in its place he is sporting a new [illegible] colored delivery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Brown were down from Edmonton and while here they attended the wedding dance of Florence Harwood and Dick Harris.

Doreen and Raymond Nelin, Gordon and Emma Coleman, Hector Benson and Juvenile Behrens all attended the Grand Ol' Opry presentation in Lloydminster on Thursday, June 11.

A meeting of the Burke Lake Cattle Association was held on Friday evening last at the home of Cecil Trimble. Among the business discussed was the ratification of the sale of [illegible] Skidmore's share in the [illegible] to Bill Nelson.

Doug Cooke is the first in the district to purchase a Charolais bull and informs us that his intentions are to eventually go out of Herefords altogether.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fair on the birth of a daughter born in the Lloydminster hospital.

Mrs. E. Bransgrove is spending her holidays with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. Hoskins. Mrs. Bransgrove at one time ran a boarding house and restaurant in Paradise Valley. It was the first one of its kind in 1929.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Adamson of Kilgore, Nebraska were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Aitken. Mr. Adamson worked for Mr. Aitken some years ago.

Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Murray McDonald of Edmonton on the birth of a son. Mrs. McDonald was the former Beatrice Krugness.

Election day passed off very quietly in town. No excitement of any kind. When the ballots had been counted, the Social Crediters were all smiles, the Conservatives pretty blue, while the Liberals were very quiet, as their candidate was far behind.

Mr and Mrs. M. Mosher and Mrs. Brine of Maine, U. S. A., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Aitken on their way for an extended visit that will take them all over Canada and the U. S.

Mrs. Joseph Mayo had as her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Web Moore of Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs. M. MacKay of Courtney, B. C.

Mr. J. D. McDonald, who has been C. P. R. station agent for the past six months, left for his home at Melfort, Sask., on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Halters and family spent the week end at their old home at Melfort, Sask.

REMODELLING YOUR BATHROOM

Perhaps no room announces the age of a house so much as the bathroom. It is no wonder that so many women cast a baleful eye on this tattle-tale room.

But remodelling it is a major job — and basic mistakes can be costly.

Collect pictures of bathrooms you admire and make notes of the features adaptable to the size of your room as well as your family needs. This will establish your major structural changes.

Consider the variety of available materials: paint, wallpaper, wall tile, flooring, plastic laminates. You will undoubtedly want real tile — that is, ceramic tile — for your walls. You can choose either a 4 inch or 6 inch wall tile. Your choice will depend on the size of your room.

Treat yourself to a built-in vanity table. This gives you extra counter space for pretty bottles and your more attractive bath and cosmetic preparations. If your budget permits, plan extra drawer space underneath the vanity for your linens and towels.

And finally colour. Your ceramic tile is available in a great variety of colors that can blend with, or complement, colored fixtures. Unless you are particularly devoted to white, do consider both colored tile and fixtures. But a word of caution. Don't get involved with too many colors.

No more than two basic colors should be used for fixtures, walls and floors. If you choose pale pink ceramic tile, then paint your walls above the tile a matching pink. Your bathroom fixtures might be a medium brown or cocoa. Your floor, then, can be light brown or beige, a combination of brown and pink, or off white.

In selecting accessories (shower curtains, window curtains, bath set, towels) remember to use only one stripe and one pattern. All other areas should be plain. For instance, if you like striped towels and patterned curtains — don't use patterned wall paper!

Use good materials. Labour costs are high. It's not practical to use inferior products. You'll enjoy the easy upkeep of ceramic tile. You'll love the luxury of colored fixtures. So if you do it at all — do it right!

EPILEPSY

Of all the ailments to which humanity is subject, few have been so widely misunderstood as epilepsy. Superstitions, half-truths and prejudices, accumulated through the centuries, work their damage to this day despite the fact that medical science has changed the entire outlook for the epileptic from discouragement and resignation to well founded optimism and hope.

Epilepsy is a fairly common disease — it is conservatively estimated there are over 75,000 cases in Canada — which affects persons in all walks of life. Authorities now state that with proper treatment the great majority of this number, about four in every five, can lead relatively normal lives.

The emphasis, they point out, lies on the words with proper treatment, because the real tragedy is that so many epileptics are not receiving the right medical and social care. And the blame for this situation rests with the confused thinking which exists about the illness. Let's take a look at the facts.

WHAT IS EPILEPSY?

Epilepsy is the Greek word for "seizure" and it's the seizure or fit or attack which is the most characteristic thing about it. Doctors have classified such seizures into four main types but there is an infinite variety of ways in which they may occur in respect to their timing, severity and other effects on different individuals.

GRAND MAL

The patient loses consciousness, his arms and legs twitching convulsively, and he falls to the ground. There may be some frothing at the mouth accompanied by moans and cries. The attack usually lasts about a minute after which he lies relaxed. To the bystander seeing all this for the first time it can be a rather unpleasant experience. The patient, however, isn't in pain and it isn't necessary to hold him during the [illegible] stage. Placing some object between his teeth prevents him from biting his tongue and lips and it's wise to move any furniture out of the way.

The patient may sleep heavily for a few hours after the attack (and this is the time to move him, if necessary) or he may get up and feel dull for a short period. No stimulants should be given and it's not necessary to call a doctor except in very severe cases, unless the attack is happening for the first time, particularly in the case of a child.

PETIT MAL

This is probably more common than the grand mal but the attacks are often overlooked because they are so brief, the patient losing consciousness for only a few seconds. An eyelid or eyebrow may twitch rhythmically and he may drop what he has in his hands or stop in the middle of a sentence. He rarely falls.

Petit mal attacks in children sometimes disappear without medical treatment but quite frequently develop into the grand mal form. For this reason prompt medical advice is necessary.

PSYCHOMOTOR AND JACKSONIAN SEIZURES

Psychomotor seizures are those in which the mental stability of the patient is temporarily affected — he becomes unreasonable, has a tantrum or suddenly behaves oddly, such as throwing things to the floor. These attacks vary greatly in their symptoms. The patient suffers temporary amnesia and doesn't remember what happened although he may seem to be quite aware of what he's doing during the seizure, which can last from a few minutes to some hours.

In Jacksonian seizures convulsive movements start in a leg or arm and then spread to the rest of the body. The patient usually stays conscious during the first part of the attack and is aware of the jerking or numbness spreading from his limbs.

WHAT CAUSES EPILEPSY?

Epileptic seizures result from an irritation of the brain tissues. This irritation, in turn, may be caused by any one of many factors, some still not fully understood — infections, tumors, brain injuries during birth or after, glandular disturbances in other parts of the body etc.

Most epilepsy is termed "idiopathic," — a medical name meaning the cause is not known. Emotional upsets may be the trigger setting off a seizure, and are often considered to be an important factor in epilepsy which develops later in life, but are themselves not a true cause.

Some patients feel an epileptic seizure coming on and have time to prepare for it, withdrawing from whatever activity they've been doing. But this "aura" or warning sensation may or may not precede the attack.

Heredity is not as important as was once supposed. The chance that an epileptic parent will have an epileptic child is about one in fifty as against one in 200 for non-epileptic parents.

SEEK MEDICAL ADVICE

Only a qualified medical practitioner should diagnose and treat epilepsy. X-rays and brain-wave recordings give him additional information about the nature and possible causes of the seizures. The electro-encephalograph is the machine which measures brain waves by a simple, painless and interesting procedure.

THE MEDICAL TREATMENT

Recent medical advance in the treatment of epilepsy with anti-convulsive drugs has been dramatically impressive. These drugs, used under strict medical supervision, have been able to control seizures completely in over 50% of cases. In an additional 30%, seizures have been reduced to such a point that the patients lead normal, productive lives.

It should be noted that this treatment is more in the nature of a control than a cure (similar in this respect to the way insulin controls diabetes). The medicine is usually taken by mouth in tablet or capsule form and on a regular schedule to be effective. None of the prescribed drugs is habit forming and each patient must have his dosage carefully planned — the reason for having a qualified doctor in charge of the case.

To attempt to "cure" oneself by patent medicine is not only less effective but more expensive and even dangerous.

Next week we will consider the social treatment of epilepsy when it is most likely to start, and review further facts about the disease.

MAKE IT A SAFE HOLIDAY
JULY 1ST

SAFE DRIVING

You may know the fundamentals of safe driving but here are some extra pointers:

- Read and heed traffic warning signs and signals. They're for your protection.
- Allow plenty of time so you don't have to hurry.
- Try to maintain the same speed as other traffic to avoid passing or being passed.
- At railway crossings, open a window to listen. Look both ways.
- Watch out for pedestrians or animals on the highway.
- If you get drowsy, get off the highway and take a nap.

SAFE BOATING

Small boats are fun, but don't go into them unless you can swim. An overloaded or out-of-balance boat can easily tip. When embarking, rest your hands on both gunwales and step into the centre. Once seated, stay put. Changing seats or standing up in any small craft is asking for trouble. If your boat capsizes, hang on and wait for help. If anyone falls overboard, reach to him with a paddle, rope, jacket or almost anything and lead him to the rear of the boat. If your boat carries a motor be careful of spilled or leaking gasoline. Even a small fire can be disastrous in a boat. A properly equipped boat has a life preserver for each passenger.

SAFE SUNNING

Sure, get out and get under the sun, but don't overdo it. No sense spending your vacation "all burned up". If you don't want to be as red as a lobster, suntan oil will help, but never stay in the sun until your skin begins to redden. If you do, you'll have a real burn. Always get into the shade a little before you should.

Any time you perspire a great deal, eat extra salt to avoid heat exhaustion.

SAFE SHOOTING

Keep your gun "on safety" until ready to fire. When walking in single file the lead man should carry his gun pointing forward. The others should carry theirs [illegible] or arms. To go through a fence, unload the gun and put it on the other side first. Never shoot at anything you can't see clearly.

SAFE WATER SPORTS

Come on in . . . the water's fine; but wait two hours after eating. Don't dive unless you're sure the water is deep enough and free from rocks, stumps or old pilings. Never swim alone and never continue to swim away from shore until you become tired. Remember after first warning you'll tire rapidly, so keep plenty of reserve strength to return to shallow water. Tired muscles cramp easily.

Unless you're an expert swimmer, don't try water skiing. If you're learning to fly-cast, better start without a hook. Fish-hooks make very nasty wounds.

Over 500 Persons Attend Mannville Junior High Commencement Exercises

MANNVILLE — Thursday, June 11, was the date chosen by the Junior High students for the Commencement exercises and the auditorium was almost filled with a crowd of over 500 estimated to be present. Beginning at 8 p.m. Chairman Hugh Doherty welcomed the crowd after the singing of O Canada and introduced Mrs. M. Morrison who in turn announced names of students taking part in the exercises as they came on stage in a processional seating drill. There were 40 students in this grade 9 class, who will enter high school next term, and for this occasion the auditorium was suitably decorated with large black lettered words "Commencement '59" across the upper part of the stage. The scenic beauty of Japan was borrowed from graduation exercises, while Oriental messages of good will on black paper were attractively displayed to students. The Invocation prayer was offered by Rev. Harry Shell.

Mr. Joe Kufeldt, divisional school board member expressed pleasure at being present. He brought congratulations from the board, and hoped that students would number the same in three years [illegible] at graduation [illegible] high school. "Education," [illegible] Mr. Kufeldt, "is one of the few things given away, and up to grade 12 it is free." He impressed upon them the importance of continuing to grade 12 and wished them all success in the future. Following this address Miss Ruth Hughes, one of the grade nine students, gave a delightful rendition of "Jeanine I Dream of Lilac Time" accompanied by Miss Lynn Kreller of the same class. Amid a setting of vases with lilacs, the song was most enchanting in its loveliness.

The Valedictory address was given in a most capable manner by Stuart Forsyth who said, "I have been asked to give this address. Last year at Commencement exercises, Mr. Novak of Vermilion School Division expressed his opinion that Commencement exercises were well named and extremely important to the student concerned. Tonight we have the opportunity to pause and reflect upon what we have so far achieved, and rededicate ourselves to the years of learning that are to be. For the students of grade 9 the years of enforced education are almost complete, and now we must realize it is up to us. The choice is ours. Not only will education provide us with more of the material things of life but it will also enrich our lives by affording us a greater depth of appreciation of the immaterial. Life is a continual process of education and we must always keep our minds open to receive and examine new ideas."

The commencement address was delivered by Alvin Myhre, B.Ed., principal of Minburn school who deemed it an honor to be present where he once taught school. A humorous speaker, Mr. Myhre promised not to keep the young folks too long as dancing was to follow later. He based his address on the question "What use is Education?" The [illegible] he felt were only too well known. No one should [illegible] self full of education without the ability to think. So the first thing was to train people to think. Ignorance was the biggest malefactor in life, he said, while education in itself was a challenge to young students to follow the true, beautiful and the good, providing them with standards with which to judge values.

Touching on resources, Mr. Myhre pointed out their uselessness without intelligence and talents of the people to develop them. In the present we live in a world of crisis at home and abroad. "What is education?" asked Mr. Myhre, "giving students a fund of knowledge from which to draw fundamental ideas."

Following a most enjoyable musical selection by Miss Lorraine Young, Barry Weaverbon, Rose Semeniuk and Lynne Kreller, the awards were presented.

PRINCIPAL RETIRES

The occasion although a happy one was somewhat touched with sadness as retiring principal Doherty delivered his farewell address to students and parents.

Following Mr. Doherty's address, Angus Smith was asked to come forward. Mr. Smith will succeed Mr. Doherty as principal next term.

After the singing of the Queen, the floor was cleared for dancing, as young and old joined in the fun. Dubor's orchestra of Vegreville supplied the music. At midnight a delicious lunch was served and dancing continued until 1 a.m.

The teachers and students wish it to be made known that they deeply appreciated all those who helped in any way towards the success of the Commencement exercises.

Gideons Give 8,000 New Testaments

E. E. Wichens, assistant director of personnel for the provincial government, was elected president of Gideons International, Edmonton camp. He succeeds [illegible].

Mr. Wichens, a member of the Gideons for 15 years, reported at the annual meeting that the Edmonton camp had distributed to grade 5 students about 4,500 gift New Testaments in the city and about 3,500 in rural north Alberta. Making a total of 8,000 during the twelve months.

He said another 337 Hospital Testaments will be placed in the University hospital in addition to 600 given last year.

In Alberta, 28,000 New Testaments and Bibles were given out during the past year's activities. The world total stands at approximately 41,000,000 in [illegible] different countries and the Canadian total at approximately 3,000,000 to date.

Mr. [illegible], chairman of the hotels, motels, hospitals and [illegible] distribution committee, said that 671 Bibles or New Testaments had been placed in these locations.

The Gideons Memorial Bible Plan again proved popular in that many who lost loved ones or friends dedicated a Bible in their memory.

[illegible] NEWS

Here is an item we overlooked [illegible] last week: On Thursday evening June 11, Linda Ruth Smith and Maureen Cruthers had a party at Linda's home when they entertained their roommates of the senior room at the school. Games, some dancing and viewing television filled up the evening which was completed with a bountiful lunch. Everyone reported having a very good time.

In our church service last Sunday Mr. Nicholls spoke on "Humility" in his series of Christian living. He really puts a lot of thought and study into his sermons and makes one anticipate his sermon each Sunday.

The big Alberta election is now history and we extend congratulations to Ashley Cooper on his victory at the polls and our [illegible] who did not make the grade. All cannot win.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Steward of Seattle, Wash., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith of Whitmore for a couple of weeks. They are quite enthused with this part of the country. It certainly does look nice now after those grand rains we have had. What a difference a bit of moisture makes!

Mr. and Mrs. R. Latta of Edmonton visited over the week end with Mrs. Latta's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. Holte and Baillie. They came with the latter folks to church Sunday. We were pleased to have Mrs. Steward at church also.

The writer had a nice letter recently from Earl Robinson, our student minister last year. He is working in Halifax but will be relieving minister in a United Church during August. He and Mrs. Robinson are both keeping well and they wished to be remembered to all their friends on this field and [illegible]. He still carries out his Salvation Army work on Sundays too. We wish he and Mrs. Robinson every success.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Wallington visited for a short while with Mr. and Mrs. George Symes. Mrs. Symes was not too well but quite cheerful and thankful she is able to be up for a short time some days. Keep up the good fight Gladys, you will win out with the spirit you have.

Several from our way attended the Wainwright Stampede last week. Buster Newman won the chuckwagon races both evenings.

Mr. Tom Best [illegible] Saturday afternoon at the [illegible] Crothers' home in Whitmore.

Mrs. Coburn Sr. who had visited her daughter Mrs. Howard of Whitmore and her son Howard Coburn for three weeks, returned to her home near Victoria, B.C., on June 12.

J. C. Wallington has now completed the work on the Vermilion hospital grounds. With new cement curbs and sidewalks, gravel driveways and lots of black dirt for lawns it has certainly made a vast difference to the appearance of the grounds.

Congrats to Mr. and Mrs. John Babel of Dawson Creek, B.C. (nee Berna Beaulieu) on the birth of a son June 2; also to Mr. and Mrs. George Mead of Campbell Lake on the birth of a son.

Jim Robson Hands Over Rotary Gavel To President Ross Boake

Jim Robson handed over the gavel to Ross Boake at the Rotary club dinner on Friday indicating that the latter was the new president of the club. Prior to officially presenting the gavel, retiring president Robson reviewed the accomplishments of the year, had words of praise where it was due, and generally inspired the members to greater things in the year to come.

In keeping with the name, officers of the Rotary club rotate each year, every office changing with the exception of the secretary-treasurer. Officers duly installed on Friday were — President — Ross Boake; Vice-president — Elmore Stewart; Sec-treas. — Reg Mitchell. Directors — Stan Jones, who will be in charge of vocational service; Ben King, Community service; Fred Stewart, International Service.

The Vermilion Rotary club won two provincial competitions during the year closing, that of having the highest percentage of attendance; and having the most meetings attended by one hundred percent of the members. The club gained 4 in membership in the period, starting with 35 and at the end of June 1959 had increased this to 39. The club also showed a nice bank balance of some $4,000.00 with which to carry out community endeavors on a wide number of projects.

Prior to the closing of the meeting, thanks of the club were extended by Ross to the retiring officers for an active and interesting year. As a climax President Boake decorated Jim with a past-president's pin.

Prin. David Accepts New Position

With the ending of the school term came the announcement that high school principal John David had accepted the position of assistant superintendent for the Vermilion school division. The local board at the regular monthly meeting on Monday night expressed regret that Mr. David was leaving the school but as the new position is in the nature of a promotion, congratulations were extended to him with every wish for his success in the future. Attending the board meeting were chairman Don Taylor and trustees F. Schurman, C. N. Brennan, R. G. Ross and Ashley Cooper.

Applications for the principalship are now being considered with personal interviews set for this week end.

The teacher situation has shown a decided improvement for the corresponding time for several years past, and while there have been some resignations, all positions with the exception of one grade nine and one grade three have already been filled. A list of the teacher appointments will appear in an early issue of the Standard, possibly next week.

Well Attended Hereford Tour Visits District Stock Farms

On Saturday, June 27th, the Northern Alberta Hereford Association members met in Vermilion at 9.30 a.m. to begin a tour of the outstanding Hereford breeding farms in this area. The first point of call was Jack Tucker's place, where the entourage was met by an unusual mascot for the Hereford men — a donkey who brayed a loud and unmusical welcome. President Jack Cross, with promptings by Mr. Tucker, gave a short resume of the breeding of the animals on display for the group.

The cavalcade of approximately 35 cars of member and other interested spectators went on to the Jack Cross farm where his herd was penned up in the corrals at the farmstead. These animals, also, received a very serious and thorough inspection. The next place of call was that of the Simonets where their fancy herd of Herefords had been corralled for inspection, and the blood lines were explained.

At Homer Campbell's, which the increasingly large contingent of cars reached by noon, the Herefords were to be seen in a pasture north of the farmstead, and such was the number of spectators that the cars were able to surround the herd and hold them for inspection. At still another pasture two cowboys on a pair of fancy horses rounded up Herefords to be viewed by the crowd.

Picnic lunches were eaten on the grass at Campbell's and then everyone was given an opportunity to estimate the weight of a Hereford calf tied in the barnyard. Mr. Campbell had donated a Hereford rug as a prize for the closest estimate. This was won by Keith Weaver of Lloydminster, a 4-H club member who, along with four others had guessed within one pound of the correct weight, 1176 lbs. A noteworthy achievement among so many stockmen, was that of Curt Alfke, manager of the Bank of Commerce at Vermilion. His estimate was one of the winning ones, but he lost out in the subsequent draw.

A few cars returned home following the lunch interval, but the major portion of the cavalcade carried on to the Beizil Blue Hill Hereford farm just east of St. Paul. This herd is particularly noteworthy in that it has the record achievement of having had the Grand Champion bull in the Calgary show for two years in succession, something that has never before been done. Previous to that, the Beizils had the Reserve Championship at Calgary. When the Vermilion part of the tour arrived at the Beizil farm there were about 75 cars already in attendance. The show animals were well displayed in various corrals and the crowd was given an explanation of the breeding history of the Herefords.

BILL MEAD SPEAKS

W. H. Mead, Livestock Commissioner for Alberta, spoke to the assemblage on performance testing and explained that such programs are very difficult to administer.

Caterers set up an efficient arrangement for feeding the several hundred people in attendance. After supper there were several small prizes given to holders of the lucky numbers. Mr. N. N. Bentley, principal of the School of Agriculture at Vermilion, spoke to the gathering of his experiences in Egypt, [illegible] something of the agricultural practices in that distant country.

There were visitors on the Hereford tour from as far away as Nebraska, U.S.A., and New Westminster, B.C. There were those who came from Calgary, many from Edmonton and several from points between the two cities. There were also representatives from most of the towns north and south and on Highway 16. The interest displayed in the show herds to be seen within a comparatively short distance of Vermilion is an indication of the high standard of livestock breeding that is being done in this part of Alberta.

Ghosts Win Top Money At Fabyan

Combining superb pitching with solid hitting and almost errorless fielding, the Checker Transport Ghosts registered three straight shut-outs 14-0, 12-0 and 14-0, to capture top prize money at the Fabyan fastball tourney on Sunday last, June 28th. It will be noticed that Vermilion's team scored 40 runs while holding the opponents scoreless, which is quite a record.

The average of weekly wages and salaries paid in Canadian industry stood at $73.00 in February 1959 compared to $70.02 a year earlier and $60.00 five years ago.

Fishing Derby At Moose Lake Sunday

The Clandonald Fish and Game Association arranged for a fish derby at Moose Lake last Sunday and there were 60 registered fishermen participating. Board of Broadcast Governors To Hear CKSA Television Application

The application of CKSA Television Limited will be heard by the Board of Broadcast Governors in Ottawa on July 7. This is Thursday of next week. If you are interested in television reception for this area you are advised to wire or write your M.P., Clifford S. Smallwood at Ottawa asking him to support the application to the utmost. CKSA plan to commence television broadcasting from their studio in Lloydminster in April, 1960 providing their application is approved. Application is for channel 2 with approximately 20,000 watts and a tower height of 730 feet above average terrain.

It appears that hopes for television by other means such as satellite or booster stations are dim, due to the weak signals received throughout this area from Edmonton, thus letters and wires of support and requesting the granting of a television licence should be forwarded to your local member of parliament, Mr. Smallwood.

Student Assistance to be Known As Queen Elizabeth Education Fund

The present to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth from the Province of Alberta on the occasion of her visit here July 23, will be a $910,000 student scholarship fund, to be known as "The Queen Elizabeth Education Scholarship Fund," the Hon. H. C. Manning announced today.

The fund, which has already been set up under the Student Assistance Act passed at the last session of the legislature, will make available each year an amount up to $910,000 to ensure that no needy student with even a moderately good scholastic average will be barred from higher education because of lack of finances.

The first payments from this act will start at the commencement of the fall university and technical classes.

While there has been tentative division of the fund into scholarship aid for various fields the amounts are subject to adjustment as experience proves their need. Present allocations are: 1. Scholarships and grants for university students $275,000.00. 2. Fellowships and scholarships for students in the Faculty of Graduate Studies $40,000.00. 3. Grants and tuition grants for teachers in training $480,000.00. 4. Bursaries and prizes for high school students $102,300.00. 5. Grants and prizes for technical and vocational students $4,000.00. 6. Grants to nurses in training $5,000.00. Scholarships for students at the Banff School of Fine Arts $3,300.00. Total Scholarships and Grants — $910,000.000.

LEAVE THEM ALONE!

Not least among the blessings that arrive with spring and the early summer is the appearance of new born birds and animals. Nothing quite so stirs the [illegible] human heart as the [illegible] of the young fawn with its wobbly legs, wide-eyed innocence and child-like curiosity. The young of many wildlife creatures are not able to escape and often those that can are unafraid and therefore easily approached.

DO NOT MOLEST THEM

Do not molest them. For one [illegible] they may be injured by [illegible] handling, secondly they may be deserted by parents who fear the human odor, thirdly [illegible] is actual danger in coming between parents and young among some of the larger mammals and even birds. The horned cut probably has met with vigorous attack upon the intruder. A final reason is that such action is contrary to both federal and provincial game laws in most instances.

Game officials request people not to harbor young game with the object of rearing a family pet. It does them little service because, once tamed, they become easy prey for any marauder and it is a rare human who can discern what is best in the way of food, shelter and care for a wild creature. Often too the ungainly and helpless young moose quickly matures to become a surly and unruly barnyard inhabitant who can easily injure the unwary [illegible] if aroused.

Wildlife was meant to be observed from a distance — to be admired, yes — but handled never. So BE A FRIEND TO ANIMALS and leave them alone.

—Alberta Govt. Publication, Land Forest Wildlife.

"DON'TS FOR BOATERS

Don't go out in a small boat unless you are a competent swimmer or are wearing a life preserver.

Don't overload any boat — one person for each seat is a good rule.

Don't use a craft that is not completely seaworthy.

Don't go boating in stormy weather.

Don't stand up in a boat or canoe — learn to handle watercraft.

Don't change places in a small boat.

Don't leave the boat if it capsizes — cling to it until rescued.

Don't attempt to swim to shore.

Don't shoot rapids.

Don't use home-made rafts or logs as boats.

Don't overpower your boat — be sure your motor is designed for your craft.

FATAL TRACTOR ACCIDENTS

Two more lives have been claimed by tractor accidents on Alberta farms. In both instances the victims fell from the tractor beneath trailing implements. Dead are H. Ketteringer of Rockford, and [illegible] of Morning Creek.

Last year mishaps with the farm tractor took the lives of 27 persons in Alberta.

GREEN ACRES

by H. MORLEY DOUGLAS, District Agriculturist.

One should use 2, 4 - D when spraying weeds in wheat and barley and M C P A when spraying oats and flax. Ester formulations are the ones that are most commonly used in both these sprays, particularly when the perennial weeds such as Canada and Sow thistle are present. Furthermore, amines should be considered if 2,4-D is used on oats and flax.

2,4-D OR MCPA

There still seems to be a lot of confusion regarding which spray material should be used for which crop, also what stage the spraying should be done at and what are the best rates to apply. The time to spray wheat and barley with 2,4-D is when the grain is in the four leaf stage. Spraying can be continued until the shot blade stage but since weeds become more resistant as they grow older higher rates of chemicals may be required for the later spraying. The use of MCPA on oats can be done in any stage without damage to the crop. Flax can be sprayed from the two-leaf to the pre-bud stage of growth.

About 6 to 8 ounces of acid equivalent per acre is recommended for these chemicals except when MCPA is used on flax. Here maximum amount should not exceed 4 to 6 ounces of the active weed killer and even at this rate there may be some slight effect on the crop. Higher rates can be used on perennial weeds which are a serious threat but some damage may occur under certain conditions.

CROP ROTATION

Studies indicate that

Rotations help to control insects and plant diseases that attack only one crop or one species of crop.

Rotations with legumes and grasses help to save the soil by building up nitrogen reserves and organic matter.

Rotations make it easier to control weeds by economical methods.

It is possible to obtain most of the benefits of a good rotation without necessarily following a fixed plan.

Summerfallowing should be kept to a minimum but included in a rotation frequently enough to control weeds effectively.

PIG WORMS

Sanitation is the vital factor in protecting nursing pigs from worm infestation. Young pigs are extremely susceptible to worms and suffer most damage during the first few weeks of life. Since de-worming medicines have little effect on the larval stage of the worm and are not usually given until pigs are several weeks old, sanitation is their only protection.

CAUTION

Greater use is now being made of herbicides, insecticides and other chemicals for the farm, garden and home. These pesticides are valuable aids in combatting weeds, insects and other pests. Most can also be extremely dangerous if not used properly.

Enjoyable Recital Held By Pupils of Miss Donna McCauley

MANNVILLE. — The yearly musical recital by the pupils of Miss Donna McCauley, with those of Miss Lynn Kreller and Miss Edith Gadke held in the school gym, Saturday evening June 27, was the usual successful year end event. Comments heard acclaimed it the best one yet. Young people from Mannville, Minburn and Vermilion took part. Brian Scoggins was the gracious M.C. for the first part of the show, each pupil announcing his number accordingly. Many of the numbers were enhanced by suitable costumes portraying the theme of each selection, and added greatly to the programme. A variety in numbers was noted, some playing popular pieces, some piano and others piano accordian. Miss Myrna Whitson M.C.'ed the latter part of the programme and did an excellent job. Mr. Folk of Vermilion led a sing-song in his usual capable manner accompanied by Mrs. Folk.

Mrs. George Young on behalf of the parents, expressed regrets at Miss McCauley's giving up her teaching class (she is a bride-elect) as she is such an excellent teacher.

Special entertainment was provided by Lorraine Younge, George Zakaria and Gordon Ross, accompanied by Dawn Kreller at the piano, as they rendered violin selections, which were well received. A vocal solo was much enjoyed by Miss Audrey Polishuk of Minburn, and Frankie McCauley gave a beautiful interpretation in a vocal solo of "He." An accordian (piano) duet was enjoyably rendered by Donna McCauley and Edith Gadke.

The perfect attendance record rose greatly this year. Last year there were only seven, this year 15. For Vermilion they were: Lois Cooper, Kathleen Ross, Barbara Wright, Richard Brennan, Pamela King, Murray King, Mavis McCauley, Frankie McCauley, Betty Willies and Dean Jacula (perfect attendance for 2 years). For Mannville: Charlotte McLaughlin, Thelma Rustad, Marlie Park, Heather Morris, Arlene McLaughlin.

Following are the names of the pupils taking part in the piano recital. Group One: Brenda Feenstra, Terry Anne White, Monica Moore, Wayne Polishuk, Charlotte McLaughlin, Georgia Watling, Leslie Kreller, Murray King, Lorraine Watling. Group Two: John Evans, Barbara Haversiew, Audrey Polishuk, Geoffrey Holter, Jan Evans, Rod Haversiew, Rose Anne Feenstra, George Phenney, Laureen Ross, Heather Morrison. Group Three: Gordon Watling, Barbara Wright, Vernon Thompson, Kathleen Ross, [illegible] Willies, Brian Scoggins, Lynn Calder, Kevin Manz, Richard Ackerman, Rachel Trynchuk and Byron Burr. Group Four: Dean Jacula, Betty McLaughlin, Audrey Tomyn, Jo-Ann Leitch, Gertrude Prill, Lois Cooper, Doris Johnstone, Nadene Hunt, Richard Brennan and Marilyn Manyluk. Group Five: Deanna Rudd, Pamela King, Jill Holter, Connie Keating, Marlie Park, Murray [illegible] Linda Willies, Frankie McCauley, Judy Gerhart and Thelma Rustad. Group Six: Arlene McLaughlin, Bonnie Proudfoot, Grant Haverslew, Dianne Whitson, Gordon McLaughlin, Myrna Whitson, Kay Emmott, Glenda Brennan, Helen Pheasey, Lorraine Young. Group Seven: Walter Prill, Pat Thompson, Barbara Gunelson, [illegible], Dawn Kreller, Ellen McLaughlin, [illegible] Gadke, Betty Willies, Mavis McCauley, Sharon Polishuk, Lynne Kreller.

On behalf of Mannville and Minburn pupils, Miss Judy Gerhart presented Donna with a gift in appreciation of her untiring efforts. Barbara Wright and Ricky Ackerman likewise made a similar presentation to Miss McCauley, with suitable expressions of thanks from the Vermilion pupils. Donna gave prizes for attendance and thanked all those assisting her in her usual gracious manner. She is to be commended for her conscientious attitude towards her work.

"Neither a borrower nor a lender be" goes the old saying. tools can help to insure their return by painting all the handles in one distinctive color. A bright orange or red not only brands the tools, but makes them easier to find if they are left lying in the shrubbery.

Renovated Coffee Bar Re-opened

MANNVILLE — After considerable renovation Linda's Coffee Bar had an official re-opening on June 22. To celebrate the event there were chocolate bars given to the children coming to the coffee shop on that date.

Because the former living quarters at the rear of the Coffee Bar have been removed, additional room has been made available for the customers. It is possible to accomodate 66 at the two new horseshoe counters and the five booths which have been finished in an attractive decor.

One display of interest is that of the hockey trophies of Lorne, son of the owners, Ken and Linda Scoggins. He won them by his prowess in the game in Mannville, Vermilion and Calgary.

The fixtures of the Coffee Bar and of the kitchen are the most modern type, installed to insure maximum service and the best of food to the customers.

Elk Point Resident Back From England

Mrs. Ellen Heinemann of Elk Point has returned home from a visit to her former home in England. She travelled via TCA after being away for more than three and a half months.

Mrs. Heinemann visited in Dagenham, Ilford, Chigwell, Bedford and Chadwell Heath. She found that many of the places with which she had once been familiar had not changed a great deal. She even saw the school where she attended classes when she was a girl.

In London she went through Westminster Abbey and saw No. 10 Downing Street. She was fortunate to be near Buckingham Palace and saw the Royal family.

Mrs. Heinemann did part of her touring by double decker bus and reports a wonderful trip and a friendly reception in England but is glad to be back on the farm in Sunny Alberta again.

Two Vermilion Teachers Will Attend Arnprior

W. Allan Anderson, principal of Woodvale school, will represent M.D. of Vermilion River No. 71 at the Civil [illegible] course at Arnprior, Ont. [illegible] L. R. Metcalfe high school [illegible] er in Vermilion, will represent the Town of Vermilion at a Radiological Instructors course being held at Arnprior from July 6 to 10. Mr Anderson is making the trip by car and Mr Metcalfe is going via TCA from Calgary.

Both these men have completed a course on "Radiation Monitoring" at civil defense schools in Edmonton and [illegible] thus becoming eligible for the trip to Arnprior. Arrangements for attendance at the course were made by the local C.D. director George Martin.

Mr Martin would like to direct the attention of all teachers [illegible] the Vermilion School Division [illegible] a course in Radiation Monitoring which is being held at the Civil Defense school in Edmonton from Aug 17 to 22. Any teachers wishing to attend may do so by contacting him. The provincial government pays the transportation and a supplementary living allowance. Because school space is limited early applications will receive preference.

Allocations of personnel from Alberta at Arnprior are usually limited to five people so the Vermilion district is especially favored to have two representatives from this area.

F.U.A. To Convene At Wainwright July 6th

A very complete and interesting agenda has been arranged for the annual district convention of the F.U.A. which will be held at Wainwright on Monday, July 6th.

Registration begins at 9 a.m. with election of convention committees following immediately. From that time on the agenda calls for a multitude of business matters with from 15 minutes to 45 minute sessions. The convention is completed with an address by the Provincial President at 5:00 p.m.

With the Ball Teams . . .

There has been plenty of baseball action in town during the past week with results as follow.

On Sunday afternoon a number of old time baseball players loosened up long unused muscles when they clashed with the Pony Grads. Reason for the game was that the seniors had [illegible] somewhat reluctantly to enter a team for old times sake in the Mannville July 1st sports.

The old timers started off like champions and worked up a lead on the kids, but at the end of seven innings the boys were well out in front by 12 runs to 7.

Playing in the local ball park on Tuesday evening the Pony Grads turned back Buffalo Coulee 14 runs to 7. These are two good junior teams and raise the hope that this town and district will see some good baseball within a couple of years. Smart and Kochan divided pitching duties for the B.C. kids with Haverslew receiving. For Vermilion it was Fortney and Upshall to Pudge Pass.

AT MANNVILLE JULY 1st

Vermilion Seniors, reinforced by some of the Pony-Grads, played at Mannville on July 1st but were unlucky in the draw, meeting the tournament winning Viking team in the first game and losing 12-0. The Cardinals also dropped the first game in their tourney when they met the Mortons from Edmonton. Mortons annexed the first prize without too serious opposition.

Cards Win And Lose At Fort Sask.

Vermilion Cardinals played a double-header fastball attraction at Fort Saskatchewan on Sunday, June 28th. They won the first game 11 to 8, dropping the second 9 runs to 6.

Lil Thompson caught the first game with Anne Marcinew and Marion Peterson sharing the pitching duties. In the second game Marion Peterson and Betty Robinson divided the hurling with Lil doing the receiving.

RETURN GAMES JULY 12th

The Fort Saskatchewan team returns to Vermilion on Tourist Sunday, July 12th, for a double-header with the Cardinals. The games will be played on the provincial park lake diamond, and will commence at 2:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m.

Whooper Study Is Planned

OTTAWA — A new study is planned of the "teen aged" whooping crane, the vulnerable member of the stately birds now staging a hard fight for existence.

The plan was outlined to the federal-provincial conference on wildlife recently by L. A. Parker, assistant director of the U.S. bureau of sport fisheries and wildlife.

He said the greatest loss among the whoopers occurs among those not yet old enough to breed.

Accordingly, the bureau is sending a man into the Canadian north to attempt to find out what happens to this age group. The only known northern nesting area for the whoopers, which now total 39 birds, is in the Wood Buffalo Park area on the Alberta-Northwest Territories boundary.

NUMBERS GROWING

This total of 39 includes six in captivity and is the highest since the big, piercing voiced birds began to be counted in 1938. The hatch of nine chicks last year was another record.

The conference also discussed the dwindling of North America's duck population.

The spectre of drought on a scale comparable with the "dirty '30" has cut deep into the prolific pothole nesting population on the southern prairies, a report by Dr David Munro of the Canadian Wildlife Service said.

Saskatchewan, the main duck producer, is hardest hit, according to this report.

Saskatchewan's over-all [illegible] breeding population was [illegible] mated to have declined to 3,[illegible] 000 this year from 5,[illegible] [illegible] year.

ALBERTA TREND

In Alberta, aerial surveys indicated a slight and perhaps insignificant increase but water levels are declining. Manitoba still appears to have a large number of ducks but some perhaps are migrants from Saskatchewan.

Meanwhile the conference was working behind closed doors to map out the 1959 regulations which later will be approved — probably without revision — by the cabinet.

In other developments it was announced that the government hopes to introduce within a year a proposed change in the Fisheries Act to stiffen control of pollution of waters.

Can You Stop In Time?

The nation is paying too high a price for its annual summer vacation today claimed W. Arch Bryce, general manager of the Canadian Highway Safety Council.

Recalling that about 1,000 persons were killed and 23,000 injured — many of them maimed for life — on Canadian highways during last year's summer months, the safety official stressed that "the toll would never have been so high if the involved drivers had been able to stop in time."

Mr Bryce makes the following suggestions to motorists who want to stay alive and let others live throughout the summer.

1. Leave plenty of space—one full car length per 10 miles of speed — between the front bumper of your car and the car in front.
2. Stop driving if you feel sleepy, angry or simply worried.
3. On long trips, stay alert, stop for relaxation and coffee every two hours or so.
4. Be patient in traffic jams, and be courteous towards other drivers and pedestrians.

Under all circumstances make sure YOU can stop in time, Mr Bryce strongly advised.

Of Many Things . .

By [illegible]

[illegible]

Because of a heavy work schedule I was told by the travel agent that I'd better fly if I wanted to get home in time to keep up to deadlines. He booked me up through TCA.

When I returned home, I had a credit on an unused portion of my ticket, so I went over to the TCA office in Winnipeg to collect.

I [illegible] in a line where a girl was serving other customers. However, when I finally reached the head of the line, the young lady looked at me coldly and said, "use one of the other girls, please."

I assumed that she had noted, by looking at the ticket in my hand, that it was a matter of rebate and that she didn't handle that type of business. So, in a docile mood, I went to another line, to [illegible] my turn.

In a few moments I was surprised to see the young lady who had looked at me so coldly go walking by, and one of the girls I was waiting to see smiled back. "See you after coffee," she said.

If she had snuck out quietly, I might not have been so annoyed. But to deliberately turn away from a customer and boldly walk out for coffee was too much for [illegible]. I can just imagine how [illegible] a writer would last if he [illegible] that cavalier attitude [illegible] an editor! Yet TCA's salespeople can get away with it because they have a monopoly. If I fly that trip again, I must fly TCA. There is no competition.

I came back to my typewriter determined to write a letter to the president of TCA and give him a piece of my mind. I feel sure that in due course I would have received a letter telling me of the staff problems confronting them, and of their earnest desire to give good service.

In my opinion, the only way the customer can assert himself effectively is to change or threaten to change to a competitor. That's how I get service elsewhere. I hope in the not too distant future I'll be able to have a choice when I fly.

I'm not fond of flying at the best of times. Certainly I'm not going to fly again in a hurry if I can possibly help it. Perhaps many feel the same way. Perhaps that's the reason TCA claims that it can't stand competition.

Buckinghams Meet Ex-Vermilionites

On a recent trip to Calgary Mr and Mrs. E. H. Buckingham visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Beaton, Mrs. Dave Andrew and Mrs. Chas. Robinson, all of Calgary. 'Buck' attended a Rotary meeting in his former home town of Claresholm before they returned north to Edmonton. En route to Edmonton Mr. and Mrs. Buckingham met Mrs. Mac French (formerly Shirley Davidson), also Mr. and Mrs. K. Sweatman, in Wetaskiwin. Mr. Sweatman is retiring this year and they [illegible] to settle at Langley, B.C.

At Lacombe they met Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hutchinson, who now have three girls and a boy.

While in Calgary Sunday service was attended at St. Michael's church where the Rev. D. A. Ford is the rector. Mr. and Mrs. Ford send kind regards to all their friends, as did all the other former residents of Vermilion.

Free Dollar In Europe?

You may expect a concerted European [illegible] toward complete freedom of dollar spending within the near future, says The Financial Post.

Both the timing and the details of the move are still undecided. But convertibility of resident-owned sterling and marks is already being seriously discussed between British and German governments.

They plan to move in agreement with France and other European countries as they did last December.

4 Ways of Staying Alive on Highway

The Fraternal Order of Police, which is conducting one of the most intensive summer-long safety campaigns in North America, has recommended these four summer safety driving tips:

1. Keep off the gas! Excessive speed is the number one road killer.
2. Don't take chances! Never pass unless you have an unobstructed view of the road ahead; be sure to stay a reasonable distance behind the car in front.
3. Beware of driving when weary! Stay alert with periodic coffee-breaks.
4. Slow down at sundown! Dusk is the most dangerous time of the day.

For those who want to stay alive, these tip are worth trying.

Diary of a Vagabond

BY [illegible]

For many years Shank's mare was my only means of transportation. Then I graduated and became mobile on four wheels. This latest addition to our standard of living was both a pleasure and a convenience, but it had many disadvantages. Being the only driver in the family, I found myself missing much of the beauty of the world about me as I kept my eyes glued to the highway.

That is why I have chosen travel by rail to cover this vast country of ours and Montreal as a starting point. I am sure my ticket will be a passport to pleasant places and an "Open Sesame" for interesting conversations with fellow passengers.

I was savouring this pleasant aspect when, with a lurch of the train as it took a curve at express speed en route to picturesque French Canada, a youngster, still in her teens, dumped a two-weeks-old infant into my lap and with a frantic look in her eyes said, "Will you please hold my baby for a minute? There isn't a place to park him in the washroom."

Perhaps it is this face of mine that seems to attract all kinds of incidents. Being gullible I am often caught holding the bag, only this time it was a warm bit of humanity. "He" was a peaceful little mite with a red little face and an expression too knowing for his tender 14 days. I was happy to mind the babe "for a moment," but when the moment stretched into 15 minutes, then into an hour, I began to wonder if I were the victim of a planned desertion.

I suddenly realized that we had made a stop after I had been chosen as a suitable sitter for his nibs. Had the teenager left the train? Was I stuck with this wiggly bundle? Horrors, and so far from home and my own motherhood. Now, I thought frantically, they even diaper them differently. What would I feed him, what was his name, where did he come from and where was he going?

A thousand other questions, for which my imagination provided fantastic answers, raced through my mind. He began to whimper and snoozle me. I jiggled and juggled him in rhythm with the train while searching the aisle for an approaching mother.

When the hour had stretched into two and junior had just about devoured his right fist, I decided action was necessary. Clutching the little blue bundle to my bosom I staggered and swayed toward the front of the train where I hoped to find a conductor who would relieve me of my burden. By this time my journalistic imagination had convinced me this was a foundling I held so gingerly.

Three cars ahead of me there was my gal. Her pretty bronze hair had been combed into a bobbing pony tail, her lips were perfectly outlined in a shade of lipstick, even I took time to admire, and her laughing brown eyes were twinkling into the blue orbs of her companion. I was so relieved at the sight of this young lad that I limply sighed, "Here's your baby," instead of giving her lecture on what I thought of mothers who deserted their young.

"Jeepers, was he bothering you? My husband and I were so relieved at not having to worry about him for a while, and you seemed so pleased to be holding him, we just left him for you to enjoy."

This was the well publicized generation. It was [illegible] on the way. It had arrived at parenthood and as it [illegible] tedious adolescence these two [illegible] had found a way out of their new responsibility if only momentarily.

They were a cute couple and [illegible]

ARTIST, 13, AMAZES EXPERTS

Doreen de Rosa, 13, Hamilton, Ont., who paints with the violence of Vincent Van Gogh has broken into art circles with her own impressionistic works. Doreen, a grade eight pupil, has been painting in oils since she was seven. The Bell Telephone Company used one of her intricate sketches in the telephone directory and recently her work was exhibited in the art gallery in Hamilton. Doreen started taking lessons only this year and is self-taught otherwise.

NEWS from ISLAY

The joint church service of the Kitscoty charge of United Church of Canada at Lake Whitney camp was well attended on Sunday June 28 at 11 a.m. A picnic dinner followed.

Another of our very early pioneers passed on. Thursday evening, June 25th in the person of Mr. Jack Carey. Sympathy of the community goes to the family in their bereavement.

Congratulations are due Gerald Inman and his music teacher, Mrs. Elsie Batty. Gerald passed grade 2 music theory doing grades 1 and 2 this year with a mark of 92. Practising has really paid off, eh Gerald!

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Grant visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Hilda Bell, over the week end.

Mr. Herb Simmons was in Islay one day last week. He didn't bring good news as he says doctor's orders are to cease his work. So some who were waiting for him to do a little building and renovating will be disappointed and sorry for Mr. Simmons. He also informed us that Mrs. Simmons was in hospital and we wish her quick return to health and home.

Holidays are here again for the school pupils. Teachers are going their separate ways, some to summer school, others on vacation trips. Miss Janet Kent and her parents Mr. and Mrs. Art Kent will visit B.C. points. Mr. Moncrieff goes to Edmonton to mark exam papers.

Church service is now at 9:30 a.m.

George Machell is expected back any day now.

Some of the boys of the St. Paul Presbyteries will be at Lake Whitney camp of United church this week, among them David Buchanan. The following week the girls will occupy the camp.

Elaine Sweet, captain of a softball team at Lloydminster where she attended high school, was awarded first prize for having won the most games.

Ken Gunn is in Saskatoon. We think those horses of his will be getting a real grooming.

Mannville Minister Preaches Farewell Sermon at United Church

MANNVILLE — At a Sunday morning [illegible] at which there were few dry eyes, Rev. Ian C. Holter preached his farewell sermon to a church full of faith [illegible] on June 28th. Taking [illegible] from the fourth chapter of Phillipians, Mr. Holter said, "I have received full payment and more and my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches and glory by Christ Jesus. To our God and Father be glory forever and ever." Mr Holter felt the latter years spent here were rewarding ones and that as God had provided for our needs in the past, so would he supply our need in the future." Make room in the hurly-burly of your lives for God and His church," said Rev Holter in part. He thanked all those with whom he had worked on various committees, for many kindnesses shown, and paid tribute to his faithful wife without whose help he could not have shouldered the load. Solos were sung at this service by Mr Holter's son Geoffrey and Mrs. Jack Willes and the choir sang an anthem. Sunday School awards were presented and Mr Holter presented Miss Donna Doherty, a faithful organist who is also leaving Mannville with a hymn book. Likewise Allan Doherty on behalf of the HBC group was given a farewell gift. Mr Holter his wife and family are leaving Monday for Ontario, after which a well earned vacation is on the agenda.

Mrs. Holter and Mrs. Hugh Doherty were feted recently at a W. A. meeting and given suitable farewell gifts. The community will greatly miss these two fine families, who gave so freely of their time and talents.

Local Man Addresses Eastern Masonic Gathering

S. C. Heckbert, a Past Grand Master of the Masonic Order in Alberta, made a flying trip to Chatham, New Brunswick last week to address the 100th anniversary of Miramichi Lodge, located at Chatham. The Lodge was established in 1859 and a number of prominent New Brunswick citizens, including the Late Viscount Bennett, one time prime minister of Canada and later a peer in England, counted Miramichi lodge as their Masonic connection.

Members of the Heckbert family have been active in the Lodge since 1900 and the guest [illegible] himself joined the lodge in June 1919 shortly after returning from overseas service, his father the late S. D. Heckbert laid the corner stone of the fine temple some ten years ago.

Mr Heckbert addressed the large gathering which included fifteen members of the R.C.A.F. at Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, during the main celebration on Monday June 22nd and on the following day gave an illustrated address on a recent trip to Europe to members of the Order and their ladies.

Marking the occasion the lodge presented Mr Heckbert with a fine silver tray suitably engraved as a memento of the occasion, while the speaker presented the lodge with a set of gavels made by a master craftsman, David Penman of Edmonton. Mr Heckbert was also made an Honorary Life member of Miramichi lodge during the ceremonies.

The trip east was made by air and arrival in New Brunswick coincided with the disastrous storm which claimed the lives of some 40 fishermen in Miramichi Bay and the Northumberland Straits. A visit to the stricken communities of Baie Saint Anne and Bay du Vin was made during the trip east. A fund of many thousands of dollars is being raised for the assistance of the families, many of whom lost their their chief bread winner, and it is typical of the generosity of the Canadian people that immediate needs have been adequately taken care of.

The 200-mile highway between Golden and Revelstoke in the heart of the Rockies follows the path of the Columbia River and affords a view of some of the most breath - taking mountain scenery in Canada. The new Trans-Canada Highway, now under construction and expected to be completed by 1960, will cut 100 miles off the length of the route.

Effective June 25, Greyhound is operating six trips daily from Calgary to Vancouver, two of them via the Big Bend. Points on the route include Banff, Lake Louise, Golden, Revelstoke, Salmon Arm, Kamloops, Hope and Vancouver. This service will continue until Sept. 16.

4-H Club Holds Achievement Day At Dewberry in June

The Dewberry 4-H club held their Achievement Day on June 1st. The day was highlighted by the splendid co-operation of the entire community, prizes being donated by Dendill's garage, Redman's garage, Shopping Centre, Co-op Store, Tom West, Bill Wowk, Bill Boyce and the F. U. A., with much assistance being given by Neal Jones and John Anderson.

A most enjoyable banquet was also had on June 1st. this being ably catered to by the Dewberry Ladies Aid. Guest speakers for the event were Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Bentley of Vermilion. Mr. and Mrs. Bentley are to be highly commended for their interesting and most informative talks on agricultural and social life in Egypt.

At the show and sale of 4-H calves at Lloydminster, the Dewberry club exceeded all expectations by having the reserve champion, getting third in the group of five calves and being placed eighth in the group of seventeen clubs. This is even more notable when one remembers this is only Dewberry's second year in competition.

At the sale on the same day June 8th, the Dewberry calves sold very well, averaging $22.[illegible] per 100 pounds which may be the second highest of the clubs entered. Probably what accounts for the high average is the fact that of the nineteen calves sold, Mr. Joe Braithwaite purchased five: Dick Hines, two. Bailey's Tom Boy, two. Erven Garnier, three; Swanson's Meats, one, and the Dewberry Co-op, one.

The club would like to sincerely thank everyone for their support at the sale.

The club leader, Don Braithwaite donated a heifer calf to the club which was drawn for at the banquet and won by Dennis Lemp. We understand our loyal supporter Mr Joe Braithwaite, has already donated a calf for the most deserving 4-H club member next year.

Marwayne Ladies Attend Missionary Convention Kitscoty

On Wednesday, June 10 two carloads of ladies attended the missionary rally in Kitscoty sponsored by the Kitscoty W.A. and Marwayne W.M.S. Marwayne gave the worship period and Mrs. H. Graham and Mrs. Okerstrom of Lloydminster gave a skit, questions and answers on the new federation which is in process of being formed of the W.A. and W.M.S. groups in the United Church. Guest speaker was Mrs. Bentley wife of Mr. N. N. Bentley, principal of Vermilion School of Agriculture, who was on loan to UNESCO for agricultural help to undeveloped countries. He and Mrs. Bentley spent a year in Cairo, Egypt. In her very interesting address Mrs. Bentley spoke of the people and in some detail of their Moslem religion, climate, way of living and as well showed pictures of their villages on the desert which looked like a [illegible] of brown earth. Excellent pictures of orange and banana groves and date palms were very interesting. The paved streets of Cairo are beautifully lined with trees and shrubs and there are wonderful looking club houses with lovely lawns. Impressive new modern buildings of marble and cement were in contrast to poor dilapidated and run down buildings. One really wonders at the vegetation when there is almost no rainfall — all made possible by irrigation. A close-up view of the pyramids as well as the deep blue of the Mediterranean Sea were shown.

Mrs. Devon sang a solo and the ladies from Lloydminster, Vermilion, Marwayne and Kitscoty spent a delightful and very profitable afternoon followed by a delicious lunch. This is an annual event and each year it is pleasing to renew acquaintances of past years.

PARADISE VALLEY NEWS

Wednesday afternoon was cleanup day at the Orville cemetery and also the annual meeting of shareholders. A good number turned out and as a result the cemetery is a credit to the community. A considerable amount of filling could be done yet. We hope that those interested will attend to this. With a number of power mowers on the job, all grass was cut and raked. At the conclusion of the work, lunch was served and the annual meeting followed. The old directors were all re-elected. They are: Clifford Frederickson, president, W. A. Nickle, secretary and C. Redmond and Frank Wood are directors.

We are glad to see Robert Hallet, Keith and Sylvia home from the san in Edmonton where they have been taking treatment for the past months. We hope they are much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cottrell of [illegible] paid a short visit with friends and relatives in town and district last week.

For today's farming you need the new features of Massey-Ferguson machines

Today new farming methods, new technical developments and new engineering advances bring constant change and improvement in tractors, combines and other farm machines.

Old style machines can't give you the ease of handling and speed you want, they don't have the labour saving features you need and they don't give you the money-making ability to help you farm profitably. Obsolete equipment doesn't have what is needed to meet the demands of farming today.

Move ahead with the latest Massey-Ferguson machines and free yourself of the handicap of trying to farm modern with out of date equipment. Ask your local Massey-Ferguson dealer for full particulars about the latest models.

Health Unit Notes

EPILEPSY (cont'd)
THE SOCIAL TREATMENT

Once his medical treatment has been worked out for him, the epileptic is still faced with social problems which will need sympathetic understanding and a positive approach.

To the ignorant, an epileptic is simply a "person with fits" who is to be [illegible] and treated like an outcast or very inferior being. He may find it hard to get a job or participate in games, sports or other activities. This can depress and disturb the epileptic so that emotional stress will aggravate his seizures. It is to be hoped that the education of the public about the true nature of epilepsy and the elimination of the prejudices and misunderstandings about this disease will have their beneficial effects in a better deal for the epileptic. Too many people still think of epilepsy as an indication of mental inferiority and family "taint" — an attitude which is contrary to the facts.

Not only can most epileptics hold responsible jobs but they find physical and mental activity actually of great help in overcoming their seizures. (It is only a small percentage, five to ten percent, whose epilepsy is serious enough to require prolonged institutional care.) Naturally there are some occupations which are wisely avoided, such as driving vehicles, working on scaffolding or in those jobs requiring exposure to moving machinery.

It has been found that persons with controlled epilepsy do not lose any more time at work than others, have no greater accident rate and get along quite well with their colleagues. It is unfortunate that many employers, unaware of these facts, are reluctant to hire epileptics.

The person with epilepsy should be considered and treated like a normal human being who has a handicap — seizures — which may disappear with proper treatment or continue in [illegible]. [illegible] in most cases they can marry, raise families and live as useful and productive members of their community.

EPILEPSY USUALLY STARTS IN CHILDHOOD

More children have epilepsy than any other age group, most cases showing up in the first two years of life. 75% of all epilepsy appears before the age of 20, adolescence being the other period when cases most frequently come to light.

It's important that the epileptic child lead as normal a life as possible and the parents not try to do too much or "overprotect" him as though he were a semi-invalid. A full and happily active schedule rather than a guarded, isolated existence will help to ensure that the child grows up into an emotionally mature adult.

There is no reason why an epileptic child, under proper medical care, should not attend a regular school. It's healthy for them to join in play and companionship with children their own age. They don't get hurt at school any more than other children and other pupils aren't disturbed over seeing a seizure if they know that epilepsy is an illness and not contagious. Naturally, the teacher will be informed of the child's condition and what to expect.

It is only in the more severe cases that the parent needs to be concerned about making special arrangements for schooling, either at home or in special classes which may be available in the community.

A commonsense approach to what a child may or may not do, at home or in school, should be worked out in consultation with the family doctor.

FACTS ABOUT EPILEPSY

1. It is a fairly common disease and affects people in all walks of life, about one in every 200 of the general population.
2. Modern treatment completely controls seizures in over 50% of cases, seizures in another 30% can be cut down until they are hardly a handicap.
3. It is not "inherited" any more than diabetes.
4. It is not contagious.
5. Only a small percentage of epileptics (five to ten percent) are ill enough to need prolonged institutional care.
6. There is no medical reason why most epileptics shouldn't marry and raise families.
7. Treatment should always be under a doctor's guidance.
8. Self-medication with patent medicines is inefficient, expensive and dangerous.
9. Drugs prescribed by physicians are relatively cheap.
10. Mental and physical activity is good for epileptics.
11. Most epileptics can and should be employed.
12. Normal social life is as important to the epileptic as medical treatment.
13. Epileptics as a group are as intelligent as others.
14. Epileptic children should enjoy normal activities and not be treated as semi-invalids.
15. Most epileptic children, with proper treatment, can and should attend regular school.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

If you use any of the quality gasolines, and keep your car in top mechanical condition, your chances of developing vapor lock and stalling in ordinary hot summer driving are practically zero.

However, vapor lock can develop on a hot day when you're creeping along in bumper-to-bumper traffic. Cause! the engine doesn't get enough air to cool it sufficiently, so the warm in the fuel system.

Gasoline can "boil" to a vapor at temperatures below 100 degrees. When this happens, the vapor blocks the flow of liquid gasoline and the engine becomes "starved" for gasoline. So, you stall. What to do?

Have someone push you off the road — into the shade if possible. If you have a rag and some [illegible] water, apply the water-[illegible] rag to the fuel pump.

If you can't do any of these things, don't worry. Don't do anything. In 10 or 15 minutes, the trouble will be over.

Preventive advice: When [illegible] must creep along on a hot [illegible] "rev" the motor every [illegible] or two to speed up the fan and cool the radiator. Also, [illegible] water in the radiator is the best coolant, to have your [illegible] drain the anti-freeze, and clean the cooling system.

Gardening [illegible] to hands and gloves [illegible] sometimes hot and bulky. However, there are invisible work gloves on the market — a white cream called Pro-Tek which keeps dirt from getting into the pores of the skin and under nails. After chores are finished, hands wash lily-white in soap and water.

Products To Bear Wild Rose Emblem

Proofs of the stylized replica of the Alberta floral emblem, the wild rose, are being mailed to hundreds of Alberta industrial firms. Alberta firms are being encouraged to mark their products with the emblem as part of the promotional "Buy Alberta Made" program conducted by the provincial government.

The simplified wild rose emblem is expected to be seen on labels and tags on scores of Alberta-made commodities, and stamped or burned into the surfaces of many other products that do not lend themselves to labelling or tagging. The program is designed to acquaint Albertans with the extent and variety of Alberta industry, to encourage their recognition and sales on a strictly competitive basis.

The "Buy Alberta" program is organized and operated by the Industrial Development Branch of the Department of Industries and Labor. Committee members drawn from industry and social and economic organizations throughout Alberta will be active in the promotion of the campaign.

OUR LETTER FROM EDMONTON

Advocate Coalition As Only Hope For Opposition In Alberta

by KEN MASON

EDMONTON. — The Social Credit landslide in the recent provincial election has some politicians thinking the Liberals and Conservatives should join forces next time and put on a [illegible] drive to topple the Socreds.

Leaders of opposition parties who were personally defeated and saw their parties all but annihilated in the election, haven't made their views known on the situation in the light of latest developments, but both have in the past spoken against any coalition.

The only politician who has come out publicly in favor of a Liberal - Tory union is Frank Gainer who was re-elected in the Banff-Cochrane riding as a Coalition member with support from both parties locally.

Mr. Gainer thinks the emphasis on party allegiance in provincial elections is "nothing but ridiculous. In Alberta you are either Social Credit or anti-Social Credit."

The Banff member, one of four opposition MLAs left in the legislature, flatly predicts there will be a movement to organize a new political party made up of Liberals and Conservatives.

He points to his own election "against terrific odds", as proof that a combined effort could topple the government or at least provide it with a strong opposition in the house.

The coalition idea is not new in Alberta. Liberals and Tories teamed up in 1940 and ran as independent in a desperate drive to oust the Socreds. They were not successful, but did capture some 19 seats to 36 for the government and whittled down the lop-sided majority Social Credit forces won in 1935.

For Premier Manning, the lack of opposition in the house will even create a few [illegible] problems. One of the biggest will be to guard against his government and its supporters developing an attitude of smug complacency.

The premier can't rely on the opposition this time to keep the legislative debates lively and interesting, and there could be a temptation to thresh everything out in closed party caucus, then push the government's program through the legislature in nothing flat.

But this would create a bad public impression, and what the Premier probably will do is permit freer criticism in the house from his own supporters. He may even appoint a handful of them to act as an unofficial opposition.

Otherwise, sessions of the house would become intolerably dull and opposition parties would be supplied with ammunition based on the need for an opposition to guard against government by closed caucus.

And don't think Social Credit's top strategists aren't aware of the threat they face in the next election, four years or so from now. The voting public generally recognizes the need for a strong opposition.

Of course, much depends on what happens in the next four years. The Tories may be able to recover from the beating they took in their first serious bid for power in Alberta. If the Conservative government in Ottawa drops in popularity it could well wash the Tories out as a provincial force.

Liberals appeared to have been well beaten halfway through the election campaign. Their platform sounded good but for some reason it didn't go over. The fact that Liberals ran only 51 candidates seemed to be a psychological blow from which they didn't recover. They'll be trying hard no doubt to recover the drive that gave them 15 members in the 13th legislature.

DOWTELL BULLETIN

Women's Institute Ladies Attend Conference

MANNVILLE. — With Mrs. A. Dickson in the chair, 11 branches of the Women's Institute met at their annual conference, held this year at Innisfree. The Innisfree ladies were hosts at this occasion and provided a dinner and afternoon lunch, which were delicious, according to all reports. The W.I.'s were welcomed officially by Mayor Harvey Ganton and following registration, reports of various committees were heard and adopted. The handicraft display this year was excellent and Birch Creek W.I. tied with Happy Centre for being within one point of winning the cup which was won by Rosemary W. I. Reports this year were especially interesting. On the new standing committee which was elected, Mrs. Russell Whitson is constituency convener. In the entertainment which followed, Mrs. Johnson gave a humorous reading and Mrs. Smiley of Lavoy led the crowd in a sing song.

Those attending the Lea Park rodeo seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest. Weather of course could have been better for this annual event but all in all climatic conditions were not too bad.

School was discontinued for the afternoon of June 17 as all the children had stayed home to attend the Lea Park stampede. Only the high school students came in the morning to write their exams.

ALBERTA REPORT

Anders O. Aalberg Member Elect for Alexandra

The official count of the ballots cast by the voters of Alexandra in the recent provincial general election was made at [illegible] on Saturday, June 27 by Returning Officer Merlin Moncrieff and his election clerk, Mr. Stewart Robinson. All three candidates and their agents had been duly notified of the time and place of the official count, and I was present during this count. Neither of the other two candidates nor their agents were in attendance. The official count revealed that with 6,240 names on the voters' lists, 3,971 persons, or 64%, cast their ballots as follows:

Anders O. Aalberg (SC)	[illegible]
Mrs. Hilda Crute (Lib.)	[illegible]
Dr. A. H. Sweet (PC)	1248
Rejected ballots	11

TRIBUTE TO ELECTION OFFICIALS

It was quite evident in making the official count that the enumerators, the deputy returning officers and poll clerks had carried out their duties in a careful and diligent manner. Thanks to their efforts the work of preparing and revising voters' lists, taking the vote and making the necessary returns was well and thoroughly done. To all of these officials I would like to extend sincere appreciation for the very prompt and efficient service which they rendered in conducting the election in Alexandra.

PREVIOUS ELECTIONS

With the events and outcome of the recent contest still fresh in our minds perhaps it will be of interest to take a backward glance at the results of previous provincial elections in Alexandra since the Social Credit government was first elected in 1935.

Wednesday, June 29, 1955 — With 6658 names on the voters' lists, 4513 persons, or 67%, cast their ballots for:

Anders O. Aalberg (SC)	2143
Mrs. Lois Karlsson (CCF)	[illegible]
Russell Robertson (Lib)	1428
Alan Ronaghan (PC)	[illegible]
Rejected ballots	[illegible]

Tuesday, August 5, 1952 — With 6410 names on the voters' lists, 3723 persons, or 58%, cast their ballots for:

Anders O. Aalberg (SC)	[illegible]
James Magill (CCF)	[illegible]
Rejected ballots	[illegible]

Tuesday, August 17, 1948 — With 7205 names on the voters' lists, 4136 persons, or 58%, cast their ballots for:

Anders O. Aalberg (SC)	[illegible]
Geo. Henry Davies (CCF)	[illegible]
James Ed. Miller (Lib)	[illegible]
Rejected ballots	[illegible]

Tuesday, August 8, 1944 — With [illegible] names on the voters' lists, [illegible] persons, or 68%, cast their ballots for:

Selmer A. Berg (SC)	[illegible]
Cord L. Clark (CCF)	1504
C. W. Springford (LP)	[illegible]
Rejected ballots	[illegible]

Tuesday, March 21, 1940 — With 6774 names on the voters' lists, [illegible] persons, or 78%, cast their ballots for:

Selmer A. Berg (SC)	[illegible]
C. Cairns (CCF)	[illegible]
A. E. Peterson (Ind.)	[illegible]

Since no one candidate had a clear majority second choices were counted with the following result:

Selmer A. Berg (SC)	[illegible]
C. Cairns (CCF)	[illegible]
Rejected ballots	[illegible]

Thursday, August 22, 1935 — With [illegible] names on the voters' lists, 6744 persons, or [illegible]%, cast their ballots for:

Selmer A. Berg (SC)	[illegible]
P. J. Enzenauer (UFA)	[illegible]
Norman McClellan (Lib)	[illegible]
T. B. MacKay (Cons)	[illegible]
C. W. Springford (Comm)	197
Rejected ballots	181

CONCLUSIONS

The following are a few of the main conclusions which may properly be drawn from the above statements:

Social Credit voting [illegible] has remained quite [illegible] from election to election, never falling below 2000 and never rising above 2800.

Opposition voting strength has shifted from the CCF to the old line parties. While the Tories made the best showing in 1959 they did not make as big a hit with opposition voters as the CCF and the Liberals in times past. At the peak of its popularity in 1944 the CCF polled 1504 votes. In 1955 the Liberals polled 1428. In the election just held the Tories polled 1248.

Rejected ballots dropped to the very small number of 11 in the 1959 election as a result of returning to the X system of voting.

The total number of voters in the constituency in 1959 has fallen as compared with 1955. If this trend continues it may become necessary to adjust the boundaries of Alexandra when the next redistribution of constituencies takes place.

In the next column I shall deal with the Government's expanded program of financial assistance to students.

Hereford Assoc'n Purchases Larger Offices in Calgary

After 40 years as an Association, Canadian Hereford Breeders now own an office building in the City of Calgary. At the recent annual meeting of this association in Toronto, the directors set up an office planning committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Bernard Bowland of Calgary.

This committee after reviewing the rapid expansion of the Hereford breed in recent years, decided that a considerably larger office space was needed and that the best [illegible] was the purchase of an office building. Including four past presidents of the Canadian Hereford Association, the committee met in Calgary in March, and approved the purchase of a suitable building one block west of the main entrance to the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede grounds. The twelve Canadian directors representing every Provincial Hereford Association from the Atlantic to the Pacific, approved of this decision.

Tentative plans at present indicate that the move to the new office will be made on October 1, 1959, with the official opening slated for 1960 as part of the Canadian Hereford Centennial celebrations.

Home and School Honors Three Families Leaving Mannville

MANNVILLE — Three families who have contributed much to the community life of Mannville were feted at the Home and School meeting held on June 17th on the occasion of their departure from the town. H. A. Doherty high school principal, and his family, the Rev. Don Hunter and family of the United Church, and the J. R. Forsyth family, Mr. Forsyth completing his final term as a high school teacher in Mannville, are all leaving shortly to make their homes elsewhere. Regret was expressed that three such fine families who have added their time and talents to many enterprises in the town would be very much missed, but they were wished much happiness in their new homes.

PROGRAM OF ENTERTAINMENT

Entertainment numbers were interspersed with the items of business agenda, and a film concerning the three "R's" was shown before the official opening of the meeting. A violin trio, Lorraine Younge, George Zaharia and Gordon Ross, trained by Mr. George Younge, and accompanied by Miss Dawn Kreller, gave an excellent performance of "Dark Eyes" and Brahm's Waltz." Gordon Ross played "Brahm's Lullaby" and "Whippoorwill" as solos, and was followed by the trio who had selected two lively western numbers. George and Lorraine gave an excellent rendition of "Traumerei."

REPORT CONVENTION

Mrs. R. Forsyth and Mrs. R. Lugg gave full and comprehensive reports of the recent convention, and quoted from the speeches of the provincial and national presidents. Films of the 1958 and 1959 high school graduation exercises, courtesy of Dr. Hankoff, were shown by Bill Markowsky.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Mrs. George Younge was elected as president of the Mannville Home and School Association for the ensuing year, Mrs. Joan Lugg as Secretary, and Mrs. Jack Conford, treasurer. Other positions on the executive will be filled at a later date.

Mrs. Joan Lugg sang a solo, "Absent", accompanied by Mrs. W. Osborn, following which the executive served a lunch. For the dancing, music was supplied by James Foster and son, and James Johnstone.

Large Group of '59ers Pass Through Vermilion On Their Way To Alaska

One of the most delightful group of people it has ever been the good fortune of the Editor to meet, is pictured in the photo above. They are a part of the very large caravan which passed through Vermilion on Friday of last week on their way from the old settled state of Michigan to the new and 49th state of the Union, Alaska.

Shown in the background are Mr and Mrs. Irven Devore, the one girl and four of the boys are their children with the remaining boys being members of other families who are also part of the large [illegible] northward.

Much of the philosophy of the party can be summed up in the words printed on the trucks, "Faith in God will guide our way". Despite the fact that there are eighty people in this particular group, of all racial nationalities, of many religions, they still start the day with a common prayer meeting, and end the day's travel also with a prayer.

The long caravan was comprised of eighteen trucks, 80 people, 46 of whom were children, and four dogs. Packed on the trucks were eight tractors, complete farming equipment and two complete saw mills. They have as their destination Anchorage, and will go from [illegible] to two fertile valleys to homestead. They intend to do their own land breaking, sawing of lumber and building. They anticipate hard work and hardships but the new type of life in a brand new frontier land appeals to them all greatly.

Mr and Mrs. Devore and family come from Detroit. They have disposed of all their property cut all their bridges behind them, because as they say "We're going to Alaska to make our future home, we're not coming back". They left every known modern convenience and are not the least bit fearful of what life will demand of them in the land of the midnight sun. Mrs. Devore, when asked how she felt about leaving the comforts of her Detroit home, said, "I'm more excited than any of them, and really looking forward to something new."

Mr Devore had kind words for the Canadian people, stating that nothing seems to be too much trouble for them to do, and that financial renumeration seems to be a secondary consideration.

Behind the steady pitching of Andy Redford and Murray Millar, the Checker Ghosts registered three straight wins to take top prize money at the Mannville July 1st sports.

Returning home the locals moved into a tie for first place in the Lloydminster fastball league with a 19-1 decision over the Excelsiors, with Andy Redford pitching a no-hit game.

When notified of the postponement of the game scheduled for last Sunday July 5th, the Ghosts went to he Irma tourney only to lose their first game in eleven starts, a 10-8 heartbreaker to Camp Wainwright.

Monday, July 6th saw the Ghosts return to winning form with a 7-5 decision over the Merchants to take over sole possession of first place in the league.

Heavy Entries in Prospect In Vermilion's 1959 Fair

Vermilion's 1959 Fair, starting off with a monster parade on the morning of Thursday, July 23, will carry on through July 24th and 25th and judging from advance entries received it would appear that capacity will be taxed to the limit. A new barn has had to be built in order to handle the record showing of cattle and every available space is being made ready to handle this year's show.

CALF CLUB SHOW & SALE

The Calf Clubs of Vermilion, Mannville, Preston and Derwent will hold their show and sale on Thursday July 23rd and it is anticipated that some of the finest calves ever to be shown will be on display. Representatives of all area buyers have been invited to be on hand and it is hoped that the sale will be in line with others in the province.

SUMMER CAMP

The popular Vermilion Fair Summer Camp is scheduled for July 20th to 25th inclusive at the School of Agriculture where the finest facilities in Alberta exist. The enrollment of boys and girls from 13 to 18 years of age is in progress and there are still a few places for farm young people. The staff of the school will provide interesting short courses for the youngsters and they will be guests of the Fair Board for the three days of the fair.

EXHIBITS

In addition to the hall exhibits there will be shown some of [illegible] stock, heavy and light horses, beef and dairy cattle and sheep and swine will be on display for the three days and will be placed by such eminent judges as J. W. Grant MacEwan, Wm. S Herron of Calgary Arthur Schmidt of Vegreville and D. B. Young of the Federal Department of Agriculture. Heavy horses from as far away as Hinton will be in the lineup this year, while Calgary Edmonton and provincial horses in the light breeds will prove of interest to patrons of the fair. A note of special interest to lady exhibitors appears elsewhere in this issue.

[illegible]

Providing midway facilities this year will be the Art B. Thomas Shows of [illegible], South Dakota. The giant truck show will move into Vermilion from Lloydminster early Thursday morning, the management has promised to have the entire midway in operation by noon. On Thursday there will be a matinee performance of all rides and shows with specially reduced rates up until six o'clock. The Art B. Thomas Shows have made an enviable record for themselves playing the larger exhibitions in the Western and midwestern states and those who have seen the new midway are enthusiastic regarding it. Already Estevan, Weyburn and Portage la Prairie fairs have had their three-day run and reports from the management of these fairs are most enthusiastic in respect of the midway which is said to be clean and appealing in every respect. The midway has more than a score of riding devices, new and interesting shows and [illegible].

GRANDSTAND ATTRACTIONS

The grandstand show this year will again be provided by the fine Tom Drake group which is one of the more prominent groups in the United States; their show will include outstanding platform acts which have appeared on such noted shows as the Ed Sullivan T.V. shows and at Radio City in New York. Music will be plentiful and breathtaking acts will thrill audiences which are expected to rival peak years of the B circuit fairs. Those who have seen the platform performances at the early fairs in Manitoba and Saskatchewan claim that this year's show is the best ever.

Grandstand attractions will be in progress on Thursday afternoon and evening, on Friday in the afternoon, with two shows at 7 and 9 o'clock and on Saturday afternoon with two shows again that evening if attendance warrant.

The Kinsmen automobile will be drawn for late on Saturday evening and some lucky winner will drive away in a smart Volkswagen.

The learn-to-swim classes are already underway and all who have registered or wish to take the lessons should report at the beach.

Assisting Mr. Fenton with beach supervision and swimming instruction are an experienced group, Tony Dixon, Shirley Porter, Ken Alfke and Murray Ross.

Hundreds Attend Legion Picnic

Over 300 veterans and their families attended a grand get together at Vermilion park on Sunday afternoon. The weather was ideal and everyone enjoyed the outing which was held at the ball park.

There were the usual races for young and old. The wheel[illegible] joyed more by the spectators than the participants. The tug-o-war rope was in constant use for a considerable time as both youngsters and oldsters vied for victories in the tough pulls.

The pick up ball games really kept the crowd amused from start to finish. The [illegible] like it was [illegible] and many of the players who thought they were good had to admit that they needed more practice.

Around about 5 p.m. everybody rushed to prepare their picnic lunches. Coffee was provided from the camp kitchens. Soft drinks, candy and ice cream were passed out to the children and all agreed that it was the best picnic that the Legion had put on for a good long time.

Rod McPhee chairman of the entertainment committee was in charge of arrangements. He had plenty of help from a grounds committee made up of everybody who wished to help. [illegible] were handled by President Tom Thompson, Doc Keen, Ed Roberts, Alex Callas, Jim Kaiser, Vic Tilbest and George Martin.

He is survived by his wife and four children in London, a brother Howard at Ryley; two sisters, Dorothy and Marjorie of Los Angeles, California and his parents in Edmonton.

SICK AND TIRED

People who complain of being "sick and tired" often are just that, for illness and fatigue go hand in hand.

When rest and sleep fail to perk up the weary, it may be a warning sign of physical illness - invading microbes or an upset in body functions. A tired, washed-out feeling often lingers long after a virus infection, sometimes for a month or six weeks.

But, doctors believe that emotional disturbances are a much more common cause of fatigue. The person who wakes up every morning feeling as though he had never been asleep and just can't "get started" until around noon may be suffering mild emotional fatigue. In more severe forms the bone weary victim of emotional stress may be breathless, pained and irritable.

This kind of fatigue medical specialists have found, is usually unrelated to the actual amount of work done. People who expend relatively little energy are likely to cite overwork as a cause of exhaustion. Often their complaints can be traced to conflict, pressure, fear, anxiety and insecurity.

Boredom and lack of interest in work often drain vitality, and paradoxical though it seems, exhaustion is frequently reported among tired or disabled persons forced into inactivity. "Nothing is so exhausting as unhappiness", comments one [illegible].

In combating emotional fatigue specialists point out that it is important for the patient to recognize the things that are making him tired, and then try to eliminate vexing elements from his routine.

Fatigue is as democratic as it is debilitating. Dr. E. A. [illegible] of New York's Bellevue hospital describes it as a "normal phenomenon experienced by everyone." Considering the demands of our present-day civilization, he adds, it is an "inalienable right of every citizen."

GREEN ACRES

HAWKWEED

A n annual weed, Hawkweed, which thrives on uncultivated summer - fallow, can be most effectively controlled by cultural methods. One thorough cultivation will do a good job of eradicating present growth, according to W. Lobay, Supervisor of Fields and Weed Control for the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

Hawkweed is resistant to 2, 4-D and most selective herbicides, hence spraying is not very effective. However, if roadside and non cropped fields are sprayed rates up to 16 ounces of 2,4-D acid (ester type) should be used.

Another effective control of hawkweed on roadsides and in [illegible] places is [illegible] [illegible]. Hawkweed starts to bloom about the middle of June and because of its yellow flowers is very conspicuous. [illegible] it is confused with the [illegible] [illegible] sow thistle, which has an extensive underground root system and does not bloom until much later in the season.

[illegible]

There are a number of worthwhile points to remember about "[illegible] Rhinitis" in swine:

1. All breeds of pigs are susceptible.

2. Rhinitis destroys some of the turbinate bones in the nose.

3. When you suspect rhinitis, have your veterinarian hold a post mortem if any die, or at the time of slaughter.

4. Do not confuse rhinitis with "bull nose" which is an infection of a tooth cavity or jaw bone that gives a twisted face.

5. Do not sell pigs to anyone if rhinitis is in your herd.

BLOAT

Pastures should not contain more than 50% legume if bloat is to be kept to a minimum. Dry hay fed before animals are put out and made available in the pasture also reduces the danger of bloat.

YEARLING HENS

Keeping yearling hens for an additional three or four months of lay has been given greater emphasis in recent years. Laying flock owners are interested in this practice for three reasons. First, the increased cost of raising replacement stock and low selling price of yearling hens has meant a heavy depreciation cost per dozen eggs if hens are sold after twelve months of lay. Second, today's egg-laying strains are capable of laying for 15 to 16 months before going into fall [illegible] moult. And third, [illegible] lay large eggs which [illegible] sell at a premium [illegible] fall months when [illegible] are coming into production.

HOUSE PLANTS

If you wonder how to get water to your house plants when you are taking a few days away, it has been suggested that a pail of water and a wick going right to the bottom of the pail and over to each of the plants you group around it. One quart per week is sufficient for a small pot.

A miniature crime wave swept the town last week, the offences taking the form of breaking and entering and burglarizing several business places. Premises entered were Kaiser's, Bailey's Butcher shop, Alberta Western Lumber Co. and the Standard Office.

Shirley Underdown Becomes Bride of Lewis Highberg

Vermilion United church was the scene of a very beautiful wedding on Saturday, June 6th at 2:00 p.m. when Shirley Anne Underdown became the bride of Lewis James Highberg. The bride was radiant in a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon net over satin. The bodice featured long lily point sleeves and a sabrina neckline trimmed with sequins and pearls. The back of the gown, fashioned from the centre front, was cut away to each side.

To the strains of the Wedding March, the bride, carrying red roses, entered the church on the arm of her father, preceded by the matrons of honor, Mrs. Claus Heckhausen, and Mrs. Archie Robinson, the flower girl Marlene Gould and ringbearer Master Larry McCafferty.

The matrons of honor, close friends of the bride, wore identical waltz-length gowns of aqua embroidered nylon over taffeta, matched with picture hats and white accessories, each carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bride's mother wore a sheath dress of green and black flowered taffeta, with beige accessories and wore a corsage of yellow roses. The mother of the groom chose a silk beige two-piece suit matched with coral accessories, and also carried a corsage of yellow roses.

The groom was attended by his cousins, Billie Shillka and Wendell Elliot, who acted as best men. The service was conducted by the Rev. C. W. MacKay and the wedding music was played by Mr. Jack Brown.

The Bible Today

Annual report of the Japanese Bible Society records that from 1946 to 1958 a total of 23,282,012 Scriptures were circulated in Japan. The increase in 1958 distribution of 133,027 volumes made the total for that year 1,900,737.

The new Kogotai (colloquial) version accounted for 1,738,630 Bibles, Testaments and Gospels, thus demonstrating the increasing use of this Japanese version in popular speech. It has been recently said by a prominent Japanese Christian, "I am not so optimistic as to suppose that Japan will be Christianized in the near future. Japanese traditional ideas and customs that have been preserved for more than ten centuries will not yield to new ideas so easily; but I can say with assurance that amidst the changing circumstances the Bible has been read by many Japanese and has been changing the minds of the people."

Three teen-aged boys won silver dollars and an older man captured the "Most Courteous Driver" title Thursday as Safety Week entered its fifth day.

Relating the safety slogan "Take Care — Everywhere" earned $1 for: Bob Middleton, 18, 90 College St., Ed Paquin, 17, 67 north Windemere Ave; John Ortve, 17, of 144 So. Kenogami Ave.

PC George Wyma began tailing Mr Milligan at 2 p.m. when he noticed the man stop and signal a right turn off Cuyler St. onto Greenville Ave. Slowly the driver continued on Greenville Ave. to Robert St. where he signalled and correctly executed a left turn onto Leslie Ave.

Heading along Leslie Ave. Mr Milligan slowed for intersecting side streets and veered wide around children playing on the street. At Arundel St., he stopped and signalled a right turn and continued to Hodder Ave. Herbert is the son of Mr and Mrs. Tom Milligan of Vermilion.

New Community Pasture Opened By M.L.A.'s

Situated north-west of Myrnam and north-east of Two Hills, partially in the Vermilion and Vegreville constituencies, the Rannoch Community Pasture, the first of its kind [illegible] newly passed Land Utilization Act, [illegible] officially opened by R. M. Putnam, deputy minister of agriculture on Monday of this [illegible]. About one hundred persons attended this event, including two newly elected members of the Legislative Assembly, Ashley H. Cooper of Vermilion and Alex Gordey of Vegreville as well as members of the Department of Agriculture, Department of Lands and Forests, representatives from the Thorhild County, Smoky Lake Municipality, Lamont Municipality, Vermilion River Municipality, [illegible] Municipality and of course the Eagle Municipality in which the pasture is situated.

Purpose of the pasture established by the Department of Agriculture and the Department of Lands and Forests is to make better use of land which is not suitable for ordinary cultivation, and is provided for in the two or three year-old Land Utilization Act. The Rannoch Pasture was seeded to grass last year and this year has had fifty head of cattle grazing on it. In time that number will increase manifold, thus enabling farmers to pasture cattle during the summer months on land not so valuable as their present croplands. Cost per head at the moment is set at $1.30 per month as long as the cattle are on pasture. To separate brands, the area has been [illegible].

The gathering on Monday was chaired by Alex Letts, district agriculturist at Two Hills, who opened the program. Speakers included Barney Baron, field supervisor of Eagle Municipality, Gordon R. Sterling, chairman of the Land Utilization Act, Dr V. A. Wood, director of lands, Department of Lands and Forests, R. M. Putnam deputy minister, Department of Agriculture, the two earlier mentioned M. L. A.'s, Mr Gordey and Mr Cooper, and Reeve of the M. D. of Eagle, [illegible].

R. M. Putnam performed the official opening act by cutting [illegible]. Following the ribbon cutting, the applause from the persons present startled the saddle horse on which the deputy minister was mounted and for a moment gave him an exciting time.

A further pasture in process of being readied is located in Minburn Municipality south of the Village of Minburn. This pasture will be seeded to grass during the year and is anticipated to be ready for light grazing next year. Third pasture under the Act is being organized in the [illegible] Wrentham, Alberta.

On Friday, July 10 the annual meeting, banquet and Rose Ball of the Vermilion School of Agriculture Alumni Association took place at the school in Vermilion. The banquet featured the election of officers of the association for the coming year, and Mrs. Mabel Findlay of Mannville was chosen as the president. Her executive consists of Vice-president, Mrs. Ruby Bauer, Vermilion; Sec.-treas., L. G. Seath, Provost; Past pres., Angus MacMillan, Vermilion, and Directors, Bob Langdale, 7931-112 Ave., Edmonton; George Manley, Lloydminster; Ray Hultubise, St. Paul; Bert Duncan, Vermilion; Alma Cameron, Vermilion; Allan Shenfield, Stony Plain; Eva Langdale, Edmonton.

Angus MacMillan, president, was chairman of the banquet program. He introduced members of the head table, among which were Mr Ashley H. Cooper, M.L.A. and Mrs. Cooper and Mr and Mrs. J. E. Hawker of Edmonton, Superintendent of the Schools of Agriculture for Alberta, who spoke to approximately 160 assembled alumni, telling them that the schools of Agriculture for Alberta, had come to a crucial time in their history when important changes in their curriculum and buildings were contemplated.

N. N. BENTLEY SPEAKS ON EGYPT

The main speaker for the banquet was N. N. Bentley, Principal of the school who had spent a year in Egypt as agriculture education advisor to the Egyptian government under the auspices of U. N. E. S. C. O. He told of some impressions that he had gathered during the course of his U. N. mission. He mentioned that, for the first time, he had been a foreigner in a strange country with language and customs unfamiliar to him. He hoped that it had taught him tolerance for the bewilderment and uncertainties of those who are strange to his country. Another impression was that Canada has no 'corner on the brains market.' There are many people in the so-called 'underdeveloped' countries who are well educated, who are knowledgeable in their 'know how', and whose culture is of a high standard. It was a surprise to Mr Bentley to learn of the many misconceptions that we Canadians acquire about a country such as Egypt. For instance, the climate is not so very much hotter than here and one suffers from the cold during the two winter months spent in poorly heated homes. the Nile, one of the great rivers of the world, has no tributaries during its last 800 mile journey to the sea, so becomes smaller as it flows north: and the exact location and boundaries of Egypt are not clearly defined in our minds.

The Egyptian farmer is rather efficient, able to grow an average of 65 bushels to the acre, using some very modern marketing methods. In agriculture education they have three university faculties, and 40 schools of vocational agriculture. There is no average Egyptian because there is such a contrast between rich and poor and their standards of living.

They don't have our kind of democracy, Mr. Bentley said, but then our type of government would not fit the circumstances under which the Egyptian people live at present. In spite of the many fine aspects of life in Egypt, Mr. Bentley was convinced that it is good to be a Canadian and it is good to be home.

Following the banquet the diners were joined by other alumni, some of whom came from as far away as the Peace River country, and from many intermediate points, to make a total of about 350 alumni and friends to enjoy the Rose Ball at which each of the ladies was the recipient of a lovely rose courtesy of the association.

Islay W. A. Holds July Meeting

ISLAY. — The July meeting of the W. A. of Islay United Church was held July 2 at the home of Mrs. Doris McFadyen with nineteen members and one visitor, Mrs. Cote, who joined the W.A. later in the day. The meeting opened with hymn 632 "Within Thy Tabernacle". Mrs. McLean had the devotional. The president, Mrs. Sweet, extended a welcome to all. The minutes and treasurer's report were then read. Mrs. Sweet bought the ABC quilt given by Mrs. Buchanan. It was her own work during the winter. A request came to rent cups and saucers. This was put to the meeting and following a discussion, was moved and seconded and carried unanimously that any of the church equipment be not rented or loaned. It was moved to buy five dozen cups and saucers. Mrs. Axley and Mrs. Shaw volunteered to purchase same. A committee of three was appointed to look into buying linoleum for the church floor.

A group of Vermilion people comprised of Mr and Mrs Wm. McGinnis, Leo, Norman and Ed McGinnis and their families, and Mr and Mrs. Clarence Neis attended the opening of the machinery museum at Saskatoon last week. They took part in the steam engine section and Bill operated one of the big steamers in the competitions held. It was a very good affair and the old machinery on exhibit is really marvelous and beyond description. Another Vermilion man at the exhibition was L. H. Pockett while the Tate family from Mannville was also in attendance.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear [illegible]

IVAR E. LARSEN

who passed away July 12, 1957
Many a day your [illegible] spoken
Many an hour you are in our thoughts
A link in the family [illegible]
You are gone from our home but not our hearts
When around your bed all day we stood,
And watched you fade away,
Our hearts were crushed and [illegible].
You fought so hard to stay
We watched you suffer,
We heard you sigh;
All we could do was just stand by,
God took your hand, we had to part;
He eased your pain but broke our hearts
You were always patient through the [illegible] you struggled on.
And those hands that rest forever made [illegible] now is gone
Deep in our hearts our memory is kept
Of one we loved and will never forget
Sadly missed by your loving [illegible] and family

Civil Defence and National Defence are the opposite [illegible] the same coin — the coin of National Survival

Quick Canadian Facts

Don't 'duck' or push other bathers into water. PLAYFULNESS MAY COST A LIFE! tf

Diary of a Vagabond

BY DOROTHY BARKER

The Queen of Canada is a career woman. This fact was brought home to me as I witnessed her complete composure, but authoritative attitude toward her job during the current tour. It is hard work being subjected to an official tour of this vast dominion. Only a person well trained for such an arduous task could stand up under the strain.

Three times since the tour began, however, she has let her womanly nature show through her slow studied inspection or interested attention at social functions.

During the early part of the tour quite unexpectedly Elizabeth the homemaker became enthralled with the sparkling new equipment in the kitchen of a miner's home in Schefferville, Quebec. "C'est grande" she exclaimed in the soft, excellent French accent which so thrilled the French speaking peoples of Canada. Mme. Antoine Pichette preened at her Queen's complimentary remarks. She undoubtedly vowed that her unborn child would be brought up to be a loyal subject of this very human monarch, a [illegible] her contemporary.

Another facet of [illegible] charm broke through [illegible] as millions of pairs of eyes watched her on TV. The occasion was the formal ball in Montreal as she waited patiently for red-coated Mounties to clear the floor for dancing. Seated beside her in the magnificent ballroom of the hotel named for her was Donald Gordon, president of Canadian National Railways.

A noted wit and conversationalist, Mr. Gordon seemed to delight her Majesty. Elizabeth, the eternal feminine, handled an animated conversation with him obviously exchanging quips. Her laughter was spontaneous, genuine and refreshingly natural. For those brief moments while she waited the official act of opening the ball by dancing with Montreal's Mayor Sarto Fournier Queen of the British Commonwealth, Elizabeth II was a lovely woman engaged in conversation with an attentive partner.

The third incident which appealed to me as one which must have added pleasure to the trip for [illegible] person, was the casual manner in which President Eisenhower, ignoring the fact that no commoner is ever seen to touch her august person, took her elbow firmly in his right hand and guided her to the spectacularly decorated platform for the opening ceremony of the St. Lawrence Seaway. This gesture seemingly [illegible] her and "Elizabeth" [illegible] "Ike" her most winning [illegible].

Continually under the "guns" of dozens of cameras, her every action being marked by hundreds of press people Queen Elizabeth has seldom dared to be herself to show fatigue or any sign of discomfiture — during this gruelling tour. She came to Canada to do a job and she is doing it magnificently.

If it has been torture for me to keep my hair in curl, my dresses in press and my temper cool during this changeable, temperamental royal tour weather, my admiration for a woman who never turns a hair under any circumstances, but always looks cool and impeccable, composed and controlled, has ascended like today's mercury to an all time high. She must have a secret inner source of endurance that I and others covering this tour have not yet developed.

I quite agree with those who feel that extended tours of the nature now under way are a form of torture no one should have to suffer.

During future visits to Canada may this charming young woman, who is wearing her charm for the most part under a cloak of protocol and formality, be given the opportunity to unbend and be herself as she was in the brief moments recorded above.

WILDMERE WINKS

A jolly picnic was held at Preston Central school on Tuesday afternoon to mark the closing of the school for the summer holidays. For a bit of amusement, the mothers played ball against the girls, and the girls were victorious. Then, following a delicious pot-luck supper, the men took on the boys. This game ended in a tie. Everyone seemed to have a good time at the picnic and all look forward to another one next year. Frank Gibson and Cliff Cruthers, with willing helpers, looked after the booth and Albert Smith and Mr. Sweet the sports.

On Wednesday, July 1st, Mr. and Mrs. C. Cruthers and the writer attended the sports day at Mannville. In the evening they attended the show "The Littlest Hobo" in the Mannville theatre which was enjoyed very much.

On July 1st, Ken Graham went to [illegible] to visit his grandmother, Mrs. J. Cameron. He [illegible] in the [illegible] day of the Ponoka stampede. He returned home of Friday and for the next few weeks will work for Lewis Alexander.

A reception on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson followed the recent wedding of Mona Madill and Gerry Hadley. About 150 people gathered for the happy affair and did justice to the wonderful food that was served. Roy Dibben proposed the toast to the bride and the groom suitably replied. Some of the out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Gibson of Cloverdale, B. C.; Don and Howard Gibson, uncles of the bride, from Woodside, Manitoba. We all wish Mona and Jerry many years of happiness together.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Little and Mr. and Mrs. William Walker Jr., recent newlyweds. We wish them all much happiness in their married lives.

Mr. Nicholls, our student minister has been attending the boys' church camp at Whitney Lake for the past week. He returned [illegible] for church service. Ernest Gibson and Evan Hughes are attending this camp too.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Steward of Seattle, who for the past couple of weeks have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, returned home on July 1. Mrs. Smith and daughter Linda accompanied them to Vancouver where Mrs. Smith will spend a couple of weeks and Linda will remain for the summer.

Mrs. Ken Shepherd, who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. J. Smith of Vancouver for the past while, has returned to Edmonton where Ken is employed.

Miss Marlene Smith, Nurse's Aide at Claresholm hospital, is home on a month's holiday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith of Basswood.

We were so pleased to see old friends at the Hadley - Madill reception on Friday. Mrs. F. Nash, who lived in Vansetl and later in Wildmere was present and Mrs. M. York (nee Marion Gibson). Mary has been teaching at Caslan, Alberta this past year. It was also nice to see and talk with Mr. and Mrs. G. Gibson of Cloverdale, B. C.

We do hope Mr. P. Walsh of Vermilion is soon well again. Best of luck to you Percy!

Visitors at the Fadden home on Sunday afternoon were Jimmie Clark, Dickie Steele, Berdie Fadden and Mr. and Mrs. Walling ton.

Don't forget the Wildmere Curling Club picnic on Friday, July 10 at the Cruthers farm. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Last, but not least, the thrill of a lifetime came to this writer on Saturday, July 4 when she won the thousand dollars at the bingo held in Vermilion. I wish to thank everyone who has congratulated me on winning.

Not long ago a local lady phoned into the office asking if this method of stiffening crinolines was in our files. Soften 2 or 3 tbsp. gelatine in ½ cup cold water. Add 1 quart boiling water. Allow to cool till hands can be placed in the solution. Then dip in garment to be stiffened and allow to drip dry. Do not iron. You'll be pleased with the results.

While on the subject of stiffening fabrics did you know that starching which is correct for the fabrics and purpose of the particular garment is a good indication of careful laundering? While it is true that many of today's fabrics do not require starching, the average homemaker still has a fair number of cottons and linens which require starching for proper care.

It is commonly known that starching makes clothes stay clean longer and makes soil removal easier. With vegetable starches (a mixture of corn and wheat starch) the soil becomes attached directly to the starch and is removed with it during washing. The plastic starches (liquids) actually penetrate the fibres rather than merely coating the surface of the fabric. This makes plastic starch harder to remove so it lasts through several washings. While the cost per ounce of plastic starches are higher, the use cost is comparable with vegetable starching due to its longer life in the fabric. It is especially important that directions be followed carefully when using plastic starches since overstarching is difficult to remove. In most cases garments are dry when immersed in a plastic starch solution and wet when immersed in vegetable starch.

Occasionally when ironing starched fabrics, the iron tends to stick to the fabric. This is generally caused by a skin that forms on the top of starch solutions left uncovered or when the heated starch has cooled. It also occurs if the iron is not hot enough, if the fabric is too wet or if there is too much starch.

To remove starch from the iron while still warm sprinkle salt on waxed paper and slide the iron over it. If the iron has cooled, rub it with a cloth dipped in detergent solution or silver polish. Rinse the soleplate well then polish and wipe dry.

Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Auburn Kepke on their silver wedding anniversary June 24.

The week end of June 20 Mrs. Mabel Lee from town was in Lloydminster to visit daughter Anna and family.

The last week in June Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Armstrong had their daughter Joyce and family from Royal Park visit them.

Mrs. Bessie Moore and daughter Edna from Deer Lake called at the Omness home on June 23. Edna is on holidays for three weeks.

Allandale was well represented at the Clandonald United Church W.A. supper on June 21 at the Laird home. The ladies are to be congratulated on such a delicious meal. The weather too was favorable.

On June 25 Orley Omness took his daughter Orie Whelan and family to her sister Delia's, the Walsh home, in Edmonton. The next day they went by C.P.R. to Calgary. Paul was to return that week end from northern Ontario on the Hudson Bay where he has been on duty for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Throndson and daughter Joanne left on June 26 for Lethbridge to spend the week end with brother Theodore and Mabel Throndson and family. Kenny West was caretaker of the farm while they were away.

Our congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Conard McCormick who were married on June 27 in Edmonton. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Martin Jr. attended the wedding.

The McPhee family had a surprise phone call from Kingston Ont. from Mrs. McPhee's cousin Thelma and Bruce Sloan on June 27. Connections were quite good. The call came at 10.10 p.m. It was 1.10 a.m. there. Mr. and Mrs. Sloan and son Peter visited with the McPhee's last summer.

Mrs. Isabel Bonaghan and family were recent visitors at the home of her mother Mrs. Lee in town.

CHURCH SERVICE ENJOYED AT WHITNEY

It was a pleasant day on June 28th when the congregations of Rev. Shortt and Mr. Farquhar met for service at Camp Whitney, both conducting the service. Rev. Shortt spoke on "Do you know your Church?" and "Do you know your camp?" Very enlightening addresses. Indeed Mr. Kruger of Dewberry sang a solo "How Great Thou Art" which was well rendered and appreciated very much. In the past few years much improvement has been made in the camp. It is a beautiful site. Ninety boys are expected for the first camp this year. Some applications had to be turned down. Harvey and Ervin Strome and Raymond Wilson from this area are in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baldock from Camrose were visitors in town and at the McPhee home on June 28.

The latter part of June Mr. and Mrs. Laird of Clandonald had their family at home. Daughter Clarice and Cy for a day from the city, son Stuart and Miss Glenna Hesla and cousin Paul from Kyle Sask. and son Wayne from Marwayne. The boys are on holidays.

The services by the South Vermilion field minister Mr. Nicholls and our minister Mr. Farquhar over the radio were very good. These two young men are leaders at Camp Whitney for the boys.

We are sorry to hear of the recent loss of animals suffered on farms recently west of here. At the Rock Mead farm six head of cattle and at Ralph Strome's a team of horses and the children's favorite, their little Shetland pony.

On July 2 Mrs. Stella Mavers who has been at Irma for the last ten months returned to Vermilion and will be at home on the farm shortly.

HOME HIT BY LIGHTNING

On July 2 at 3 p.m. one of the worst electrical storms we have ever had swept through the district. The Alvin Throndson home was hit by lightning burning out the phone and radio and causing damage to the deep freeze and refrigerator. The insulation on the phone wires was burning in the basement. It was fortunate that the Throndson's were home and the fire was put out immediately without further damage. Rain came down in torrents with some hail which did not do too much harm. Power was disrupted for a short time.

On the Harry Butler farm just south of the Centre they have recently had a large piece of breaking done.

A reminder of our get-together on July 31, the 50th anniversary of the Allandale school. The notice should have read a dance, then we would know the time it will be in the evening.

Mrs. Josie Southwell and granddaughter Sharon arrived in Vermilion on July 3 from Edmonton to holiday at the Throndson and Omness homes. Josie is a teen-age friend of the Nelson's.

Our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Milo Fleming, Mr. Bingeman and sons on the death of a dear one, mother and wife. "Peaceful be thy rest dear mother, it is sweet to breathe thy name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same."

The early evening of July 4 the Omnesses, Josie and Sharon motored to the United Church camp at Lake Whitney where the boys were at play. We called on Mrs. Shortt [illegible] it's great to see the improvements that have been made in the kitchen.

E. Schurman of Vermilion [illegible] July [illegible] Prayer.

We were deeply shocked [illegible] Doug Pratt [illegible]. Our deepest sympathy to his wife and [illegible], his parents Mr. and Mrs. Sid Pratt of Edmonton, brother Howard at [illegible] and sisters Dorothy and Marjorie and families in the States.

Visitors at the Ben Axley home on July 5th in Dewberry were daughter Emma, George and daughters Mrs. Raymond Fleming of Edmonton and the Omnesses. The visit in part brought back memories of 31 years ago when three mothers Mary Jane, Mary and Ellen were together in [illegible] with babes in arms.

Happy and safe holiday to the folks west of us at Campbell Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Allan Mead, Mr. and Mrs. Rock Mead and daughter Marian and Mr. and Mrs. Peter [illegible] all leaving at different times.

Closing thought: "Stop thinking about yourself. Lighten your load by doing something for someone else. It will keep you from morbid worries and fears. It is the best medicine."

Mannville Men, Manz and Philips, Win Horseshoe Tourney Here

At the horseshoe tourney at the Vermilion Park last Sunday, Len Manz and R. Philips of Mannville pitched themselves into the $10.00 first prize money and Wayne (Mike) Fry and Dan McMullen annexed the $5.00 second prize.

There were 16 of the top pitchers in the games and the competition was so keen that old time champions like Sid Guerney and the Williamson brothers were eliminated early in the game.

Quite a crowd was present to watch the competition, and several people asked when the next tournament would be played. There were even ladies inquiring about the possibility of having a ladies tournament. It can be arranged for them, if at least 10 ladies are willing to enter. Contact Andy Sherwick or watch the Standard for further announcements.

New Minister Inducted At Mannville United Church Service

MANNVILLE—Thursday evening, July 2nd, marked the date of the induction service held at the McQueen Memorial United Church for the Rev Frank Andrews. Rev. James Shortt, of Kitscoty, conducted the service, ably assisted by Rev. Carlton Miller of St. Paul. Innisfree, Minburn and Mannville choirs were in attendance and Miss Betty Proudfoot was the organist. Mrs. Dickson of Innisfree accompanied her choir as they sang the anthem "All the World shall Praise Thee."

Rev. James Short, on behalf of St. Paul Presbytery, in delivering his charge to Rev. Mr. Andrews, the minister elect, spoke sincerely of the close friendship exisiting between him and the Rev Andrews, having attended college together. Referring throughout the charge to Mr Andrews as "Frank" he advised him "As a minister I charge you to also be a prophet." A prophet, he said, was not always one who predicted the future as a crystal gazer but a seer, "one who is close to God." He should be one who would reveal God's will to his people—all difficulties would be overcome with God's help. Finally Rev Shortt charged him to be a priest an assistant of God "and he and his people would be co-workers through Jesus Christ."

Rev. C. Miller delivered the charge to the people, taking his inspiration from the 4th chapter of Nehemiah, verse 6. "So built we the Wall . . ." ending "for the people had a mind to work." This verse was especially applicable in this charge, as Rev Miller felt that no walls, regardless of denomination, were built as strong as they should be, the one weakness, not enough co-operative attendance at worship services. "It is up to you as a congregation to strengthen your walls," he said, adding "Praise God you have not had to wait for your leader. Give him your co-operation and work constructively with him." Following this, induction vows were taken.

Lunch was served after the service in the social rooms.

Many Outstanding Attractions Are Featured At Edmonton Exhibition

The biggest parade in Edmonton's history will kick off the 81st annual Edmonton Exhibition Monday July 13 at 10 a.m., an extravaganza of artistry, color and music as floats represent [illegible] commemorate the Golden Age of Flight.

When the gates are thrown open to the public Monday afternoon, over a million dollars in farm and industrial equipment may be seen along a greatly enlarged "machinery row" depicting new [illegible] mechanization new trends for livestock and grain farming in Alberta. Also among the array of exhibits may be seen commercial and retail manufacturers' displays, needlework, cooking and handicraft, art and school exhibits, photography, [illegible] of other exhibits that will appeal to all ages.

[illegible] will again be a highlight as several hundred boys and girls are entertained by the Edmonton Exhibition Association for four days. Good farming practices, public speaking competitions, provincial scholarships and competitive judging of livestock will feature some of the activities for the younger [illegible] of agriculture.

Many new attractions are expected to bring [illegible] to this annual event. [illegible] the World in 80 Days, is one of these. A daring act on a trapeze suspended high in the air from a replica of the [illegible] foot balloon 'La Coquette' will be familiar to all who saw the [illegible] picture "Around the World in Eighty Days".

Something new has been added to enhance the appearance of the Exhibition grounds this year. Four attractively designed water fountains with reflective pools and changing color patterns of rising and falling water sprays have been installed. Colored pennants will decorate the mall leading from the west entrance to the Manufacturers' building and festoons of red, white and blue bunting will adorn the south wall of the grandstand. This is something new to add an attractive and impressive "new look" to the carnival spirit of the Edmonton Exhibition.

The mighty Royal American is mightier than ever before. Feature entertainment this year will include the all-new Western show [illegible] Johnny Mack Brown of movie fame. The Rocky Covette's Revue is outstanding and Leon Miller will present a fairy talent packed package that highlights his 10th anniversary in producing shows for Royal American. The most impressive new ride is "Ye Old Haunted Mill" built this winter under the direction of C. J. Sedlmayr, son of Carl Sedlmayr, owner general manager of the Royal American. The dark ride is unique in that some trackage is built into a 30-foot show wagon and the entire [illegible] and all of its equipment can be transported within the [illegible].

The Exhibition's modern display home offers many outstanding features again this year. In addition to being ultra-modern in design and furnishings this $25,000 home features stereophonic radio and record playing equipment, built-in radio and communication to all rooms and special neon and fluorescent lighting. The home, the entire furnishings, the moving and the landscaped lot will be awarded to the lucky winner Saturday night July 18, all for the price of a $1 ticket purchased on the [illegible].

These and many other thrilling features will be added to the spectacular attractions at the [illegible] in celebration of the Golden Anniversary of Flight, July 13 to 18.

Twelve outstanding acts will be viewed as Barnes-Carruthers [illegible] before the grandstand each evening at 8. Included in this 1959 spectacle is the 'Kings and Queen of the Sky', a thrilling death-defying act imported from Germany, the 'Deep River Boys', one of the few Roman Ladder groups in the world, the Les Bon Combination, the eight Arabians, 'The Eight Sons of Morocco', who present the first exhibition of Arabian pyramid-building and tumbling ever to be seen in this country.

Stock Jasper Lakes With ½-Million Fish

JASPER — A record total of more than half a million game fish is expected to be placed in the lakes of Jasper National Park before the end of the summer.

Joseph Kilistoff, officer in charge of the Jasper Park Fish Hatchery, said the lakes, highly popular with tourists, are being re-stocked with some of the foremost game fish, including rainbow trout, eastern brook trout, lake trout and splake trout.

Excellent progress is being made with a long-term plan to improve fishing in the Park. It calls for the elimination of coarse fish, such as minnows, carp, suckers and perch from all lakes. Most recent lake to be cleared was Lake Edith.

One of the most popular locations this season has been Patricia Lake where exceptionally big catches of rainbow trout and eastern brook trout have been taken.

OUR LETTER FROM EDMONTON

Rumbling Of Discontent Is Heard At Strathcona Conservative Meeting — Criticize Kirby

by KEN MASON

EDMONTON — It was bound to happen sooner or later, political life being what it is.

But it didn't take Alberta Progressive Conservatives long to start fighting among themselves over the results of the June 18 provincial election in which Tories came off second best even though they elected only one member.

It came to a head last week when the executive of the Edmonton Strathcona P C Association voted to call for the resignation of freshman party leader W. J. C. (Cam) Kirby of Red Deer.

The question is whether the Edmonton group is a rebellious minority or whether its action may spread into a grass-roots movement throughout the province to oust the Tory chief after his first attempt at leading the party in a general election.

Reaction from a number of top-ranking Tories indicates the Strathcona Centre group may be nothing but a vioce in the wilderness. Several of them told this reporter Kirby has solid support of most constituency organizations.

But Herb Tait, vice-president of the Strathcona Tories, said the majority of [illegible] associations are dissatisfied with the way Kirby led the party in the election campaign. "This is just the start," he said, "it had to start somewhere."

It was Tait who disclosed details of the [illegible] executive meeting to the press, apparently against the wishes of some other members. The president Mrs. W. A. M. Treasdell was horrified when she saw the story in print, immediately took Tait to task with a statement saying he had "no authority whatsoever" to make public matters discussed at the meeting.

Other Tory officials in Edmonton were in a flap, claiming they had no knowledge of dissatisfaction with Kirby. But one or two of them, speaking off the record, said they agreed with the stand taken by the Str[illegible].

Cam Kirby was away in eastern Canada and was unable to make a comment. A few party members were openly angered by the Strathcona Centre action and likened it to "kicking a man when he's down." There's little doubt the matter will come up for discussion at a provincial party executive meeting later this month.

Whether they support Cam Kirby or not, most Conservatives are agreed that some mistakes were made during the recent election campaign.

Tories met a week ago Saturday at Red Deer to conduct a post-mortem on the election, and the mistakes made in the campaign placed high on the agenda. One of the biggest mistakes Tories say now, was the attempt to match Kirby against Premier Manning in a battle of personalities. Hindsight is always better than foresight, of course, but the party now realizes it was barking up the wrong tree when it appealed to the voters to elect a "Kirby government."

What the party should have done, officials say, is minimize Social Credit's emphasis on the personal magnetism of Premier Manning and fight the campaign on the basis of Conservatism vs Social Credit.

Kirby admitted at the Red Deer meeting that one of his biggest personal mistakes was a recorded [illegible] television speech in which he referred to the premier and his cabinet colleagues as a group of "tired, arrogant old men."

But the [illegible] Tories had some other specific complaints about the way the election was handled.

1. The party went most of the way through the election campaign without a platform.

2. An advertising agency had been permitted to take over the job of running the campaign and deciding on matters of policy.

According to word filtering out from the Red Deer meeting attended by about 30 delegates including some of the defeated candidates — the Tories decided they lost the election because there wasn't enough time to build up a "leader image" around Mr Kirby.

Delegates were told the party should spend more money and the next four years building up this "leader image" in preparation for the next election. It sounds like something straight out of Vance Packard's best selling book, "The Hidden Persuaders".

Whether it works or not, the next four years will tell. But it will be an uphill battle especially with Mr. Kirby no longer in the Legislature. Meanwhile, of course, Premier Manning will continue to be "leader image" in the eyes of the public and any party will have a tough time substituting a new image.

Mannville Lad Wins Boat

A high school student of grade twelve graduating class this year, Charlie was delighted with his new boat which he intends to put to good use.

For the first time in 15 years the value of construction in Canada will show a decrease in 1959; the forecast for 1959 is $7,202 millions, compared to the 1958 all-time high of $7,231 millions.

"The House that Service Built"

WOODVALE NOTES

Holiday time is here again and quite a few families in the district are taking vacations too. Mrs. Anderson and Inez have gone east with Mr. Anderson, where he is taking a Civil Defence course at Arnprior, Ont. They are travelling by car and Mr. and Mrs. Garth Roberts are accompanying them.

Mrs. Gladys Wolters and Charlot have gone to Kelowna, B.C. for a visit with her sister Mrs. Dorothy Wilson. Susan Wolters will work at Lake Louise for the summer months. Mr and Mrs. Duff McGrath went to Saskatoon to see the pioneer exhibition there and were undecided where they were going to go from there, north or south but we'll know on their return. Mr and Mrs. Ray McQuid and the boys left on Monday for a [illegible] probably to the [illegible].

Mr and Mrs. Paul Goutier went to fetch Jeanne home. She wrote her grade 12 exams this year in Edmonton. On the way to the city Mrs. Goutier stopped at Vegreville to spend a day with her daughter Suzanne Benoit and family.

Mr and Mrs. Gordon Portsmith and the girls have left the Hindville district to live in Kitscoty, a move unknown to many of their friends here who are sorry to see them go. We hope little Laverne who has been in the Vermilion hospital for observation will soon be back with them again.

We also hope that Mrs. Belle McGrath who is in the Islay hospital with a very bad cold will soon improve in health.

School days have ended for another year with a very happy picnic when old and new pupils mixed with the school children and enjoyed ball games and races. The new pretty [illegible] certainly has a fascination for the very young who find it hard to leave it.

The three pupils who wrote grade 9 exams will now anxiously await results as they found them very hard this year as did many in other schools.

The Tolland picnic will be held on July 15 with ball games, races and a dance at night. It is hoped to have the hall on its new foundation by then and work is proceeding on it now.

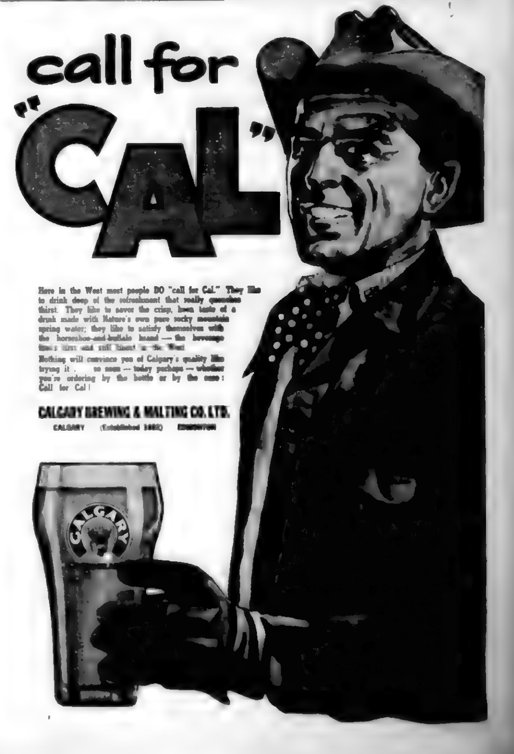
Churches services are being held in Canton school at 11:00 a.m. with Mr. Johnson to lead them. He comes from Ontario and will be here for July and August. He has moved into the Wildwood teacherage for that time.

Herman Wolters has bought a half section of land near Moon Lake and will move his cattle there soon. Freddy McGrath who bought his place here last year and Jack Bowman built a large dam which [illegible] good watering place for cattle. With sloughs dry watering stock on many farms is quite a problem this year and though showers and some of them quite heavy have fallen in the district more rain is needed soon and where [illegible] need for rain.

Mr and Mrs. Johnny Crooks of Airways came over for the V.S.A. Alumni and rose ball, leaving their four little daughters with their grandmother Mrs. Euna Lysons, where they all stayed for the week end.

The Red Cross auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Van Wagengen on July 2 with ten ladies present to work on a pretty patch quilt made by Mrs. Mabel [illegible] came from Vermilion to be at the meeting. Mrs. S. [illegible] from Vermilion, came to help, as always a most welcome visitor, and spent a few days afterwards with her daughter Mrs. K. [illegible] were made for the booth at the Tolland picnic and there was time for a visit and chat and a leisurely lunch. As far as the writer is concerned, always a most pleasant afternoon. Mrs. Flo McQuid had her birthday that day and after singing 'Happy Birthday' to her, was offered a hastily picked and put together and maybe somewhat prickly corsage of pretty yellow roses. The next meeting will be held on Aug. 6 at the home of Mrs [illegible].

As we have not been to Vermilion since the election, we heartily wish to congratulate Mr Ashley Cooper on his election. We are a bit more timely however with congratulations to Mrs. Wallington on her good fortune in winning the $1000 bingo prize Saturday night in Vermilion. For once we [illegible] within 24 hours!



Here in the West most people DO "call for Cal." They like to drink deep of the refreshment that really quenches thirst. They like to savor the crisp, keen taste of a drink made with Nature's own pure rocky mountain spring water; they like to satisfy themselves with the horseshoe-and-buffalo brand — the beverage [illegible] first and still finest in the West.

Nothing will convince you of Calgary's quality like trying it . . . so soon — today perhaps — whether you're ordering by the bottle or by the case: Call for Cal!

Health Unit Notes

More adults and children have accidents at home than elsewhere. In the age group 1-14 years 40% of fatal accidents happen in the home. An average of one person dies every thirty minutes as a result of a home accident. In addition many are permanently or temporarily disabled.

Every child is curious, this is normal and it is wrong to discourage this inquisitiveness. The [illegible] thing to do is to direct the child's curiosity into safe channels.

KITCHEN SAFETY

See that matches, knives and poisons such as cleaning fluids are away from a child's reach. Watch pots and pans on the stove and turn the handles to the back to prevent serious scalding by the child overturning them on himself. Carefully watch electrical appliances and do not use frayed cord. Unplug all electrical appliances at the outlet when you've finished.

BATHROOM SAFETY

Leave medicines out of reach of your child and [illegible] unwanted medicines and used razor blades. Never [illegible] child alone in a bathtub, a child can drown in the time it takes to answer the doorbell or telephone.

[illegible]

Good lighting in your home prevents falls and this is of the greatest importance on stairs and hallways. NEVER leave children alone in a house. This carelessness often causes tragedy. Unscreened fireplaces are a constant source of severe burns.

Loose scatter rugs which cause many falls should be fastened down or equipped with non-skid attachments.

STAIRWAYS

Keep stairways well lighted always. Keep them free of articles such as toys over which people might fall. Loose stair coverings on stair treads account for many injuries.

PREVENTION OF HOME ACCIDENTS

1. Set a good example and by teaching and showing your children safety in their home, you will be well rewarded.

2. Give your child an opportunity to do things in a safe way. If you let him light your cigarette occasionally he will be less inclined to sneak off himself to play with matches.

3. Not CHANCE but CARELESSNESS is the reason so many youngsters die by accident in their own homes.

4. List the following telephone numbers: your doctor, hospital, taxi, fire department and police department and keep this list by the telephone.

5. Prepare a first-aid kit containing at least the [illegible] cotton, soap in a [illegible] [illegible] for cleansing [illegible] gauze pads, bandages in one and two inch widths, adhesive tape in one inch width, antiseptic solution, scissors and band-aids for minor cuts.

ALBERTA REPORT

Anders O. Aalberg
Member Elect for Alexandra

At the 1959 session the Alberta legislature passed a new Students' Assistance Act which provides an enlarged program of scholarships, grants, loans and bursaries for students of the province. With the consent of Her Gracious Majesty the Queen and in honor of Her Majesty's forthcoming visit to the province, this program of student aid will be known as "The Queen Elizabeth Scholarship Fund". Booklets and leaflets describing all features of the program have been released to every senior high school throughout the province.

COST AND SCOPE OF THE PROGRAM

The provincial government has allocated approximately $1,300,000 for this program [illegible] and awards will be made to an estimated 4,000 students this year. The program is administered jointly by the Department of Education and the University of Alberta.

WHO MAY QUALIFY?

Upon meeting certain terms and conditions covered by regulations, bona fide Alberta students who are taking courses at the University of Alberta, at publicly supported vocational schools, at Schools of Nursing, at Schools of Agriculture, at the Banff School of Fine Arts, or at publicly supported senior high schools, may qualify for various benefits offered by the program. The amount awarded in each case will depend upon the scholastic achievement and the actual need of the student.

RATE OF ASSISTANCE

The amount of the scholarship or grant for which a university student may qualify will vary from $100 to $1,200 per year, while loans of up to $500 per year and not more than $1,500 for the full course are also available. For other students the assistance by way of grants or loans will be in accordance with [illegible] regulations.

FURTHER INFORMATION

For further details regarding this very extensive program I would suggest that interested parents and students write directly to me or to the Secretary of Students Assistance Board, Department of Education, Edmonton. All enquiries will be answered promptly and fully.

THE VERMILION STANDARD

Vol. LI. No. 3. $2.50 a Year Vermilion, Alberta, Thursday, July 16th, 1959. 12 PAGES Single Copy 10c

This Alberta government float will be a feature of the Vermilion Fair parade on Thursday morning next, July 23. It was originally designed for participation in the Grey Cup parade at Toronto last year.

Vermilion Fair To Start Next Thursday For Three-Day Run

Parade Thursday 11 a.m. — New Midway — De Luxe Grandstand

Vermilion's big fair throws open its gates on Thursday, July 23 and will run through Saturday evening, July 25. The monster parade, in which it is hoped all town and district businesses and organizations will take part, will line up in the west end of town on Thursday morning at 10:30 ready to move off at 11:00 o'clock. Boys and girls are urged to decorate their bicycles and take part in the parade. Cash prizes of $5.00, $3.00 and $2.00 will be paid the first three selected while 50 cents in cash will be handed each boy and girl taking part. Cash prizes will be paid for decorated cars and floats entered by organizations and large handsome rosettes will be awarded winning commercial and business floats indicating placing.

From all appearances every stall on the grounds including those in a new barn just completed will be completely filled. Some of western Canada's finest light horses are competing in the fair this year, while the fine heavy horses of several exhibitors will be on display for the three days. Cattle entries are heavy in all breeds and a special showing of Charalois cattle will be a new feature this year.

BRAND NEW MIDWAY

The Art B. Thomas Midway Shows of Lennox, South Dakota will serve the fair this year and judging from reports at previous B fairs in Manitoba all fair patrons are in for a pleasant surprise; the new midway is reported to be replete with new and interesting rides and high class shows. The new midway travels in thirty huge trucks and the management has promised to have rides and shows in operation by noon on Thursday. Special matinee prices will be in effect Thursday until 6 o'clock in the evening. Be sure to attend the fair on Thursday and avoid the usual Friday crush.

DELUXE GRANDSTAND ATTRACTIONS

Those attending the fair are assured of splendid grandstand attraction programmes provided by the well known Tom Drake Troupe of Kansas City, Missouri, who will present superb acts in tumbling, with dare-devil interludes, greyhound performances which will thrill young and old alike, musical numbers of the highest quality and so many other acts that it is impossible to describe them all here. Grandstand programmes will be held on Thursday afternoon, Thursday evening, Friday afternoon with two complete shows that evening at 7 and 9 o'clock, Saturday afternoon and at least one show on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. If warranted a second show will be held on Saturday evening at 9 o'clock, following which the Kinsmen car will be awarded some lucky winner.

LIGHT HORSE SHOW

Vermilion's now famous light horse show will start on Thursday afternoon and will continue throughout the entire fair. Outstanding horses from all over Western Canada will be taking part and is it interesting to note that Vermilion showmen and show-ladies give all the noted horses from distant points a real run for their money. Those well versed in light horsemanship have been most enthusiastic regarding the ability of local light horse people to hold up their end against all competitors.

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS

Hall exhibits are expected to fill the exhibit halls and particularly interesting displays will be staged by Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Bentley of artistic items brought back from Egypt following their residence in that country for a year and Mr W. L. Kruger, now of Dewberry and formerly a teacher in Ethiopia, from which country a very interesting display will be shown. The two outstanding displays will not be on view at any other fair and should be seen by all in the main Exhibit Hall. The display building will be completely filled with interesting and worthwhile displays.

BANDS IN ATTENDANCE

Vermilion's popular pipe band will be on had to lead the Thursday morning parade and to give numbers at the grounds during Thursday while the fine band of the R C A F Cold Lake Station will also participate both in the parade and in concerts afternoon and evening at the fair grounds. The Thomas Midway will also provide a band, so that the musical end of the fair will be upheld in good style.

JUNIOR FAIR

Special attention of all interested in the youthful exhibitors of the Junior Fair will be directed to the Junior Fair which includes the showing of livestock, handiwork and school work. The youngsters have been working for many weeks preparing their exhibits and a visit to their special hall will repay parents and others as the exhibits are most attractive.

CALF CLUB SHOW & SALE

The Thursday afternoon feature of this year's fair will again be the show and sale of the calves raised and cared for by the members of the Mannville, Vermilion, Derwent and Preston calf clubs. The show will proceed Thursday morning with the sale starting promptly at two o'clock in the afternoon. Buyer representatives from local and distant points will be on hand to bid on the fine calves exhibited.

ADVANCE TICKETS ON SALE

Vermilion is the only fair in western Canada to feature advance tickets at moderate rates. A single ticket admits at main gates, children under 12 being free. Three advance tickets admit an adult to the grandstand, two are required for children 12 to 16 years of age and one ticket admits a child under 12 to the grandstand. Cars entering the grounds require one advance ticket. The advance ticket sale will end on Wednesday evening, July 22 and all desiring to secure moderate cost entertainment should secure their tickets early. Plan to bring all the family to VERMILION FAIR, July 23, 24 and 25.

New Principal Is Appointed For Vermilion High

Mr A. Husby, who holds the degrees of Bachelor of Education and Master of Education, has been appointed principal of the Vermilion high school. Mr Husby is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan in which province he taught for six years. For the past four years he has been teaching in Alberta. He comes to Vermilion from Cremona, in Southern Alberta where he was principal of the twelve room school.

Mr. Husby has passed through Vermilion several times during the past few years and each time thought that this was the town in which he wished to teach and to make a permanent home. He is a married man with three daughters and a son and plans to move to Vermilion just as soon as living accomodation can be obtained.

The new principal succeeds Mr. John David who has been appointed assistant superintendent for the Vermilion school division.

Council Offers East End Blocks For Sr. Citizens Lodge

It appears that the problem of a site for the Senior Citizens Lodge has been solved with the town council setting aside two blocks, numbers 40 and 41, plan 635 V for that purpose. The site is north of the new high school. The motion of the council reads — "That blocks 40 and 41, plan 635 V be reserved for the erection of a Senior Citizens Lodge under the provincial plan."

The department of welfare still has hopes of letting the contract for the Lodge here by the end of August with construction to start this fall.

Pipe Band At Park Lake This Sunday

Always popular, the Vermilion Pipe band will be the attraction at the Vermilion Park Sunday afternoon. In the evening the usual program of movies will be run.

Special School Is Proposed By Interested Parents of District

Will Fill Need Not Met By Any Regular School; Additional Funds Called For

At an organizational meeting called by the Senior Health Nurse, Mrs. Dauchot and held at the offices of the local Health Unit on Monday, July 13, a motion was made and carried unanimously by all the parents present to commence setting up a school to serve the needs of certain exceptional children in the area. Public education here, as elsewhere, does not provide in the ordinary classrooms, the type of special education that is needed for exceptional children as for example, for the blind child, the retarded slow learning child, the crippled child and the deaf child, among others. Such a child is often left without any schooling as this type of facility is still very limited, unless a private organization or a group of individuals in the community undertake to set up such a special school to care for his needs.

Just this initiative however, was underaken this week in that interested parents resolved to set up a school for the retarded child and also elected a board of directors, composed of Mr. Percy Cooper, Mrs. Clarence Neiss and Mr. Stan Jones. Appointed to the board on an ex-officio basis were the Superintendent of School Mr S. D. Simonson the Medical Health Officer, Dr G. Bourke, the Senior Health Nurse, Mrs. Dauchot, the Supervisor of Guidance and Instruction, Miss J. Filipkowski and a representative of both the divisional and local boards.

Mr. Percy Cooper was elected as chairman and was also delegated to head a committee to meet with the Divisional and local boards and the town council for suggestions for a suitable building and a site for it. If arrangements for a building can be made, a teacher will then be sought who will be specially capable in the teaching of these children. A search for needed funds is underway.

For admission to this special school, pupils will be carefully screened by psychologists of the Provincial Guidance Act.

Mr. Simonson outlined the help that is available to the setting up of such a school. He stated that the government is ready to help and has funds set aside in the form of building grants and tuition grants to aid local communities provided that a local committee will be responsible for the setting up and the management of this type of school. 90% towards the cost of a new building or a maximum of $7,200 can be secured by the local group. In addition a local school division is empowered to grant a minimum of $500 per child per year to help meet the costs. Despite this aid, tuition grants will cover only half the annual operating costs and help from interested local organizations and citizens will be needed and deeply appreciated by the Board of Directors.

The children who presently need this special type of teaching, have as much right to it as other children have to general education. So far through no fault of their own or that of anyone else they have been denied opportunities that could have helped them. The people of the town and district can create such an opportunity.

4,000 Throng Vermilion Park For Official Opening For Season

Four thousand people thronged the Vermilion provincial park on Sunday for the official opening of the season. The program was an outstanding one, the weather absolutely perfect, and the gay crowd added just the right touch as the Hon Norman Willmore Minister of Lands and Forests, his worship Mayor Melvin Hill, and Ashley Cooper, M. L. A. gave short talks of welcome with a bit of general information about the considerable development of the Vermilion provincial park in the short space of five years.

Dr. Ben King, chairman in charge of programs for the summer, gave a run down of the entertainments planned for each Sunday of the holiday months. Bill Sutherland was emcee while tribute was paid to the local committee of K. G. Urquhart, Melvin Hill and Bill Sutherland.

Hon Mr Willmore and Mrs. Willmore were taken for a tour of the park and expressed their amazement at the number of people picnicking all over the park area.

FINE BAND CONCERT

Headlining the attractions was the concert by the Lloydminster and District citizens band. They gave fifteen numbers comprised of marches, medleys, dances, hymns, overtures and novelty numbers.

The flashy majorettes certainly caught the eye of the huge crowd when they presented their number, the band playing the march "Young Comrades."

LORENE KRUSHINSKY PLEASES

Miss Lorene Krushinsky, aged 13 years, was a visitor here from Vancouver, and who is a member of a majorette corps in that city, gave a most amazing exhibition of baton twirling and really brought down the crowd. She followed up with an acrobatic display that was equally as good. Lorene has won 24 medals and 5 trophies for individual work, while the corps of which she is a member has won 30 trophies. She is a niece of Steve and Pete Krushinsky.

Conducting the band was Bob Brosseau while Bob Carmichael made a very efficient announcer.

Other attractions for the day were the two football games which the Checker Ghosts won from Lloydminster.

In the evening the program of movies kept the crowd at the park until 10:30 o'clock.

It was a good effort and the Board of Trade committee of Dr King and Jim Champion deserve commendation for their laudable work.

At Cold Lake on July 1, Slim Hammond, Stan Waldenberger, Warren Rosequist and Al Locke competed. Al was again the money man this time it was a $10 bill for low score on the hidden hole. This tournament was played at the RCAF station and had an entry of 71.

Ultra Modern Dry Cleaning Machinery Comes To Vermilion

Not only the spacemen with their satellites, not only the scientists with their electronic computers, but right here in Vermilion do we have a machine that looks like a mechanical brain. This modern machinery is the newest of several pieces of equipment that have been installed at Art's Cleaners.

Art cordially invites the public to come into his plant and see these items to see for themselves just how gently and efficiently their clothing is handled, and to learn how it is possible to clean the clothes so thorougly and automatically.

Art first bought the cleaning business in Vermilion on April 1st, 1957, and in the two years that he has been here has been constantly striving to improve both the quality and service in clothes care. Because this has resulted in such an increase of business it has justified the addition of these very expensive pieces of equipment.

Although laundering is not done on the premises, just as a service to his customers Art has taken out an agency enabling him to send laundry elsewhere to be done and shirt service is a specialty. As a result of repeated requests he has rented a modern, fully up-to-date storage vault to accomodate furs and other winter clothing. A free pick-up and delivery service has been established.

With the new dry cleaning units, the cleaner and two pressing machines, the laundry agency, the storage vault and also a mending machine, there isn't anything in the way of "Clothes Care" that Art's Cleaners isn't able to handle. With only three employees, the automated establishment is able to take "anything they throw at us."

For Convenience and Safety

Both from the standpoint of convenience and safety The Standard is of the opinion that a crosswalk should be designated on 50th avenue at a point midway in the long block. Both sides of this street are now used by many people and there is bound to be a lot of jay-walking which on a busy Saturday or a day before a holiday adds to the traffic hazard. People now have to go either to one end or the other of the lengthy block to cross in safety and they just don't do it, they dart across anywhere. A crosswalk in the middle of the block would eliminate this danger and would prove a convenience for those who do not want to traverse the entire length. A crosswalk is merely a crossing painted on the hardtop, and other notification signs to motorists signifying that a crosswalk exists and pedestrians have the right of way on that area.

National Farm Safety Week

The Canadian Council on 4-H Clubs together with other leading national farm organizations has endorsed the program of National Farm Safety Week which will be observed in the United States and Canada from July 19 to 25.

The purpose of the week is to focus attention on farm safety and to stimulate action and interest in the prevention of accidents.

While farm and farm home safety projects are not new in 4-H, extension representatives and local leaders have been handicapped in the further development of 4-H safety through the lack of information and statistics. Accordingly the results of farm safety surveys presently being conducted and programs such as National Farm Safety Week will prove invaluable to everyone associated with farm accident prevention.

Salute Colleagues of Weekly Press

We're taking this space this week to salute our colleagues of the weekly press who are holding their 40th annual convention in Regina.

Editors and publishers of weekly newspapers from Newfoundland to Vancouver Island have gathered in the famed prairie city to discuss the problems that confront them in this highly mechanized and rapidly changing world.

And those of you who are not familiar with the weeklies may wonder how they survive the competition of the big dailies, the national news magazines, radio and TV.

The answer is simple. The weekly editor has changed with the times, and so continues to fill an important role in the communications network of his community.

He does the job of providing accurate local news and opinion in a way that meets the high technical and cultural standards of today's modern reader.

Gone are the days of the annual deadline and the "gone fishin'" sign which were [illegible] taken anyway. Today, the weekly editor has one of the biggest and busiest jobs in the publishing field.

He not only has to compete for business against new and powerful media, but he has to do an ever improving job of reporting local news and interpreting his community to itself. Our higher education and living standards make this mandatory.

And the men and women who are gathered in Regina would be the last to claim that they are masters of the situation. In fact they're attending the 40th annual meeting of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association to listen to experts and to swap suggestions among themselves on how to do a better job.

One of the things they have done collectively through the CWNA is to set up a series of awards for excellence in the weeklies to encourage editors and publishers to strive for greater improvement and to recognize those who are making the grade.

They have, through CWNA, set up their own promotion and public relations program to tell their story.

And at this 40th annual meeting they undoubtedly will take further action to help them do a better job for their readers and advertisers.

It is for this reason we ask you to join us in our salute to them. It may seem that we're tooting our own horn a bit. But we feel they've done a great job to date and are trying to do better in the future. And that's GOOD for all of us, advertisers who make a newspaper possible, and the non-advertiser alike.

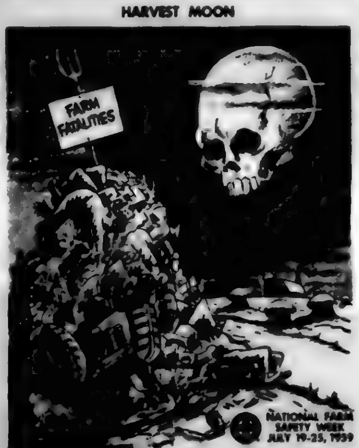
HARVEST MOON



FARM FATALITIES
NATIONAL FARM SAFETY WEEK JULY 19-25, 1959

The Homemaker

NANCY HOOPER
District Home Economist
Wainwright, Alta.

At this season of the year summer fairs are in full swing and very often you wonder where the exhibits which you entered failed to meet judges' standards.

First a word about handicrafts. The article must serve the purpose for which it is intended. The design should be simple and pleasing and conform to the shape of the piece. There is harmony in good design and much of it depends on color used with discrimination. It is seldom advisable to use more than three colors and these should be subordinated one to another, not all bright or all grayed. Use one color in the largest amount and in the softest or dullest intensity for the background color. Secondary color should be brighter and used in smaller amounts. The third or accent color can be brighter but used only in small amounts.

Design which is used should be stylized, conventional or geometric in nature. Naturalistic or pictorial design should be used only in pictures. Proportion must not be overlooked. Delicate trimmings belong on delicate shapes and bold trimming on bold shapes.

In making articles for use in the home it is all too easy to forget the purpose of the article. Pillowcases with a deep border of design may look attractive but are not always comfortable to sleep on. This applies to a cushion too. They should be made to be useful as well as adding a decorative touch to the room. Their care should be considered before making them. In the long run you'll be much happier with cushion covers which will wash easily.

Many homemakers are getting away from so many crocheted doilies for the home. It should be remembered that these are meant to be useful as well as decorative. Considerable time must be spent in laundering very frilly doilies. Often plainer pieces look nicer, are more protective to the table and are more practical to care for. The doilies with solid crocheted centres offer more protection for the table.

Experience is a wonderful teacher and we never cease to learn through our mistakes. If your article [illegible] place this year make [illegible] for next year.

A booklet which you [illegible] find helpful is "Judging Standards for Foods, Clothing and Handicraft". It is available free of charge from this office.

FARMSTEAD PLANNING

Comfort, convenience, economy and efficiency do not just happen, they come about by planning and the job begins with drawings on paper of your farm and home site. Planning your farmstead with beauty in mind is also a good prerequisite.

What needs to be added, what needs to be changed is, of course, up to you. Make a drawing of your existing farm. Add new buildings! Rearrange old ones! Add trees to your drawing to your own specifications. Orchards, windbreaks, garden planting, beauty-scaping . . . you can build as you please on paper.

Availability of funds, trees and building supplies and labor are the limiting factors in modern "home building". But, again, paper or model rearranging and building is inexpensive and the program can be stretched over a period of a few years.

BRANDS

The procedure should be as follows when a farmer purchases an animal with a brand on at an auction sale. First, the buyer would procure a "Bill of Sale". On this bill of sale would be the name of the owner together with the brand of the individual who had the cattle for sale.

Secondly, the buyer could have the original owner place one of the characters of his brand in a lazy position underneath. This would denote that the animal had been sold and the purchaser would be at liberty to place his own brand on the animal.

However if, say, the animal had a brand on the hip and the purchaser's brand was also registered for the hip there might not be room for both brands. Anyway, the bill of sale together with one of the characters in a lazy position underneath would [illegible] it.

DUAL-PURPOSE CROP

When grown for seed production Russian wild rye grass can be used as a dual-purpose crop. After a crop of seed is harvested the aftermath can be used for fall and winter pasture. The grower who does not utilize the aftermath in this manner is losing a valuable, nutritious crop, which can be used to supplement his income from seed production, and to act as a safeguard against complete loss of revenue in the event of a [illegible] crop failure.

Editors of Weekly Newspapers Confer At Regina This Week

REGINA — The Editors and publishers of Canada's 725 weekly newspapers are meeting here this week to confer on ways to better serve their communities.

Improving service for both readers and advertisers will be the dominant concern of men and women from Newfoundland to Vancouver Island at the 40th annual convention of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association.

The business side of the four-day meeting in the Hotel Saskatchewan will concentrate on such problems as better promotion of the weeklies as an important medium for local and national advertisers, the recruiting of technical and editorial staffs and the role of the weekly in today's rapidly expanding modern communities.

"We are keenly interested in finding the answers to these problems so that we can do a better job of serving readers and advertisers," said Wm. Telfer, CWNA managing director.

To this end, the editors and publishers will hear from top-flight speakers who are experts in the news and advertising fields.

These include Jack Ellison, Sears Limited, speaking on "Printing a Newspaper by the Offset Method," and W. H. Cranston, Shoe Corp. of Canada, speaking on "Co-operation with the National Advertiser at the Local Level."

A highlight of the convention will be the presentation of awards given annually for excellence in the various divisions of weekly newspaper coverage.

These contests are sponsored by the CWNA to encourage editors to do a better job and to give recognition to those who set and maintain high standards of printing.

Pretty Evening Wedding At First United Church, Vermilion

FLINT—McINTYRE

A honeymoon trip to Jasper, followed the recent wedding on June 12 of Miss Mary Ellen McIntyre to Mr. Donald Arthur Flint at the First United church, in Vermilion.

The bride is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. McIntyre, and the groom is the elder son of Mr and Mrs. Eric Flint of Paradise Valley.

Baskets of lilac sweetrocket and honeysuckle banked the altar for the double-ring ceremony, in which the bride was given in marriage by her father. The Rev C. W. MacKay officiated.

GOWN DESIGNED, MADE, BY BRIDE'S MOTHER

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of deep white satin, cut on Empire lines and a bouffant skirt, with appliques of lace at the hip line. There were godettes of lace at the hemline giving an old-fashioned crinoline effect. The bodice was of Chantilly lace with long sleeves, ending in lily points and fastened with rows of tiny buttons. A tailored bow of white satin complemented the lace bodice.

Her chapel veil of French illusion was held in place by a double crown studded with sequins and pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink Sweetheart roses and white daisies.

ATTENDANT GOWNED IN YELLOW

Mrs. Walter Johnson, as the matron of honor, was her sister's only attendant. She wore a waltz-length gown of yellow nylon chiffon over deep yellow taffeta. A cumerbund of taffeta completed the gown. In her hair she wore a bandeau of naturia flowers, yellow and white baby mums and daisies, and carried a matching bouquet.

Mr. Ken Kay acted as the best man and ushers were brothers of the bridal couple, Mr Keith McIntyre and Master Larry Flint.

As the bride and groom knelt at the altar, Messrs. Janet Kent, as soloist, sang "The Wedding Prayer". During the signing of the register she sang "The Lord's Prayer". Mrs. William Roebuck was the organist.

RECEPTION FOR SIXTY GUESTS

After the ceremony a reception was held in the basement of the church, which was decorated with pink and white streamers and bells.

A three-tiered wedding cake set in a bank of white tulle centred the table and was flanked by dainty vases of honeysuckle and sweetrocket, with four candles in silver sconces.

Mr Keith McIntyre acted as master of ceremonies and called upon Mr. A. Patterson, uncle of the bride, to propose the toast. The groom replied with a few well chosen words.

Mr Arthur Flint, grandfather of the groom, then asked the blessing.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McIntyre chose a dress of pure printed silk in tones of blue and white, complemented with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. Eric Flint, mother of the groom, wore a two-piece tailored dress of navy blue crepe, with white accessories and pink carnations en corsage.

Later in the evening, friends gathered at the home of the bride's parents for an informal reception.

Miss Norma Flint, sister of the groom, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Robt McIntyre was in charge of the gifts.

For travelling, the bride changed into an Aljean Classic suit of blue and black tweed, with Panama shoes and purse and white accessories. Her corsage was pink tea roses.

Mr and Mrs. Flint will make their home in Lloydminster, Alberta.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mrs Walter Johnson, Grande Prairie; Mr and Mrs. August Brunner, Donna, Wayne and Joyce; Mr and Mrs John Hedlund; Mrs. Edward Peterson and Eric, Wetaskiwin; Mrs Jim Simpson, Westlock; Mr and Mrs. A. Attends Old Home Town's 75th Anniversary

Five days of all-out celebration, July 1 to 5 marked the 75th anniversary of the founding of Birtle Town as such. The motif of the celebration was a tribute to those who pioneered the district. The parade was outstanding with over one hundred floats taking part and reaching over a mile in length.

The following extract is taken from a news item in the Birtle Manitoba newspaper The Eye-Witness.

"Harry Whitcher who left Birtle 62 years ago and is now residing at Vermilion, Alberta, tells us that the 75th anniversary has been a wonderful event in his life. Mr. Whitcher farmed just south of the Birtleside Farm from 1891 to 1897 and was not able to find any familiar landmarks left. Not anywhere in his travels said Mr Whitcher had he seen anything to match the continuing care given to the last resting places of the pioneers of Birtle."

July 1st Was Big Day At Mannville

Mannville had gained the final by topping Buffalo Coulee 6-1 while Viking was disposing of the Vermilion Grads 8-1 in a tight game.

Vermilion Ghosts downed one of Edmonton's top teams, Crystal Glass, 17-6 in the men's fast ball final to take first place.

Another Edmonton crew, Central Car Sales were eliminated in the semi-finals by the Ghosts, 11-10, while the glassmen were blasting the Vegreville Eastliners 10-3.

Morton's of Edmonton captured the women's fastball crown with a 16-6 victory over Mannville.

Previously, Mortons had plastered Vermilion Cardinals and Mannville had downed Innisfree.

1200 people paid admission to the grounds and everyone under 12 years was admitted free.

INCREASED TRAVEL TO ALASKA
Highways Minister Gordon Taylor is still actively campaigning to keep Alberta in the picture as the logical corridor for increasing travel to Alaska.

He is directing his efforts toward the U. S. government's Alaska International Rail and Road commission, a body set up to study the possibility of improving travel and communication links between Alaska and the mainland U. S.

Mr. Taylor has already been successful in making the U. S. group aware of the fact that Alberta already has a paved road all the way to the Alaska highway and a railway which goes part of the way. At one time, the commission wasn't even going to look at Alberta. It was devoting all of its attention to British Columbia and the Pacific Northwest states.

Truck Smashes Car Near Mannville

MANNVILLE — As a 1955 model Dodge Regent, preceding an Adby Construction truck of Edmonton proceeded east on highway 16, near the corner turning into Mannville off the main highway and Harry's Body Shop, the car slowed down for the 25 m.p.h. zone. The truck, attempting to do likewise, had the misfortune to have the brakes fail on the vehicle, and turning out to pass saw a car coming toward him, which would cause a head-on collision, so he chose to turn for the ditch, and literally ran over the rear end of the Regent, leaving it facing due south on the highway. The two drivers were the only occupants of the vehicles, and fortunately, no one was injured. The young man in the Regent appeared to be a bit shaken up. The back half of the car was a complete wreck. No names were released at the time of the accident.

Agriculture Education Subject Of Address At W. I. Conference

Ladies of the Women's Institutes Constituency Convention last Saturday at the School of Agriculture heard Mr. N. N. Bentley, the principal, report on his recent survey of Agricultural Education in Canada.

In the course of this survey dealing specially with vocational training, Mr. Bentley had had the opportunity to inspect and to visit every agricultural school and college in Canada and to meet and to discuss common problems with chief administrative officials. The survey included also a factual study of just what is being done by way of agriculture education in high schools.

Seven of Canada's ten provinces have, in recent years, offered some form of agriculture education in their high school programmes. Of these, three have now discontinued teaching this subject and except for "general" or "exploratory" courses which can be taken in association with regular academic programmes, agriculture has not attracted any significant enrolment in high schools anywhere in Canada.

Schools of Agriculture are of either two types. In Saskatchewan, for example, a School of Agriculture is operated in association with the faculty of agriculture at the university. Similar arrangements are provided in five other provinces. Separate institutions are established and operated primarily to train prospective farmers in Alberta's schools of agriculture and in two similar schools in Ontario. Although Quebec has some twelve separate schools of agriculture they are operated on a much less comprehensive basis.

Mr. Bentley observed that generally vocational agriculture courses are set up to serve common purposes and are conducting remarkably similar programmes. He was most impressed by the similarity of trends in subject matter treatment, curricula planning and in enrolment figures in various parts of Canada. However, the survey highlighted some differences and provided an excellent opportunity for exchange of ideas.

The "two in one" course whereby students with grade XI or better can graduate in one winter term is unique in Alberta and is attracting interest in other provinces.

One outcome of observations elsewhere is the arrangement being made for this next winter at the Vermilion and Olds schools of agriculture under which students will be given some limited choice of subject matter to allow members of the graduating classes some specialization in in Farm Mechanics, Field Crops or Livestock.

By comparison with developments in other provinces, Mr. Bentley believes that Alberta citizens have every reason to have pride and confidence in their schools of agriculture and in the opportunities they offer farm young people in this province. He pointed out, however, that education for farming is one of the most challenging forms of vocational training. Facts and figures prove that only limited numbers of young men can be attracted to vocational courses in agriculture with the result that it is only practical to offer this type of training at relatively few centres where a sufficient volume of students can be assembled to justify the expenditure for the very special facilities and highly qualified staff required to ensure effective instruction.

ALBERTA REPORT
Anders O. Aalborg
Member Elect for Alexandra

At this time of year residents of rural areas are keenly interested in the municipal program of public works to provide more and better roads which are so necessary for modern car and truck traffic. Road grants paid by the Provincial Government greatly assist rural municipal districts to build and improve district highways, school van routes and local roads. This year M. D. Vermilion River No. 71, which serves the rural area of Alexandra, will receive the record amount of $231,000 in road grants from the Alberta Department of Highways.

REGULAR GRANT — $121,000

The regular grant will meet 75% of the cost of twenty-one different projects, with the Municipality paying the balance of 25% of the cost. These projects cover 62 miles of re-grading and 105 miles of gravelling and re-gravelling to be undertaken during the present construction season at various points throughout the area of the municipality.

CONTINGENCY GRANT — $100,000

In addition to the regular road grant, M. D. V. R. will also receive this year a contingency grant of $100,000 to meet the full cost of re-grading and gravelling part of a twelve-mile section of road from Meridian Highway 17 westward in the Paradise Valley, McLaughlin and Rivercourse area, and the full cost of grading and gravelling part of a ten mile section of road between Islay and Dewberry over the Vermilion River. Work on these projects will be continued or completed in 1960.

NATURAL RESOURCES ROAD GRANT — $10,000

A further grant of $10,000 will also be paid to commence grading and gravelling of a six mile section of road in the oil field area between Marwayne and Kitscoty.

After July 15, my home address in Edmonton will be 10131-63rd St.

My next contributions to these columns will appear in the August 13th issue of the Vermilion Standard.

Little Three-Year-Old Girl Cause Of Organized Search Tuesday

Little 3 year old Bobbie Le Rossignol daughter of Mr and Mrs. Alex Le Rossignol, was the object of an organized search on Wednesday evening and was found shortly after 8 p.m. quite well and feeling fine after a sound sleep in a ditch along the railway track. The little girl was located by 10 year old Ron Sikorski who along with his chums, Eddie Collins and Rich and Nelson had instituted a search of their own.

The Le Rossignol home is on the Irvine Bell farm a mile west of town. It appears that the tiny girl, clad only in blue jeans as it was a very hot day, followed some older children away from the yard sometime during the afternoon. Being left far behind she had attempted to retrace her steps and becoming tired, had snuggled down in some long grass in a ditch beside the railway track and directly south of the hospital, and had fallen asleep. Supper time came and no Bobbie. The family searched first and then the general alarm was given by blowing the fire whistle and dozens of adults were taken to the area and the search commenced under the direction of the R.C.M.P. Following along behind the adult search, Ron Sikorski was calling and received an answer from the south side of the track. He carried the child over to the hospital from where she was taken home by a passing motorist, Charles Heckbert. The spot where she was picked up was a good mile as the [illegible] from her home.

Here is how Ron Sikorski tells the story, in his own words: "I was playing around when I heard the fire whistle blow. I rode on my bike to the fire hall but the trucks didn't come out. I went back home and telephoned and asked where the fire was and the telephone girl said that a little girl was lost west of town. My friends, Edward Collins, Richard [illegible] and I followed the police car to the hospital. They went one way and I went another way. I was calling 'here little girl, here little girl' and then I heard a little voice answer. I went to the track and found her in the railway ditch. She came to me and I carried her over to the hospital road. She had blue jeans on no shirt shoes or socks. When I first told the other boys that I had found her they wouldn't believe me but when I carried Bobbie out of the ditch they just about fell off their bikes. I stopped a car. It was Mr. Charles Heckbert and he took her home. We boys then went to tell the phone operator and the police so they could stop hunting. We then went to her house and sure enough it was the lost little girl, safe and sound at home again."

Animal At Claysmore Like Timber Wolf

An animal greatly resembling a black timber wolf was seen in the garden of Mrs. James Horne at Claysmore last Saturday. No further reports of the animal having been seen have been received. With bears gradually encroaching southward the wolves are possibly following suit, or it could have been one of the family of black coyotes noticed a little further south last winter.

Adult Swimming Classes Formed

Arrangements have been made to hold swimming classes for adults at the Vermilion Provincial Park lake. The times suggested for these classes have been chosen with a view to the convenience of the adults. Anyone interested in receiving swimming instruction is asked to contact the recreation supervisor Mac Fenton, who will provide classes for beginners and swimmers up to and including the senior classification. Suggested times are: Tuesdays and Thursdays — 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. Tuesdays and Fridays — 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. Saturdays — 10:00 to 11:00 a.m. Wednesdays — 4:00 to 5:00 p.m.

For advanced swimmers, that is, one who holds or can pass a senior swimmer's test, there will be instruction on Mondays and Wednesdays, at 7:00 p.m., which will include lifesaving methods, and perfection swimming and diving.

The beach at the Vermilion Park is a busy place throughout the summer, even during the week day hours. Each week there are 30 different classes in swimming instruction giving the approximately 150 students a twice weekly swimming period. These swimmers come from three different areas, and the town of Vermilion, and do not include the proposed adult classes.

All instruction is under the direction of the Recreation Supervisor, Mac Fenton, who has four qualified assistants: Shirley Porter, Tony Dixon, Ken Aifke and Murray Ross.

Plans are being made for a special achievement day to take place on August 19, at which time A. G. Gilmet, Director of Red Cross Water Safety, is expected to be at the park to test all members of swimming classes who wish to receive recognition of their achievements. Mr Gilmet and his staff will also present a program of water demonstrations.

The Vermilion Standard

Vermilion, Alberta, Thursday, July 16th, 1959.

Vermilion River M. D. Receives $231,613.00 In Provincial Road Grants

The meeting of June 9 and 10, 1959, was fully attended. After passing the minutes of the preceding meeting, examining the financial statement presented by the secretary for the month ending May 31 1959, and approving the accounts to be paid as passed by the Finance Committee, the date of June 24, 1959, was set for the sitting of the Court of Revision to hear complaints which had been presented to the Municipal District of Vermilion River in January, of 1959. The Court of Revision is composed of Councillors Gordon, Stone, Wilson, Wheat and Anderson.

The setting of a date for the sitting of the Court of Revision brought about a discussion of the assessment picture in general and a particular problem was encountered in the form of "operational obsolescence" which has a particular significance to the oil industry as represented in the Municipality. The subject is not a new one to the Council and the debate which took place resulted in a decision being made to uphold principles which had already been established by the Council in previous years.

TRANSFER LAND TO LLOYDMINSTER

A communication was received from the Department of Municipal Affairs which contained a certified copy of Order in Council Number 742/59 authorizing the transfer of certain lots to the City of Lloydminster from the Municipal District of Vermilion River No. 71. The Order is effective as from January 1, 1959, and deals specifically with lots H and J, plan 5464HW, lot 12 and easterly 55-feet of lot 12, in block 49, plan 330HW. A proposal put forward by the Director of Town and Rural Planning to the effect that the Council pass a zoning by-law covering the territory immediately adjacent to the City of Lloydminster on the Alberta side was received by the Council. The Council looked upon this suggestion favourably and instructions were given to approach the representatives of the City of Lloydminster and representatives of the Provincial Planning Advisory Board of the Department of Municipal Affairs in an effort to arrange a joint meeting between these two parties and representatives of the Council of the M. D. of Vermilion River in order to draw up a satisfactory by-law for the purpose of controlling development in the area around the City of Lloydminster. Motions were passed by the Council approving the transfer of small parcels of land on the north-west 33-49-1 with as outlined in a submission of the Provincial Planning Advisory Board under date of May 20, 1959, and the transfer of a small part of the S.W. 17-53-5-w 4th, as outlined by the Provincial Planning Advisory Board under date of May 22, 1959.

BUSINESS LICENSES GRANTED

The approval of the Council was given to the establishment and operation of certain small businesses throughout the municipality, i.e., Auto body Repair Shop in Paradise Valley and a stockyards in McLaughlin. Council considered representation by a ratepayer concerning the obtaining of a title by metes and bounds description of a piece of land on which their buildings had been located for some years, but for which a title had not been obtained. As survey fees were considered to be prohibitive in this case it was decided to give support to the efforts to obtain a title by the metes and bounds methods. Two by-laws were passed by the Council — one concerning the leasing of Tax Recovery Land and the other concerning the sale of a lot in the hamlet of Clandonald.

ASK ROAD TO CAMPSITE

A delegation composed of eight men was received by the Council to discuss the provision of an access road to a camp operated by a fraternal order within the boundaries of the Municipal District on a lake within the Municipality. Information was given to the Council that the camp was operated during 1958 for three weeks at which time 200 boys and girls attended. It was put forward that road access to the camp was the big problem and it must loom large to the sponsoring body in considering the number of people attending a camp such as that which was operated in 1958. Information was given to the Council to the effect that large buildings were required to operate the camp successfully during 1959 and that the present trail into the campsite was too narrow to allow access to the camp for these large buildings. The date of the opening of the camp was tentatively set for the first week in July of 1959 and was the plan of the committee to operate two camps his year. It was given as information that it was the understanding of the committee that grants were available from the government for the purpose of providing roads into camps of this nature. A committee of the Council was appointed to look into the matter of providing immediate access into the present camp and also to consider access to a public beach which might be established under the auspices of the Department of Economic Affairs of the Government of Alberta if the beach facilities potential proved acceptable.

MOBILE HOME LICENSES

Mr A. B. Wood and A. R. Kay, F. Martin and Mrs. C. Barfett were appointed as issuing officers and inspectors of Mobile Home Licenses under the terms of Section 73 of the Municipal Districts Act and in conjunction with By-law 1085 of the M. D. of Vermilion River No. 71 which provides for the licensing of Mobile Homes by the local governing body.

Correspondence was made available to the Council concerning the Vermilion School Trustees' Association Convention to be held at the Kitscoty School Auditorium on June 25, 1959, commencing at 10:30 a.m. and continuing throughout the day. Members of the Council were cordially invited to attend and take part in the discussions.

Instructions were given to advertise the NE 11-51-7 with consideration for them and containing approximately 130.3 acres as being available for purchase and that tenders would be accepted for the purchase of this parcel.

DAMAGE CLAIMS

Certain damage claims were reviewed by the Council and it was decided to accept no responsibility for them and instructions were given to notify the persons concerned accordingly. A committee composed of Councillors Anderson and Wheat and the Secretary were appointed to meet with Messrs. Brownlee, Brownlee and Fryett concerning a damage claim which was pending against the Municipality.

Correspondence from Imperial Oil Limited concerning the use of metering devices in the matter of delivering fuel oil requirements was presented to the Council. Mr. N. L. Huff, the sales representative of Waiward Oils Ltd., attended the Council meeting to present his company's quotations covering fuel oil requirements for the M. D. for the present year. Mr Huff covered briefly the history of his company and the description of fuels and services available to the M. D. His talk proved very interesting to the Council.

REVIEW SAFETY CONFERENCE

The evening safety conference presented by the Workmen's Compensation Board at Vegreville Town Hall on Thursday May 28, 1959, attended by some 23 heavy equipment operators now in the employ of the M. D. was reviewed in the council. The reaction of the men attending the meeting was very favorable and it was felt that much valuable information was disseminated at the meeting.

EVALUATE RAT CONTROL CONFERENCE

The regional Rat control conference held in Lloydminster on June 2 and 3, 1959 was evaluated by the council and the consensus of opinion was to the effect that it was an excellent conference with a remarkably good exchange of ideas. The fact that Saskatchewan Municipal Districts were represented at the conference was gratifying. It was felt that Saskatchewan Municipalities would co-operate wholeheartedly with the officials on the Alberta side of the boundary in the control of these pests.

BUCK GODWIN APPOINTED WEED INSPECTOR

Information that Buck Godwin had been appointed by the Department of Agriculture, Government of the Province of Alberta to act as regional weed supervisor in this area during the summer was made available to the council. The weed inspectors report covering his activities during the month of May was made available to the council as was the road superintendent's report covering the same period.

GENEROUS ROAD GRANTS

Information was brought to the council to the effect that the Alberta Government [illegible] appropriation of $[illegible] 1959 [illegible] had been [illegible] the [illegible] Road Appr[illegible]

A [illegible] the work [illegible] plished this season to date was conducted by the council and it was felt that real progress had been made. Instructions were given to inform the new foreman that their presence at each council meeting was highly desirable so that problems could be discussed between the foreman and the council. This may result in a more efficient completion of the road work.

Mr Van Wageningen attended the June 9 meeting to discuss methods of maintaining roads. His suggestions concerning the use of heavy maintainers were given close attention by the council.

Constable Gordon Faulkner of the Onion Lake detachment of the R.C.M.P. was unable to attend to give his talk on safety, so it was decided to see if he could be present later on in the year.

It was announced that the next meeting would be held in the Tulliby Lake Central school on Monday evening, July 20th with Mr Paul Stepa of Elk Point as guest speaker. His topic will be "The Welfare of Hired Help". Mr. Geo. Kinch will convene the meeting.

National Farm Safety Week Aims To Reduce Toll of 148 Lives Lost in 1958

One hundred and forty-eight Alberta farm residents lost their lives in accidents of all kinds last year. Statistics would indicate the toll will be higher this year.

In an attempt to arrest what Neil Perkins, Alberta's farm safety director, calls these "needless killings," safety organizations from coast to coast will join in the coming week in National Farm Safety Week.

Aim of the week, which has been endorsed by Prime Minister Diefenbaker and other leading national figures, is to show farmers from coast to coast that common sense will reduce the toll.

"In talking to many accident victims" Mr Perkins said, "there always are comments like these: "I became so exasperated I threw caution to the winds," or "I know I should have turned the power off, but I tried to save a moment" or even, "I was really tired, but I wanted to finish the last few rounds."

The Safety Director added "Neither the injured nor the dead would have been 'accident' victims if they had exercised some common sense."

Of the 148 farm residents who met accidental deaths last year, 51 were under 19 years of age. 25 of them were under nine. Thirty seven of them were under 60, while the remaining 60 were between 19 and 59, according to figures compiled by the Alberta Safety Council. At least 60 times the fatality total were maimed.

The week, which is designed around the slogan, "Safety Makes Sense," is sponsored by provincial safety councils, farm organizations, and the Canadian Federation of Farm Equipment dealers.

More people vacation in July, August and September than during any other three-month period of the year.

Electricity Is Fast Becoming A New Safety Risk on the Farm

Electrical accidents are becoming a major threat on the Alberta farm.

With more and more of the nation's farms being electrified, new problems are cropping up, the Alberta Safety Council reported this week in conjunction with National Safety Week.

Improper installation of electrical equipment, careless use of electrical apparatus and defective power machines all add up to make electricity on the farm a hazard — if it is abused.

ELECTRICITY KILLS

Unsafe practices are the leading cause of these accidents according to the Council. Its studies show defective equipment and working under hazardous conditions also contribute to the increasing number of accidents.

YOU CAN HELP

The Council lists these suggestions for cutting down electrical accidents:

1. Have extinguishers for electrical fires handy and in working condition at all times.
2. Be sure all electrical equipment is installed by a trained electrician and properly maintained.
3. Be adequately protected in case lightning strikes. And learn what precautions to take during an electrical storm.
4. Keep motors around the farm clean and in proper working order.
5. See that electrical appliances are properly grounded and that circuits are not overloaded.
6. Above all, don't take chances with electricity.

DOWTELL BULLETIN

At time of writing July 14 a good rain is certainly needed to help the crops and gardens.

The last meeting of the Leafers' club was held at the home of Mrs. McGaughey. It was planned to have the annual picnic at the Vermilion Park. The next meeting, which will be the August one will be held at the home of Mrs. Bert Gould in the form of an afternoon tea. Everybody is welcome. A small fee will be charged. Keep the date in mind folks, Aug. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams went to Edmonton recently to meet their nephew G. Williams from Pitt Meadows, B.C.

Three groups of men recently worked on the entire phone line. We are sure folks our line is now in first class condition.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Repp were guests for supper at the home of Isabell and Jim, the occasion being Mrs. Repp's birthday, July 4th.

Miss Patsy Carey is enjoying a holiday at St. Paul.

Miss P. Stecher enjoyed a few days at Lloydminster and Bill Stecher spent a few days visiting relatives at Marshall, Sask.

The Harrison family were pleased to have Mr. G. Shoenberger of Fort St. John visit them Sunday. The trip was made by plane.

Mr. and Mrs. Stecher and family were noticed driving a nice new car.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Saunders and family of Edmonton spent a few days recently visiting at the Robinson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Caro and Jack of Edmonton visited over the week end at the Williams' home.

Congratulations Mrs. Wallington on your good fortune.

Noticed around. Quite a few journeying north to the lakes to fish: Mr. and Mrs. Pierman visiting at the home of the writer, Mr. and Mrs. J. Semeniuk going to Myrnam to attend a wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison back from their holiday; Kathy McGaughey spending a few days in the hospital.

DR. DIDOW, ELK POINT TO CLOSE OFFICES FOR HOLIDAYS

Dr. D. D. Didow of Elk Point wishes to announce that his dental offices in Elk Point will be closed from July 11th to August 3rd. (1-3)

TULLIBY LAKE

Stanley Hayes visited brother Wesley for a few days and at the same time helped him do a lot of carpentry work in the basement.

Friends of Joyce Brown will be interested to know that she is now doing ministerial work down in the province of Quebec.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Larson and their family are visiting the Larson family and Parke connections. While here they attended the wedding of Elaine Larson and Bent Jensen.

After a stay of some three months in the district, Trevor Lee has returned to his home at Hanna.

Many local residents attended the Dominion Day sports held at Onion Lake.

After working for the past six months up in Edmonton Hector Benson has returned home to spend a couple of weeks with his family.

Our district was shocked to hear of the sudden passing of Mrs. Freddy Gardener down in Calgary. She had taken ill just a short time ago and her mother Mrs. Alec Nolin left immediately to see her. This was just a short while before her untimely passing. The condolences of the district go out to her many relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Coleman and Mrs. Leonie Nolin were on a recent outing to Meadow Lake. They saw and visited with several of their former friends up in that area and they also were able to see an afternoon performance of the Meadow Lake stampede.

Last week the Johnnie Kipps family moved into the house on the property of the late Mrs. A. A. Code.

Bobbie Sidener took his herd of bucking horses to Meadow Lake where they were used in the rodeo events of the stampede. Bobbie's horses will also be used at the Jack Fish Lake aqua-rodeo commencing July 15.

The Leonie Nolins have recommenced the job of finishing their new house. Raymond is putting up stoneboard etc. while Lorraine is taking care of the outside painting. Mr. Gunvick Rand has been supervising the building.

A fair sprinkling of Tulliby Lake-ites journeyed to Greentown on July 1 to witness the annual old timers' picnic. Judging by reports everyone seems to have had a most enjoyable time.

Gordon Coleman and a friend motored down to Saskatoon and took in the sights at the pioneer day opening show.

The district's congratulations are extended to Elaine Larson and Bent Jensen on their marriage in Lloydminster on July 4th.

WILDMERE WINKS

Heartfelt sympathy is extended to Mrs. Kehoe and family on the loss of a son and brother, Tony, as he was well known here. He often carried the mail when Mr. Tim Kehoe, his uncle, was mail carrier, and many a long cold trip he made with the team of horses. Even though the going was tough Tony had a smile and pleasant word for anyone he met on the trail. May God comfort his aged mother and sisters left to mourn his sudden passing.

Best wishes to Mrs. Luchyk who is in the Vermilion hospital for a speedy recovery.

Glad to see Mrs. T. Smith is feeling much better after her spell in the hospital. Also best wishes for continued improvement in health to Mrs. Cleland who has been in an Edmonton hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Howard and family went to Calgary to see the Stampede parade and from there intended to enjoy a holiday at some resort.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Osterberg and family enjoyed a few days holidays at [illegible] Lake where they did some fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cruthers and family of New Westminster arrived in Wildmere last Friday to visit his brother of Wildmere and sisters Mrs. A. Smith of Basswood, Mrs. J. Marfleet of Vermilion. On Sunday they all enjoyed a nice get together at the Vermilion park. Russell grew up in Wildmere and his wife, the former Beulah Nash, spent her childhood in Vanesti and Basswood. Everyone was very pleased to see them once more. They have four nice children, two boys and two girls.

On Tuesday of this week Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Garnett Sr. and son Roy leave by train from Wainwright on the first lap of their journey back on a visit to England. It is thirty years since they came to Canada and this is their first trip back. They sail from Montreal on July 17 on the "Ivernia" and plan to return in September.

Miss Judy Garnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Garnett, Jr., returned home on Saturday from Edmonton where she was visiting her grandmother and uncle, Mrs. George Dibben and Robert.

The Wildmere Curlers' picnic held on Friday, July 10, drew a nice crowd and a grand day was enjoyed. In baseball, Tolland took first with Buffalo Coulee second. There were several junior ball games too. Being a hot day lots of soft drinks and ice cream were consumed. The ladies did well in their lunch booth too. Bingo was played and a dance in the evening brought the pleasant day to a close. Martin's orchestra furnished the music and Chas. Sweeney was M.C. The management of the curling club heartily thank all those who helped to make their picnic a success.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. C. Hooker (nee Shirley Krushinsky) for a long and happily married life.

On Saturday Mr. R. Gilhome and daughter Elsie of Edmonton visited at the Garnett and Dibben homes in Basswood. They also brought along Mrs. T. Cairns of Vancouver who has been visiting them and also a little granddaughter Judy Garnett came back with them too. Mrs. Cairns visited at the Albert Holte home while here. They returned to Edmonton Sunday afternoon. It is nice to have a chat once more with these fine one time neighbors of ours.

Laurence and Bobby Graham are working near Strathmore and seem to like it there.

We had chats on Saturday with Mrs. Moore, Mrs. J. Wilson of town, Mrs. Merbach of Hazeldine, Mrs. Gould of Islay and many others.

EDMONTON — The Legislative Building here and its spacious grounds have never received such attention.

Everything is being prettied up within an inch of its life in preparation for a two-hour visit on July 21 by Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip.

Items

1. A fancy floral fountain is being built into the cavernous main rotunda of the building; another fountain is being built on the grounds near the point where the royal party will return to their train.

2. New concrete sidewalks have been built, and a new stairway installed for the royal visitors to walk from the Legislative library to the grounds.

3. Scars left on the ground by all this work have been covered up with newly-cut sod, and the sprinkler system is working day and night to keep the grass green; gardeners are falling all over each other giving flower beds, shrubbery and lawns that well-manicured look.

Meanwhile, invitations are going out to some 1,800 representatives of provincial organizations who will be guests of the government at an outdoor luncheon on the Legislative grounds.

IMPOUNDED CARS SOLD AFTER TWO MONTHS

Alberta's financial responsibility laws should be easier to administer under amendments to the Vehicle and Highway Traffic Act which went into effect the first of the month.

Under the old act, when police impounded a car after an accident the vehicle had to sit on a storage lot for six months before it could be sold. Under the new law, it can be released after two months if the owner doesn't produce proof of financial responsibility or otherwise reclaim it.

Officials found under the old laws that owners of impounded cars were letting them stand idle on the lots — at the low rate of 50 cents a day — until the last minute. Result was a pileup of impounded cars on storage lots and in garages.

What are the opposition political parties talking about since their resounding defeat in the June 18 provincial election?

Liberals are planning to gather at Lac La Biche August 1 to conduct a post-mortem on the election results. Lac La Biche is the home of Michael Maccagno, the lone Liberal left in the Legislature.

The C.C.F. party is considering a platform and getting ready to choose candidates for the next provincial election, expected in four years.

The Progressive Conservatives, meanwhile, are still stirred up about the action of the Edmonton-Strathcona P.C. Association in asking for the resignation of provincial leader Cam Kirby.

Kirby, on his return from eastern Canada, said the Strathcona Centre attitude is "not representative" of the thinking of Tories in other constituencies. Statements by some other Tory big wigs appeared to bear this out. But spokesmen for the Strathcona rebels and their sympathizers insist it will only be a matter of time before other constituency groups take similar action.

"Yes . . . I Condemned THE CATHOLIC CHURCH"

And you would, too," wrote a non-Catholic recently, "if all the things I heard about it were true.

"For years, I kept hearing that the Catholic Church was opposed to the Bible and tried to suppress it. I was told that the Church had changed Christ's teaching and practiced pompous pagan forms of worship. It was told to me that Catholics worship statues and images, and that the Catholic Church defied God's law and changed the Sabbath.

"But now I have learned that these stories and many others about the Catholic Church are not true — and never were."

Every day, thousands of our non-Catholic friends and neighbors are discovering, as this man did . . . that Catholic belief, worship and history are widely misrepresented and misunderstood.

That is why we publish these advertisements . . . and invite you to write for free explanatory pamphlets. We want you to know us as we are — not as false rumors and slanders represent us to be. We want you to know . . . if only for your own information . . . what the Catholic Church actually teaches, and what we Catholics actually believe.

This enables you to get authentic information about the Catholic Church — to investigate in the privacy of your own home. Then even though you may not agree with Catholic beliefs and practices . . . you will at least understand them. Only then will you be able fairly and in good conscience to judge our Faith and what it is founded upon.

But more than truth and fairness are involved. For if it is true . . . as we claim it is . . . that the Catholic Church is the Church established by Christ, it is vital to your salvation that you investigate the genuineness of this claim. That is why we publish these messages. That is why we are happy to send you . . . without cost or obligation . . . authentic information about the Catholic religion on which to form your judgment.

Free

An interesting pamphlet to read in the privacy of your home. It explains Catholic teaching on such matters as divorce . . . mixed marriages — gambling and drinking — why Catholics do not attend non-Catholic worship — and answers many of the false rumors you have heard about the Catholic Church. No cost — no obligation. Write today — ask for Pamphlet No. [illegible]

SWIMMER'S ITCH

Since this is the time for "swimmer's itch," it is well to have some information about the condition, its prevention and control. A number of placards containing protective measures to be adopted will be posted at the various lakes and resorts in our Health Unit area.

The medical term for "swimmer's itch" is a long one — schistosome dermatitis. It is caused by irritation of the skin by the larvae of schistosome worms which have completed their stages of development in a certain species of snail. These larvae are generally duck parasites of the genus, trichobilharzia, and are not known to mature and become worms in man.

It has recently been shown that the itch is a sensitization phenomenon since the initial infection produces only very small non-raised lesions. In persons sensitized by repeated infection the penetration of the larvae produces in about 12 hours raised pimples about three to five m.m. in diameter. The development of these pimples is associated with intense itching and in a heavy infestation the whole area of penetration may become swollen.

The infection is contracted by contact with water in ponds and lakes while swimming, fishing, or washing. The larvae are short lived but are liberated daily in enormous numbers by snails which are essential hosts for development of the early stages of the parasite.

Infestations along beaches can be controlled by elimination of the snails with copper carbonate and other molluscacides. Treatment of a lake presents a special problem because of the probable larvae drift. The cost might well make such a project impractical.

Wiping off vigourously with a towel immediately after swimming has proved of good value in preventing a heavy infestation and your doctor can prescribe various anti-pruritic agents for relieving the itch. Another preventative measure is to take a shower bath on emergence employing non-infested water, followed by vigourous rubbing with a towel. Avoid waters known to [illegible]

CHED Scatters Plates

MANNVILLE — Residents of Mannville were slightly startled when a silver airplane flew at an extremely low height over here Saturday, compared with the usual airplanes seen over the village. Reason for the circling many times around the village was seen when a number of paper plates were released from the plane, bearing the name of radio station CHED and containing a lucky number on it. These were to be taken to the [illegible] Exhibition and turned in for a prize. The young folks around town were quite thrilled with the publicity stunt.

Vermilion and District Citizens Attend Royal Luncheon Tuesday

Queen Elizabeth looked very much the Queen at the Royal Luncheon tendered her and Prince Philip on the beautiful grounds of the Alberta Parliament buildings at 12:30 noon on Tuesday. Attending the luncheon were many invited guests including the following Vermilion and district citizens: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Cornish of Mannville; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Prill, Mannville. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew B. Wood of Dewberry; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mead, Vermilion; Mr and Mrs. D. Reginald Mitchell, Vermilion, and Ashley H. Cooper, M.L.A., Vermilion constituency

No more striking nor beautiful setting could have been chosen for the state luncheon. The Queen and Prince Philip made their appearance by walking down a specially constructed stairway on the south side of the parliament building. Following the luncheon they circulated freely throughout the grounds.

Vermilion Citizens See The Queen At Wainwright

Many residents of Vermilion and district took advantage of the visit of Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth and His Highness Prince Philip, in Wainwright on Tuesday last and drove over to see them. A tour was arranged also for members of Cub, Scout, Guide and Brownie groups to view the Royal Couple.

At 5:10 p.m. the royal train stopped at the railroad crossing near the army depot in Wainwright, where the Queen and Prince Philip were greeted and taken to an open convertible in which they rode through the streets of Wainwright escorted by officers of the R.C.M.P. During their ten minute tour of the town they made a circle of the main streets, coming back to their train which had by then moved forward to the C.N. depot.

The Cubs, Scouts, Brownies and Guides, in uniform, were lined up along the sidewalks, between the Royal Couple and the crowds.

The Queen, dressed in a blue ensemble, smiled and nodded graciously at the people, seeming especially interested in the youngsters in uniform. Prince Philip gave an appearance of friendliness as he greeted the crowd.

The royal train left immediately the Queen and the Prince had mounted the rear platform from where they waved goodbye.

As well as the youth organizations, there were many other children from town and district in Wainwright for the occasion. Some Vermilion adults noticed in attendance were Mayor and Mrs. M Hill, Mrs E. Corley, Mrs. J Kneale, Mrs. S. C Heckbert, Mrs. J Robson, Mrs. Ben King, Mrs. Alex Callas, Mrs Fred Stewart, Mrs. F Bottorff, Mrs. Gordon Park, Mrs. Cliff Reid, Mrs. Nick Kowalchuk, Mrs. Vic Rogers, Mrs. Geo. Seitz, Mrs. Clendenning, Mrs. Geo. Purvis and Mr and Mrs. Bill Purvis of Islay.

Fair Away To Good Start

Mile-Long Parade Best on 'B' Circuit; Light Horse Entries Set New Record; 100 Young People at Fair Camp

Vermilion's big annual event, the three-day fair, got away to a good start on Thursday and runs through Saturday night, the last item on the program being the draw for the Kinsmen car, a Volkswagen purchased from the local dealer Duke's Sales and Service in front of the grandstand. The [illegible] was claimed to be the best ever and outstanding among parades in B class fair towns.

The fair has an outstanding display of high quality livestock, drawn from widely scattered points and judges claim that the quality of the stock compares most favorably with that on display at class A fairs. More than one hundred light horses are competing for numerous trophies and such notable groups as those of Tony Ziegler, the Briercrest stables and the MacDonald family of Edmonton are receiving plenty of competition from local and district horses which have shown vast improvement over the past few years.

The display building is replete with interesting displays of modern living and the exhibit halls are jammed with ladies' work and the work of various school divisions in the north-eastern part of Alberta. Parents and others are cordially invited to see the showing of one thousand entries in the Junior Fair section.

Vermilion Fair summer camp, held at the V. S. A. has an attendance of just over 100, thus making it the largest camp of any fair in Canada. Conditions under which the young people live and take instruction from the school staff are par excellence and all are enjoying the experience. The young people will be guests of the Fair board for the remainder of the fair, having been special guests at the Thursday evening grandstand show which they quite evidently appreciated.

The new midway, coming from Lennox, South Dakota, has brought praise from those interested and the Thursday crowd made good use of the facilities. The midway is travelling by truck and these vehicles, together with a number of house trailers used for accommodation of the personnel made quite a small city in themselves.

The grandstand attractions are proving popular and the Rhapsody in Smoke by a clever artist is drawing generous applause. The greyhounds in a clever act and the famous Erickson troupe with breathtaking stunts on the platform, combined with other acts go to make up an excellent program. Shows will be staged Friday afternoon at 2:00, Friday evening at 7 and 9 and on Saturday at 2 and 7 with a second evening show if attendance warrants. The livestock parade will be held as the first item on the Friday 7 p.m. show. When the stands have been filled for the first evening show the gates will be closed and the second shows where it is deemed necessary, will start promptly at 9 o'clock. The later show is becoming very popular due to the improved lighting effects after dark.

Those who have not yet seen the gala 1959 program are very cordially invited to take in the fair Friday and Saturday and help establish a record attendance for the Vermilion fair which has been for more than half a century an outstanding event in the area.

Drive-In Theatre To Open July 31st

Another new and much anticipated business has been added to the thriving community of Vermilion. The management of the new drive-in theatre is announcing in this week's advertising columns of the [illegible] the opening date as Friday, July 31st.

Many people have noticed the activity taking place for some time now on the land just west and north of the West Point service station and have seen the large movie screen lying on the ground. It has been a matter of speculation and wonder as to how and when that huge screen would be raised into position. It will be in place, along with considerable other equipment, and ready to provide entertainment for the public on Friday, July 31st.

You are invited to drive out and look around and ask questions. The feature programs will be announced in the next issue of your Standard, so watch for the listing of attractions.

The gate will open on July 31st at 7:30 p.m. and the feature starts at 9:00 p.m. Prizes will be given to lucky ticket holders on opening night and bingo games have been arranged to make this a gala evening.

Vermilion Girls In Fastball Playoffs

The Vermilion Cardinals will be playing in the Intermediate "B" Ladies' Provincial playoffs, north section, but because they get a bye in the first round, Aug. 9 and 16, a home and home, best two of three series, they won't be playing until Aug 22. They will be competing against the winner of the Kitscoty-Devon game, and the winner of the Fort Saskatchewan-Beverly Bay Drug duel in a round robin double knockout to take place at Vermilion Sunday, Aug. 23.

The winning team in the North section playoff will meet the top teams from the Grande Prairie district and the Calgary district, in a final series to be run off in Grande Prairie in September

Watch for further announcements in the Standard re the play-off games, then get out and root for the hometown gals and have a good time as well.

Park Crowd Enjoys Pipe Band Music

The large crowd at the park on Sunday afternoon, enjoyed a concert given by the 'A' Coy, L.E.R pipe band with Bob Allan as master of ceremonies. The band leader is Pipe-Major Rod MacMillan.

Pipe Major MacMillan has been training five girls and these young ladies gave solo numbers as well as playing in the band. The program too contained several solo numbers which was much to the liking of the crowd judging by the applause

In the evening a very large crowd watched the movie program produced by Milo Fleming.

Best Parade Since Golden Anniversary Opens Vermilion Fair

Led off by the Vermilion Pipe band the annual fair was away to one of the best starts in its history this Thursday morning when the well over a mile long parade wended its way through the crowded streets of the town and then over to the fair grounds lined with spectators auguring well for the success of the annual exhibition. It is certainly assured that the opening day will be a record breaker from the standpoint of attendance

Two bands, the Vermilion Pipers and the Cold Lake R.C.A.F. took part in the parade as well as a number of local orchestras. A novel touch was the float of the Clandonald-Landonville Anglican church with the young members of the church [illegible] singing hymns accompanied by organ music.

Winners of the various classes were:

ORGANIZATIONS

1 Rotary Club; 2. Kinsmen Club. Honorable mention, Canadian Legion, Britannia Rebecca Lodge.

RURAL ORGANIZATIONS

1 Elk Point Board of Trade, 2. Clandonald-Landonville Anglican float. These were two exceptional entries.

COMMERCIAL

1 Tom Boy store 2. Craig's; Honorable mention, Long's; Renaud & Casey, Beebe's; the Brunswick hotel.

Taking part in the parade were fifteen commercial floats, 15 local organizations, 20 decorated bicycles, several young clowns, fifty horses, one 6-horse team, one 4-horse team, two jackasses.

Ken Greenwood was convenor of the parade committee and [illegible] marshal

Home Building In Vermilion Sets Fast Pace For 1959

Home building in Vermilion is setting a fast pace for 1959 and the end of the construction season this fall will see at least 20 new homes added to those in the town. Last year 31 homes were constructed and in 1957 seventeen houses were built

Electors To Discuss County System For Vermilion River M.D.

Electors and citizens generally will discuss the county system of local government at a public meeting to be held in the school auditorium at Kitscoty on Tuesday, August 4th at 7 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend

Under the county system all municipal government is vested in one body instead of having a school division board and municipal council as at present. There are at present eleven county systems of government in Alberta

The annual visit to Alberta has become a well-established reward for outstanding achievement in Montana 4-H Club work. The party were guests at the Calgary Stampede en route to Vermilion and after participating in the week-long program at the school, embarked on a camping trip through Jasper and Banff parks on the return journey.

This visit is officially returned by a group of Alberta 4-H Club members similarly selected for proficiency in 4-H Club activities in this province who go to Montana for a State-wide congress at Bozeman in August. Last year, Margaret Finlay of Mannville was chosen to be a member of the Alberta delegation. Winners of the trip for 1959 have not yet been named.

Biggest Ditsrict Event in Full Tide

The biggest event of the year for this district the three-day exhibition, is now under full tide which will not ebb until midnight Saturday. The event has taken months of planning and is well worthy of the attendance of every person within a very wide area. It is worthy because it is decidedly educational in a very entertaining way. The best of livestock can be seen and studied, the displays in the main buildings always present something new, the commercial exhibit brings latest in machinery, trucks, cars and enlighten the prospective purchaser as to features he should expect and look for, while school work and handicraft exhibits are always interesting and worthwhile.

In addition, grandstand attractions are high class entertainment gathered from all parts of this continent and Europe as well.

In the midway you will find new and exciting rides and shows to make this a real local outing for the family and attend the last two days of the Vermilion fair.

Small Fry Tractor Operators Big Problem

Should a boy be allowed to drive a tractor?

This is a problem which has been bothering farm safety experts for some time.

A report from the Alberta Safety Council shows that each year more fatal tractor accidents occur in the 10-14 age group than in any other age category.

"This seems to point up the fact that young people who don't know how to handle tractors are being allowed to operate them," the Council said.

SAFETY TRAINING

"If it is absolutely necessary for a youth to drive a tractor, he should be thoroughly trained in all phases of tractor safety before he takes over the wheel," the Council warned.

A teen-ager — or anyone who operates a tractor for that matter — should be aware of the need for regular safety inspections, should know the proper way to handle a tractor in any situation or on any terrain and should use extreme caution at all times, the Safety Council added.

CHILDREN KILLED RIDING

The Council said the majority of children in the 4 to 9 year old group killed in tractor accidents last year were riding a tractor . . . not operating one — just along for the ride.

A farmer recently told one safety official, "I would rather hear a child cry because he was refused a tractor ride, than to hear him cry because he got hurt riding one."

"Not enough Alberta farmers have realized the value of this attitude," Bill Perkins, the Council's Farm Safety director said.

In general, accidents with farm machinery are decreasing, the Council's report showed, but tractor accidents are on the upswing.

"It is alarming," Mr. Perkins said, "and the only way farm parents can lick the rising tractor accident rate is to use every safety precaution available."

What Makes Babies Cry? Some Answers:

"Nothing seems to shatter the peace and tranquillity of the home more than the infant who cries," says Dr. Robert Johnson, of the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, writing in the current issue of Health Magazine, official publication of the Health League of Canada.

He says that parents suffer from too much and varying advice, and that the whole problem boils down to the simple fact that most parents do not know when they have done all they can for their infant.

Dr. Johnson points out that infants have only eight needs which can be satisfied through the [illegible] of another human being. Here is his working list:

1. Protection from injury.
2. Shelter.
3. Clothing.
4. Physical comfort (wet or soiled).
5. Security.
6. Thirst.
7. Hunger.
8. Companionship.

In our society the first three are the responsibility of the parents or persons in charge of the child, says Dr. Johnson, and they are nearly always provided in any home.

There remain five things a parent can offer the crying child:

1. Physical comfort — if the infant is wet or soiled, change him.
2. Security — pick him up and cuddle him two minutes.
3. Thirst — offer him a drink of water.
4. Hunger — offer the infant a feeding.
5. Companionship — play with him if he so desires.

When the parent has tried all of these things, it is time for him or her to sit back and say, "I have done what I can for you as a fellow human being. If your troubles are beyond this, I cannot help you, and must decide whether to let you settle your problems yourself or call someone more skilled to ascertain if you are ill."

Dr. Johnson emphasizes that the child should be attended to promptly, and after the parent has fulfilled the basic steps in caring for the infant, and when the infant left alone fails to settle, then expert advice from the family physician should be sought.

CANNING TIPS

Not everyone is fortunate enough to have a deep freeze so there are many homemakers who must still depend on canning as a method of food preservation. Here are some helpful hints.

Jars should not be packed too tightly as foods expand during processing. Glass sealers for fruits and vegetables should be filled with liquid to within one-half inch of the top except in the case of corn and peas which require one inch head space.

Processing should begin as soon as jars are filled. Begin to count the time when water reaches a 'bumping boil'. The boiling water bath should cover the tops of the jars by at least two inches. This helps prevent liquid loss from the jars.

Fruit should not be over-processed "just to make sure". This may cause fruit to float and will turn peaches, pears and apricots brown.

Sealers should not be inverted after removing from the processing bath. This may break the seal.

FREEZER FACTS

Fruits for the deep freeze should be prepared in small quantities especially those fruits which darken readily.

To prevent darkening of fruit such as peaches and apricots, ascorbic acid is effective. It may be added to the syrup or if dry pack is used dissolve it in a little cold water and coat fruit before adding sugar. Drug stores usually carry this. Buy ¼ ounce for about 40 pints of fruit. If using dry sugar pack, use ¼ tsp Vitamin C dissolved in ¼ cup water for four cups fruit.

FROZEN JAM

Use some of your fruit this year to make frozen jam. This jam has a fresher fruit flavor and better color. It is made without boiling. It will keep six months in a freezer. Write in for our "Frozen Jam" pamphlet today.

WILD FRUIT

If you enjoy wild fruit but are lacking recipes which use them you may obtain our bulletin "Recipes for Using Wild Fruits".

Diary of a Vagabond

BY DOROTHY [illegible]

Maybe it was the housewife who dashed from her kitchen door waving her dish towel as the Royal Train passed by, or it could have been the little girl who held her puppy on top of her head so that it too could see her Queen, that made the lump come up in my throat.

I am not usually given to emotionalism when on an assignment but the spontaneous fealty and national display of loyalty as the Royal Train [illegible] through the little villages and towns along the way gave me a new conception of my fellow Canadians' attitude toward Royalty.

While thousands packed the streets of the built-up areas perhaps one of the most impressive displays of homage to Elizabeth Regina was the shirtless farmer who stood on the seat of his tractor amid a field of ripening grain and waved his sweaty cap with frantic enthusiasm. As we progressed over the hundreds of miles it was not unusual to see a provincial policeman climb from his cruiser at a deserted level crossing and stand at salute until the train passed by.

I was touched by the many expressions of welcome home owners beside the tracks had invented. One shabby little hut had a long row of coffee cans painted a bright flag blue. In each one was a single red or white petunia. On a long, thin fishing pole a tiny Union Jack fluttered in tatters.

In another neat little garden patch an imaginative tenant had constructed a miniature ferris wheel. Each of the tiny seats was painted red, white and blue and in them grew a profusion of red and white flowers. But I think the bravest and in a way the most pathetic attempt at decoration was the huge factory where some worker had pasted tiny Union Jack stickers all over the windows of the third storey. I didn't miss this patriotic gesture and I am sure the Queen didn't either.

There was time to see these little human interest [illegible] of the Royal Tour while the train was in motion, but let it pull to a stop for a few moments and bedlam [illegible] loose in the press parlor car. Cameras were grabbed and polite regard for the feminine sex was completely ignored. It was every man for himself in the wild scramble for a vantage point. The lucky ones were those who left the train first or those who could run the fastest.

During the pull through central Ontario, taxi bills mounted like the national debt. One after another of the reporters intent on getting a new angle, missed the train and had to pick it up at the next station after a wild ride in a cab. Fortunately Her Majesty had requested a slow ride between stations in order that she might wave to her subjects who lined every country road. Otherwise there might have been a great gap in coverage for some of the papers represented by those sprinting, sweating, swearing newsmen.

During one of these scheduled stops a tall gangling bleached blonde put her swollen feet on an empty seat beside her and announced she intended to "sit this one out". She was hardly the movie director's idea of a woman reporter out to get a scoop or die in the attempt. After all, she reasoned, the Queen wore the same [illegible] all day, said practically the same thing to each mayor in each town, accepted a bouquet of flowers from a small child, waved to her subjects as she drove by in a fast-moving car and returned to the train. Why should she waste her breath and subject her swollen feet to some Red may have taken a pot shot at her, and I'm not there to [illegible] the facts'" Just as she had about convinced herself that an atomic attack had happened while she slept on the job, the train began to roll again.

When a little more than the scheduled time had elapsed for the stop she awoke with a start from her fitful dozing. "What's happened, where's the Queen, why isn't she back [illegible] train?" rolled from her [illegible] in quick succession. She then grabbed the porter by the shoulders, [illegible] him soundly and demanded "What's the delay? My G—, the Queen of England may have broken her leg or taken a pot shot at her and I'm not there to get the facts." Just as she had about convinced herself that an atomic attack had happened while she slept on the job, the train began to roll again.

Such is the nervous, sometimes almost hysterical condition newshounds of the daily papers whip themselves into in an effort to bring a report of the tour to their readers. Perhaps, if some of them have been overly imaginative sometimes almost cruelly critical, stress can be blamed.

I was glad mine was a feature writing job with no daily deadline to make. I could sit back and relax in the handsomely appointed car, relish the superb [illegible] and enjoy the scenery that greeted the Queen's eyes too, fifteen cars behind ours. too fifteen cars behind ours.

4-H ACHIEVEMENT

Miss Linda Stepanoff of the Paradise Valley Garden Club representing the 4-H homemaking clubs in the Vermilion-Lloydminster area placed 2nd in the Northern Alberta 4-H Public Speaking contest at the Edmonton exhibition. Miss Miriam Williams of Durness 4-H Beef club, representing Agricultural clubs also competed. Both of these young ladies are to be congratulated for an outstanding accomplishment. Linda received a pen and pencil set and trophy for second place in the contest.

The Marwayne 4-H Clothing club entered an eye-catching Thematic display which must have placed high as many fair visitors commented on the attractiveness of the entry.

ALGAE POISONING

Two cases of cattle poisoning are reported from [illegible] and Ponoka [illegible] drinking slough water containing a toxic algae. Small lakes and dugouts can be cleared of algae by the administration of a blue stone treatment. Anyone interested in clearing algae from dugouts or small lakes may receive the information upon request from the D.A. office.

HAY

Should you have more hay than you can possibly use this year don't be alarmed. Put it up. The hay situation on the farms in the Vermilion and Lloydminster areas could just be worse than last year. Anyone with hay for sale would be wise to list it at the M.D. or D.A. offices.

CATTLE TATTOOING

Mr. Joe Kallal, Livestock fieldman, Alberta Department of Agriculture, urges all breeders, large and small, to be careful about tattooing. Many animals were rejected at bull sales this spring because the tattoo could not be read. It is also impossible to put a bull through Policy 'A' under which a farmer is eligible for a 20% grant in the purchase of a bull unless the tattoo can be read. A tattoo is always read from left to right and top to bottom when facing the animal regardless of the ear assigned by the Livestock Records Office.

V. S. A.

The Vermilion School of Agriculture was a hive of activity from July 6 to 18. One hundred and fifty 4-H efficiency winners per week from north and central Alberta were the cause of this activity. A week at the camp is undoubtedly an education as in the short lapse of a few hours Wednesday evening a public speaking contest, a fashion parade and a soft ball game were taken in. If your children are members of a 4-H club a little more encouragement and support at home may just make them do a better job next year and receive this award.

SCHOLARSHIPS

August 15th is the deadline for many of the scholarships applications so you still have time to send yours in. These scholarships are provided to assist young people to attend the Vermilion School of Agriculture or the School at Olds. Most of the bursaries are valued at around $100 and are awarded on the basis of financial need and academic standing. Application forms are available from this office.

Lillian Misick, Don Klutz Wed In Double-Ring Ceremony

On June 10th, 1959, Lillian Adeline Misick, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Misick, became the bride of Victor Klutz, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Klutz.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at St. Olga's Greek Catholic Church at Vermilion. Mr. Dan Misick gave his daughter in marriage before an altar banked with spring flowers and vases of red roses. The pews were marked by miniature wedding bells and lily of the valley tied with white satin bows. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Father Cherkiawski.

BRIDAL GOWN OF IMPORTED LACE

The bride looked very charming in a gown of imported hand-clipped Chantilly lace by Katz combined with misty tulle over a nylon tulle ruffled skirt.

The magnificent lace panniers were accented by heart-shaped beaded motifs. The bodice was complemented by a Sabrina neckline and studded with seed pearls and sequins.

A cloud of French illusion formed her chapel veil, which was held in place by a regal queen's crown studded with sequins and pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Olga Mistal, sister of the groom, as matron of honour and Misses Adeline Chanasyk, Adeline Zuk and Lillian Bielech as bridesmaids. Miss Darlene Chanasyk was the flower girl and Harold Jaremco acted as ring bearer.

ATTENDANTS IN PINK AND BLUE

The matron of honour looked pretty in a dress of blue Alençon lace over taffeta, waltz-length with a bouffant skirt. Her hat was of nylon tulle in a matching blue and she carried a bouquet of apple blossoms.

The bridesmaids were identically dressed in gowns of pink lace over taffeta, waltz-length and bouffant skirts. The bodices had Sabrina necklines and were finished with cork satin cummerbunds at the waist. They wore pink pleated nylon headpieces and also carried bouquets of apple blossoms.

The little flower girl wore a dress of pink nylon and a headpiece of pink pleated nylon. Her flower basket was also arranged with apple blossoms and fern.

The groom was attended by [illegible] Peter Wasylik and Orest Misick. The ushers were [illegible] and Mr. Paul Chanasyk.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Misick chose a sheath dress of embroidered nylon in dusty rose complemented by a white hat, gloves and shoes. She wore a corsage of coral roses. The mother of the groom chose as her ensemble, a two-piece lace dress in dusty rose, adding white accessories and a corsage of pale pink roses.

[illegible]

A reception was held at the Elks hall for 800 guests where a turkey supper was served.

The bride's table was covered [illegible] centred with a four-tiered wedding cake. The hall was decorated with pink and white streamers and wedding bells which was a very effective background for the bridal party.

Rev. Father Cherkiawski was called upon to ask the blessing. Mr. Paul Mistal proposed the toast to the bride. The groom then with a few well chosen words, replied to the very fitting toast. At the close of the banquet, Mr. John David, a former principal of the bride, was called upon for a few words.

Mrs. Olga Mistal was in charge of the guest book for the evening. The bride and groom entertained at their wedding dance.

HONEYMOON AT GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

For travelling to Glacier National park, Montana, by car, the bride donned a two-piece sheath dress of pink polished linen. Her accessories were of white and she wore a corsage of white roses with her ensemble.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Klutz are making their home on the groom's farm north of Vermilion.

At the end of May, the Alberta police held 441 impounded cars, according to a report issued in June by the highways department.

During May, the police impounded 245 cars when the drivers failed to produce proof of financial responsibility or the required pink card, following an accident. In the same month, 263 vehicles were released.

Effective on July 1, new legislation passed at the spring session of the Alberta legislature went into operation. This permits police to release a vehicle after a two-month period, unless action is taken by a third party in that period. Under the old act, vehicles had to be held for the full six months.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear husband and father Lawrence James [illegible] who passed away July 20, 1958.

"After a lonely heartache
Many a silent tear,
But always a beautiful memory
Of one we loved so dear.
God saw the road was getting rough,
And the hill was hard to climb
So he closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered, 'Peace be thine'.
Peacefully sleeping, resting at last,
The world's weary troubles and trials are past.
In silence he suffered,
In patience he bore,
'Till God called him home to suffer no more.
Gone, to be with Christ our Saviour
In His presence evermore.
Waiting there to meet and greet us
Someday on that heavenly shore."

—Ever remembered and sadly missed by his loving wife and children.

NEWS from ISLAY

Mrs. Bagley and two children are now nicely settled in the little teacherage. Mrs. Bagley will teach in the primary room.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Waterfield and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harrison have returned from their trip by car into B.C. They travelled 4000 miles and visited the Kootenay and Okanagan Valleys. They stopped in at the church leadership school at Naramata and were piloted through all of it by the overseer, and his wife who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Law, one time residents of Vermilion. They went over the Princeton-Hope highway to Chilliwack and Vancouver, took a boat to the Island, then as far north as the road goes (Kelsey Bay), from there by boat "Princess Marguerite" to Seattle, then to Spokane, the Grand Coulee dam, Missoula, over Logan Pass, where snow 20 feet deep near the highway really cooled them off, into Glacier National park, through Waterton park to Lethbridge, the Frank slide, and on home, arriving home last Friday evening July 17. On their trip up Vancouver Island while trying to locate some relatives of the Harrisons, they stopped at a house to inquire and who do you think answered the door? Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilkinson, pioneers of the Vanesti district. What excitement there was! The travellers surprised the Capatos family at Penticton. We understand George was speechless. How is your voice now George? Next morning Mrs. Bothwell and Mrs. Millward (Clara), were invited over to the Capatos home for coffee, and what a surprise they too received. At Nanaimo, while getting gas, the owner noticed the Alberta license and on finding out the travellers were from Islay he said "Would you happen to know the Bill McRae's?" Mrs. McRae is my sister and we are expecting her in a few days for a visit." All the tourists report having had a real good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Hollington returned Monday night from a trip to the coast. They were not very favorably impressed with the summer climate there.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Moncrieff and son from Kamloops, B.C., are visiting his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Moncrieff and family here in Islay.

Mr. and Mrs. Raine and two children from Perdue, Sask., were visitors at the Teskey home and in Vermilion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw.

Shirley Van den Dolder and Cheryl King spent the week at the Whitney camp. The four Scouts in attendance there have now returned. Jack Teskey won his "Cook's" badge and Gerald Inman his "Honor" badge while there.

Several from here made the trip to Wainwright to see the Queen.

Some of us recently visited a few of the gardens in Islay and found them really beautiful. Mrs. Purner has tomato vines with many good sized tomatoes, the flowers are grand. Jack McNeeley has lovely flowers, the Hollington's flowers are grand too. You'd need a magnifying glass to find a weed in Mrs. Steinhauer's garden. All this despite the dry weather which has hindered growth.

If you haven't been notified, here is your notice. Members of the W.A. of United Church will meet at the church hall on Tuesday, July 28 in the afternoon to make sandwiches.

Mrs Buck from Meadow Lake, Sask. came to visit her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bolton.

Ralph Wilson Attends FUA Council Meeting in Ontario

Ralph Wilson, official delegate representing District No. 7, of the Farmers' Union of Alberta, returned this week from attendance at meetings of the Interprovincial Farm Union Council at Ontario Agriculture College in Guelph. The following is his report of the activities in connection with the council meetings:

The annual meeting of the IFUC was held at the Ontario Agriculture College at Guelph, from July 14 to 16.

In attendance were farm union officials from Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. Altogether about one hundred persons were present.

The objectives of the IFUC are: To co-ordinate the efforts of the provincial farm organizations and to acquaint the people of the various provinces with the particular problems of each.

REPORTS GIVEN

Ed Nelson, president of the FUA, reported on the NATO conference in London where he had represented western Canada.

A. P. Gleave, chairman of the IFUC, reported on the International Wheat Agreement meeting which he had attended in Geneva.

The meeting was addressed by A. H. Turner, vice-chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization board, J.B. Lemoine, president of L'Union Catholique des Cultivateurs of Quebec and G. F. Perkin, chairman Ontario Farm Products Marketing board, also spoke. A great deal of discussion was centred around these addresses.

HOG GRADING AND PRICING PROPOSALS

The proposed changes in hog grading and pricing were discussed. A three-man committee was named from the group to go across to Ottawa and meet with members from the Meat Packers' Council and the Federation of Agriculture. After discussing the matter with the packers, the delegates kept an appointment with Mr. Taggart, deputy minister of agriculture, and presented their views to him.

It might be added here that the meat packers' council had already submitted a proposed new plan for hog grading and pricing. Their plan called for:

1. A three dollar premium paid by government on grade A pigs.
2. Instead of B1, B2 and B3 there be only one grade of B pigs and no premium paid.
3. C pigs to be discounted a further 40c per 100 pounds.
4. Grade A pigs up to 150 pounds to be allowed ¼-inch less fat than at present.

According to actual test, if the packers' proposal was carried out, farmers would only receive a little over half as much money in government premiums as they do now.

The IFUC proposal was that:

1. They would accept the new grading system provided that a $3 premium (or near that figure) be paid on grade A's.
2. That the spread between A and B (on which no premium would be paid) be narrowed to 40c per 100 pounds.
3. That the spread between A and C remain the same as at present at $3 per 100 pounds.

It is expected that the new system of payment will be somewhere between these two plans.

Many resolutions were dealt with from the various provinces. The delegates voted in favor of co-ordinating efforts wherever possible with other farm groups, the press, labor groups and the Chambers of Commerce.

IMPRESSIVE SETTING AT O. A. C.

The Ontario Agriculture College was an ideal meeting place; fine dormitories and board accommodation, a rural atmosphere and a beautifully shaded campus.

Various teacher short courses, 4-H club meetings and Women's Institute meetings were being held at the same time as the IFUC Council. Eating together in the big college cafeteria gave many opportunities to meet and talk with people from different walks of life.

VISITED STRATFORD

When the meeting was finished on Thursday evening some of the farm group chartered a bus and drove to Stratford-on-Avon to see the Shakespearian play "As You Like It" in the new auditorium there. The setting of the park at Stratford is very beautiful. There are spacious lawns, shaded by huge hardwood trees, the Avon river flowing gently between green banks and swans swimming gracefully on the water.

TOUR MADE OF NIAGARA PENINSULA

Friday, the last day for the western delegates in Ontario, was a treat. They were guests of the International Harvester Company for the day. About sixty of the delegates were loaded into two buses and taken to Hamilton. There they went on a conducted tour through various factories. They saw iron ore being unloaded from ocean-going vessels, saw the iron being poured from the furnaces and the various casts being made. Before their eyes tractors and combines took shape along an assembly line.

They were shown binder twine being manufactured and were told that International Harvester Company owned the plantations where the jute was grown in Cuba.

After dinner which was served in the IHC cafeteria, the tour was taken down the Queen Elizabeth highway to Niagara. At Welland the bridge elevated to let an ocean-going ship pass through the canal right in front of them. They crossed the international bridge at Niagara and saw the falls from both sides.

On the way back to Toronto where they boarded the train for home they passed over the famous causeway across Lake Ontario at Hamilton.

Truly the east has many great and wonderful sights but we were glad to be going home.

This was a meeting that will not soon be forgotten. We had met and talked with many friendly people representing various occupations. We had an opportunity to broaden our scope of imagination and to further the usefulness of our organization.

In closing I would like to thank the Editor of the Standard for the very valuable space he has given for the above report.

Kill the Gossip

Prime Minister Diefenbaker would be prudent to take drastic action to check growing charges that political influence on federal contracts is reviving, advises The Financial Post. Whatever justification there may or may not be for them rumors are flying.

The process can be stopped by Mr. Diefenbaker making all his followers understand that his full wrath will descend on any one from the highest to the lowest who provides the slightest ground for future suspicion. For his own sake and his party's he needs to be ruthless. To be righteous isn't enough — the ruling party must be known to be righteous.

Of 25,616 fires in Ontario in 1958, 9,973 were caused by smokers' carelessness. Fires caused by electricity resulted in the biggest fire loss $3.2 million. Lightning caused 1,035 fires, spontaneous combustion 175, gas fired appliances caused only 151.

Evelyn Lamport Becomes Bride of Jack Clark At United Church

First United Church, Vermilion, was the scene of a pretty wedding on May 23rd when Evelyn Louise, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wes R. Lamport, became the bride of Jack William, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clark, all of Vermilion. Rev. C. W. MacKay performed the double-ring ceremony before the altar banked with wild cherry blossoms.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her brother Robert, looked charming in a floor-length gown of white net over satin which featured a white lace bodice and lily-point sleeves. Her only jewelry was a white crystal necklace, a gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of red American Beauty roses.

The two bridesmaids, Miss Margaret McGrath and Miss Teresa Pierce, were identically styled waltz-length gowns in shades of ice blue and coral respectively. They wore headpieces to match. Each one wore a crystal necklace, a gift of the bride. Little Miss Christie Bezairre acted as flower girl in a floor-length gown of pink nylon and Doyle Bezairre acted as the ring-bearer.

The groom was supported by his brother, Harold Clark and Jim Lamport, brother of the bride. Bill Lamport, brother of the bride, and Fred Martin, a cousin of the groom, acted as ushers.

Mr. Jack Brown was organist and Mr. John Webb as soloist, sang "The Wedding Prayer" during the signing of the register. Many flash and moving pictures were taken of the happy couple as they left the church amid a shower of confetti and best wishes of friends.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Lamport wore an afternoon dress of blue nylon, and a corsage of roses and lily of the valley. The groom's mother chose a beige dress in sheath style with blue accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for 150 guests in the basement of the church. The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake which had been beautifully decorated by Mrs. Olive Clark. Mr. Tom Watt proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom ably responded.

Miss Eleanor McGrath, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The happy couple left for Banff and Lake Louise and various points in B.C. on their honeymoon. For travelling the bride chose a blue-grey flecked suit with white accessories.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. Martin Selte and family, Vanesti; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Branblossom, Rocky Mountain House; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fulgham, Miss Gladys Clark, Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Cotter, Mannville; Mr. and Mrs. Don Nafziger, Mannville; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hoyhston, Vegreville; Mr. Fred Garland, Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, Dewberry; Bill Lamport, Innisfail; Jim Lamport, Calgary; Frances Postett, Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smedburg, Wainwright; Miss Enid Cooper, Wainwright.
